

Murray Department

Prepared in the Interest of the People of Murray and Surrounding Vicinity Especially for the Journal Readers

If any of the readers of the Journal know of any social event or item of interest in this vicinity, and will mail same to this office, it will appear under this heading. We want all news items.—Editor

You Wouldn't Stand for THIS

If you saw the gas leaking out of your tank on the ground, you'd fix THAT in a hurry. Yet many a car owner is losing more than this in leaky valves, loose piston rings and defective ignition. If your car lacks the speed and power it should have, let's look it over. Our inspection won't obligate you at all. Better drive in—today.

MURRAY GARAGE

A. D. BAKKE, Propr.

Earl Wolfe and family were visiting at Auburn Sunday. Miss Helen Gilmour visited with Miss Gwendolyn Hansen over Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rue Frans of Syracuse, attended the Social Circle picnic at Lewiston Sunday.

Miss Helen Gilmour and sister, David Kindall are visiting here and attended the Social Circle picnic Sunday.

Mr. John Hobscheidt took five of the Happy Hustlers to the Agriculture College Tuesday for judging and news reporting day.

Philip Rihn of Union played with the band Tuesday. Mr. Rihn is a welcome visitor and the band enjoys having him with them.

An ice cream social was held at Lewiston Community Center Tuesday evening with a very fine program given by the Lewiston band.

W. J. Philip was spending last Sunday at Omaha, where he was visiting with the family, returning home early Monday morning.

You are all welcome to the program which will be presented at the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening, June 21st at 7:30.

Dr. G. L. Taylor of Plattsmouth was a business caller in Murray on last Friday also having some business to look after southeast of town.

Mrs. W. F. Moore and sister, Mrs. Lincoln Joy of Alla Vista, Kansas, were week end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gilmour near Plattsmouth.

On June 30th there will be another out door program under the management of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Gayer, with a group possibly representing ten families.

The Lewiston band will play at the opening of the Murray Bathing Beach Sunday. There will be a community picnic for all those who care to bring their dinners.

Mrs. Ben Noel was a visitor on last Sunday at the home of his brother, Orville Noel, who is farming near Murdock, where all enjoyed the visit very much.

Mr. Phillip Rihn of Union, Mr. and Mrs. Hansen of Omaha and quite a few of Nebraska young folks attended the ice cream social at Lewiston Tuesday.

James Schwab who is feeding one hundred very fine cattle was over to the elevators of Murray on last Monday for a truck load of corn to feed them with.

Sam F. Latta was called to Nebraska City on last Monday to look after some business and to consult regarding the excellence of the Conkey foods which he sells.

T. J. Brendel and the good wife were over to Lincoln on Monday of this week where they were both visiting with friends and looking after some business matters.

The Murray Hardware company desires you to ask for a demonstration of one of their Majestic all electric refrigerators. No obligation but we will be pleased to give a demonstration.

Dan Hurchak was feeling quite poorly during the evening of last Sunday but was feeling some improved on Monday of this week but was not able to resume his work on the farm.

Frank Cottingham who got along until now without having the mumps is now not enjoying them altho he is having a siege with the troublesome disease. He is, however, getting along nicely.

The public is cordially invited to attend the Children's day program which has been prepared at the Presbyterian church and which comes on June 21st at 7:30. Keep the matter in mind and do not miss it.

Dr. F. J. Brendel reports the arrival of a very fine young lady on last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Art Sampson who resides northwest of Plattsmouth and all concerned are doing very nicely.

Vernor O. Lundberg, postmaster of Nehawka, accompanied by the family, were spending last Sunday at the home of Harry B. Nelson, postmaster of Murray and family and also with Mr. and Mrs. Lucean Carper.

The judging team of the Happy Hustlers club, consisting of Vernile Pullen, Ralph Timm, Ethan Allen, Gwendo Hobscheidt, and news reporter Gwendolyn Hansen, made a tour to the Agriculture College Tuesday.

