Gies, south of Union on last Tuesday, where he made the attachment of the cultivator to the Farmall and which allows the plowing of some four rows of corn in the crossing of the field and the Farmall hikes along at a rapid pace, and is not overheated when the weather is warm.

Served Six Years.

The Rev. W. A. Taylor, pastor of the Baptist church, has been serving just six years on last Sunday since the last time he has been ministering full time before that he was dividing time with the Wabash church. Beat All the Rest.

Mrs. Daniel Lynn, who with the husband make their home in a summer house at Kamp Kill Kare, has beaten all in the catching of fish as she was able to hook and land a seven pound carp and a three pound catfish one day recently, while the carp was a good big fellow she was able to land it herself and feels that she has the title of being a master fisher.

Writes Wheat Not Good.

Wm. August, Jr., who is located near Lamar, in the western portion of the state, in writing to the folks here, states that he had out last fall some 500 acres of wheat and it was thought would overcome the attack but this spring they had to plow up all but 25 acres and the ground will be put to corn. The weather has been rather dry out that way, but just of late they are receiving more moisture.

Becker Family Reunion Picnic.

Last Sunday the A. L. Becker family enjoyed a family reunion at the John N. Larsh home. They picnicked at the very beautiful country home and also enjoyed being together. Series of Omaha Picnic.

A Series society of Omaha which are a religious organization, were picnicking at the John N. Larsh home east of Union on last Sunday and were there in numbers about sixty. They used the kind of bread which was used when Christ fed the five thousand by the side of the sea of Galilee, and also used a food composed of a lamb and leaves from the tree which was ground with the cooked meats, making a meat loaf and with the leaves made a bitter taste, much like the paschal lamb which was eaten at the time of the children of Israel departed from Egypt. A number of the Union people were given some of the bread and also of the meat loaf. Some of the people of Omaha were very much pleased with the location of their picnic at the home of Mr. Larsh, saying it was the very best place in Nebraska for a picnic.

Mr. Clarence, who is well known and a very popular man and officer, was widely known, leaves the good wife and two daughters and one son. He was about seventy years of age, and otherwise than the malady of diabetes, was in a fair state of preservation. He will be missed in that community, and mourned wherever known.

Children's Day Sunday.

The children's day exercises will be held at the Baptist church in Union on Sunday evening, a very appropriate program has been prepared

The Methodist church also extends an invitation to come worship with their church, both in the preaching services as well as the Bible school and young people's society.

Enjoy National Game.

Baseball was a little out of season Sunday when numerous showers tried to prevent the fans from their weekly game of ball.

The Murray team which was to have played the Boston Terror, a colored team from Omaha, was unable to play their game on account of the rain. The Union team, which played an eight inning game with Dunbar before the rain stopped the game, was strongly helped by the playing of Carl Pierce and Pat Roddy. Both play with the Murray team. Pierce brought in three scores for Union which helped the team to win easily from Dunbar by the score of 6 to 1. Roddy played a good game at short. Nehawka came out on the short end of the 12 to 3 score when they played the Manley team on Manley's diamond. All nine innings were played.

Report on Junior Red Cross, Dist. 10.

Miss Goldie Lindsay, Teacher. The pupils of Ervin school joined the Junior Red Cross in February. Due to the large number of classes and grades in a rural school, we divided our grades into three groups, and each was to prepare a book.

The first group, consisted of the third and fourth grades, made a booklet on the months of the year. The second group, fifth and sixth grades, prepared a booklet on Health Rules as part of their class work in hygiene.

The third group, consisted of the seventh and eighth grades. They prepared a booklet on Nebraska as part of their class work in agriculture. In our drawing classes, we made cheer cards, which we sent to the sick pupils who were absent from school.

We used the Junior Red Cross Magazine in our language classes. The children enjoyed the interesting stories found in the magazine. These booklets were very interesting and very neat. All three showed interest in the subject presented.

I am sure other schools in the county had some project to work out and we would like to hear from them. As we have only had report from Cedar Creek, Dist. 31 and Union, Dist. 10.

Report to your County Superintendent, Miss Peterson.
AUGUSTA ROBB, Chairman.

