An Excellent Man Passes.

In Coshackton county, Ohio, on September 19, 1867, was born a babe who was destined to be one of the very best of citizens, and one of God's own gentlemen and a very true christian, Winifred H. Yonker. Mr. Yonker spent his boyhood days in his native state and when twenty-one years of age, came west and settled in Cass county, near where the new town of Union was just starting. Here he worked for a time and later on in 1899 was united in marriage with Miss Sarah Eaton, a daughter of the late Eli Eaton and wife. They made their home here until 1923 when they moved to Keith county, locating near Ogalala, where they made their home since, until his death, which occurred September 25, 1930, aged sixty-three years and seven days. Mr. Yonker leaves to mourn his departure the wife and six sons and two daughters, they being, Roy O., W. Eli, Laverne, Andrew, Jason and Lloyd, and the two daughters being Mrs. Stella Thacker, Mrs. Mary Peters. One brother, Elmer Yonker of Glenwood, Iowa, and one sister, Mrs. Emma Harrington of Seattle, Washington. Mr. Yonker united with the Baptist church in Union in the year 1895, and ever remained a devoted and faithful member and a true christian. One son and one daughter preceded the father to the other world. The body arrived in Union on Sunday, the funeral being held from the Baptist church and conducted by the Rev. W. A. Taylor, pastor of the church there at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, the interment being at the Scotia cemetery southeast of Union. Dan Porter had charge of the remains on the arrival and looked after the interment.

Does Fine With Feeding.

George Stites sometime since, purchased some cattle which he was able to secure worth the money, and feeding them just eighty days shipped them, 42 head in all, to Omaha and after having gotten them there received no offers for them on that day and was compelled to hold them over for the next when the supply was rather limited and received a very good offer for them and passed them on at a very fair profit for the feeding and trouble.

Visited His Friend.

D. Ray Frans was a visitor in Omaha on last Monday, called there to look after some business matters and while there went over to the Immanuel hospital to visit with his friend, Phil F. Rihn, and reports that gentleman getting along nicely and with the hopes that he may be able to return home at the end of this week or early the following.

Will Hold Rally Day.

The Bible school of the Baptist church will hold rally day at the church parlors on the coming Sunday, October 5th, when they will have a special program for the occasion. There will be no preaching and the time which is used for that service will be devoted to the Rally Day program. All are especially invited to come and enjoy the program and the excellent fellowship which will be the feature of the occasion.

Phillip F. Rihn Doing Nicely.

While P. F. Rihn is not able as yet to return home he is progressing very nicely, so well that Mrs. Rihn was able to return home and assist with the work at the store. His many friends are hoping that he may continue to progress and be able soon to return home.

Many Enjoy Coon Chase.

The coon chase which was held at the Old Settlers picnic grounds on last Sunday was well attended, some say by a larger crowd than on Old Settlers day, but we will not vouch for that. However, there were 46 bounds participating in the chase and more which did not enter. Someone facetiously said, there were enough to use all the trees in the park so that it was not necessary to tie the dogs to the same tree. Believe it or not, just as you like. Blue, the dog of Ben Martin was winner of the finals in which eight participating. Here he worked for a time and later on in 1899 was united in marriage with Miss Sarah Eaton, a daughter of the late Eli Eaton and his wife both had a dog at the chase. There will be a chase at Nehawka on October 12th, and another one at Tecumseh on October 5th and a final one for the fall at Talmage on November 11th.

Enjoy Picnic Dinner Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther J. Hall, of Snohomish, Washington, who have been visiting here for the past few weeks, and who formerly made their home here, having gone to the west some six or seven years ago, and are here visiting at this time. The dinner and picnic was held at the beautiful home of John N. Larsh where about sixty of their friends gathered with well filled baskets. A most pleasant time was had visiting and recounting events of the years gone by, and enjoying the day in a most pleasant manner.

Does Fine With Feeding.

George Stites sometime since, purchased some cattle which he was able to secure worth the money, and feeding them just eighty days shipped them, 42 head in all, to Omaha and after having gotten them there received no offers for them on that day and was compelled to hold them over for the next when the supply was rather limited and received a very good offer for them and passed them on at a very fair profit for the feeding and trouble.

Nebraska Pioneer Dies; Came to U. S. in 1885

Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson Passes Away Thursday Evening at Clarkson Hospital, Omaha

Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson was born in Low Blantyre, Lenark county, Scotland, December 24, 1876. She came to the United States with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hemphill on June 8, 1885, locating at Fairbury, Illinois, for two years, then they moved to O'Neill, Holt county, Nebraska where the father died, the mother and children returning to Scotland for two years, then back to America, locating on a farm in Wyoming precinct, a short distance north of this church, where she was married to Walter A. Johnson, Sept. 26, 1900 by Rev. Folsden.

They moved to Cass county to a farm three miles southwest of Union where they still lived at the time of her death, having resided on this farm for 30 years and where their following children were born: Ray Johnson, June 8, 1903; Emil Johnson, Jan. 7, 1905, and Alvin Johnson, born Aug. 10, 1901, Emil passing away Oct. 22, 1907 as the result of an accident.