The Rev. Robert E. Hanson, pastor of the Christian church was here on last Sunday sharpening and polishing, believing in the best practice who have the work done by one who knows how and does the work right.

M. G. Churchill is painting the lumber yard sheds and will add much to the thrifty and neat appearance of the city of Murray. To keep all last Sunday conducting services both morning and evening. There was a goodly number of the members at the services and much interest manifested in the church work.

Wm. Brandt of near Nehawka was a visitor in Murray on last Monday where he was having the shovels of his cultivator sharpened and polished, believing in the best practice who have the work done by one who knows how and does the work right.

M. G. Churchill is painting the lumber yard sheds and will add much to the thrifty and neat appearance of the city of Murray. To keep all last Sunday conducting services both morning and evening. There was a goodly number of the members at the services and much interest manifested in the church work.

Wm. Brandt of near Nehawka was a visitor in Murray on last Monday where he was having the shovels of his cultivator sharpened and polished, believing in the best practice who have the work done by one who knows how and does the work right.

M. G. Churchill is painting the lumber yard sheds and will add much to the thrifty and neat appearance of the city of Murray. To keep all last Sunday conducting services both morning and evening. There was a goodly number of the members at the services and much interest manifested in the church work.

Wm. Brandt of near Nehawka was a visitor in Murray on last Monday where he was having the shovels of his cultivator sharpened and polished, believing in the best practice who have the work done by one who knows how and does the work right.

M. G. Churchill is painting the lumber yard sheds and will add much to the thrifty and neat appearance of the city of Murray. To keep all last Sunday conducting services both morning and evening. There was a goodly number of the members at the services and much interest manifested in the church work.

Wm. Brandt of near Nehawka was a visitor in Murray on last Monday where he was having the shovels of his cultivator sharpened and polished, believing in the best practice who have the work done by one who knows how and does the work right.

M. G. Churchill is painting the lumber yard sheds and will add much to the thrifty and neat appearance of the city of Murray. To keep all last Sunday conducting services both morning and evening. There was a goodly number of the members at the services and much interest manifested in the church work.

Wm. Brandt of near Nehawka was a visitor in Murray on last Monday where he was having the shovels of his cultivator sharpened and polished, believing in the best practice who have the work done by one who knows how and does the work right.

M. G. Churchill is painting the lumber yard sheds and will add much to the thrifty and neat appearance of the city of Murray. To keep all last Sunday conducting services both morning and evening. There was a goodly number of the members at the services and much interest manifested in the church work.

Wm. Brandt of near Nehawka was a visitor in Murray on last Monday where he was having the shovels of his cultivator sharpened and polished, believing in the best practice who have the work done by one who knows how and does the work right.

M. G. Churchill is painting the lumber yard sheds and will add much to the thrifty and neat appearance of the city of Murray. To keep all last Sunday conducting services both morning and evening. There was a goodly number of the members at the services and much interest manifested in the church work.

Wm. Brandt of near Nehawka was a visitor in Murray on last Monday where he was having the shovels of his cultivator sharpened and polished, believing in the best practice who have the work done by one who knows how and does the work right.

M. G. Churchill is painting the lumber yard sheds and will add much to the thrifty and neat appearance of the city of Murray. To keep all last Sunday conducting services both morning and evening. There was a goodly number of the members at the services and much interest manifested in the church work.

Wm. Brandt of near Nehawka was a visitor in Murray on last Monday where he was having the shovels of his cultivator sharpened and polished, believing in the best practice who have the work done by one who knows how and does the work right.

M. G. Churchill is painting the lumber yard sheds and will add much to the thrifty and neat appearance of the city of Murray. To keep all last Sunday conducting services both morning and evening. There was a goodly number of the members at the services and much interest manifested in the church work.

Wm. Brandt of near Nehawka was a visitor in Murray on last Monday where he was having the shovels of his cultivator sharpened and polished, believing in the best practice who have the work done by one who knows how and does the work right.

