A very pretty and impressive wedding took place Thursday morning, Oct. 2nd, at nine o'clock at St. Patrick's church, Lincoln, when Miss Marjorie Jane Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cox, was united in could not very well have held up holy bonds of matthematical Mrs. L. A. Janda, Lincoln. The impressive ritualistic service of the church was performed by Rev. Father D. B. O'Connor, in the presence of a number of relatives and friends.

The altar was banked with ferns. Preceding the ceremony Miss Mary Bauer of Lincoln sang "At Dawning." During the ceremony she sang " Ave Maria," Miss Mable Partington, of Lincoln accompanied Miss Bauer on the organ and also played Lohengria

The bride wore an ensemble of monk brown crepe with accessories to match, and carried an arm bouquet of Ophelia roses. She was attended by Mrs. H. A. Gunn, a sister of the bride, who was matron of honor. Mrs. Gunn wore a dark brown crepe ensemble with accessories to match and carried a bouquet of Columbia roses. Kearn Fogerty, cousin o fthe groom, of Auroa, Ill., served as best man. Mr. Janda and Mr. Fogerty wore the conventional blue, A wedding breakfast was served immediately following the ceremony at the home. The home was decorated with fall flowers and ferns. A threecourse wedding breakfast was served.

A reception was held in the afternoon from 1:30 to 3:00. The large wedding cake was the center decoration of the table. Seventy-five guests were invited. Mrs. A. L.