Mrs. Johnson was 53 years 8 months and 29 days old at the time of her death, passing away Thursday night, Sept. 25th, at 8:30 at the Clarkson hospital, Omaha. Altho in ill health for several years she was always of a cheery disposition and was thought of by her neighbors as a very devoted wife and mother. She loved her home and the companionship of her ever faithful husband. She is survived by the husband Walter A. Johnson, Alma, a nurse in Omaha, and Ray of Nebraska City, one sister, Mrs. Edd Schenk, and 3 brothers, Charles Hemphill, Nehawka, George Hemphill of Wyoming precinct and John Hemphill, Seattle, Washington, and a brother James, last heard of living in Scotland.

She was a member of the Presbyterian church and always lived a good pure life. She was a great helpmate to her husband, helping him in every way possible and the home and relatives and neighbors will greatly miss her presence, but we know she suffered greatly at times and now she has gone to her Eternal reward where there will be no suffering or death and all is well and at peace with God.

She had gone to Omaha on just last Saturday to have some dental work done. With her daughter, Alma had gone to a show where she was taken sick and on Tuesday evening, the husband and relatives were called to her bedside. On Wednesday, blood transfusions were administered and with strong will power to stay with her husband and children she lived until Thursday evening. While all possible was done for her recovery she heard the call of the Angel of Death and quietly passed on over to the other shore to be with God and where she will await the coming of her loved ones left to mourn her loss on this earth and where "Some day all doubt and mystery will be made clear," and we shall see how God's perfect plan was best for all. And whatever lot await me, that my sure test thought shall be, that the tenderest heart in heaven truly kindly thinks of me.

The funeral was held from the M. E. church at Wyoming, Nebraska, Sunday at 3:30 p. m., conducted by W. A. Taylor of Union and assisted by Rev. Beebe. Interment was made in Sower cemetery.

Iowa Lays 1,000 Miles of Paving

$30,000,000 Project Finished; Plan More Improvements by Bonds From Gas Taxes.

Iowa's extensive highway paving program for 1930, adopted after President Hoover requested all state officials to include as many public improvement projects as possible in the year's construction schedule, was nearly completed Tuesday.

The 1,000-mile goal originally set had been reached, but there remained an additional 40 miles contracted for after exceptionally favorable weather enabled contractors to finish projects ahead of schedule.

The new paving, including the completion of a continuous ribbon of concrete the entire length of U. S. No. 34 from the Missouri to the Mississippi rivers, has brought the total of Iowa's hard surfaced roads to approximately 3,350 miles. The state plans to add more than 1,700 additional miles of paving within the next two years.

The year's program cost nearly $30,000,000. The funds were provided by road bonds to be paid off mainly from revenue from state gasoline taxes and automobile license fees.

Besides completion of U. S. No. 34, the year's program has brought U. S. No. 65, a north-south highway, to nearly complete concrete surfacing. The entire length will be finished this fall. U. S. No. 30 will be paved the entire length of the state except for three miles of gravel and U. S. No. 32 all but 12 miles of gravel.

THIRD LINCOLN COP IS FIRED

Lincoln, Sept. 29.—Dismissal of a third officer and a detailed statement from Acting Chief Walter Anderson outlining his plans for further reorganizing of the Lincoln police and modernization of armament and motor equipment marked the third day of the new regime in the force. The statement was addressed to Mayor Love, now commissioned police.

Patrolman Sam Gatenby, who became a member of the force with the annexation of College View, was dismissed by Acting Chief Anderson Monday.

Anderson stated simply that Gatenby was discharged for "conduct unbecoming an officer," adding that the incident, occurred some time ago.

Decline Given Impetus by Failure of Large Investment House—Earlier Support

New York, Sept. 30.—Share prices on the New York Stock and Curb Exchanges plunged downward for the sixth consecutive trading session today, as the decline gained fresh impetus from the first failure of a prominent Wall Street investment house since the great bull market came to grief a year ago.

Not in recent stock exchange history has the market closed lower for so many consecutive days. Last November the market closed persistently lower on no more than four consecutive days, although compared to that crash the current decline has been a mere flop.

During the middle of the afternoon, President Whitney of the stock exchange mounted the rostrum and announced that J. A. Sisto & Co. had been suspended for insolvency.

A Partial Recovery.

Earlier in the session what appeared to be powerful support had been thrown into the market, and many traders felt that one of the sharp automatic upturns such as normally punctuate protracted declines was in the making. The gains were soon lost, however, and a hectic flurry of selling accompanied the Sisto announcement. The market made partial recovery, however, before the closing gong.

Throughout the day many of the so-called pivotal shares strongly resisted selling pressure, and at the close few of these stocks were down as much as $2. There were numerous net losses throughout the list of $2 to $5 or more, however, with some of the infrequently traded, or more erratic issues, losing $10 a share or more.

Sales of 4,500,000.

The day's sales were close to 4,500,000 shares, the largest since June 18, when the turnover exceeded 6,400,000 shares.

The extent of the damage which may be revealed in the Sisto failure could not be learned. No comment was available from partners of the firm, and no statement of assets and liabilities was disclosed. Although the Sisto company was not one of the larger investment houses, it had wide connections.—World-Herald.
