

WEEPING WATER

Ben Olive and mother were over to Plattsmouth on last Saturday where they were visiting with relatives as well as looking after some business.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Abrams and their son were visiting over the week end at the home of relatives at Dorchester, they driving out and back in their car.

Elmer Philpot from near Nehawka was a business visitor in Weeping Water for the afternoon on Tuesday, called here to look after some business matters.

Attorney C. E. Tefft and Clarence E. Tool were over to Plattsmouth on last Saturday, where they were looking after some matters of business for a short time.

J. R. Mayfield was a business visitor in Murray for a short time on last Monday afternoon, where he was called to look after some business at the Murray lumber yard.

The Dowler Brothers sold a very fine new Chevrolet to Harry A. Williams of Elmwood, who in turn sold the same to Byron I. Clements, who is using it for his transportation.

Albert Ralston was over to Nebraska City with a load of very fine Duroc Jersey hogs for Ben Gibson which were delivered to the Morton-Gregson packing company of that place.

Wm. Van Every, the manager of the Handy Service station has been on the sick list for the past week and was kept at the home for the greater portion of the time. His friends are hoping that he will soon be able to return to his work.

Frank Domingo, cashier of the Nebraska State bank has been kept to his home and a good portion of the time to his bed on account of a very severe attack of flu and quinsy and with which he has been battling for some time and is showing good improvement at this time.

Mrs. Harold Snow of Great Falls, Montana, and accompanied by her daughter were visiting at Omaha and ran down to Weeping Water on last Sunday where they were guests of John Snow, the baker of the Weeping Water bakery, they being guests while here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Williams.

W. L. Hobson and son, Richard, of the Hobson funeral home were over to Union on last Tuesday morning to secure the remains of Otto Carroll who had died at Rawlins, Wyo., getting the remains which were taken to Nehawka where the funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon and the burial had at the Mt. Pleasant cemetery.

James M. Teegarden, who has been so ill for the past three weeks following a severe stroke of paralysis. He has been given the very best care and also medical attention which has resulted in him showing some good improvement. While he is very ill his many friends are hoping against hope that he may be out and well again after due time.

Still Very Poorly. Miss Bernice Wade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wade, who has been so ill for so long, still continues in a most critical condition. It was sought to secure entrance at the institution at Kearney, but the sanitation has been crowded and many have been turned away. However everything has been done for the invalid, with the hope that she may show some rallying power and be able to be up again and well.

Ice Harvest On. The Jamison lake in the west portion of Weeping Water has been a very lively place during the last of this week, the crop of crystal lake ice has been the best and with some 30 men who have been able to get work the ice crop of Weeping Water which uses natural frozen ice, requiring much work to cut and store the same, besides a number of loads were shipped to the nearby towns and the unemployed have enjoyed the occasion to get some steady employment during the winter and the depression has been very scarce.

Need a Hat?

Invoicing disclosed a number of hats that must be turned into money. All sizes, shapes and colors to choose from. $1.50 $2.00 $2.50

Isaac Wiles Very Poorly. Isaac Wiles, for nearly a half century a citizen of Weeping Water, and near vicinity, has during the last few years been in very poor health. During the last week the condition of Mr. Wiles has been such that he was taken to the Clarkston hospital where he immediately underwent an operation for his health and when he shall have recovered sufficiently he will have to undergo another operation before he can hope to have his health restored.

MYNARD COMMUNITY CLUB

The Mynard Community club held a very pleasant meeting Friday evening. On account of the severe cold weather, the attendance was small. The meeting was called by the new president, Mr. E. H. Spangler. Mr. Richard Livingston led the community singing.

Mr. Glen Wiles was elected treasurer to fill vacancy. The program of the evening was under the direction of Miss Helene Perry, chairman of the program committee and comprised of several very fine offerings by the Mynard double quart accompanied by Mrs. Roy O. Cole.

