

UNION ITEMS.

Claude Lane, the manager of the Trunkenholz filling station, was called to Lincoln on last Saturday.

George A. Stites and family of Union were visiting with friends in Syracuse for the day on last Sunday.

W. J. Shannasee and wife of Nebraska City were visiting for the day on last Sunday with friends in Union.

Mrs. D. C. LaRue of Blair, and Mrs. Wayne Garrett of Omaha, were visiting in Union for the day on last Sunday.

Mrs. John Campbell of Murray, Nebr., a sister of Dan Lynn, was an all night visitor with the Lynn family Monday night.

A. L. Becker was a visitor in Nebraska City on Tuesday of this week where he was delivering a truck load of wood to a client.

Kelley Rhoden of near Murray was a visitor in Union on Tuesday of this week and was looking after some business matters while here.

C. E. Withrow and wife of Nebraska City were calling at the home of their son, Elmer Withrow and family of Union on last Sunday evening.

W. O. Burbee, the garage man, was called to Omaha on Tuesday of this week to secure repairs which he was using in his repair shop at the garage.

Mrs. J. C. Gillespie of Nebraska City is visiting for a few weeks at the home of her son, Dean Gillespie and family, she having arrived later last week.

David Meade of Lincoln was a visitor in Union for the day on last Sunday and was guest at the home of his mother, Mrs. John Armstrong and family.

Leonard Burbee and Miss Doris Albin were enjoying a ride to Shenandoah, Iowa, on last Sunday and attended the district school at the KMA studio.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Keedy of Ashland, where they are engaged in the drug business, were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of W. H. Porter and wife.

N. C. DeLes Derner was sawing his winter's wood with a power saw on Monday of this week, getting it out of the way so that the winter has no terrors for him and family.

W. B. Banning and wife and Mr. and Mrs. D. Ray Frans were over to Lincoln on last Thursday and Friday where they were in attendance at the meeting of the Bankers State convention.

D. Ray Frans and family and his mother, Mrs. Jennie Frans, were guests for the afternoon and evening and for a very fine supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rue H. Frans of that place.

R. D. Stine was a visitor in Nebraska City early on last Monday morning for a car load of flour, of which he is selling a good quantity and more as there is more taking done now than formerly.

Pat Roddy and Harry Meade who have been working with the paving crew near Fort Calhoun with the completing of the work there, returned to Union as there was no more work in that line open just now.

Mrs. Henry H. Becker and Miss Anna Bauer were visiting for the day on last Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Schroeder of near Greenwood, they driving over to the west end of the county in their car.

John Banning and the good wife of Alvo, were guests in Union on last Sunday, visiting at the home of Joseph Banning and family and in the afternoon accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Banning and Miss Pearl Banning in their trip to Shenandoah, where they saw the city under the autumn sunshine and also attended the district school at the Earl May studio.

Many of the Masons of Union were over to the Masonic school which was being held at the hall of the order at Nehawka on last Tuesday and Wednesday. The instruction was given by Dr. J. B. Litchewalner, who is the grand custodian. While on his way to Nehawka, Dr. Litchewalner stopped in Union and visited for a time with his old time friend, Joe Banning.

Lucrean and Hallas Banning were visiting with friends in Omaha on last Sunday as well as stopping for a short time at Plattsmouth. When near the latter place as they were returning home, their car sought the side of the road, apparently for a rest, and in doing so jolted slightly, bruising the boys somewhat. However, outside of that, they escaped very fortunately.

E. J. Lynn and wife, a nephew of D. Lynn of Union, from Ohlawa, Nebr., also Frank Selber and wife of Ohlawa, Nebr., being old time neighbors and friends, was to the Lynns' last Sunday for a day's visit and to purchase some of W. B. Bannings beautiful apples for their winter use. While here, they and John Lidgett and wife, also Wesley Woodard, took dinner with the Dan Lynn family.

