Lancaster, returning home on last Saturday after having enjoyed his stay here very much.

Vaclav Michluncky and son, Louis, were over to Omaha on last Sunday where they were spending the Mother's day at home with the wife and mother and the remainder of the family.

T. J. Brendel was called to Lincoln to look after some business matters for a short time on Tuesday afternoon of last week and while he was away the barber shop was looked after by Wilber Hewitt.

Sheyman Cole, living near Mynard, was a visitor in Murray on Monday of this week, and was purchasing lumber for some eighty rods of plank fence which he is having constructed on the farm.

Otto Schafer was a visitor in Omaha on last Monday taking with him a truck load of very fine fat hogs from his feed yards west of Murray. He found the roads getting to the gravel very bad, but was able to get through.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lancaster, as the day was far from such as to attract the farmers in and the roads being bad, stayed at home and painted the kitchen while the girls looked after the business at the store during the time.

Lucian Carper and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Meisinger were over to Lincoln on last Sunday, where they enjoyed spending Mother's day with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Griffin, mother of Meedames Meisinger and Carper and where all enjoyed the visit very much.

pany, was called to Kansas and Oklahoma for a few days last week, arriving here on last Saturday and was again called to Ashland on Monday of this week to look after some business for his company.

Mrs. Teddy Bengen of Omaha was a visitor for the greater portion of last week at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. M. Stone and Thomas Ruby, where all enjoyed the visits very much and after the very fine stay, Mrs. Bengen returned to her home in Omaha on last Saturday.

Makes Shop Very Neat
Mr. Gansamer, the mechanic at the Murray Garage, when he is not busy at something else, takes the paint brush and gets busy at beautifying the new work shop which Mr. Bakke has recently instituted in the front or north portion of the garage building and with the very fine trimming of blue they are having a fine looking place, and by the way are doing some very fine work also.

Nice Bunch of Pigs
George Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Thompson and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Ray, has a number of pigs which came to their mother in a litter of thirteen, which are doing exceptionally fine. The best four of the pigs, which are just eight weeks old, weigh fifty pounds each and the others while fine, are not quite as fine as the above four.

Making Many Hog Housers
Louis Sack, living near Mynard, was in Murray on last Monday and had a coterie of carpenters among whom were Louie Tikotter and O. M. Kintz, they building some ten of these hog houses for homes for the various broods which Mr. Sack is expecting in a few days.

George Rhoden Very Poorly
George W. Rhoden who some time since moved to Plattsmouth has been in very poor health for some two weeks past and was kept to his bed for that time, but is feeling some better at this time, just enough to be able to sit up a part of the time. And when they keep George in bed he has to be pretty sick. He is some better however and is hoping soon to be able to be out again.

Much Scarlet Fever Reported.
There is reported as being prevalent a number of miles west of Murray a number of rather serious cases of scarlet fever, but the physicians are taking every precaution and have them well in hand at this time.

Received Severe Injury.
Mr. M. R. Nickles, who is employed with Edward Knabe as farm hand in the course of his work had the misfortune to receive a cut on his leg from a grass hook which he was using and was laid up for a number of days, but is at this time showing some improvement.

Services Next Lord's Day.
There will be church services on the coming Lord's day at the Christian church of Murray. The Rev. Robert E. Hanson will be here and conduct the services and would like to see all the membership out and as many others as would like to come and worship with the church.

Engage in Business at Union.
Charles Land and Will Creamer have formed a co-partnership and purchased the garage which has been so successfully operated by Charles Atterberry, and has taken charge of the place, and are enjoying a very fine business. Now let us say that these boys will be ever on the alert to care for the wants of their customers and we are sure they will make a success.

PIONEER OF EAGLE DEAD
A pioneer of Eagle vicinity, Hans Joachim Henry Wolf, eighty-four died at his home at Eagle at 10 p. m. Monday. Coming to Nebraska fifty-nine years ago from Germany, he had lived in this state ever since, thirteen years of the time in Eagle. He was a lifelong member of the Lutheran church. He had been ill only a short time. Surviving are a son, Henry, and a daughter, Mrs. Henry Trunkenholz, both of Eagle, and three grandchildren.

