Lucille Albert is Seriously Injured in Wreck

Well Known Member of Graduating Class of 1931 Is Caught Beneath Wreck Car

From Monday's Daily—
Lucille Albert, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Albert of near Cedar Creek, a member of the graduating class of 1931 of the Plattsmouth high school, was very seriously injured late Saturday night in an auto wreck on the Louisville road some seven miles west of this city.

Miss Albert was being taken to her home by Chester Wiles, a school mate, they riding in the coupe of Mr. Wiles, and while traveling west near the former Hinz farm the car skidded on the wet and slippery road and crashed into the small concrete railing of the culvert, the force of the car being such that it was hurled over the rail and into the ditch below. As the car overturned Miss Albert was thrown from the floor of the car and to the ground below, the car then rolling onto her and pinning her in the wreckage.

Mr. Wiles who was not so severely injured, battled desperately to rescue his companion, by almost superhuman effort was able to lift the car so that Miss Albert could be extricated from the wreck. Assistance was secured and the injured girl was taken back to the C. L. Wiles farm.

The examination of the victim of the accident disclosed that she was suffering from an apparent fracture of the pelvis, the lower front teeth were torn from the bone and flesh and forced back into her mouth and she also suffered severe cuts on both cheeks. The injuries were dressed here and later the victim of the accident was taken into Omaha to be placed in the hospital where the X-ray examination disclosed a triple fracture of the pelvis and that the jaw bone had not been broken as was thought at first was the case.

Mr. Wiles suffered only minor bruises and a severe shaking up and to his back, occasioned it is thought, by his desperate work in lifting the car from the body of Miss Albert.

The injuries of Miss Albert are such that at the very best she will probably have to be in the hospital for six months at the hospital before she can be up and around again.

WRECK VICTIM POORLY

Mrs. Z. E. Lancaster, York, critically injured Monday near Greenwood in the truck-car collision which took three lives including that of her husband, underwent a second blood transfusion operation Saturday afternoon at Bryan Memorial hospital at Lincoln.

Gradually losing ground the last day or two, Mrs. Lancaster's condition has become extremely grave. Dr. C. H. Arnold, attending her, said that unless she rallies following the transfusion she will not live. Hospital attaches reported Saturday night that she had improved little since the transfusion.

Miss Elizabeth Newton, Lander, Wyo., also hurt in the accident, is out of danger, according to the physician. She has improved steadily and is on the road to recovery. Roy Franzen, Worcester, Mass., third survivor of the tragic accident, is in good condition. He probably will be discharged from the hospital soon.

Golden Wedding of Mr. and Mrs. John Domingo

Well Known Residents of Weeping Water Celebrate the Occasion With Their Friends

Mr. and Mrs. John Domingo were both born in Denmark, where they grew to manhood and womanhood, and both came to America more than fifty years ago, they settling among friends from the same portion of the old country and here met and loved and on June 7, 1881, were united in marriage at the old court house in Plattsmouth, the ceremony which united their lives being said by the former Judge A. N. Sullivan.

They immediately came to the farm where Mr. Domingo had prepared a home for the bonny bride, and there engaged in housekeeping and farming. For thirty-two years they remained on the same place and made a most happy home. The farm is located a few miles north and a short distance east of Weeping Water. A number of years ago they built the home where Leslie Wiles resides and also in 1912 and 1913 they built the home in Weeping Water where they now reside, moving to town well knowing that they had worked hard and did their portion in the redeeming of the farm lands here to the highest state of cultivation and leaving it for the farming of their sons.

The marriage of this couple was blessed with four children, two sons and two daughters, they being Mrs. Leslie Wiles, Mrs. Homer Jamison, and Jesse and George Domingo.

The friends getting together made this a great gala day. The Danish people being of a sociable turn of disposition, sought to do all possible to make this couple enjoy the occasion, bringing eats in abundance and which were of the very best.

The home had been decorated by the friends and under the direction of their daughter, Mrs. Leslie Wiles, became a house of beauty, the yellow and golden colors predominating. There 115 served and also all were given refreshments who came to extend congratulations, there being 260 in all.

A pretty feature of the occasion being that the bride was able to celebrate the passing of her 67th birthday on the very day of her golden wedding, she being married on her seventeenth birthday, the groom being just ten years and a month or so her senior, he being born May 5, 1871.

Besides the people present there were telegrams and cable messages as well as a perfect shower of cards evincing the pleasure of their friends at the passing of the happy event. A short time since they were visited by Mr. and Mrs. Christian Jefferson of Pomona, California, who were then on their way to Denmark for the summer and on the day of the wedding while they were on the ocean, sent via radio telegraph a message of congratulations which was gladly received. Mrs. M. M. Butler of Lincoln, who was neighbor and friend for many years, in her congratulations, though she has attained the ripe age of 83 summers, penned an original poem which added to the happiness of the event.

All in all the event was one enjoyed not alone by this happy and estimable couple, but by the many friends who were so well pleased that they were able to contribute to the happy occasion.
