

The Plattsmouth Journal

Knights of Columbus Observe Patron's Day

Splendid Program Enjoyed Last Evening at the K. of C. Hall—Father Herberts Speaker.

From Monday's Daily—The members of the Monsignor Michael A. Shine council of the Knights of Columbus held a very pleasant and impressive observance of the anniversary of the discovery of America and Columbus day last evening at their hall at Seventh street and Chicago avenue.

The program was one in keeping with the great anniversary and was in charge of Walter Grabriel, as chairman of the committee. The musical portion of the program was composed of several very artistic piano numbers given by Charles Nowacek as well as several xylophone solos by Anton Bajcek, one of the well known musicians of this part of the west, the accompaniment being played by Mr. Nowacek at the piano. John J. Clodt, past grand knight of the council, was heard in a very fine vocal number, Mrs. Clodt serving as accompanist.

Father Herberts, dean of men of the Creighton university, was heard in a most inspiring address on Columbus day, stressing the religious side of the life of the great explorer and in whose memory the great Catholic order of America has been named. The privations and tribulations of the navigator who sailed over unknown seas to find a new world, was compared with the present day trials that are besetting the world. The address was delivered with the force of this able and eloquent speaker and gave many vital thoughts for the members of the order.

Hugh F. Gillespie, one of the leading members of the Douglas county bar and long active in the Knights of Columbus activities, was also heard on the program with a discussion of Columbus day and its significance to the members of the great order.

Short talks were also made by Father Marcelles Agius of the Holy Rosary church, John V. Svoboda, grand knight of the Monsignor Shine council and Charles F. Staska, past grand knight of the local chapter.

Following the program a number of the members enjoyed card games for some time and also enjoyed to the utmost the delicious luncheon that had been prepared by the members of the Catholic Daughters of America, this serving to close an evening of pleasure and profit to all of the members.

ENTERTAIN FOR GUEST

Misses Eva and Barbara Gering last evening entertained some forty friends at their beautiful home on North Sixth street in honor of Miss Margaret Sampson, of Seattle, Washington, who has been their house guest for the past week and who leaves for Wichita, Kansas.

Miss Sampson was a resident of this city for a great many years and was a member of the local chapter of the local schools some forty years ago, and last evening a large number of the old time pupils were guests at the informal reception that was rendered in honor of their former teacher.

During the evening many happy incidents of the past were recalled by both the teacher and the former pupils of the days in the school.

WILL UNDERGO TREATMENT

Sunday morning Dr. J. S. Livingston was taken to Omaha where he entered the Clarkson hospital at that place for a course of treatment. Dr. Livingston has not been feeling the best in the last few weeks and recently had a sudden attack that he has felt very severely. In the last few days he has not been so well and it was decided that a course of treatment would be for the best and accordingly he motored to Omaha and entered the hospital. The host of friends trust that the genial physician and surgeon may soon be able to be home and restored to his former health.

Charge Man with Removing Mortgaged Car

Glenn B. Sharp, Former Manager Here of Hinky-Dinky Store Is Sought for Removing Car

Complaint was filed Saturday afternoon in the county court by County Attorney W. G. Klock, charging Glenn B. Sharp, former manager of the Hinky-Dinky store in this city with the removal of mortgaged property, one Essex coach which he had purchased of the Plattsmouth Motor Co., and on which he had given a mortgage back to the motor company.

Mr. Sharp has not been seen since a week ago Saturday night when he took his wife to Omaha for an over Sunday visit, leaving her there and stating that he had an engagement to go hunting the following day or Sunday. On last Monday morning when the time arrived to open up the Hinky Dinky store of which Mr. Sharp had been the manager for several weeks, he failed to appear and the employees of the store were unable to gain entrance.

After the lapse of several days the man failed to appear, and the parties with whom he had purchased the car went hunting for him. He had not made his appearance, and the Plattsmouth Motor Co., started in to try and locate the man and it was then thought that he had left the state, taking with him the car on which the local motor company held the mortgage.

