

Putting hot ashes in a wooden barrel is just another invitation to fire!

Perhaps your metal ash barrel is still. You must clean out the stove or furnace. An old wooden barrel stands nearby and in go the ashes. A hot coal begins to work. There is a wisp of smoke, a burst of flame, and a ruined house may follow.

Be careful not to give such thoughtless invitations to disaster and be sure and insure with this agency of the Hartford Fire Insurance Company.

The club members enjoyed their songs with Mrs. Allen Vernon at the piano, this being a most pleasant feature of the afternoon. It was voted to send $1 to the Red Cross and also to send help to the needy at the Christmas time.

Herman Banning, Jail Fugitive, Captured

Man Once Charged With Robbery of Murdock Bank, Held on Weapon Charge in Wisconsin

From Thursday's Daily Herman Banning, who with Harry Botorff, were arrested in Council Bluffs for robbery and later charged with the robbing of the Bank of Murdock, is now held at Milwaukee, Wisconsin, on a weapon charge. This follows a period of several months liberty for Banning, whose sensational escape from the Douglas county jail at Omaha, attracted national attention.

After the escape from jail three Kansas young men were arrested and confessed to the Murdock robbery and are now serving time for this charge while Botorff is at the penitentiary on the jail breaking charge.

Banning was arrested in Milwaukee on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. Police there got a tip on him as a Minneapolis runner. He gave his name as Earl Stevens, also known as Earl Lewis and Earl Parker.

"Not Going Back"

Arrested with Banning was William Helpex of St. Joseph, Mo., who is held for Maryville, Mo., authorities on a charge of breaking jail, women who were with them were not held.

"Yes, I'm Banning," the jail-breaker told a reporter at the Milwaukee county jail. "I'm wanted for busting out of jail at Omaha, but I'm not going back there—I'll help."

"I'll fight extradition to Nebraska, but I'm willing to go back to Missouri. I've served five years of a 15-year rap for burglary in Missouri, and I'll go back and serve the rest of it."

"All they can hang on me at Omaha is this jailbreaking charge, but they tried once to give me a bum rap on a bank job."

Seeks Funds for Girls.

Banning refuses to say where he had been since he escaped. "Lay a hundred dollars on the line and I'll tell you about it," he said. "I'll tell the truth, too. I've got to get money to get the girls back home. They haven't got a dime."

Detectives lay in wait for Banning at a house in West Olin, a Milwaukee suburb. Banning stepped into the house carrying a raincoat on his arm. Seeing detectives, he threw back the coat to reveal a .45 automatic pistol in his hand.

Another detective, hidden in a side room, said: "Drop that gun." Keeping his gun pointed at the men in front of him, Banning turned his eyes to see the officer at his side, gun pointed. He let his own gun drop to the floor.

Botorff was captured three days after the jail break, after "living like a rat" in the open. Poses pursued Banning for nearly two weeks, with reports that he was seen in a number of places, but finally gave up.

HELP GOOD CAUSE

Omaha over-subscribed the Community Chest by thousands of dollars. Surely Plattsmouth people want to take their share of the good cause. Remember the Camp Fire Girls started their shoe and underwear fund with $25.00. Some friends have added contributions which the girls appreciate. Don't you want to help raise $75.00 to buy shoes and underwear for chilly little boys and girls in Plattsmouth?

It's cold now—time to put the shoes and underwear on. Let's hurry! The Camp Fire Girls will be so glad to have a nickel or dime from you.

James F. Zajic of Omaha, Is Killed and Large Number Injured in Sunday Accident

A headon collision between a heavy sedan and a truck on the west Center street road west of Omaha, at 3 o'clock Sunday, resulted in the death of James F. Zajic of Omaha, as well as the injury of a large number of other persons, occupants of the car and the truck. The accident occurred at a hill a mile west of the Old Dutch Mill, Johnson, driving west, was in second gear when the collision occurred, he stated Sunday. The sedan remained on its wheels and veered to one side of the roadway, skidding to a stop. Zajic was sitting on one of the auxiliary seats of the sedan near the rear door, at the point that it struck the truck.

The party in the sedan comprised members of the Golden Prague orchestra of Omaha, which had played in Lincoln Saturday night and were en route home.

The members of the auto party are well known in Plattsmouth, the players being practically all members of the St. Wenceslaus church parish. The injured were:

Elmer Johnson, of Louisville, driver of the truck.

DEATH OF BABE

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Chamberlain of Omaha, have received the sad news of the death of the little two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Chamberlain, now residing at West Fork, Arkansas.

The death came as a terrible tragedy to the parents as the little one had gone out doors to play and 20 minutes later was found dead. Elmer Glen was the picture of health and had never been sick, but his sudden passing away was due to heart trouble. It is with sorrow that the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain, who formerly resided close to here and at Louisville will receive this news.

May they be comforted in their bereavement of their little one.

"He is gone, for he has left us. There will be one vacant chair. He has crossed the great wide river. And we shall find him waiting there."

HOLD CRASH UNAVOIDABLE A coroner's jury at Omaha Tuesday released Elmer Johnson of Louisville, from all responsibility in the auto-truck collision which occurred early Sunday morning west of Omaha. James F. Zajic, jr., of Omaha, was killed in the accident and eight other persons injured.