Milk Goats for Sale.
I have two milk goats, one to freshen about November 10th, the other during December, for sale. I am endeavoring to keep a few good milk goats all the time.—Dean Gillespie, the Union barber. —029-21up

Gave Excellent Program.
A couple of ministers of the Baptist church were in Union on last Sunday and gave a most worthwhile program at the Baptist church. The entertainment was in the shape of a drama and was well received by the well pleased audience.

Relatives of Pioneers.
It will be remembered that a certain John Murfin was engaged in the mercantile business at old Factoryville, away back in the early 80's and at the time of the founding of the hustling city of Union, and the moving of the town away from Factoryville. Mr. Murfin went to Dunbar where he engaged in business. He has long since gone out of business and has recently died. On last Sunday a daughter and husband from Dunbar and also the husband of another daughter, the wife recently dying, were visiting in Union and meeting some of the old time residents. They were callers on George Lindsay, while here.

Attend Service Somewhere.
At the Baptist church, the Rev. W. A. Taylor will preach on the subject of the sower, using the parable of the sower and also the sower who slept following his sowing, and the devil sowing tares in his field. There will also be services at the Methodist church, both of which welcome you to their service and guarantee you a good service.

Enjoyed Fine Picnic.
On last Sunday at the farm of A. L. Becker east of Union, occurred a gathering of a number of friends where they spent the day in the open and as the day was fine it was a very good time to get out and enjoy the autumn weather and the golden sunshine and the glory of the many colored leaves of the trees. They also had their dinner in the woods and had a splendid time. There were there to enjoy the occasion Henry Becker and family, Frank, Anna and Joseph Bauer, Ada Armstrong and A. L. Becker, all of Union and Dan Fowler and wife of Omaha.

Visited State Capitol.
On last Sunday Henry A. Chilcott and wife, accompanied by Elmer Withrow and the family, made a trip to Lincoln via their auto, where they visited the new Nebraska capitol and viewed also surrounding country from the observatory at the top of the capitol building. BRAZIL DELIVERS COFFEE
Chicago—The Grain Stabilization corporation to date has traded 2,000,000 bushels of wheat for 13,200,000 pounds of Brazilian coffee under the terms of the barrier of 25,000,000 bushels of the corporation's grain for 132,000,000 pounds of coffee from Brazil. The announcement of the delivery was made by George S. Milnor, president of the corporation, who said the demand of the Brazilian government for the wheat was faster than anticipated and predicted the barrier would be completed within ten months.

The problem of disposing of the coffee after September, 1932, until when the stabilization corporation must withhold it from the market, confronted an advisory committee of the coffee trade at a meeting Monday. The committee sought to formulate a plan under which the coffee could be marketed without disturbing the trade. The 132,000,000 pounds represent a month's supply for the nation, it was said.

EXPULSION OF COMMUNIST LEADER
Council Bluffs—George Papcun, communist organizer in Council Bluffs, was taken fourteen miles east of the city by twelve unidentified men and ordered "to keep going." The seizure of Papcun followed his arrest on charges of disturbing the peace of a city council meeting a short time before Papcun had been pushed from the council chamber to the police station in an adjoining building and there booked. He was released on bond and as he left the station was seized by the unidentified anticommunist leaders.

Returning to the city after escorting Papcun on the first lap of his journey eastward, the men broke into the communist headquarters and completely cleaned it out.

SET FIRE TO A CONVENT
Winnipeg, Man.—George Paynter, half-breed, was sentenced to life imprisonment today on a plea of guilty of setting fire to Cross Lake convent, where thirteen children and one nun were burned to death. Hughes 1638

The court revenge caused his action. He had been punished for an infraction of the rules; and twice previously had tried to burn the building. It was charged. On February 26, 1929, he admitted, he stole gasoline, smashed parts of the building and set it afire.