M. G. Churchill is painting the lumber yard sheds and will add much to the thrifty and neat appearance of the city of Murray. To keep all last Sunday conducting services both morning and evening. There was a goodly number of the members at the services and much interest manifested in the church work.

Wm. Brandt of near Nehawka was a visitor in Murray on last Monday where he was having the shovels of his cultivator sharpened and polished, believing in the best practice who have the work done by one who knows how and does the work right.

M. G. Churchill is painting the lumber yard sheds and will add much to the thrifty and neat appearance of the city of Murray. To keep all last Sunday conducting services both morning and evening. There was a goodly number of the members at the services and much interest manifested in the church work.

Wm. Brandt of near Nehawka was a visitor in Murray on last Monday where he was having the shovels of his cultivator sharpened and polished, believing in the best practice who have the work done by one who knows how and does the work right.

M. G. Churchill is painting the lumber yard sheds and will add much to the thrifty and neat appearance of the city of Murray. To keep all last Sunday conducting services both morning and evening. There was a goodly number of the members at the services and much interest manifested in the church work.

Wm. Brandt of near Nehawka was a visitor in Murray on last Monday where he was having the shovels of his cultivator sharpened and polished, believing in the best practice who have the work done by one who knows how and does the work right.

M. G. Churchill is painting the lumber yard sheds and will add much to the thrifty and neat appearance of the city of Murray. To keep all last Sunday conducting services both morning and evening. There was a goodly number of the members at the services and much interest manifested in the church work.

Wm. Brandt of near Nehawka was a visitor in Murray on last Monday where he was having the shovels of his cultivator sharpened and polished, believing in the best practice who have the work done by one who knows how and does the work right.

M. G. Churchill is painting the lumber yard sheds and will add much to the thrifty and neat appearance of the city of Murray. To keep all last Sunday conducting services both morning and evening. There was a goodly number of the members at the services and much interest manifested in the church work.

Wm. Brandt of near Nehawka was a visitor in Murray on last Monday where he was having the shovels of his cultivator sharpened and polished, believing in the best practice who have the work done by one who knows how and does the work right.

M. G. Churchill is painting the lumber yard sheds and will add much to the thrifty and neat appearance of the city of Murray. To keep all last Sunday conducting services both morning and evening. There was a goodly number of the members at the services and much interest manifested in the church work.

Wm. Brandt of near Nehawka was a visitor in Murray on last Monday where he was having the shovels of his cultivator sharpened and polished, believing in the best practice who have the work done by one who knows how and does the work right.

M. G. Churchill is painting the lumber yard sheds and will add much to the thrifty and neat appearance of the city of Murray. To keep all last Sunday conducting services both morning and evening. There was a goodly number of the members at the services and much interest manifested in the church work.

Base Ball Sunday

Murray Red Sox versus Colored Boston Terrors

Murray Ball Park Sunday, June 21

Admission - - - 25¢
Game Called at 2:45

Hardware company sold two electric refrigerators, one going to the home of Joseph Staska and the other to the home of Mrs. W. A. Brown, they both being very well pleased with their new acquisition. They also sold a four row cultivator to Edward Spangler east of Mynard.

Mr. Townsend was over to Murdock on last Sunday and brought the wife and two daughters over to Murray, they remaining for the day and also for a number of days, being the first part of the week, looking for a suitable place to reside. There are two houses, one too large and the other too small, but they are hoping that they may secure one which will be more in keeping with their needs soon.

Mrs. Gertrude Beckner and son, Stephen, were visiting at Nebraska City for over the week end and returned home on last Monday morning, coming to the Weeping Water creek west of Union but finding it very high, they returned the remainder of the way via Nehawka, and after having arrived home they accompanied by Mrs. Wm. Patterson, departed for Omaha where they were visiting with friends for the day and also looking after some business matters.

The Murray Hardware company desires you to ask for a demonstration of one of their Majestic all electric refrigerators. No obligation but we will be pleased to give a demonstration.

Lightening Strikes Church.