PLAN SEASON OPENING

The Murray Red Sox, disappointed in the weather conditions that prevented their opening game last Sunday, are planning a real celebration this coming Sunday when the season formally opens. Manager Alfred Gansamer has secured a real club for the Sox to take on in the opener in one of the fast new teams of Omaha, the Union Pacific Atlantic club. This team is one that has a great array of stars in their line up. In speaking of the team the World-Herald has the following:

The club is under the joint direction of Bill Lester, manager, and Swede Monaghan, the walking delegate. Most of the performers were with the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks' nine that precipitated the riotous protest meeting in the Commercial loop last year, a session that discussed everything except that for which it was called—the eligibility of Swede Monaghan.

The manager that Lester and Monaghan will use center around the ability of the players. The team is so good, they contend, that it is bound to win the league championship. And the U. P. A. C. has backed a loser in the Metro so many times maybe they would like to back a winner this year.

Using Mr. Monaghan's batting averages, it is easy to see that the team has a classy lineup. Johnny McLaughlin, who used to catch for the Saunders, has been revamped for a second base man and he made but three errors in 12 games last year. Monaghan's figures show. The club doesn't need McLaughlin for a catcher because Jimmie McDonald had only three bases stolen on him during the whole season.

Chief Walsh, brother of Tooley, is on first; Howard Cotterell, who has learned how to hit .480 since he left the Metro, is at short, picking them out as skillfully as ever, and Johnny Ahmond, brother of the Rizutoes' player last year, takes third base when Monaghan is busy figuring averages.

The Lewiston band will be on hand for the game and help pep up the occasion and with the enthusiasm that the season start will bring there should be a record breaking attendance out to greet the Sox in their initial offering. A large number of the Plattsmouth fans are expected to be in attendance at the game.

CHARLES ROOT DIES

The information has been received at Murray of the death of Charles Root, 69, member of a former prominent family of the Murray community, Mr. Root being killed on May 1st when struck by an auto at Phoenix, Arizona. The funeral of Mr. Root was held on Sunday at Phoenix and the services held by a nephew of the deceased who is a minister of the Christian church.

Charles Root was a son of the late Anderson Root and wife and made his home in Murray for a great many years being engaged in the conduct of a general store, later disporting of his business and removing to Arizona, he locating at Phoenix and near which city he owned a very fine ranch and where also his brother,

IT MIGHT BE WORSE
By J. Edward Tuft

I'm chairman of the "cheer up" drive, and some big job I have in keeping hope on earth alive and spreading "cheer up" save. Ezekiel Pepliss says to me, "Buckwheat, it is no use, there is no hope that I can see, we're headed for the duel! The price of wheat is up the spout, a pig's not worth a son, and now the bottom's tumbled out of cream and butter, too! A sack of spuds won't bring the price of lunch at Ladies' Aid; I tell you, Jones, it saps the spirit of men; however, make! 'Come hide the bluing, Neighbor Zeke,' says I, "and ditch the chant; I hope you're not the kind of a geke to peddle crepe and cant! Why, man alive, in ninety-three, and ninety-four and five, we farmers sipped at forty cent tea to keep ourselves alive! Although we purchased catnip leaves at 50 cents per tank it took our stock of wheat and beaves to buy the bit we drank! The interest rate was 12 per cent and loaning sharks were fit to eat powers on earth seemed primed and bent to starve the farmer's wife! A harvest hand worked 16 hours in that hard fisted time, and got for his expended powers two quarters and a dime! Back in the days of 'Cosy's' haul—Jehoshaphat and Steve!—we stayed upon the land because we couldn't leave! The price of wheat is down, I know, and price of plums and cream, but placed beside the long ago today's a pleasant dream! So, come on, Zeke, and join the club and be a 'Cheerup' boy; leave to some less favored dub the task of killing joy!"