It is supposed that Mr. Sharp has gone to Kansas City, but no definite trace has been found of him or the car.

BACK TO NEBRASKA

C. S. Wortman, who some twenty-five years ago was county superintendent of Cass county, but later deserted the teaching profession for the law, has returned to Nebraska and to his childhood home, Cass county. Mr. Wortman has been a resident in Oklahoma for the years since he left this community and has been very successful in his profession and also active in the political life of the Sooner state.

Mr. Wortman was in the city Saturday for a few hours and was a caller at the Journal to renew the old time associations, he having been a great personal as well as political friend of the Journal publisher, R. A. Bates and the late Col M. A. Bates.

Mr. Wortman states that he is locating in the town of Ashland, a familiar farm in the northern part of Cass county, located on the gravel road from South Bend to Ashland, where C. S. was reared to manhood and where he is now to enjoy life among the old friends. He will open an office in Ashland soon and also intends to establish a local connection with some of the Plattsmouth attorneys.

DEATH OF MRS. BRADY

From Monday's Daily—Mrs. Martha Brady, widow of the late John C. Brady, a former resident of this city, died at her home in Casper, Wyoming, Thursday, October 1st and the funeral services were held on last Thursday at the old home at Watson, Missouri, where the family resided for a great many years prior to coming to this city some twenty-five years ago.

Mrs. Brady was eighty-one years of age at the time of her death and has made her home with her daughter, Miss Leona, at Casper since the death of the husband. She is survived by five daughters and three sons, Mrs. Anna South of Chicago, Mrs. Bessie Cox of Denver, Mrs. Sallie Shore of Kansas City, Miss Leona Brady of Casper, Mrs. Pearl Bayless of Watson, Missouri, R. W. Brady of Los Angeles, H. E. Brady of Omaha and J. C. Brady of Casper, Wyoming.

Cass County Bankers' Meeting at Nehawka

Largest-Attended Meeting in History of Association and Royal Time Afforded Those Attending

The members of the Cass County Bankers association with their ladies, on Monday were the guests of Nehawka, that city being selected as the place of the annual meeting, where they were royally entertained by David C. West, the retiring president of the association and Walter J. Wunderlich, the cashier of the Nehawka bank, who had made the arrangements for the convention.

The sessions were held at the Nehawka auditorium and where the members had the fullest opportunity of enjoying the business session as well as the delightful social time that followed.

The meeting was called to order at 2 o'clock by Mr. West and after the roll call and registration, the members were welcomed by Mayor Vilas P. Sheldon of Nehawka, the response for the banker's group being by Mrs. Roy Franks of Union.

The meeting had a very fine address by the Rev. Charles Durbin, pastor of the First Baptist church of Omaha, whose cleverness as an orator and entertainer are well known over the west.

Mrs. Julian J. Pollard gave a very delightful reading while Miss Mildred Mellor of Nehawka gave a much enjoyed vocal selection.

The ladies after the opening hours program were entertained at the home of Mrs. D. C. West at a tea. The executive session of the banker's group was largely taken up with the discussion of the every day problems of banking and the interchange of ideas among the members. Carl D. Ganz, of the Alvo bank, gave a short talk on "Modern Banking and Profits" while E. F. Folda conducted a question box for the bankers.

At the afternoon session the following officers were named: President—H. A. Schneider, Plattsmouth. Vice-President—O. C. Hinds, Weeping Water. Secretary-Treasurer—R. F. Patterson, Plattsmouth.

It was voted to hold the 1932 meeting at Greenwood. At 6 o'clock the members of the banking group with the ladies were invited to the dining room of the auditorium where a most delightful banquet had been arranged and served by the members of the Nehawka Legion Auxiliary proving one of the best arranged banquets that the banker's have enjoyed in a long series of splendid events of this kind.

