Boquet of Hate Found on Patterson Grave

Butcher Knife in Boquet on the Grave of Murdered Surveyor Speaks of Hatred

From Monday's Daily— Does the lonely grave of Fred Patterson, murdered county surveyor, carry the clue that will unlock the secret of his slaying?

This morning Deputy Sheriff Rex Young in company with Robert Patterson, son of the dead man, and Joe Shera, a son-in-law, visited the Rock Bluff cemetery where is the last earthly resting place of Fred Patterson, finding on the grave a small bouquet of dried flowers and in the center was a small butcher knife, eight inches in length.

This bunch of flowers were apparently of the common garden variety and from the appearance had come from some home garden and not a florist and while now withered from exposure, it is hoped to find the variety of flowers that made the bouquet.

The floral tribute with its emblem of hatred driven into the earth of the grave had evidently been placed on the grave at the time of the funeral or a very few days thereafter as its appearance was similar to other of the dried floral remembrances.

The finding of the knife and the flowers again revives the belief that the crime was the work of one who knew Patterson well and also who has resided in the neighborhood, bearing a hatred or malice for the dead man that even death could not still and finding expression in the silent placing of a death weapon in the boquet.

Since the murder of Mr. Patterson on Saturday, September 12th, the authorities have been working on the case but this is the first clue that might reveal one whose feeling was so intense against the murdered man that they would come and leave a defiant challenge on the grave.

BOWEN TO ASYLUM

From Tuesday's Daily— William Bowen, who for a thirty day period led the authorities over the west a merry chase with a flood of fraudulent traveler checks, was this morning found insane and ordered sent to the state hospital at Lincoln for care.

Bowen, who was here for a number of weeks engaged as a painter, suddenly departed this city the first of June and a few days thereafter cashed a forged check here at the Fricke drug store, and then leaving the city started out on his distribution of the fraudulent checks over the greater part of the west, Iowa, Missouri, Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado, Utah, California and Washington being visited by the roving check artist. His career in crime was terminated at Ellensburg, Washington, when he was injured in an auto wreck and his stock of checks being discovered in the wrecked car, he was held at the hospital for the Nebraska officers.

The man was returned to Nebraska and for several weeks was at the University hospital under medical care, his back being injured severely in the wreck. Later he became so unruly at the hospital that it was necessary to have him taken to the state penitentiary hospital and held there until two weeks ago when he was brought here and charged with forgery. Bowen made a plea of not guilty to the charge and was to have been tried here at the November term of the district court.

While here in the county jail, Bowen made two attempts to hang himself, he has since been kept under surveillance at the jail. He was taken to Lincoln as soon as possible and placed in the hospital for care.

When coming here Bowen represented himself as a world war veteran but it has since been revealed that he had been in the army but enlisted after the world war in 1919. His membership in the Legion has been revoked and his card taken up since the fact was ascertained, that he was not a service man.

Bowen has been in several institutions over the country for treatment. It is stated, and which led to the decision to file the charge of insanity against him here.

HAULING MANY HOGS

The McMaken Truck line of this city, of which Ray McMaken, president of State Truckers association, is head, has been kept busy in hauling a large number of hogs from near Hartington, Nebraska, to the Robert Troop farm, west of Mynard. Mr. Troop, who is a very extensive feeder of hogs and stock, has secured three hundred head of the stock hogs and which will be fed at the farm. The hogs came from one of the drouth stricken sections of Nebraska and where the corn has been very light owing to the dry weather and grasshoppers, the owners finding it necessary to dispose of the hogs in the sections of the state where the corn is available for feeding.

HAD A CLOSE CALL

From Tuesday's Daily— Richard, fourteen months old son of Judge and Mrs. A. H. Duxbury, had a very close call from being checked to death as the result of a rather unusual accident. The little boy has a small fenced enclosure in which he plays while the members of the family are engaged in the necessary household tasks and this morning the little one was placed in the pen while Mrs. Duxbury was attending to some household work in the laundry. Nearby the pen was the small dog that was chained to a tree. In some manner the dog was able to get over into the pen and jumping around in play with Richard had caught the chain around the neck of the baby and struggling to get free the dog had tightened the chain on the neck of the child. The child was alone only a few minutes and when the mother came from the laundry to look after the child she was terrified to see that his face was discolored and the struggling dog gradually choking the little lad. Richard was released from his position but suffered several lacerations on the neck from the chain and it was sometime before he was fully over the effects of the choking.

Local Football Team Loses to Ft. Crook Team

First Game of the Season Shows Good Material Among the Local Football Squad.

The Plattsmouth football team, piloted by Louie Lohnes, had their first game of the season Sunday at Fort Crook and where they met defeat at the hands of Uncle Sam's boys by the score of 13 to 0.

The first half of the game was scoreless as the two teams showed splendid defensive work but neither team was able to break through for the coveted touchdown.

In the third period the Soldiers with a fast end run were able to plant the first touchdown and in the last quarter of the struggle a driving line smash through center permitted the Soldiers to carry the ball forty yards to their second and last touchdown of the game and the try for point was good, to make the score 13 to 0.

The Plattsmouth team scored a touchdown when Spangler forced over the ball, but the play was called back for side and in the succeeding attempt the locals were held.

The team of local huskies looked good in their opening contest despite the fact that they have not been given the opportunity to practice and prepare for the initial effort of the season. With the experience of the starting contest the locals should be able to make a real showing in the season.

Those who are in the squad comprise Homer Spangler, George Stoll, Oliver Schneider, Dick March, Don Schneider, Chet Renner, Allan McClannahan, Henry Krefel, Richard and Polssall, Harold, George Cady, Kenneth Polssall, Chester Wiles, Virgil Hutton.
