LENA FITZGERALD IS CHARGED IN SHOOTING

Omaha—Mrs. Lena Fitzgerald, who three weeks ago shot and wounded the mother of her divorced husband, Mrs. Johanna Fitzgerald, was bound over to district court Wednesday on charges of shooting with intent to kill and shooting with intent to wound. She waived preliminary hearing in police court.

for ANY BABY

WE can never be sure just what makes an infant restless, but the remedy can always be the same. Good old Castoria! There's comfort in every drop of this pure vegetable preparation, and not the slightest harm in its frequent use. As often as Baby has a fretful spell, is feverish, or cries and can't sleep, let Castoria soothe and quiet him. Sometimes it's a touch of colic. Sometimes constipation. Or diarrhea—a condition that should always be checked without delay. Just keep Castoria handy and give it promptly. Relief will follow very promptly; if it doesn't you should call a physician.

MURDOCK ITEMS

Uncle Henry Bergman is on the sick list with Dr. Lee in attendance. Emil Keuhn was working for an insurance company at and in the vicinity of Ulisses during the past week.

A number of delegates of the Royal Neighbors of America from the lodge at Murdock were in attendance on Thursday of last week at the convention which was held by the order in Weeping Water.

L. Neitzel took violently sick last Saturday evening. It took Dr. Lee several hours to bring relief to the patient, but at this writing Mr. Neitzel is back on the job as usual. You can't keep a good man down for long.

The pheasants which have been cultivated for the shooting of the hunters, have not excited the people of Murdock very much. On Wednesday when we visited the city of Murdock, there had no one gone to search for any missing birds but there was some talk of a party going out to look for the missing.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Toot and their daughter, Miss Mary, were enjoying the visit to Nehawka on last Monday, notwithstanding the rain, attending the meeting of the Cass County Bankers Association which was meeting there and also the banquet which was a feature of the social side which was held in the evening.

Robert Hunter, who has been making his home in Hitchcock, South Dakota, for the summer and who was a visitor for a short time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heineman here, returned to Plattsmouth one day last week. While he was in South Dakota he was working with a brother of Henry Heineman, J. H. Heineman, Mrs. Heineman of South Dakota being his sister.

Enjoy Merry Evening.
The Bible school classes which are taught by Mrs. Leo Rikli and Mrs. Otto Miller, joined forces and also enjoyed a very pleasant evening last week when they gathered at the home of Mrs. Leo Rikli for an evening of fun and merriment which they sure had. Games were played and at the psychological moment a very appetizing and delightful luncheon was served which added much to the occasion.

Fairmont Creamery Here Closes.
The Fairmont creamery which has been operated since the departure of Mrs. George Miller, by C. W. Jewell, which did not pay very well, has been discontinued and the stock of shoes which was carried by Mr. Jewell in connection with the creamery has been taken over by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Frye, who operates the cafe.

Many Potatoes in Many Hills.
Henry Gakemeier and wife received a letter on last Wednesday from their daughter Miss "Peadie" from Hemmingford, where she has been staying for the past summer, states that the potato harvest is in full blast and that Wayne Swartz and wife have very good returns though nothing like former years. One piece which they had to potatoes yielded 1800 bushels, while another one yielded 2300 bushels. The crop is rather poor over most of the country and the potato raising country is the same as that which is given to general farming. The price of the potatoes at Hemmingford is only 17 cents the bushel. Mr. Swartz is expecting as soon as the harvest is over to bring a truck load to Murdock for sale. Peadie is expecting to come home as soon as the potato harvest is over which will be in a short time. She is assisting in the harvest of the tubers.

Getting Ready for Winter.
John Eppings, the road patrolman, with the assistance of E. W. Thingan, are very busy at this time hauling out and placing in position the snow fences so that when the winter brings the blizzards the drifting of the snow will be diverted from the roads and kept in the fields.

"The Old Home Farm."
There was a little farm that nestled on the side of a hill;
T'was a lonely spot in winter, when the earth was white and still;
When the tempest made your heart ache with its bitter, wailing sigh.
And the roads were all unbroken and a storm was in the sky.

There was little bit of pasture where the huckleberries grew;
T'was a quiet place in winter 'neath the ghostly sheet of snow;
And the vines that twined their tendrils all about the stony wall,
Were the wraiths of creeping woodbine that was scarlet in the fall.