During the dinner hour a fine musical program was offered by Mrs. Dorothy Stone, Mrs. Grace Sturm and Mrs. Dorothy Dodson. The menu of the banquet was as follows: Fruit Cocktail, Olives - Jelly - Pickles, Battered Pork, Mashed Potatoes and Gravy, Battered Peas, Candied Sweet Potatoes, Cranberry Ice, Cinnamon Apples, Lettuce and Tomato Salad, Rolls - Butter, Angel Food, Lemon Filling, Coffee - Nuts.

The toast of the evening was presided over by Reese Hastain, of the Bank of Commerce of Louisville, in his clever manner and introducing the various talks on the list. Guy L. Clements of Elmwood was heard on "Depressions I Have Felt," while P. L. Hall, the genial Greenwood banker, responded to "Army Tactics in Note Collecting," both being very much enjoyed by the entire party. Carl D. Ganz, who is always a much enjoyed feature on the banquet programs, was heard in "Chained Banking" and Mrs. Henry Tool of Murdock, contributed for the ladies of the party, "Why Husbands Leave Home."

There were present from this city at the meeting, T. H. Pollock, president and R. F. Patterson, cashier of the Farmers State bank, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Schneider, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Clodt and Carl Schneider of the Plattsmouth State bank.

A TRIBUTE

Born among the lovely hills along the Missouri, Agnes Knofflickova played among stately trees, gathered wild flowers along shaded paths and on sun-drenched meadows, she was like a shy sweet violet and scarcely lifted her head for modesty.

At an early age it was discovered that when she drew the bow of the violin across its strings that it breathed a lovely melody and a talent of more than ordinary ability was revealed.

INJURED IN LEAP

Postmaster James W. Holmes has something new to demand a great deal of his attention and that is an injured right ankle which he sustained on Friday. Mr. Holmes had some business to look after at the office of the Iowa-Nebraska Light & Power Co., and thought to take a short cut from the postoffice grounds to the light office via the back way. As he leaped over the small stone wall in the rear of the light building, he alighted in a small pile of glass and one of the large pieces ran into the leg for a sharp distance. He hurried to the office of Dr. E. J. Gillespie nearby and the injury was treated and the postmaster made as comfortable as possible.

Funeral of Agnes Knofflickova Today

Very Large Number Gather to Pay Their Tributes of Love to Memory of Departed.

From Monday's Daily—This morning the Holy Rosary Catholic church was filled to its capacity by old friends and associates of Agnes Knofflickova, well known concert violinist whose death early Saturday morning brought such a shock to the entire community.

The services at the church were conducted by Father Marcelles Agius, pastor of the church and who celebrating the impressive Catholic burial service, also paid tribute to the departed lady and her services to the world of music and the community where she spent so many years of her life.

During the entire service a string quartet composed of friends from the Omaha symphony orchestra, with which organization the departed lady had so often been heard, gave the beautiful musical setting to the services.

At the conclusion of the service the body was taken to the Catholic cemetery where it was laid to rest in the last long rest in the family lot in that city of the silent. The pall bearers were selected from old friends and musical associates, they being Anton Koubek, Michael Viteranik, Ernest Janda, L. D. Hiatt, John A. Lbershal and E. H. Schulhof.

To Promote Campaign for Home Trade

Meeting on Monday Sponsored by the Civics Committee of the Woman's Club.

The civics committee of the Plattsmouth Woman's club is sponsoring a meeting at the auditorium of the public library on Monday evening that will have as its keynote the building of a greater degree of community loyalty and home trading.

The members of the club are responding to the plans for the club year that has as one of its main objectives that of home loyalty, the building up of a greater appreciation of the Plattsmouth institutions as well as the support of the business enterprises of our city.