Mr. Antonio Bajcek gave a number of very delightful xylophone selections, accompanied by Charles Nowack. Mrs. Charles Barrows of Murray a talented reader, gave two very fine numbers.

Refreshments were served at the close of the evening which added to the enjoyment of all.

WEDDED EARLY TODAY

From Saturday's Daily. County Judge Duxbury was called upon to perform a wedding at a very early hour today, in fact it just escaped being Thursday night. Judge Duxbury was notified by telephone last night at midnight that a prospective bride party were en route to this city and wished the marriage ceremony performed on their arrival. The contracting parties were Miss Lola E. Fields and Darrel G. Dunlap, both of Omaha, who were accompanied here by Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Mayfield, close friends of the young people. Mr. Dunlap is employed as a telegraph operator in Omaha and has a night shift and which accounted for the lateness of the marriage.

HAVE FINE TIME

Friday evening, Jan. 22, the members of the Pleasant Ridge Project club and their families were very pleasantly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Meisinger. The time was spent in playing pinochle and rummy. In the pinochle game Mrs. Earl Iske was winner of the first prize and Wm. Renner winning second prize. In the rummy game Dave Rutherford was winner of the first prize while the consolation prize was awarded to Mrs. Philip Hill. At a suitable hour dainty refreshments were served by the ladies.

OAK HILL STUDY CLUB

The last two meetings of the Oak Hill Study Club were held on January 7 and January 19th, at the home of Mrs. A. N. Sullivan, the subjects of the meetings being "Farm and Home Accidents, their Cause and Prevention" and "International Mind Allevies." At the close of each meeting delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting will be February 4 at the home of Mrs. Ray M. Wiles.

ENROLLS FOR THE JOURNAL

John West, of near Weeping Water, was in the city Monday afternoon and while here was a caller at the Journal to enroll his name as a reader of the weekly edition of the paper in the coming year. Mr. and Mrs. William Renner of near Cedar Creek were also visitors here and paid the Journal a very pleasant call to advance their subscription for the ensuing year.

Mrs. J. J. Adams of Sheridan, Wyoming, is in the city to offer a visit here at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert M. Walling and with the many old time friends.

If you want to see prosperity return, contribute now by buying the things you have put off getting. Buy now, buy at low prices. Buy the things you need. Buy at special values in every line.

Nehawka

C. M. Christweiser was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth on last Saturday, driving over in his auto.

Misses Lois Troop and Dorothy Yost were over to Plattsmouth on last Saturday where they went to take their music instructions with Miss Olive Gass.

Albert Wolfe and daughter, Miss Gladys, were over to Omaha on last Monday, they driving in their auto where they were both looking after some business matters as well as visiting with friends.

Wm. Chappell has been having a tussle with the grip for the past two weeks and just the last few days was he able to be out and around. Will says however, that he is not feeling the very best as yet.

Walter J. Wunderlich was clerk at the Harry M. Knabe Hampshire bred sow sale which was held at the Hicks Pavilion on last Monday, making one of the very best clerks attending the sales in this portion of the state.

The Pleasant Hill club met on last Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Vernon, where they enjoyed the afternoon with their club work as well as putting on a very fine program.

There are many people in Nehawka who have or are now suffering from severe attacks of the flu. Among those who are sick are two children of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Hoback. However they are getting along fairly at this time.

Henry Swartz shelled corn on last Monday afternoon, delivering the cereal to C. M. Christweiser for the feeding of the cattle which he has in the yards. Mr. Swartz was pleased to sell the corn and Mr. Christweiser was glad to get it.

Uncle L. H. Young, who has been quite ill for a number of weeks has been somewhat better of late as he has been able to get up and enjoy sitting in a chair during the day. His many friends are hoping that he may soon be out again.

John H. Steffens was called to Lorton to look after the bank which his father has at that place. Mr. Steffens, the elder, has not been in the best of health for some time and after the son has to go over to assist the parent in the work at the bank.