Farmers Unite in Purchase of Oil Products

Minnesota Movement Expanding Operations in Four States—Started Ten Years Ago

Minneapolis, Minn.—Streamlining the policy of keeping profits at home through the distribution of patronage dividends, the Midland Cooperative Oil Association, the buying organization for 92 community cooperatives, is expanding its field of operations in four states.

Started by a group of farmers in the village of Cottonwood, Minn., 10 years ago, the cooperative association last year bought 24,000,000 gallons of gasoline and 6,000,000 gallons of kerosene. These totals represented, according to Mr. E. G. Cort, manager, 6 per cent of the gasoline and 13 per cent of the kerosene sold in Minnesota.

The chief beneficiaries of the cooperative are farmers who purchased 90 per cent of the total petroleum products distributed by the central organization, Mr. Cort said. He estimated that 75 per cent of the patrons are shareholders. The cooperative association is closely connected with other cooperative organizations in the state, Mr. Cort pointed out, and enjoys the "good will" of the state farm bureau and the agricultural school of the University of Minnesota.

Mr. Cort explained that the entire scheme of organization is cooperative in basis. Community associations are organized by 200 or more shareholders, who are required to raise from $3000 to $5000 capital stock. The community cooperatives then affiliate with the wholesale organization, which purchases petroleum products on the open market. State tests of every car of gasoline purchased assures the consumers of quality, Mr. Cort explained.

The profits of the central or wholesale association are pro-rated among the community cooperatives which, in turn, pro-rate their profits among the shareholders and patrons. The consumers share in the savings in proportion to their patronage of the business, Mr. Cort said. The average patronage dividend in 1930 was more than 15 per cent of the total sales, the reports showed.

The report of one cooperative, that of the Freeborn County Cooperative Oil Association in the southern part of the state, showed sales totaling $314,009 in 1930, producing a net gain of $51,716. The Nicollet Cooperative reported the highest returns, the profits being 260 per cent on capital stock and 24.3 per cent on sales. The lowest returns on sales were reported at 8 per cent.

Despite the fact that the association, not one cooperative has failed, although one local group sold out to a private company, Mr. Cort said. The cooperatives have served to aid their communities by keeping profits at home, Mr. Cort asserted.

Many of the local cooperatives, he explained, have returned dividends totaling $20,000 a year, which remain in the community and help to strengthen its financial reserve.

The central association does not act as a promotional agency, Mr. Cort explained. The local cooperative is initiated by the community while the central organization assists in conducting surveys to determine of the field is large enough for a competing selling cooperative, he said. Price wars are never initiated by the cooperatives, Mr. Cort said. The prevailing prices are maintained.

"The cooperative oil movement illustrates the advantages of cooperative buying," Mr. Cort said. "The buying dollar is just as important as the selling dollar. The purchasing power of a farmer's dollar in petroleum products has been increased from 10 to 15 per cent through the cooperative oil association. Large savings have accrued and large sums of capital have been retained in communities through these cooperatives."

The cooperative oil movement is spreading to Iowa, Wisconsin and North Dakota, Mr. Cort said. Headquarters of the association are maintained in Minneapolis.

ADOPT GANDHI'S METHODS
Larnaca, Island of Cyprus.—Inhabitants of Cyprus who are revolting against British rule and agitating for union with Greece have adopted the more peaceful salt-making methods of Mahatma Gandhi. In this British island, as in India, salt manufacture is a government monopoly. A great crowd went to a lake near Limassol and sought to express its spirit of freedom by taking salt from the water.

As a result, the situation again became tense and troops were sent into the area to prevent disorders such as those which have marked the revolt during the last few days. The London Daily Mail's correspondent here reported that one person was killed and several wounded in an angry battle between the agitators and police at Barnahia Sunday night.

The Greek Orthodox bishop of Kyrenia was arrested Monday the correspondent added, after an outbreak there. He was accused of leading a group of islanders in an attack on the commissioner's house, in which the crowd pulled down the union jack and hoisted the Greek flag.