The toast of the evening was presided over by Reese Hastain, of the Bank of Commerce of Louisville, in his clever manner and introducing the various talks on the list. Guy L. Clements of Elmwood was heard on "Depressions I Have Felt," while P. L. Hall, the genial Greenwood banker, responded to "Army Tactics in Note Collecting," both being very much enjoyed by the entire party. Carl D. Ganz, who is always a much enjoyed feature on the banquet programs, was heard in "Chained Banking" and Mrs. Henry Tool of Murdock, contributed for the ladies of the party, "Why Husbands Leave Home."

A greater expansion of the business enterprises of the city through united and loyal support will permit the greater employment of people in local activities and which will mean a greater Plattsmouth.

The meeting will be one in which the entire community should be interested, which can have a far reaching effect in the betterment of conditions in all lines of business as well as community upbuilding.

BANKERS AT NEHAWKA

From Monday's Daily—The members of the Cass County Bankers association are at Nehawka today where they are holding their annual meeting and the guests of David West and Walter Wunderlich, the Nehawka bankers for the day. The meeting will be held at the Nehawka auditorium and will bring many of the leaders in the state banking circles as speakers at the meeting. The social features will be the afternoon tea for the ladies with Mrs. West and Mrs. Wunderlich as the hostesses and banquet in the evening which will be attended by the bankers and their ladies. A large number of the staffs of both the Plattsmouth State and Farmers State bank of this city were in attendance.

Supt. Bailey in Charge of Convention

Head of Local School as President of Second District Is Arranging Program.

Supt. R. E. Bailey of Plattsmouth is supervising the arrangements for the program of the district No. 2 convention of the Nebraska State Teachers' Association, which meets in Omaha October 29, 30 and 31. He is being assisted by J. A. Savage, of

R. E. BAILEY, President Second District

Omaha, secretary-treasurer, and O. L. Kenfield, Columbus, vice-president.

Superintendent Bailey has long been a leader in educational matters in the state and his selection for leadership in the state-wide association is a recognition of the fine educational standing of the Plattsmouth school system. Superintendent Bailey has begun his sixth year as head of the Plattsmouth schools. Prior to that, he was superintendent of the Newman Grove schools, at which time he also served as president of district No. 3.

ROTARIANS HOLD MEETING

The local Rotary club met Tuesday at the Majestic cafe for their weekly luncheon, Arthur Troop being the leader of the meeting. The members enjoyed the usual songs which were led by Frank A. Clodt, as the prelude to the program of the session.

Miss Virginia Samek, one of the students of the Plattsmouth high school was featured on the program with a number of very artistically given piano solos that were much enjoyed. Miss Samek is a new student at the school and her splendid training makes her a valuable addition to the musical department of the school.

A number of visitors were at the meeting from Glenwood, Wayne Choate, editor of the Glenwood Opinion, Henry J. Irving, Rev. Brown and Mrs. Choate formed the group from our neighboring city.

Mr. Choate gave a short talk on the Rotary work that was very much enjoyed, he covering the international as well as the local club projects.

HOLDS COURT AT PENDER

From Monday's Daily—Judge James T. Begley departed this morning for Pender, Nebraska, where he is to hold district court this week for Judge Ryan, sitting on a number of important cases.

Next week Judge Begley will be at Lincoln where he is to sit with the state supreme court, the court having a number of the district judges of the state in to hear cases during the year. Judge Begley has been acting on the supreme court assignment a great many times in the last few years and his work has been of a very high standard.

PRESIDE AT TEACHERS MEETING

County Superintendent Alpha C. Peterson, Plattsmouth, will be the presiding officer at the meeting of the Rural Education Section of District Two of the Nebraska State Teachers' Association, which has scheduled its annual convention for October 29, 30 and 31 in Omaha. The sectional meeting will be held Thursday afternoon of convention week. The program includes addresses by Miss Daisy Simons of the National Child Welfare Association and Charles W. Taylor, state superintendent of public instruction.

