

Murray

Mrs. Ella Barker and the kiddies were enjoying a visit on last Saturday from a number of aunts of Avoca and one from California.

Lucian Carper was over to Weeping Water on last Monday where he was interested in the winning of the ball game with the Weeping Water team.

A. D. Bakke as a rooster for the Murray team accompanied them to Weeping Water where he enjoyed the winning of the game by the Murray team.

George Nickles was called to Nebraska City on Thursday of last week where he was looking after some business matters and also was meeting with some friends.

Lumber was hauled to the school house of Dist. No. 6 for the making of general repairs at the school property to be ready for the opening of school which was last Monday.

Thomas Nelson was over to Omaha on last Sunday where he went to visit at the home of his son, Lawrence Nelson, the son being employed with the Watson Transportation Co.

Wm. Craig of Union is reported as being very sick at his home and all is being done for his restoration in the way of nursing and medical treatment and it is hoped he will soon be better.

Dr. J. F. Brendel reports the arrival of a very fine son at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David E. Eaton of southeast of town and that the young man and both the parents are getting along nicely.

Cyrus Livingston who farms the Bert Jamison place some eight miles west of Murray was in town for some lumber to make some necessary repairs on the farm and to get ready for the coming of winter.

Miss Reanne Hitchett and Mrs. Ella Barker and the kiddies were enjoying a visit for the week end at the home of Mrs. Barker's mother, Mrs. Anna Meyers of Avoca, they arriving home on Monday morning.

Little Mary Vest, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vest, has been very ill with scarlet fever, but is reported as being slightly better, but the family are kept quarantined on account of the contagious nature of the malady.

Captain H. L. Gayer and little son are trying the experiment of keeping house as Mrs. Gayer is visiting for the week at the home of her parents at Lincoln during the state fair, where she has charge of the 4-H extension work.

Uncle Charles H. Boedeker departed a few days since for Balkow, Mo., where he goes to visit for a time with his daughter who makes her home there, Mrs. Harmon, whom he has not seen for some time. He will visit for a week or longer.

Thomas Nelson, the efficient and genial clerk at the Nickies lumber yard, has been rather under the weather for a number of days, but as he was in bed for one or more days last week with an attack of the flu, and while he is not now and able to around he is not feeling very spry as yet.

District No. 8 in order to be ready for the school year is making a busy day of this week on last week had lumber hauled out and a coal house built. We have it from one of the very studious prognosticators on the weather that this is to be a cold winter and that we had better all get ready for it.

Mr. K. C. Olm of Omaha and who is manager of the Omaha branch of the Sears Roebuck merchandising company, was an early caller in Murray on Monday of this week and was guest of his friend, Everett Spangler, who partaking breakfast together, Mr. Olm was here to look after some business matters and called on his friends.

Thomas Jefferson Brendel and the good wife who have been in the southwestern portion of the state where Jeff has been inspector for the state on some paying work, are visiting in Murray for a few days during the time while the crews are making a change in the locations. Mr. Brendel says it is rather dry in the west but he is liking his work fine.

On last Monday, Van Allen, Dewey Tison and Carl Parks spent their Labor day by making a trip to St. Joseph, Mo., they going via Nebraska City and crossing into Iowa and then down to Missouri and after visiting at St. Joseph also crossed the river again into Kansas, thus visiting four states and enjoying the day very much, arriving home in due time in the evening.

Boedeker and Wehrlein, east, shipped a number of very fine hogs, two loads, they going to Chicago, on last Monday evening, and which as they were, it is expected that they will bring very fair prices. The same firm received two loads of feeders which came from the northeastern portion of Nebraska. These will be placed in the feeding lots to take the place of the ones which have been shipped.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Boedeker, Jr., have been spending a few days in Kansas City where they are in attendance at a wedding of a college pal of Mrs. Boedeker and while they were away on last Monday Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stuart went to the Boedeker home to do the family wash.

and prepared by lighting a fire to heat the water and going back to breakfast when the oil stove ran away with itself and had it not been for the passing of Aubrey Townsend, as he was on his way to work and discovered the flame, the house might have been burned, as it was the neighbors soon had the incipient blaze out. But little damage was done but fortunate it was that the fire was discovered in time.