At the storm which occurred on last Sunday night the steeple of the Christian church was struck, the bolt following along the ridge roll of the main building and tearing off a number of shingles and otherwise causing slight damage. Fred L. Hill, however, was able to repair the damage done to the roof in a short time and the building is again in good condition.

Gave Excellent Program.

At the Christian church on last Sunday evening the Children's day program which had been prepared by the ladies of the church and the members of the Bible school, was presented and was listened to by a large number of the people of the city and community who enjoyed the program very much. The matter of the two churches working in such perfect harmony, one having the exercises one Sunday and the other the Sunday following is very commendable and meets with general approval.

Spending Summer in West.

Nicholas Friedrich and the family departed early this week for California, where they will spend the summer and will see the country of the west, they driving, will visit the principal places of interest and also will visit with some relatives they have in different places. They went via Norfolk, where they visited for a time with Fred Schafer and family. Mrs. Friedrich and Mr. Schafer being sister and brother. They will expect to be away until about the first of September as they desire to return in time for the opening of the school year.

The Murray Hardware company desires you to ask for a demonstration of one of their Majestic all electric refrigerators. No obligation but we will be pleased to give a demonstration.

Picnicked at Rodeo Park.

C. W. Allen and the family were enjoying a picnic at Rodeo Park at Sidney, where they visited their old home, and as the whole family were there they also had their pictures taken. They visited as well with their many friends there.

Departed for San Diego.

Walter Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Allen of Murray on last Monday night departed for the southwest, going to San Diego, California, where he joins the U. S. navy on lasting for four years. He was at Omaha on Monday taking the final examination and passed with a high percentage and was assigned to the post at San Diego, departing on the first train for the station.

Remains Very Sick.

Mrs. J. W. Stones, living northwest of Murray, who was at the hospital at Omaha for some time and who returned home last week still remains very seriously ill at their home. Everything possible in nursing and medical science is being done for this excellent woman, hoping that she may soon be able to be up again.

FOR SALE OR TRADE

I have a pure bred Poland China boar, ready for service with papers. Will trade for a pedigreed Hampshire boar. Write or see Will Minford, Phone 1502, Murray, Neb. j1-tf-w.

Presbyterian Church Notes. Sabbath school at 10 a. m. Morning worship at 11 a. m. Evening service at 7:30 p. m. (Young people's meeting). Wednesday evening prayer meeting at 7:30.

You are cordially invited to worship with us. J. C. STEWART, Pastor.

'Canned' Music Declared to be On Its Way Out

Public Consciousness, Says Joseph N. Weber, Musicians' Head, Has Checked Inroads

Chattanooga, Tenn.—Awakening consciousness of the American people to the threatened degradation of the "sublime art of music," by the invasion of the machine has checked the inroads of "canned" music, Joseph N. Weber of New York City, president of the American Federation of Musicians, said here. Mr. Weber was elected for his thirty-first term as president of the federation, which is holding its thirty-seventh annual convention here.

"We shall keep up agitation in defense of our art, although the trend already is away from 'canned' music," he said. "It would be like making a record of an artist cannot be mechanized or photographed. The art of music is the most sublime of all and we cannot afford to see it narrowed by the machine."

"If the invasion of the machine into music had gone as far as it has in Philadelphia, it would be a nation of listeners, rather than music makers. After all, perpetuation of the art of music depends upon the professional musicians."

The chief objective of the American Federation of Musicians, Mr. Weber said, is to give the musician a voice on this continent, especially in giving opportunity for the development of natural talent.

"We contend," he declared, "that a good American musician does not need the European stamp of approval. We hold that the temperance of an artist cannot be mechanized or photographed. The art of music is the most sublime of all and we cannot afford to see it narrowed by the machine."

Another tale of a curious journey across the rattling Ford to another town where some things had been going on the results of which Butler wished to see; and when he got into the town the Southern army was entering it from the opposite direction. The road was narrow, and Butler was unable to turn the Ford around, so he had to keep going, and the Southern army detachment had to turn around in fright at the Ford's noise and leave the town by the way it had come.

