

MURDOCK ITEMS

Henry A. Tool was called to Lincoln on last Monday to look after some business matters for a few hours.

John Gakemeier was looking after home business matters in Manley on last Wednesday, driving over in his auto.

Eddie Craig and wife were enjoying a visit on last Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Craig of Wymore.

Mrs. W. O. Gillespie, who has been visiting for a few days at the home of her brother, Wm. McNamara, returned home early last week.

Miss Marie Ostblom was spending a number of days last week in Omaha where she was visiting with a number of her friends and relatives.

Victor Thimgan was a visitor in Lincoln on last Wednesday afternoon where he went to secure some materials for the use in the carpenter shop.

Mrs. S. B. McDiarmid and daughter, Miss Dorothy Jane, of Omaha, were visiting in Murdock on last Wednesday, with Mr. and Mrs. L. Neitzel.

Mrs. L. B. Gorthy has been kept to her bed for a number of days during the past week, but is reported as feeling quite a bit improved at this time.

Insurance business called Emil Kuehn to Murray and Nebraska City Monday. While at Murray he visited with Aubrey Townsend, the barber at that place.

Judge W. E. Newkirk and wife of Greenwood were visiting for the week at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Dr. L. D. Lee, where all enjoyed the stay very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Walling of Johnson, friends of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie V. Craig, were visiting at the Craig home one day this week, all enjoying the visit very much.

Uncle Henry Bashman was kept to his home for a number of days during the past week. While still not feeling the best, it is so he can get out and down town again.

Miss Viola Everett, who is employed as saleswoman in a store at Beatrice, was a visitor in Murdock for the day on last Sunday, and was a guest of her friend, Miss Beulah Eichoff.

The home of A. J. Tool was made happy last week when Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Meyers and their son, Billie, were spending several days here. Mr. and Mrs. Meyers are making their home in Sioux City.

Paul Stock recently sold to Albert Zierot and also to A. H. Ward, one of the celebrated Clarion Jr. radios, which is all electric, and all that has to be done is to plug in on the electric light line and away the thing goes, talking in all languages and singing all tunes.

Albert Bauer, who carries the mail between the postoffice and the Rock Island station, suffered a very severe sick spell last Saturday night and was so on Wednesday that he had Mr. Gorthy carry the day mails while he rested. It is hoped that he will soon be in his usual health again.

Happiness came to the home of Henry Amgwert on last Monday morning when at the Lutheran hospital in Omaha the stork brought Mr. and Mrs. Henry Amgwert a very fine young son, tipping the scales at seven and a half pounds. The young man and his mother are doing nicely while the father is whistling away as he goes about his work.

Lacey McDonald and wife, accompanied by the kiddies and Mrs. Hannah McDonald, were over to North Loup, where they were at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gillespie for over the week end and where Harry and Lacey also discussed the matter of their allowance of five pheasants which while not as easy to get as at the first of the season, they were able to obtain just the same.

Raymond Hemke Joins Army. Raymond Hemke departed some ten days since for Ft. Donnellson, which is located near Los Angeles, where he joined the U. S. Army. There was little employment for the young man about this vicinity and so he thought he would accept the proffer of Uncle Sam for employment for the next four years.

Effects a Consolidation. R. E. Riley of Omaha, who is and has been the representative of the U. S. Oil works of Council Bluffs, Iowa, was a visitor in Murdock and guest with his friends, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Ward for dinner last Monday and was accompanied by Mrs. Riley. While here Mr. Riley announced the consolidation of the U. S. Oil Works and the Deep Rock Oil company of Nebraska. A. H. Ward, who is the local manager of the U. S. Oil Works, will still remain and be the manager of the consolidated company.

Were Hunting Ducks. Early last week S. P. Lies, Henry Jacobson and Otto Eichoff, and accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stroy, departed for the northeastern part of the state, where the former three went to hunt ducks and Mr. and Mrs. Stroy went to visit at the home of the parents of Mrs. Stroy for some time.

Will Institute Bakery. Mrs. Matt Thimgan will with this week institute a bakery and cafe in the building belonging to Mr. Shatto, which has been used heretofore as a cream station by Mrs. George Miller. With the discontinuance of the daily visit of the Gutch Bakery wagon and the Petersen bread wagon from Lincoln and Omaha, it looks like the venture would be a good one. Mrs. Thimgan will devote her work mostly to the line of pastry and cakes. Mrs. Thimgan is an excellent cook as well as one of the very best of bakers and we see no reason why she should not make an excellent success. With a loyal clientele, both in the city and country, this business should be made a good one.