Missed a Game.

On Monday afternoon, Dr. G. L. Taylor and Harrison L. Gayer and son, both came to Murray to see a ball game and were gravely disappointed for the Murray team went to Weeping Water to play and a great many of the ball fans with them. Both Captain and Dr. Taylor have a very warm spot in their hearts for Murray but were sadly disappointed when they found no game.

Visited Old Home Town.

Dr. Taylor and family of Plattsmouth, who were formerly located at Palmer, were visiting there for a number of days last week and were there for Sunday and there visited with their old time friends, and also met while there the Rev. Robert E. Hanson, former minister of the Murray Christian church, who is serving the Christian church at Palmer at this time. Dr. Taylor tells of the people of Palmer liking Rev. Hanson very much.

Departed for the South.

Mrs. Amanda Gayer, mother of Captain H. L. Gayer, who has been spending the summer with her son on the farm, is departing the latter portion of this week for the south, her home being at Bogatwin, La., but who is stopping at the home of another son, Louis D. Gayer, an attorney at San Antonio, Texas, where she will visit for some time and again will also stop at the home of a daughter before continuing to her home. Mrs. Gayer has enjoyed her visit here very much.

Observe Labor Day.

The bustling city of Murray was rather quiet on last Monday, Labor Day, as many of the ball fans were over to the Weeping Water game and others at the state fair and with a portion of the business houses closed the town was rather peacefully quiet.

Getting Ready for Winter.

Harry E. Nelson, who has been taking his vacation for the past two weeks, has been occupying the time making preparations for the coming of cold weather which he well knows will be along in due time or before notwithstanding it is warm enough at this time.

Home From Vacation.

Little J. P. Douglas who has been spending the past two weeks with an aunt, Mrs. Faye Jacobs, of Atchison, and where he enjoyed every minute of the time, arrived home last week in time to enter school, for he does not want to miss a single day.

Peaches, Peaches, Peaches, Peaches.
We ate some of the celebrated peaches which are being offered by John Farris and which has sure the decided peach flavor, and which he has an abundant supply. Just come bring your containers and he will make you happy with an excellent load of peaches and it will not cost you a fortune either.

Study Club Notice.

The Murray Study Club will meet at the home of Mrs. McDonald on Thursday, Sept. 24th, instead of Sept. 17, owing to the county fair. The hostesses will be Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Farris, Mrs. J. Brendel.

Red Cross Nutrition Work.
Mrs. Bonnie M. Stepp, Red Cross Nutritionist, arrives in Cass county to take up her work in the Cass county school as sponsored by the Cass county chapter A. R. C. Headquarters at Weeping Water, Neb.

Taken to Hospital.
Mr. Louis Wagner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wagner and a prominent young farmer west of Mynard, was taken to Lord Lister hospital Sept. 9th and had an operation for appendicitis. He recovered from the operation well and is now doing fine.

Delightful Time.

Miss Mildred Schomaker gave a party in honor of Miss Eva Bintner. Miss Bintner is leaving to teach school at Schuyler, Nebraska. The time was spent in dancing. The music was furnished by Chester Waldo and Roy Lancaster of Nehawka. Those present were:

MURRAY RED SOX WIN

The Murray Red Sox continued their triumphal march Monday afternoon when they defeated the Cudahy Rex, Omaha colored team by the score of 14 to 7 and made their standing twenty wins out of twenty-two games played this season.

The visitors opened the game by scoring one run in the first half of the contest but from then on the battle was all in favor of Murray, the Sox mashing a drive of Clements, colored hurler in their half of the first to secure five scores and from there had easy going as they hit at will and kept the plate hot in scoring.