When army and Ford were a mile out on the road beyond the town the Ford was turned down and never again could attempt to enter the town, having been chased out so indignantly by a "foreign devil," thereby irretrievably "losing face." And so the town fathers presently called upon Butler to give him a gorgeous coat of arms because he had saved the town from all future danger of occupation by the southern army.

The thing the General left most sharply in the thought of his audience was that China is a vast new field, waiting for the establishment of extensive American trade relations. Automobiles can be sold there in prodigious quantities when more roads are built. Already, as a result of a mere 25-mile strip of road built by the marines during their stay there, many hundred automobiles have been sold, and more than 5000 bicycles. The thing to remember, he said, was that the United States must conceive of China as a place where once an active friendliness is set up, there will be no end of trade opportunity.

YOUTH'S LEG AMPUTATED

Seward—The right leg of Arthur Heumann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heumann, Seward, which was badly crushed in the accident near here Monday, was amputated Tuesday morning at the Seward hospital by Dr. J. E. M. Thomson, Lincoln. Dr. Thomson stated that the youth's condition is "very critical." The amputation was made just above the knee.

Both Daniel Hildebrand and his daughter, Mrs. Vernon Hershberger, Sioux City, Ia., who were also injured in the automobile crash four miles north of Seward, are recovering nicely. Dr. Thomson stated. The others in the crash, Mrs. Hildebrand and her son, Victor, University of Nebraska student, were not badly injured.

EIGHT MILE GROVE LUTHERAN CHURCH

Sunday, June 21st. 9:30 Sunday school. 10:30 German services.

Sunday is visitors day at the Tabitha Home at Lincoln and all are invited to visit there.

On Wednesday, June 24th, the Ladies Aid will meet at the church parlors with Mesdames George Steehr, Jeff Salsburg and A. Leuz, as hostesses. All members cordially invited to be present.

AUGUSTANA SYNOD STRIPS BOARD OF VOTE POWER

Jamestown, N. Y., June 15.—The Augustana Lutheran synod stripped the board of directors of Augustana college and theological seminary, Rock Island, Ill., of some of its power Monday, providing that in future the president of the college and the regular theological professors are to be elected by the synod instead of by the directors.

Father day cards, artistic designs and sentiments, at the Bates Book & Gift Shop.

Butler Tells How Marines Make Friends

Duty in Alien Lands, He Says, Is to Boot Trade Relations and Not to Shoot

When marines are posted in foreign countries to protect the rights of American citizens they spend their time making friends for the United States among the people of the country they temporarily occupy, according to Maj. Gen. Smedley D. Butler, commandant of the United States Marine Corps, Quantico, Va.

Speaking before members of the Beverly Chamber of Commerce at Beverly, Mass., he dispelled the idea that a marine's best trick is to assume a menacing attitude with a loaded gun.

He discussed the recent tour of duty in Tientsin, China. When he landed his party of 5000 men he called them together.

"You gentlemen," he told them, "are to remember one thing: This is not your country. You are here only by courtesy. You have a purpose here. It is the protection of American life and property. You are here also to encourage China to think of the United States in terms of trade, not of war."

"And don't you think of the Chinese as a coolie, a poor, ignorant fellow you can push about and yell at and cheat if you can get away with it. The first marine who is seen slapping a coolie, or pushing him about, or laughing because he cheated him out of ricksha fare, I'll court-martial so quick he'll wonder what fell on him."

General Butler then proceeded to tell incidents of the occupation trade relations with the commissioner of foreign relations who came to him, when the marines had been billeted in the square mile of protected area, and made a long speech in Chinese, the sum of which was that General Butler and his men would kindly leave the country at once.

During the speech the greatest interest showed itself on the faces of a solemn row of beautifully dressed Chinese constituents who had come along with the commissioner. But it turned out that the commissioner had lived in Philadelphia and could speak English perfectly and was making the speech to impress his constituents. In reality, he wished Butler to stay and the two went out into a side room alone and discussed the terms upon which Butler would be so good as to remain precisely where he was.