DOING GRADING WORK

Quite a number of local men are engaged in working in the vicinity of O'Neill, Nebraska, where Henry and Joseph McMaken have a contract for a large grading job on the highway work near that place. Sunday Fred McMaken drove to O'Neill taking with him Allan McClanahan, Frank Slatinsky, Harlan Taylor, Raymond Henry and Ike Gouchenour, who are to assist in the work, Fred returning home last evening.

TAKEN WITH PNEUMONIA

The Plattsmouth friends of Rev. H. E. Sortor, formerly in charge of the local Methodist church, will regret to learn that the pastor is now at the hospital at Kimball, Nebraska, where he was taken a few days ago from his home at Potter, suffering from an attack of pneumonia. Rev. Sortor has been at Potter for the past year since leaving the Plattsmouth charge and recently during the state conference at Omaha, was here to visit the old friends and had just recently returned home when taken ill. The friends here will await with anxiety to learn of the progress of the popular minister.

Popular Young People Joined in Wedlock

Miss Margaret Fitzpatrick of Bellevue and Mr. Bernard H. Klinger Wedded at West Point.

From Tuesday's Daily—The announcement was made today of the marriage on Tuesday, September 29th at West Point, Nebraska, Miss Margaret Fitzpatrick of Bellevue and Mr. Bernard H. Klinger of this city.

The wedding was a very quiet one, the bridal couple motoring to West Point in company with Mrs. Wilbur Fitzpatrick, the mother of the bride, who witnessed the ceremony. The marriage lines were read by Rev. Klink, pastor of the Lutheran church of West Point.

Following the marriage ceremony the wedding party returned to the home of the bride at Bellevue. Both of the contracting parties are well known here among the younger social set and the announcement of their marriage will be the source of much pleasure to the friends to learn that they have decided to take up the journey of life as one.

Both of the contracting parties are well known here among the younger social set and the announcement of their marriage will be the source of much pleasure to the friends to learn that they have decided to take up the journey of life as one.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Klinger of this city and was born and reared in this community, graduating from the Plattsmouth high school in the class of 1928. In his school career, he has been active in the athletic department of the school. Since leaving school he has been engaged for the greater part of the time at the meat market of Mullen & Sons and where he is now employed. A young man of outstanding character he has a very large circle of friends here who are joining in their congratulations and well wishes for the future success and happiness of these two estimable young people.

D. A. B. HOLDS MEETING

Fontenelle Chapter D. A. B. met at the home of Mrs. F. G. Morgan Monday, October 12, 1931.

At this time the regular routine of business was conducted by the regent, Mrs. J. S. Livingston. Among the activities reported was assistance in the placing of the Compendium of Genealogy, Vol. 1 on the shelves of our city library. Any one who desires may now have the opportunity of tracing whatever ancestors may be found recorded there.

Suggested activities for the future are the collection of all available data and records for compiling a source book of Nebraska history; the planting of memorial trees in honor of the Washington bicentennial, and a continuation of programs to develop patriotic influence.

Two very interesting papers were read: The first by Mrs. Knoch, showing the responsibility for preserving the ideals established by the constitution of the United States; the second by Mrs. Gobelman on Patriotic Women of the Revolutionary period. A number of heroic incidents were recalled which proved the courage and patriotism of early American women.

SUFFERING FROM ILLNESS

Miss Gladys Bushnell, who has been teaching at the LaPlatte school for the past two years, has been confined to the home here for the last few days with an illness that may make it necessary for her to give up her school work for at least a month. Miss Bushnell was ill a great deal last fall and winter and on resuming her school work this year suffered another attack that has made it necessary for her to remain at home.

TO ATTEND GLENWOOD MEETING

From Wednesday's Daily—This afternoon C. C. Wescott, E. A. Wurl, R. W. Knorr and F. E. Busch, of the retail section of the Chamber of Commerce, motored to Glenwood where they are to be the guests this evening of the retailers of the Iowa city. The local men are anticipating a fine time and a most interesting discussion of the common problems of modern day merchandising.