The contest featured slugging as all but one member of the team was in the hit column and Cholcher, catcher, and Pierce, third sacker, acquired four hits out of five times at bat. Hopkins, hard hitting Sox hurler, scored a home run while Newman and Ash had triples to their credit with doubles by Pierce, Cholcher and Louie Svoboda, adding to the confusion of the visitors.

The tabulated score of the game was as follows:

HAVE A CLOSE GAME

The Murray Red Sox Sunday with an array of substitutes and shifted players had a close call from defeat at the hands of the Syracuse team, but by the effective work of Hopkins in the last two innings were able to hold the Otce county players, to ring up another victory, 11 to 10.

The game was a free hitting contest, with Pierce, Sox hurler, serving as the hurler of the opening innings while W. Kastens did the tossing for the Syracuse team.

In the fourth inning the Syracuse team had a seven to four lead over the Murray team and increased this to nine to five in the fifth, but in the sixth there was a turn of the tide and the Sox in a swiftest run in six runs to secure a lead that remained with them for the rest of the game.

Louie Svoboda, playing in the center field was the fielding star of the game as he covered not only his own territory but that of the left and right gardens and secured seven put outs.

The tabulated score of the game was as follows:

Greenwood Man Ends Life with a Revolver Monday

Harold Lemon, 30, Kills Self in the Apartment of Lincoln Lady Who Refused to See Him

From Tuesday's Daily—
Harold Lemon, thirty, Greenwood, took his own life at the apartment of Mrs. A. H. Hisey, 137 North 14th street, Lincoln, shortly before 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when Mrs. Hisey refused to see him. He shot himself in the head with a .32 caliber revolver.

Lemon, according to police, had been drinking and had tried to see Mrs. Hisey at noon and again at 4 o'clock. She told police that she ordered him away and he said if she wouldn't let him see her, he would "end it all."

Mrs. Hisey left the apartment, she said, and returned a few minutes later upon hearing a shot. She asked Frank Brown, 140 North Fourteenth street, to look in the apartment. He discovered the body and had police summoned.

Dr. George T. Lewis, city physician, pronounced Lemon dead. Deputy county sheriff H. H. Surdick, acting coroner, said there would be no further investigation.

Lemon, who had been employed by the International Harvester company, as a mechanic, was born at Greenwood. He had spent most of his life there and at Ashland, Surviving here are his parents, two brothers, L. D. and F. C., and a sister, Mrs. H. B. Schroeder, all of Greenwood.

MYNARD STUDY CLUB RESUMES ACTIVITIES

The Goldenrod Study club began its activities with the first meeting of the club year, on Friday afternoon, at the home of Miss Grace Livingston.

The newly-elected president, Mrs. Howard Wiles, presided during the business meeting and in response to the roll call each member responded with a suggestion of an improvement or activity which she would like to have the club accomplish this year.

Several good suggestions were given in regard to aiding schools along different lines of endeavor, and after some discussion it was voted to beautify school grounds of schools, Dist. No. 3 and No. 45, as the club consists mostly of members who live in these districts and are interested in both schools. Two members were appointed to take charge of this movement—Mrs. Albert Wiles for Dist. No. 3, and Mrs. C. L. Wiles for Dist. No. 45, and it is expected that some planting of bulbs and perennials will be done this fall, so that the school children may enjoy some of the early flowers next spring.

The club voted to entertain their families at a "winter retreat" on Friday evening, Sept. 11, at Ed Spangler's grove.

After a short parliamentary drill, led by Mrs. Will Minford, the study was in charge of Mrs. C. L. Wiles, who gave the lesson quite joyfully, and the duties of the members as well as those of the president, in the circular "The President and the Club," many splendid suggestions were cited in regard to the necessity of co-operation of all club members, and of the need to loyal to the president in order to accomplish things worthwhile.

Several visitors were present, and refreshments were served by the hostesses: Miss Grace Livingston, Mrs. B. W. Livingston and Mrs. Myron Wiles.