Another tale about the offers from both Northern and Southern armies of something like 50,000 men each if Butler would boss them on the job of building some new roads; all that was needed was for Butler to find the haul a cent a day it would be paid them. General Butler said he rather wanted to take on that job; because to build roads was the first step in the development of trade. If there were roads American manufacturers could make shoes in Massachusetts, among other places.

Another tale about the offers from both Northern and Southern armies of something like 50,000 men each if Butler would boss them on the job of building some new roads; all that was needed was for Butler to find the haul a cent a day it would be paid them. General Butler said he rather wanted to take on that job; because to build roads was the first step in the development of trade. If there were roads American manufacturers could make shoes in Massachusetts, among other places.

Another tale about the offers from both Northern and Southern armies of something like 50,000 men each if Butler would boss them on the job of building some new roads; all that was needed was for Butler to find the haul a cent a day it would be paid them. General Butler said he rather wanted to take on that job; because to build roads was the first step in the development of trade. If there were roads American manufacturers could make shoes in Massachusetts, among other places.

Another tale about the offers from both Northern and Southern armies of something like 50,000 men each if Butler would boss them on the job of building some new roads; all that was needed was for Butler to find the haul a cent a day it would be paid them. General Butler said he rather wanted to take on that job; because to build roads was the first step in the development of trade. If there were roads American manufacturers could make shoes in Massachusetts, among other places.

Another tale about the offers from both Northern and Southern armies of something like 50,000 men each if Butler would boss them on the job of building some new roads; all that was needed was for Butler to find the haul a cent a day it would be paid them. General Butler said he rather wanted to take on that job; because to build roads was the first step in the development of trade. If there were roads American manufacturers could make shoes in Massachusetts, among other places.

Another tale about the offers from both Northern and Southern armies of something like 50,000 men each if Butler would boss them on the job of building some new roads; all that was needed was for Butler to find the haul a cent a day it would be paid them. General Butler said he rather wanted to take on that job; because to build roads was the first step in the development of trade. If there were roads American manufacturers could make shoes in Massachusetts, among other places.

Another tale about the offers from both Northern and Southern armies of something like 50,000 men each if Butler would boss them on the job of building some new roads; all that was needed was for Butler to find the haul a cent a day it would be paid them. General Butler said he rather wanted to take on that job; because to build roads was the first step in the development of trade. If there were roads American manufacturers could make shoes in Massachusetts, among other places.

Another tale about the offers from both Northern and Southern armies of something like 50,000 men each if Butler would boss them on the job of building some new roads; all that was needed was for Butler to find the haul a cent a day it would be paid them. General Butler said he rather wanted to take on that job; because to build roads was the first step in the development of trade. If there were roads American manufacturers could make shoes in Massachusetts, among other places.

Another tale about the offers from both Northern and Southern armies of something like 50,000 men each if Butler would boss them on the job of building some new roads; all that was needed was for Butler to find the haul a cent a day it would be paid them. General Butler said he rather wanted to take on that job; because to build roads was the first step in the development of trade. If there were roads American manufacturers could make shoes in Massachusetts, among other places.

Another tale about the offers from both Northern and Southern armies of something like 50,000 men each if Butler would boss them on the job of building some new roads; all that was needed was for Butler to find the haul a cent a day it would be paid them. General Butler said he rather wanted to take on that job; because to build roads was the first step in the development of trade. If there were roads American manufacturers could make shoes in Massachusetts, among other places.

Another tale about the offers from both Northern and Southern armies of something like 50,000 men each if Butler would boss them on the job of building some new roads; all that was needed was for Butler to find the haul a cent a day it would be paid them. General Butler said he rather wanted to take on that job; because to build roads was the first step in the development of trade. If there were roads American manufacturers could make shoes in Massachusetts, among other places.