J. V. Johnson, an eye specialist and an optometrist from Omaha was in Nehawka on last Monday at the office and while he was giving tests he also was looking after the office of his friend, Dr. D. E. Hanson while the latter was out in the country on a call.

A sewing machine specialist was sent from Lincoln by the state school to make repairs on and put in tune all sewing machines in need of such in the vicinity of Nehawka. There were sixteen machines presented for placing in the best condition, one being over thirty years in use. Miss Jessie Baldwin of Weeping Water was also present and assisted with the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Scott Norris were enjoying a visit on last Sunday notwithstanding the rather inclement weather they drove over to near Union, then north to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Warden where all enjoyed the day most pleasantly. When old time friends meet the winds can blow and the snow can fall, and the time goes merrily on. Scott says that the road from the highway just east of the Weeping Water creek, was paved to the home of Mr. Warden and that old motor nature had did it. Solid but rough.

Junior Class Play Friday

The Junior class of the Nehawka high school will hold their play on Friday evening of this week and the cast is diligently at the work of getting in the very best condition for the event. The play is "The Ghost Bird," and is filled with many laughable climaxes and will be well received, as the plot is one of the best and the members of the cast have entered into the production with the idea of making it the very best.

Earl Troop, having a very enticing offer to work with good pay at the Canal zone departed a few days ago for that place. Will Creamer was also thinking of going, but could not make arrangements at the last minute. Earl, however, departed, and will expect to have to sign a contract for three years stay there. His friend Will Creamer, accompanied Mr. Troop as far as Omaha on his departure.

Miss Leora Pollard, but who is generally known as Polly Pollard, gave a large number of her young friends a year party on last Saturday night when all enjoyed the occasion very much. The gathering was at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Pollard and was carried out in regular leap year style. The ladies went with their cars and took their swains to the party and following which they also took them home, delivering them safely.

Harry Knabe Holds Sale. In the sale pavilion of W. A. Hicks and formerly the Hvery stable, later a garage by Cunningham and St. John, and more lately an implement house by Leo Switzer, but just recently a sales pavilion, was held the Hampshire bred sow sale of Harry Knabe, on last Monday, February 1st. With a battery of auctioneers, they carried on the sale, but it seemed the very best work was done by Col. Rex Young, whom everybody knows is one of the very best of auctioneers.

Old Citizen Buried Wednesday. Many years ago there lived in Nehawka Otto Carroll, 55 years old, and the family, consisting of the husband and wife and two daughters. The wife was formerly a Miss Humphrey, they departing from here some fifteen years ago. Mrs. Carroll being sister of Mrs. C. W. Stone. They went to Rawlins, Wyoming, where they have resided for some years and where Mr. Carroll was with an express company. The two daughters, being Thelma and Viola Carroll. The elder daughter, Miss Thelma, was united in marriage with Joseph Buck.

Mr. Carroll passed away quite suddenly on last Sunday and was shipped to Nehawka by the lodge of I. O. O. F. of that place, being received at Union by the W. L. Hobson Funeral home and taken to C. W. Stone of Nehawka, the funeral being held from the Methodist church of Nehawka of which Mr. Carroll was a member. The funeral was conducted by the Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union, pastor of the First Baptist church, the burial being had at the beautiful Mt. Pleasant cemetery.

Writes from Florida. Mr. and Mrs. Alvin A. McKeenolds who are spending the winter in Live Oak, Florida, write very interestingly from there telling of the extreme warm weather which they are having. During the time the weather was so cold here they were having a temperature at 90 in the shade, and Alvin thought it was excessively hot. He was looking for some place to get in the shade and out of the boiling sun.

United Brethren in Christ. Otto Engobretson, Pastor OTTERBEIN CHURCH Bible church school 10 a. m. Morning worship service 11 a. m. Prayer meetings Wednesday night, Feb. 10, at the I. Mason home. The Ladies' Aid meets with Mrs. E. Boedeker Thursday, Feb. 11. The Y. P. S. C. E. will meet at the Guy Murdock home Friday, Feb. 5. Come.