CANCELS POLAR RENDEZVOUS

Friedrichshafen, June 15.—Abandonment of the plan for a rendezvous at the north pole between the Graf Zeppelin and the submarine Nautilus was announced Monday by Dr. Hugo Eckener, commander of the Zeppelin. An independent flight to the pole by the Graf Zeppelin, he said, still may be made.

"It is most regrettable, but the rendezvous with Sir Hubert Wilkins is off for this year," Dr. Eckener said. "Even the Nautilus is repaired. Wilkins can not make the pole in time. We are ready to start, but it all depends on whether an independent flight is wanted."

Dr. Eckener said the Graf weathered a very violent thunderstorm during its flight Sunday without discomfort to its passengers, who conducted a musical program at the height of the storm.

Arkansas is Singing Song of Glad Tidings

"Out of the Woods." Says State in Need Last Winter—Fifty Banks Reorganized

Little Rock, Ark., June 15.—Arkansas would like the world to know that there is nothing the matter with her now.

If some of the big cities up north are still in a state of depression next winter, Arkansas probably will ship up some train loads of food and chip in liberally to the Red Cross, said Governor Harvey Parnell, who was forced last winter to call on the nation for help.

"The most marvelous comeback among all the states," says Dudley Haddock, secretary of the state Chamber of Commerce. "And they have a rise from rags to riches. It is a sort of Cinderella story of economic terms."

"This is an agricultural state, more than 85 per cent," said the governor. "It was the drought that brought on our trouble last year, as a culmination of several bad years. But now that is gone. The state is like a garden. The prospect for good crops is the best that it has been in years."—World-Herald.

SLAYER OF MATE IS HOME

New York—With "practically no plans a tall" for her future, Mrs. Charlotte Nash Nixon-Nirdlinger, former St. Louis beauty contestant, who slew her husband in France last March, returned to America. She said all she wanted was to forget the past and be happy with her children. The queen of the 1923 Atlantic City beauty pageant, who fired four shots into the body of Fred G. Nirdlinger of Philadelphia in their villa at Nice, France, commented on the tragedy. "I am very sad about the whole thing. It was terrible."

A French jury acquitted her in nine minutes at her trial.

"I was afraid at the time that I would not be vindicated," she remarked.

Mrs. Nixon-Nirdlinger will be twenty-six next October. She was asked if she considered another girl not so good looking would have fared so well at the hands of the jury.

"Beauty," she declared, "has nothing to do with justice. I am sometimes sorry when I think of all the trouble it has brought me."

An appropriate greeting card to Father makes a very much appreciated remembrance for Father's day. The line at the Bates Book & Gift Shop is full and complete.

R. C. A. CASE PRESENTED

Washington—The disruption of American radio entertainment and marine and international communication was predicted before the radio commission if the 1,499 licenses of Radio Corporation of America subsidiaries are cancelled. This testimony was presented by company representatives as the commission began hearings to determine whether a recent court decision holds the R. C. A. guilty of violating the anti-trust statutes in the tube clause of its contracts made it mandatory upon the commission to refuse to renew licenses held by that company's subsidiaries.

Attorneys for R. C. A. contended the provisions of the radio act making such action mandatory was unconstitutional. They held, too, that judgment in the tube contract case, returned by the United States court of appeals in Delaware, was not final. Edward Humaker, president of the R. C. A.—Victor Company, Inc., said revocation of his company's license would put a stop to television experimentation which had been conducted by the R. C. A.—the General Electric, the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company and the R. C. A.—Victor company.

"Miss Germany," Daisy Freiberg, won fourth prize of $150 and "Miss Atlanta," Pat Hall, fifth prize, $100.

Miss Universe is seventeen years old and has long dark hair. She was almost overcome with excitement after the verdict was announced and had to leave the stage for a moment. She embraced her chaperone and both wept a trifle.

Others of the eight reports submitted in progress for months by the commission's private investigators.

Interest in Reports. Washington officials have been awaiting with considerable interest the content of some of the remaining reports. One in particular will discuss "governmental lawlessness," investigations into which have been in progress for months by the commission's private investigators.