Another tale about the offers from both Northern and Southern armies of something like 50,000 men each if Butler would boss them on the job of building some new roads; all that was needed was for Butler to find the haul a cent a day it would be paid them. General Butler said he rather wanted to take on that job; because to build roads was the first step in the development of trade. If there were roads American manufacturers could make shoes in Massachusetts, among other places.

Another tale about the offers from both Northern and Southern armies of something like 50,000 men each if Butler would boss them on the job of building some new roads; all that was needed was for Butler to find the haul a cent a day it would be paid them. General Butler said he rather wanted to take on that job; because to build roads was the first step in the development of trade. If there were roads American manufacturers could make shoes in Massachusetts, among other places.

Another tale about the offers from both Northern and Southern armies of something like 50,000 men each if Butler would boss them on the job of building some new roads; all that was needed was for Butler to find the haul a cent a day it would be paid them. General Butler said he rather wanted to take on that job; because to build roads was the first step in the development of trade. If there were roads American manufacturers could make shoes in Massachusetts, among other places.

Another tale about the offers from both Northern and Southern armies of something like 50,000 men each if Butler would boss them on the job of building some new roads; all that was needed was for Butler to find the haul a cent a day it would be paid them. General Butler said he rather wanted to take on that job; because to build roads was the first step in the development of trade. If there were roads American manufacturers could make shoes in Massachusetts, among other places.

Another tale about the offers from both Northern and Southern armies of something like 50,000 men each if Butler would boss them on the job of building some new roads; all that was needed was for Butler to find the haul a cent a day it would be paid them. General Butler said he rather wanted to take on that job; because to build roads was the first step in the development of trade. If there were roads American manufacturers could make shoes in Massachusetts, among other places.

Another tale about the offers from both Northern and Southern armies of something like 50,000 men each if Butler would boss them on the job of building some new roads; all that was needed was for Butler to find the haul a cent a day it would be paid them. General Butler said he rather wanted to take on that job; because to build roads was the first step in the development of trade. If there were roads American manufacturers could make shoes in Massachusetts, among other places.

Another tale about the offers from both Northern and Southern armies of something like 50,000 men each if Butler would boss them on the job of building some new roads; all that was needed was for Butler to find the haul a cent a day it would be paid them. General Butler said he rather wanted to take on that job; because to build roads was the first step in the development of trade. If there were roads American manufacturers could make shoes in Massachusetts, among other places.

Another tale about the offers from both Northern and Southern armies of something like 50,000 men each if Butler would boss them on the job of building some new roads; all that was needed was for Butler to find the haul a cent a day it would be paid them. General Butler said he rather wanted to take on that job; because to build roads was the first step in the development of trade. If there were roads American manufacturers could make shoes in Massachusetts, among other places.

Another tale about the offers from both Northern and Southern armies of something like 50,000 men each if Butler would boss them on the job of building some new roads; all that was needed was for Butler to find the haul a cent a day it would be paid them. General Butler said he rather wanted to take on that job; because to build roads was the first step in the development of trade. If there were roads American manufacturers could make shoes in Massachusetts, among other places.

Another tale about the offers from both Northern and Southern armies of something like 50,000 men each if Butler would boss them on the job of building some new roads; all that was needed was for Butler to find the haul a cent a day it would be paid them. General Butler said he rather wanted to take on that job; because to build roads was the first step in the development of trade. If there were roads American manufacturers could make shoes in Massachusetts, among other places.

Another tale about the offers from both Northern and Southern armies of something like 50,000 men each if Butler would boss them on the job of building some new roads; all that was needed was for Butler to find the haul a cent a day it would be paid them. General Butler said he rather wanted to take on that job; because to build roads was the first step in the development of trade. If there were roads American manufacturers could make shoes in Massachusetts, among other places.

Another tale about the offers from both Northern and Southern armies of something like 50,000 men each if Butler would boss them on the job of building some new roads; all that was needed was for Butler to find the haul a cent a day it would be paid them. General Butler said he rather wanted to take on that job; because to build roads was the first step in the development of trade. If there were roads American manufacturers could make shoes in Massachusetts, among other places.