NEHAWKA CHURCH Bible church school 10 a. m. Evening Gospel service at 7:30. Prayer meeting at the I. Mason home Wednesday, Feb. 10. The Y. P. S. C. E. will meet at the parsonage Thursday, Feb. 11. A surprise is in store for all who come that night. We want each member to be sure and come. Let all of us get in on "Our Trip to New York. Come Sunday and we will explain it to you.

MURDOCK COUPLE IS HAPPILY MARRIED. A very quiet and simple wedding was solemnized at the home of Rev. Norburg at Murdock Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, when Miss Rose Lee Johnson, of Aivo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson, of Aivo, became the bride of Harvey Heiers, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Heiers, of Murdock.

The bride was attired in a striking tan Spanish lace gown, while the groom wore a tailored suit of dark brown. The wedded couple was accompanied by Miss Zola Ostblom and Leonard Lau, both of Murdock, and many friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Heiers.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Heiers left for Lincoln. The bride has been making her home in Lincoln for the past few months. The groom is a prosperous young farmer of the Murdock neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Heiers will reside on a nicely located farm west of Murdock, where the groom has a home in readiness for the coming of the wife and helpmeet.

The Journal joins with friends of this popular young couple in extending congratulations and best wishes.

After Japan winds up in Manchuria, something tells us the unwinding will be difficult.

We Quote and Guarantee Following Prices— Friday and Saturday Eggs, Fresh 13c Dozen

Heavy Hens, lb. . . . 12c Light Hens, lb. . . . 9c All Springs - Stags . 9c Old Roosters, lb. . . 7c Capons, 8 lbs. up . 16c Cow Hides, lb. . . . 2c

Soennichsen's Plattsmouth, Phone 42

J. W. Berger Laid to Rest at Young Cemetery

Services of Pioneer Resident of Murray Held Wednesday Afternoon From Late Home. From Wednesday's Daily. This afternoon at 2 o'clock at the late home at Murray, was held the funeral services of J. W. Berger, pioneer resident of that place and well known resident of eastern Cass county. The services were conducted by Rev. W. A. Taylor, of Union, an old time friend of the family, who brought a message of sympathy and hope in the hour of sorrow. The Presbyterian male quartet of this city, composed of Frank A. Cloldt, H. G. McClusky, L. D. Hiatt and R. W. Knorr, gave two of the favorite hymns of the departed, "Jesus Savior Pilot Me" and "Rock of Ages," during the course of the service.

The Sattler funeral home was in charge of the services and the interment which was held at the Young cemetery east of Murray, one of the pioneer resting places of this section of Cass county.

J. W. Berger was born January 16th, 1846 at Winterest, Iowa, where he resided for some seven or eight years, then with the parents, he came to Nebraska, settling at Rock Bluffs, then a very considerable town, where the family remained for a number of years. Mr. Berger learned the carpenter trade when a young man and assisted the father in the building of a home.

Growing to manhood, he worked at the carpenter trade for a number of years. After attaining manhood's estate, he met and loved Miss Susie C. Johnson, they then engaging in farming, the wedding being on November 26th, 1874. They located on the farm which they had acquired, where they farmed for a number of years, later moved to Murray where they have resided for a number of years and where he passed away. Mr. Berger, who had attained the advanced age of over 86 years, a week or more ago, slipped on the ice, and in falling injured one of his legs badly which caused him to take to his bed.

On Sunday evening he was visited by his friends and said he was feeling well, and during the night before he passed away was visited by the wife, who inquired as to his condition. Mr. Berger saying he was feeling fine. Mrs. Berger returning to the bed, but in a few minutes hearing the husband making a peculiar noise, went to see what was the matter, when he said it was difficult for him to get his breath. The family physician as called, but by the time he arrived life was gone.