WOMEN WORKERS GAINING

Washington—A material decrease in the proportion of men gainfully employed, and a decided increase in the percentage of women so occupied, was reported Tuesday by the census bureau on 1930 totals. There were in the United States 48,832,589 gainful workers—28,053,795 men; 10,778,794 women.

These male gainful workers represented but 76.2 percent of the male population ten years of age or over, as against 78.2 percent in 1920; 81.3 percent in 1910; and 80.6 percent in 1900. As the male percentage declined, more women got gainful jobs; 18.8 percent of the females over ten years of age being at work in 1930; 23.4 percent in 1920; 21.1 percent in 1910; 21.1 percent in 1900.

Domestic service still claimed the greatest number of women wage earners, 3,149,391, with manufacturing second in importance, and professional service, principally teaching, third.

Women in professional service outnumbered men—1,762,795 to 1,663,049. Professional men formed but 4.4 percent of the male working group; professional women 16.4 percent of feminine wage earners.

STATE DEPT. FAILS TO CONFIRM KIDNAPING

York, Sept. 6.—Reports concerning the kidnaping of Rev. and Mrs. P. J. Boehr and six children, formerly of Henderson, York county, now missionaries in China, have not been confirmed by the state department at Washington.

Press reports had given their names as among those taken by bandits with 30 other missionaries.

VOLUNTEER VETERANS CLOSE 2D REUNION

Washington, Sept. 3.—Veterans of the Twenty-seventh infantry United States Volunteer Veterans association, who saw service in the Philippine insurrection, will hold their third reunion in Baltimore next August. The organization concluded its second reunion here Wednesday with election of officers.

TO ATTEND CONFERENCE

The Nebraska conference of the Methodist church will open at the First M. E. church at Omaha on Tuesday, September 15th and will cover the remainder of the week. The lay session of the conference will be held on Friday, September 18th. The lay representative of the Plattsmouth church will be John E. Turner, county treasurer, and the pastor, Rev. C. O. Troy will be the ministerial representative at the conference.

The First M. E. church of this city has requested the return of Rev. C. O. Troy to the charge here, where he has so ably filled the position of pastor for the past year. One of the ablest pulpit orators of the state, Rev. Troy has made a splendid addition to the clergy of the city and his return here will be a matter of the greatest satisfaction, not only to the members of his church but to the community at large.

Irrigation from the Platte River Resumed

Water in River Now Makes Prospects for Service in Various Districts Possible

Keeney, Sept. 8.—Following three months of controversy while the Platte river here has been as dry as a desert, prospects are now bright for resumption of irrigation. Reports Tuesday were that all headgates on the river west had been closed and that 450 second feet of water was passing down the river at North Platte. Roy Stuckey of the Lexington ditch assured farmers here that with a head of 300 second feet of water in his canal he will divert the flow into Elm creek, whence it would run into the Kearney canal. Diversion of such a flow into the Platte itself would result in great loss from seepage and evaporation and several days would elapse before any of it reached the headgates here.

The Kearney ditch is owned and operated by the Central Power Co. and claims first priority rights to Platte river water. Ditch companies in western Nebraska, Kearney irrigators charge, kept their headgates open this summer despite the local claims. Finally the matter was laid before Governor Bryan.

Water can no longer save the corn crop of farmers depending on the Kearney ditch. It might, however, help sugar beets, although growers say that in any case they will get only half a crop.

Dawson county farmers alone, it is estimated, will stand a $1,000,000 loss because of the failure to obtain water for their ditches.

State Unable to Help Farmers' Fight for Water
Lincoln, Sept. 8.—Kearney sugar beet growers who recently appealed to Governor Bryan for the release of irrigation water they said was being used by farmers west of a fence in violation of appropriation rights, were advised that apparently there is nothing the state can do to aid them.

Replying to their original request, the executive suggested that arrangement might be made with the Dawson county canal users for carrying water along Elm creek to Kearney. —Bee-News.