Teachers' Convention Plans are Nearly Complete

Meetings at Omaha, Lincoln, Norfolk, Hastings, Holdrege and Sidney to Draw Many.

Plans are nearly complete for the six district conventions of the Nebraska State Teachers' Association to be held simultaneously in Lincoln, Omaha, Norfolk, Hastings, Holdrege and Sidney, October 28, 29, 30 and 31, according to announcement by General Secretary E. M. Hosman of Lincoln.

Several more speakers of nationwide reputation have been added to the various district programs. Teachers attending the meetings of Districts one and three in Lincoln and Norfolk respectively, will hear Dr. Carleton Washburne, superintendent of the nationally-known Winnetka, Illinois, schools, according to announcements by District Presidents R. B. Carey and Allen P. Burkhardt.

Dean Ambrose L. Suhrie of the College of Education, New York University will appear on the programs of Districts two and four meeting in Omaha and Hastings respectively. Presidents of these districts are Supt. R. E. Bailey of Plattsmouth and President George E. Martin of the Kearney State Teachers' College.

Teachers of Districts two and five will have the opportunity of hearing Capt. Irving O'Hay of Taos, New Mexico, one of the original characters upon whom Richard Harding Davis based his "Soldier of Fortune."

Harry L. Fogleman, known as "Gatling Gun" Fogleman, lecturer and U. S. commissioner of business institutions of the country, who fires words at his audience at the rate of 300 a minute, has contracted for the programs of Districts five and six. Supt. J. E. Shedd of Cambridge and Supt. N. L. Tyson of Minatare are the presidents of these respective districts.

Speakers previously contracted include such nationally-recognized educators as Dr. Griffith Taylor of the University of Chicago; Dr. Laura Zirbes of Ohio State University; Dr. E. W. Butterfield, commissioner of education for Connecticut; Dr. Charles Williams, field secretary of the National Education Association; Ruth Bryan Owen, daughter of William Jennings Bryan; Dr. George D. Strayer, professor of education in Teachers College, Columbia University; U. S. Commissioner of Education William John Cooper; and Frederick W. Carberry of Milwaukee, known as the man with the "talking hands." In all, more than thirty nationally-known speakers appear on the six district programs.

Besides the general and sectional meetings of a professional nature, each convention program includes special entertainment features.

ALL STARS CLOSE SEASON

The All Stars baseball team, composed of a large group of the young men residing west of this city, Sunday afternoon closed the baseball season in a blaze of glory, inflicting a defeat on the team composed of residents of this city. The score was 16 to 13 for the All Stars when the final out was made and completes a fine record for the season. Floyd Decker has been the pitcher for the All Stars for the season while Ben Speck has done the "Mickey" Cochran back of the bat for the season. The two teams played last Sunday at the All Stars meet and defeat by the score of 18 to 3, but Sunday were able to wipe out the sting of defeat. Ernest Hild featured the game with a three bagger, the longest hit of the contest.

A PIONEER RESIDENT

Mrs. D. C. Morgan was at Fort Crook Sunday to spend the day with her aunt, Mrs. Anna Miller, who resides on the farm three miles west of the Fort. Mrs. Miller is to celebrate her eighty-fifth birthday in a few days and is one of the pioneer residents of Sarpy county. She came to that county in 1856 when a young girl and has been a resident of the vicinity of Fort Crook since that time. She has lived on the farm near Fort Crook for over fifty years. Mrs. Miller is well known to a great many of the local people here and has the pleasure of knowing this splendid pioneer lady.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

A very pleasant surprise dinner was given Mr. James Bridgewater, Sr., on Tuesday evening, October 13, in honor of his birthday, the dinner being served by Mrs. Bridgewater and daughters.

Those enjoying the occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Marquette and children, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mason and son, Mrs. Maggie Mason, Miss Mildred Carburg, Mr. James M. Bridgewater, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. James Bridgewater, Sr.