During his early life Mr. Berger united with the Christian church of Murray and had lived a faithful and consistent life.

He leaves to mourn his departure the wife, the faithful companion of the many years which they had resided together; two sons, George Berger of Murray and Will Berger of Ashland; Mrs. J. H. Browne of Omaha and Mrs. Marie Steiner of Oklahoma City, Okla. Mrs. S. R. Johnson of San Jose, California, and Mrs. Gilbert Gibeay of Santa Rosa, Calif.; eight grandchildren and sixteen great grandchildren and many friends, all of who mourn his departure.

LEARN OF MASONIC HOME

The members of the Plattsmouth Rotary club on Tuesday noon at the weekly luncheon, learned a great deal about the Nebraska Masonic Home, located in this city, from a man well fitted to deliver the message. W. F. Evers, superintendent. Mr. Evers gave a short history of the formation of the association and the erection of the Home in this city, starting in 1902 and which now represents an investment of $500,000. The Home as a factor in the community was shown in the fact that the annual amount expended here is some $24,000, of which $14,000 is in payrolls.

Clarence Forbes, Senior, and basketball star of the High school, with Stuart Porter, Junior, were the High school boys selected for the month of February to be members of Rotary, being fittingly introduced as representing the group of fine young men in the High school membership.

The meeting was under the leadership of A. S. Grist and who had prepared a very pleasant treat in every way for the membership of the club.

The Social Workers of the Methodist church were delightfully entertained on Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. J. H. Hallstrom at her home on South Ninth street, Mrs. James G. Mauzy and Mrs. E. C. Harris, assisting in the entertaining and serving.

There was an unusually large number in attendance and the business session of the society was presided over by Mrs. W. A. Weils, the vice president.

The ladies had the pleasure of an unusually interesting musical program, presented by a number of the young people of the city.

The boys' quartet of the high school, comprising George Adam, David Robinson, Otto Stodola and James Nowacek, were heard in several numbers, while George Adam and James Nowacek were presented in solo selections. Miss Cora Williams played the accompaniment, Miss Helen Schulz and Miss Catherine Terryberry ere each heard in vocal solos that were much enjoyed while James Mauzy, jr., gave two pleasing piano solos to add to the pleasures of the program.

At the close of the afternoon dainty and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess and her assistants.

DIES AT TABLE ROCK

From Tuesday's Daily. The message was received here this morning of the death of Mrs. S. A. Hitt, 84, at Table Rock, Nebraska, following an illness of several weeks duration. Mrs. Hitt is the grandmother of Mrs. Hillard Grassman of this city, who has been at the bedside of the aged lady for the past few days, and mother-in-law of Mrs. Charles Hitt of this city. She is survived by one son, Frank Hitt, Sioux City, Iowa, and one daughter, Mrs. Thomas Isner, residing in Washington. The funeral will be held on Wednesday afternoon at Table Rock.

LEARNS OF COUSIN'S DEATH

From Wednesday's Daily. Fred Sharpnack of this city was notified today of the death of a cousin, John W. Sharpnack, mail flyer, who was found burned to death in the wreckage of his ship on the banks of a canal seven miles north of Rio Vista, California.

The flyer had evidently been forced down by a falling motor and forced to make a landing in the dark.

Mr. Sharpnack was engaged in the mail flying from Omaha to the west and was one of the veteran members of the air force.

TWO FROZEN TO DEATH

Duluth—Two men were found frozen to death, one here and the other at Saginaw, seventeen miles from Duluth, William Seifert was found in the rear of a dwelling of the business district where he had fallen. Emil Hill was found near the Saginaw railroad depot in an open field.

