Burr Bank Robber Returned to Nebraska City

After Capture by Officer David Pickrel, Jess Pender Turned Over to Otoe Sheriff

From Wednesday's Daily— Jess Pender, the twenty year old Missouri youth, who held up the American bank at Burr, Nebraska, was turned over to Sheriff Carl Ryder of Nebraska City Tuesday afternoon a short time after his capture here in a vacant house by Officer David Pickrel.

Pender, thin, apparently underfed, with tattered clothes, shaking with fear as he stood in the office of Sheriff Bert Reed was far from the accepted idea of a bank bandit and his story that this was his first offense of this kind could readily be believed.

The prisoner is thought by Sheriff Ryder and the Otoe county officers to have come to Nebraska City in a stolen car, abandoned that there and then taken the Buick sedan of Bert Ryder, brother of the sheriff of Otoe county, but the prisoner denied the theft of the Omaha car and claimed that he had made his way to Nebraska City from Omaha by train. He was caught flat footed in the theft of the Ryder car, however, as he abandoned that car here in the chase made by Sheriff Reed of the prisoner.

dollars of the amount that he had taken.

Pender, according to his story had worked at an Omaha restaurant for the past year, coming originally from Parsons, Kansas, to Kansas City. He had no relatives living excepting an uncle that resided at Los Angeles, California.

To Sheriff Ryder, Pender indicated that he would plead guilty this morning in court at Nebraska City to the charge of bank robbery. The man was taken to Nebraska City Tuesday at 4 o'clock, some five hours after he had committed the robbery at Burr.

FUNERAL OF LILLIAN WOOSTER

The funeral of Lillian Wooster, whose death occurred on Sunday at the hospital at Beatrice, was held Tuesday morning at 9:30 at the Holy Rosary Catholic church on west Pearl street.

The funeral was very largely attended by the old friends and neighbors of the family who came to pay their tributes of respect to the life that had been called away.

The mass was celebrated by Father Marcelles Agius and who also paid a very touching tribute to the departed young girl, whose life had been called to the final reward with the unshaded spirit free from the world's contact and whose life had been one that was truly in the light of faith and hope.

There were many floral tributes and at the close of the service the body was born to the Catholic cemetery where it was laid to the last rest. The pall bearers were Thomas Svoboda, Jr., Henry Krejci, Henry Donat, Joseph Knofieck, James Zitka and James Nowacek, Jr.

HAVE HEAD ON COLLISION

Tuesday evening while Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hell were driving to this city from their home ten miles west of this city, they were victims of an auto wreck, when their car and that of a man named Jackman, of Louisville, met head on.

The accident occurred in the vicinity of the Becker school house eight miles west of this city on the Louisville road, when Mr. and Mrs. Hell, coming east, met the Jackman car which they state was well in the center of the road. It was impossible to avoid the crash and the two cars met practically head on. In the collision the cars were both badly damaged and that of Mr. Jackman turned over.

Mr. and Mrs. Hell was the only member of the party that was seriously hurt, she suffering a severe cut on the arm, having had her arm forced through the glass of the door as the cars crashed.

Mr. and Mrs. Hell were brought on to this city by Harold Rhoden who had been en route to Ashland at the time and was traveling just back of the Jackman car.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express to the many friends and neighbors our appreciation of the many words of sympathy and the beautiful floral remembrances at the funeral of our loved daughter and sister. May these friends have the same consideration shown them in their time of parting.—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wooster and Children.

BURLINGTON REBOUTES CHICAGO-DENVER TRAIN

Lincoln, Sept. 28.—The state railway commission Monday authorized the Burlington to route its Denver-Chicago passenger train, No. 2, out of Omaha via Council Bluffs instead of Plattsmouth. The train passes through Lincoln in the early afternoon.

Death of Warren Trumble, a Well Known Eagle Man

Member of One of the Prominent Families of That Community; World War Veteran.

The death of Warren A. Trumble, well known resident of Eagle and one of the well known world war veterans of Cass county, occurred on Sunday night at the U. S. Veterans hospital at Lincoln. Mr. Trumble had been in his apparent good health until the middle of last week when he suddenly was stricken with what was thought to be appendicitis. The patient was hurried from Eagle to the hospital near Lincoln and where he was operated on Thursday. Mr. Trumble failed to rally from the operation as had been hoped and continued to sink until his death which occurred Sunday.

The deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trumble, long time residents of Eagle and it was in that community that he was born and reared to manhood. He served a term of enlistment in the U. S. navy and was discharged just a short time before the entry of the United States into the world war. In June, 1917 in company with his brother, the late Ernest Trumble, he enlisted in the machine gun company of the 6th Nebraska Infantry and with that organization was located at Camp Cody, New Mexico. Later he was a member of Co. C, 126th machine gun battalion of the 34th division. He was sent overseas with this organization and in November, 1918 was transferred to the 11th machine gun battalion and with which he served in the army of occupation. On his return to Eagle Mr. Trumble was engaged in trucking and has been in that line of work since that time, operating a line between Eagle, Omaha and Lincoln. He was married some eight years ago and is survived by the widow and two small sons as well as the parents and a number of brothers and sisters.

Mr. Trumble is well known in this city as he was associated in the service with Maldon Brown, Henry G. Soennichsen, Frank H. Smith, Otto E. Lutz, Raymond J. Larson, Albert Kerns, Arthur Sampson.

The funeral will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 at the Methodist church in that city.

A LEVY FOR CITY NURSE

Nebraska City—Funds for the employment of a city nurse here will be raised thru a 7-20 mill levy voted by the city commission.

Action to provide for the nurse follows a ruling of District Judge Begley, granting the writ of mandamus to the Nebraska City Lions club, which sought to force the commission to provide for the nurse.

Salary of the nurse will be $1,800 a year. The tax levy is raised from 14 mills to 14.35 mills by the commission's action.