Sustains Severe Injury. Mrs. John Gakemeier, living a few miles west of Louisville, while descending the cellar steps at the farm home, fell and sustained a compound fracture of one of her legs, which is causing this excellent woman much grief and causing her to be laid up for a time. It is hoped she will soon be able to about her household duties again and be entirely recovered.

Had Excellent Rally Day. On Sunday, October 25th, at the Callahan church southwest of Murdock was celebrated the rally day of both the Bible school and the church and as the day was fine, there was a large and very enthusiastic crowd in attendance with a very worth while program for both the Bible school and the church, showing that the church membership was alive to the best interests of the community. L. Neitzel made a very good address at the gathering which was well received.

Young People Give Program. The young people gave a very well received program at the Murdock church on Sunday night which attracted a large and greatly interested crowd, and also which realized a very neat sum for the work of the church and for missions.

The Class in the Corner. The class in the corner at the Murdock church, enjoyed a very fine gathering on last Friday evening when they got together for their pre-Hallowe'en festival. The decorations were of the autumn colors and the evening was filled with games, merriment and singing with a plenty of eats which also was greatly enjoyed.

Hallowe'en Program. The seventh and eighth grades of the Murdock school are giving a lively Hallowe'en program Tuesday, October 17th, starting at 7:45 p. m. at the high school gym. Tickets may be purchased at the Merchants Store, Murdock, or at the door that night at 10 and 15 cents. Everyone present will be appreciated.

Hold First Meeting. The Syastika club held their first meeting at the home of Anna Rieke, Oct. 15th. The lesson was about the Study of What Makes a Picture Worth While. The next meeting will be held at the home of Julia Zoz, Nov. 27th.

U. S. Feeling Better' is Belief of Schwab

Steel Magnate Says Fear is Lessening, Credit Mobilized.—'History Will Repeat Itself'

New York, Oct. 23.—"Restrained cheerfulness" regarding the future of business featured the address of Charles M. Schwab today at the semi-annual meeting of the American Iron and Metal Institute.

Although recognizing that "we have a real depression," the speaker declared the country had been through "perilous periods" in times past and had always emerged to a prosperity greater than ever before. He believed that "history will repeat itself." Mr. Schwab is president of the institute.

"Fear has been lessened," he said. "There will be no collapse. The sources of credit have been mobilized and we shall pull through. I have seen us pull through too many crises to be overwhelmed by the situation of the past months."

The Schwab viewpoint was summed up as follows: "I believe in the continued growth of our country, the essential strength of the steel industry, and the ability of our nation to master the problems of a complicated age. If the optimism, make the most of it."

Must Face Facts. Although, he said, "every one is feeling better," Mr. Schwab warned: "We must face some hard facts both in our own business and the industrial world as a whole."

"The lesson is that we cannot longer ignore the economy of other countries. In other depressions we could forget about the hard times in other countries. Then we were a debtor nation and largely self-sufficient. Today we are a creditor nation and the prosperity of our international neighbors is necessary to our own being. We must promote better economic relationships among nations, and we must declare a permanent moratorium on national jingoism."

To desire of peoples in all parts of the world is for peace, the speaker said, adding that "the talk of nations has no place in the hearts of people anywhere."

Excitable Temperament. Of the security markets, the steel executive said: "For a time the American public has had a bad case of nerves. The liquidation of securities has been beyond all reason. One would conclude by the security prices that our transportation lines would never do any more business. Transportation, in fact, is a basic necessity of all business."

"I am not aiming to boost railroad stocks, nor am I saying that the market will go higher or lower in the immediate future, but I do say that the over-liquidated prices of many securities is a sign of too short perspective, and too excitable temperament."

The American home market was pictured tonight by James A. Farrell, president of the United States Steel corporation, as the "pivotal point of trade recovery." He spoke at the fall banquet of the institute.

"We have the capital, if freed by confidence," he asserted, "for a vigorous and aggressive policy to make this market the pivotal point of trade recovery. We have an immense consuming capacity and must discover means for increasing consumer demand."

"We must resolve at all hazards to restore and maintain our standards and loyal co-operation there. There is but one course for us—to pursue the path which in former periods of depression brought us in safety to higher levels of prosperity."

"Competition, as we know, is the law of life. In business it means a healthy struggle for profitable trade through a lowering of costs. Legitimate competition is the chief incentive to progress through greater enterprise and efficiency."—World-Herald.