Jacob D. Cook is Laid to Rest in Mira Valley

Man Who Lived in Nebraska Since 1856 Passes January 20 at Age of Eighty. In the cemetery in Mira Valley, close to the farm home where almost fifty years of his life were spent, Jacob D. Cook was laid to rest Sunday after funeral services held at the Mira Valley Evangelical church in the presence of an enormous gathering of relatives, friends and neighbors. Mr. Cook passed away Wednesday, Jan. 20, at the age of eighty years.

Born July 18, 1851 in Pike county, Ohio, Jacob D. Cook came overland with his parents in 1856, at which time they located near what is now Plattsmouth, Neb. At that time Nebraska was practically a wilderness and Mr. Cook certainly may be called a pioneer for with the exception of five years and six months his entire life was spent in this state.

Growing to manhood at Plattsmouth, Mr. Cook was united in marriage Sept. 14, 1873 to Mary Janssen and to the union eight children were born. In the fall of 1882 the Cook family moved to Texas but remained only a short time for in February, 1883, Mr. Cook bought a farm in Mira Valley and moved upon it at once.

Mrs. Cook passed away June 19, 1889 and went to join the two children who had preceded her, Samuel and William. Her sister, Miss Hannah Janssen, being with her during her final illness and death, was asked by Mrs. Cook to care for the children, which request she faithfully fulfilled, assisting the family in every way she could.

In 1894 Mr. Cook, with his family, moved to Cass county and located on a farm near Elmwood, where on January 12, 1896, he was united in marriage to Miss Hannah Janssen, who faithfully shared the toils and cares of life with him to the end. Two children were born to this union.

In 1903 Mr. Cook moved back to his farm in Mira Valley, where he remained until his death. He is recognized as one of the leading old timers and worthy citizens of Valley county, having shared in the sacrifices of the early eighties and nineties. A man of sterling character, strictly honest and always just, his many acts of kindness endeared him to his neighbors and friends. During his last years he was a patient sufferer and always appreciative of the kindness and care given him by his beloved wife and children. Mr. Cook was reared in a Christian home and early in life became a follower of Christ and remained faithful unto the end.

Rev. John F. Kirkwood officiated at the funeral services Sunday, assisted by Rev. F. C. Cook, of Stanton, a son of the deceased. Other sons, Joseph Andrew, Edward, James, Daniel and George were pallbearers while Harry Cook, of Fleming, Colo., assisted their mother.

Besides his widow and eight sons, Mr. Cook is survived by four brothers, three sisters, thirty grandchildren and six great grandchildren, together with a host of more distant relatives and many friends.—The Ord Quiz.

ON WRESTLING SQUAD

Jerry Adam, who was one of the mainstays on the Cornhusker football squad on the past season, is to assist in defending the Nebraska school on the mat squad this year. The season opens Saturday when the Cornhuskers invade Norman, Oklahoma, to meet the Sooners. Adam is the heavyweight wrestler of the squad and has been very successful in this line of sport in the past two seasons. The first home meet for Nebraska is on February 13th when the University of Missouri visits Lincoln. Joe Lehman is the coach of the Nebraska squad and has bright hopes of a very successful season.

WORKMAN FATALLY BURNED

St. Paul—One man was fatally burned and damage estimated at more than $50,000 was caused Sunday by a fire which destroyed the scaffolding and the wooden framework in the state of Minnesota's new office building under construction here. Jack Heinlein, 31, a laborer, died from burns received when a kerosene can fro which he was filling a salamander, exploded.

THE FUNERAL HOME. Modern conditions and standards of living have called into being an entirely new kind of institution for meeting a universal human need—The Funeral Home. Planned for the specific purpose which it serves, it offers greater efficiency and greater convenience than was possible in the past. We are proud to be able to offer the communities which we serve the use of such an establishment. Hobson Funeral Home. WEeping Water, NEB.

Say! Men! These suits are simply marvelous for the money— $11.75 $17.75 $23.75 If you haven't seen them, you little realize their excellence. Ground hog or no ground hog, come in and see these suits. Wescott's