HIGHWAY COST FOR YEAR IS 7 MILLION

Lincoln, May 9.—Final award Saturday on highway projects for which bids were received April 30 boosted the total of highway improvements contracted for since January to nearly $7,000,000.

Contracts awarded were to low bidders on all except two projects. These are for paving near Iadlanola and McCook, and Culbertson, and must be re-advertised. The bids will be received May 29.

The $7,000,000 program provides for more than 180 miles of paving, and 700 miles of new gravel surfacing.

Ralph located and purchased a ranch property. Mr. Root was married after moving to Arizona and his wife preceded him in death some years ago. Since the death of the wife he has made his home with a daughter in Phoenix. There are two daughters left to mourn his passing.

Sees Movement Being Launched to Beat Hoover

Senator Brookhart Claims It Under Way with Progressive Backing; Suggests Some Backing.

Washington—Organization of a movement for the nomination of a "progressive" by the republicans next year was reported by Senator Brookhart, who recently advocated such a campaign in the primaries. Senator Brookhart said his public statement proposing a progressive movement in opposition to the renomination of President Hoover had brought a "huge" stack of mail to his office, together with word that an organization was being perfected in Illinois.

As for candidates to go into the field, Senator Brookhart first mentioned Senator Borah of Idaho. He said the letters he had received mentioned Borah and also Senators Johnson of California, Norris of Nebraska, and LaFollette of Wisconsin, and Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania. Senator Brookhart predicted "if the progressives go into the presidential primaries they can gain a majority of the votes in the next convention."

He said he believed Pinchot would have a majority of the powerful Pennsylvania delegation.

"In all my mail," he said, "I got just one hostile letter. The others endorsed the suggestion that progressives get into the republican presidential race. The main response came from Illinois, Indiana, and Ohio. To my surprise there was endorsement generally thruout the east as well as the middle-west."

Men Suggested Silent.
The candidates suggested by Brookhart are carefully keeping their silence, aware that it is a long way to the next convention. All of the group in the senate have been in opposition to the major policies of the Hoover administration. Brookhart campaigned for Hoover in 1928, but has since disagreed with him. He is up for re-election himself next year and says he is taking no active part in the movement.

Republican regulars who are preparing to get behind the Hoover re-nomination campaign, however, are reported by Senator Brookhart to be interestedly watching the reaction of the progressive campaign.

Among the first presidential primaries to be held next spring will be those in Illinois, Indiana and Ohio. A test of strength with the Hoover forces in these states no doubt will be sought by his opponents. President Hoover is going into these three vital speaking tour in nine months. Democrats made their greatest gains in the last congressional election in these states, Illinois and Ohio sending democratic senators to Washington while all three states showed losses in republican strength in the house.

Other states in which presidential primaries will be held include Massachusetts, California, South Dakota, Nebraska and West Virginia among the key states.—State Journal.

Expelled Girl Dives into River at Omaha

Cries for Aid Lead to Saving of Accused Student Following a Plunge from Bridge.

Omaha—Expelled from Central high school here Friday, Shirley Mason, sixteen, of Omaha, attempted to end her life by leaping into the Missouri river from the street railway bridge between Omaha and Council Bluffs, Ia.

Several pedestrians walking across the bridge saw the girl climb the railing, hang poised there for a moment and then plunge downward into the swirling river.

The force of the fall appeared to stun the girl and she drifted downstream for about 100 feet without struggling. Then she began to cry for help and desperately strove to conquer the swift current and reach shore.

Her cries attracted the attention of Henry Johnson, Omaha, who was washing bottles on the bank. Johnson waded into the river and extended a long stick to the struggling girl. She seized it and Johnson pulled her ashore.

At first she said she was from St. Joseph but soon admitted her true identity. She was taken to police headquarters for emergency treatment. Police physicians said the girl apparently had not suffered any serious injury.

Central high school officials said the girl was expelled from school for alleged thefts of small sums of money. The girl denied the charges.—State Journal.
