where he is manager of the telephone company, accompanied by Mrs. Gillespie and also Mrs. W. O. Gillespie, who has been visiting at North Loup for the past two weeks.

Undergoes Operation. Mrs. Carl Bornmeier who has been troubled with repeated attacks of tonsillitis and with every recurring attack suffered the worse, had the tonsils removed one day last week by Dr. L. D. Lee who is an expert in surgical cases and especially with tonsils.

Will Have Band Concerts. Arrangements have been perfected for the holding of band concerts at Murdock on every Saturday night which will provide some excellent entertainment for the people of this vicinity and a fact which should be greatly appreciated.

Attend Wedding at Weeping Water. Messrs. and Mesdames Henry A. Tool, Paul Schewe, Harold W. Tool, Emil Kuehn, A. J. Tool, and Mrs. George Work and Douglas Tool, were over to Weeping Water on last Wednesday afternoon where they were in attendance at the wedding of Miss Dorothy Gorder, daughter of County Commissioner and Mrs. F. H. Gorder, who were united in marriage at the Gorder home by the Rev. Birsch, pastor of the Congregational church at Scribner, and who was formerly pastor of the church at Weeping Water, the marriage being between Miss Dorothy Gorder and the Rev. Julian Nyrap, who is minister of the Congregational church at Brule, Nebraska.

Son Comes to Home. It will be remembered that Robert Williams, formerly engaged in the blacksmith business in Murdock, and the family resided here. Their daughter, Miss Emma, was later after their leaving here, united in marriage with Mr. Shoonover. Last week the Schoonover home was blessed by the birth of a son. The families concerned are very happy and the many friends of Murdock are also rejoicing with them.

Join in Celebration. The three Bible schools of Callahan, Murdock and Louisville, joined in the holding of their annual summer picnic at the grove of Mr. Albert Strauch, and where they surely had a fine time with the excellent program which was composed of musical and other numbers and was provided by the three Bible schools. The practice of these three Bible schools is to hold a picnic early in the summer and they have become very popular.

Visiting Friends Here. The Rev. J. V. Bandy, pastor of the church at Grant, Nebraska, is taking his vacation at this time and with the family, are spending the past week and a portion of this, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Tool, the ladies being sisters. On Sunday the Rev. Bandy and other folks were over to Omaha where they were guests of relatives and friends and where Rev. Bandy, who is a veteran of the Spanish American war, made an address to the veterans of this war at Omaha. The members of the Bandy family being Rev. and Mrs. Bandy, son Paul, and daughter, Miss Jane.

The Clover Leaf Club. The Clover Leaf club members and families met for an annual picnic dinner at Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ohms, at 10 o'clock on Sunday, June 14th. Everyone brought such full baskets and so much ice cream which every one enjoyed so much. Most of the club members and families were present. The afternoon was spent in a social time. The rain caused some to leave early but all declared they had a wonderful time.

Parables of Jesus. By L. Neitzel. THE PHARISEE AND A PUBLICAN. Luke 18:9-15. The Lord Jesus shows us here a comparison between the self righteous man and a Godfearing man. This parable is apparently addressed not to the Pharisees themselves, but to certain of the disciples of Jesus who were proud of their spiritual attainments and lacking in the virtues of humility and penitence. A little story will illustrate the attitude of self righteousness: "Jamie and Eddie had quarrelled. So as Jamie had been the most to blame he was sent upstairs alone to think over his sins and repent. When his mother called him down, she asked him what he had been doing. He replied, 'praying.' Well my bow what did you pray for? His reply was, 'I prayed God to pardon Eddie and make him a good boy, and bless all my deeds.' A very good illustration of self righteousness. The words of the Pharisee can hardly be called a prayer. He asked nothing, feels his need of nothing. The Pharisee did, indeed, acknowledge that his virtues were derived from God, but he took all the merit of them to himself, and boasted of them before God and man. Instead of him being indebted to God, he would make it appear that God was indebted to him, his good work should commend him to God. Sorry to say that tribe has not died out, but is with us still, if not on the increase, they hold their own. This man really absolves himself from all sin before God and man, he has no need for mercy, he is better than other men, even despising others, he is filled with pride, this is the characteristic of the proud and haughty, they see the sins of others, but forget their own. How different the publican, he is not conspicuous, does not stand out in the open, to be seen by men, but in his innermost soul he feels and realizes his unworthiness, but feels his need of God's pardon and mercy. He has nothing to boast of, his past life merits only condemnation, he has done nothing for God, to have been a good father, husband and citizen is not to be commended, that was and is every man duty; we are not rewarded if we keep out of jail. God has put man here for the purpose to glorify God, with a virtuous life; help to make this world a better place to live in, be of service to some one. This publican realizes that he has been a failure, his life has been a spent, has now come to see that he needs nothing but God's mercy, hence his prayer: 'God be merciful to me a sinner.' He understood what the Psalmist meant, when he cried: 'Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire beside thee.' His heart would be fully satisfied if God would pardon his sins. Now Jesus sums up the matter and gives his verdict: 'For every one that exalted himself shall be abased, and he that humbled himself shall be exalted.' There was joy in heaven when this publican was declared justified, (a judicial act taking place in heaven) which act follows true repentance. The man so blessed will in gratefulness to a merciful God abstain from sin and anything that would displease his benefactor. In other words, he will be a shining light for Jesus, a witness to the power of God who alone can forgive sin. He can testify, that God hears and answers prayer.

GOES TO SOUTHWEST

From Saturday's Daily—Rev. O. G. Wichmann and son, Arthur, who is here from Chile, are departing on Monday for an auto trip to the southwest. Arthur Wichmann, who is engaged as engineer for one of the large American copper companies in the south American countries, will visit the copper mining regions of New Mexico, Arizona and

Utah before returning to this city. Mr. Wichmann will look after the work in these mines and compared with the methods at the Chile mines where he has been located for the past two years. He has also just signed another three year contract to continue the work in the South American field. Journal Want Ads get results and the cost is very small.