FIND 2D SLAIN BANK BANDIT

Menomonee, Wis., Oct. 22.—The sheriff's office late Thursday was informed a body believed that of a second bandit slain in the Menomonee bank raid Tuesday had been found near Shell lake and that three suspects were caught near Chippewa Falls.

The body had been shot through the neck. It was discovered not far from Web lake to which the bandit car was traced late Thursday after an assistant cashier and one bandit had been slain.

The body lay near where Margaret King saw the bandit car with windows shot out. She said she saw several men in the car, trying to bandage wounds of one occupant bleeding profusely.

Clothing on the body contained wrappers for ammunition purchased in St. Paul.

"The big car with its windshield shot out was parked near my house Tuesday afternoon," said Miss King. "Two men were bandaging a companion and I could see blood on the seat of the car. The man's body was found about 25 rods from where I saw the car."

Later some persons said they saw the bandit car with only two occupants. This led to belief a second raider had been wounded fatally. After discovery of the body Thursday, officers said they believed the man died and his body was left behind.

STUDENTS ENTER BATTLE

Hanover, N. H.—Shouting "taxation without representation is tyranny," 1,500 Dartmouth college students engaged in a noisy demonstration against a proposal asking the voters of Hanover to raise $200,000 for construction of a new high school. After a bonfire on the campus, the students gathered in Webster hall where a suggestion that they take over the town government met with enthusiasm and brought several nominations for mayor.

They then marched to a grade school where a town meeting was considering the school bond issue, and demanded the meeting be transferred to the college hall, where the students might take part. It appeared the college men had no objection to the town's building a new high school, but did object to the added taxation it would impose on fraternity members who are not eligible voters.

Farmer Dies from Injuries in Fall from Tree

Lee Haswell, Farmer in Vicinity of Louisville, Has Back Broken in Fall

From Thursday's Daily.—The funeral of Lee Haswell, 32, farmer of the vicinity of Louisville, was held today at Avoca, the former family home, to which place the body was taken following the death of the young man at an Omaha hospital Tuesday.

Mr. Haswell was injured Monday when he fell from a tree that he was trimming at the old Milton Gentry farm southeast of Louisville. He was cutting of a dead limb from the upper portion of the tree and fell a distance of twenty-five feet to the ground. The fall resulted in the breaking of the back of Mr. Haswell, the spinal cord being completely severed between the shoulders. The accident occurred about 11 o'clock in the morning and the injured man was not discovered until 5 o'clock Monday afternoon when Ed Ingram, Sr., hunting some stray cattle, heard the groans of Mr. Haswell and investigating, discovered him lying on the ground where he had fallen for hours before. The injured man was still conscious and said that he had heard the Louisville cement plant whistle sometime after the accident and placed the time of his injury at about 11 o'clock.

Mr. Haswell had intended to help a neighbor, Lloyd Group, shuck corn in the afternoon, the family not expecting his return home until evening and so his absence had occasioned no alarm.

He was paralyzed from the shoulders down and was hurried on into Omaha where he died several hours later at the M. E. hospital.

He is survived by the widow and four small children.

Treasurer Says Ohio Plan Not Legal Here

Real Estate Mortgages Not to Be Used to Secure Public Funds Now in Banks.

A plan to be tried in Ohio to relieve banks by permitting them to substitute real estate mortgages for securities which they have deposited to secure public funds will not be workable in Nebraska, according to State Treasurer T. W. Bass, for the reason that the Nebraska law does not authorize the giving of real estate mortgages for that purpose.

Treasurer Bass said Nebraska had such a law applying only to county and city deposits, but it was repealed by the legislature of 1929.

The attorney general of Ohio has discovered a statute which had been overlooked which allows the banks to deposit real estate mortgages of a certain class as security for county, municipal and school district funds, and says it may be enforced for the purpose of releasing other forms of securities to banks which can use them to advantage. In another state the attorney general has ruled that real estate mortgages are not contemplated as security for public funds.

The Nebraska law, said Treasurer Bass, permits authorized banks to deposit a guaranty bond for security of public deposits, also United States government bonds or bonds of the state of Nebraska, or of any state whose bonds are purchasable by the Nebraska board of educational lands and funds for investment of permanent school funds; also bonds of any county, school district, or city or village bonds issued in Nebraska, or bonds issued under authority of the federal farm loan act. This law is being strictly enforced by the state treasurer, it is said.
