State Legion Officials Visit

Adjutant H. H. Dudley Attend "Over-the-Top" Jubilee.

From Friday's Daily-

About forty of the 108 members of the local American Legion post were present at last night's "Overthe-Top" jubilee meeting, celebrating the successful conclusion of a membership contest that has resulted in the membership exceeding the state department quota of 95 by some fifteen per cent. There were also present at the meeting Department Commander Marcus (Mike) Poteet, and Department Adjutant H. H. (Hank) Dudley, both of Lincoln, who drove Miss Alice Hutton and Mr. Carl B. down specially for the meeting.

The passing of its quota by Plattsmouth post, places all the posts in the 12th district, which includes Cass. Otoe, Lancaster and Seward counties, known young people of this city, over the top. Wednesday is Bargain Day in Plattsmouth SEE IT BEFORE YOU BUY IT

Plattsmouth stores are open every Wednesday evening to afford greater shopping convenience to farmers who are putting in long hours each day, and continuing throughout the summer and fall will be open on these nights. On pages 4 and 5 of this issue of the Jurnal will be found the Bargain day advertisements of a group of Plattsmouth business houses that are co-operating to make this a real trade day. Extra value in all lines is apparent. Goods you use every day. Look at the prices and compare with what you ordinarily pay for the same item. That is the best and only true test of real value. No gold distribution or lotteries to entice you here to trade-just good, honest values that speak for themselves. Plattsmouth is the logical "larger town" shopping point of every Cass county citizen. It offers you freedom from parking restrictions and a friendly interest that extends long after a sale is closed. Prices here keep pace with declining marketsand in many instances are out ahead of the procession. Another thing-when you trade in Plattsmouth you have the satisfaction of knowing your dollars have gone to help pay taxes and build up your home county. Turn to the advertising pages and note the many values listed there—all timely items for which you have need.