There was a time I can remember at the twilight of the day,
When the shadows growing purple, looked like forms that kneel and pray.

When my precious mother stood in the window and struck a light,
And the lamp-shine glimmered all across the winter night.

There was a little farm that nestled on the side of a hill,
And a group of memories haunt me—I am sure they always will.
For a boundless love, far-reaching, stretches toward me where I roam,
And my heart is lonely, sometimes, for that little farm was my home!

"Father."
I used to wonder just why father Never had much time to play,
I used to wonder why he'd rather Work each minute of the day,
I used to wonder why he never Loafed along the road and shirked,
I don't recall a time when ever Father played while others worked.

Father didn't dress in fashion,
He sort of hated clothing new,
Style with him was not a passion,
He had other things in view.
Boys are blind to much that's going on about them every day,
And I had no way of knowing What became of father's pay.

All I knew was when I needed Shoes, I got them on the spot;
Everything for which I pleaded,
Somehow, father always got.
Wondered season after season Why he never took a rest;
And that I might be the reason,
That I never even guessed.

I saw his cheeks were getting paler,
I didn't understand just why,
I saw his body growing frailer,
Then at last I saw him die.

Rest had come! His task was ended,
Calm was written on his brow,
Father's life was big and splendid,
And I understand it now.

M'COOK FARMER DIES WHILE ON CAR RIDE

McCook—John Hesterworth, fifty-eight, prominent farmer south of here, died suddenly Friday. He was in an automobile with one son, en route to the home of another son. Mr. Hesterworth told his son, Burdett, with whom he was riding, to take the wheel as he did not feel well. A few minutes later Mr. Hesterworth died. He is survived by his widow and six children.

Japanese Military Says U. S. 'Meddling'

Statement Avers Situation in Manchuria Considered Personal to Tokio.

Tokio, Oct. 17.—The Rengo News agency today carried a statement from army authorities characterizing America's attitude on the Manchurian situation as "extremely meddling."

The statement said army authorities explained that the government has repeatedly stated the recent difficulties in Manchuria should be settled between Japan and China without the intervention of a third party.

Therefore, the statement continued, "it is extremely meddling on the part of the United States to concern herself with a serious issue arising in the region where Japan has special, peculiar relations. Such a step would only irritate the sensitive feelings of the Japanese people, who are particularly susceptible regarding Manchuria."

Receipt of dispatches this morning saying the council of the League of Nations had overridden Japan's opposition to the participation of an American representative in the council's discussion of the Manchurian question caused great concern among officials. Although today was a national holiday the war department and foreign office forces worked on full schedules.

It was reported the government was considering sending another set of instructions to the Japanese spokesman at Geneva, Kenkichi Yoshizawa. Military authorities at a joint meeting were reported to have voted to uphold Japan's position in objecting to having an American representative at the league discussions.

Meanwhile General Minami referred to the "gravity of the situation" in inviting vernacular newspaper representatives to meet with him at noon.—World-Herald.

NOW ON-WINTER SCHEDULE

The force of section men and bridge gang of the Burlington railroad is now being cut down to the usual winter standard, the work in this line of the railroad being curtailed as the cold weather sets in. The force is cut down to the lowest possible figure for the cold weather months each year, but this year it is being pared somewhat earlier than usual.

The general falling off in traffic is being reflected in the road maintaining forces of the railroad company, very little farm produce is being handled at this time, the general tendency being apparently to hold the grain and other products for higher prices, when usually at this season of the year traffic is very good in the shipments to market.

SOONER AGGIES DEFEAT HASKELL INDIANS 42-0

Stillwater—Bottling "Little" Rabbit Weller and his dangerous Haskell mates thruout the game, an alert Oklahoman Aggie eleven smothered the Braves, 42 to 0, here Friday night, the Cowboys flashing a whirling, slashing offense that cut the bucks to ribbons.

A. & M. drove two touchdowns thru in a hard fought first quarter, when Hayden Trigg twice broke loose to give the Cowboys scores of scoring chances. Pushing their advantage, the Aggies rolled two more touchdowns thru the Braves and then completely routed the Bucks in a stunning last quarter flafe of touchdowns races that boosted the tally skyward.
