left of that place and where they all enjoyed a very fine time.
Washington's birthday anniversary was celebrated on last Monday when D. Ray Frans and family and his mother, Mrs. Jennie Frans, went over to Syracuse where they spent the day and enjoyed a splendid dinner at the home of Rue H. Frans and family.
The Rev. W. A. Taylor, pastor of the First Baptist church at Union was over to Weeping Water on last Tuesday where he went to conduct the services of the late Thomas Ake-son. He was taken over to Weeping Water by Fred A. Busch of that place and again returned here.

Near Fatal Accident.
While Henry H. Becker was engaged in the shelling of corn for a client near Wyoming in Otoe county, a portion of the machinery became tangled with the clothing of Mr. Becker, with the result that he was almost entirely stripped of his clothing and many bruises on his person. Mr. Becker, with a wonderful presence of mind tore himself away from the machine which was drawing him into the whirling gears and belts which was the only thing that saved him. Henry was feeling pretty sore and greatly bruised after the contact, but was also highly pleased that he was able to get away and save his life.

Home from the North.
Wm. Craig, who has for the past two months been visiting in the northern portion of the state where he was guest for a portion of the time with George Bodette, returned home on last Sunday and reports a heavy snow blanketing the entire northern portion of the state, and with some sixteen inches, it making work for many of the unemployed of that section to work clearing the roads.

Home from Hospital.
Mrs. Henry A. Chilcott who was so sick with an aggravated attack of the flu and was at the St. Mary's hospital at Nebraska City for the past nearly a week was so far recovered that she was able to return home on last Sunday and which fact is very pleasing to not alone her relatives, but the large circle of friends of this excellent woman.

Some One Poisoning Dogs.
Just from what motive the culprit was actuated no one knows, but certain it is that there were two dogs victims of his poisonous distribution of loaded meats. The little dog of Mildred Withrow, which was a constant companion, was one, and a very harmless dog, and a very dear friend of little Mildred. The other dog to be poisoned was that of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton B. Smith.

Undergoes Operation.
Louis F. Kohrell who recently with the good wife came to Union to enter business, but who was taken with severe illness and as taken to Omaha a short time ago, underwent an operation and which he stood nicely. The son, Glen, who drives an express into Omaha was to see the father on last Tuesday and found him as well as one could expect from the nature of the operation.

Selected Chairman County Committee
The meeting of the Cass county republican county central committee was held in Weeping Water on last Monday and for the place vacated by the death of the late Charles E. Noyes, who passed away last year, Mr. F. H. McCarthy was elected to the position until the reorganizing of the committee which will be voted upon at the primary. No one can mistake the politics of Mr. McCarthy or vie him in loyalty to his party and its candidates. There was in attendance from Liberty precinct F. H. McCarthy, George A. Stites and Ivan Balfour.

Files for State Senator.
Charles Swan was a visitor in Plattsmouth on last Monday where he filed for nomination on the republican ticket for the position of state senator, and which he shall seek to be elected. Mr. Swan who is son of the late W. T. Swan, and a life long republican was born in Cass county and has resided near Union the greater portion of his life. Mr. Swan keeps abreast of the times and is taking interest in the laws of the state and will seek to have some say in what are adopted.

Visited Here Sunday.
Mesdames Robert Troop of west of Mynard and Earl Troop of near Nebawka, with the kiddies, were guests for the evening last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Leach, where a most enjoyable visit was had. Following Mrs. Robert Troop returned home and Mrs. Earl Troop and the kiddies went to Plattsmouth where they visited for a time at the home of Mrs. Lois Troop of that place for a number of days.

All Had the Flu.
At both the homes of W. L. Stine and Otis Keene the families have been having a siege of the flu and while they were all down for a time with the malady, they are all up and about now, and are making good improvement with each day.

Celebrated Passing Event.
The members of the Woman's Auxiliary, the ladies of the Episcopal church, enjoyed a very happy event when they met at the home of Miss Gussie Robb for the purpose of celebrating the passing of the 200th birthday anniversary of the birth of George Washington, with a colonial tea, which was observed pleasantly, as well as a very appropriate program touching events one hundred and fifty years ago when the United States of America was new.

Attend Extension Meet at Murray.
P. F. Rihn and Mrs. Ivan Balfour were over to Murray on Tuesday afternoon of this week where they went to be present and to also assist in the work of the completion of an organization of the 4-H extension work in connection with the movement which is growing so rapidly over the county.

Attend Banquet at Plattsmouth.
A party of four of the Masons of Union, numbering W. B. Banning, P. F. Rihn, Stacey Niday and Paul Swan, were over to Plattsmouth on last Monday evening where they were in attendance at a function of the Masonic order when they celebrated the 200th birthday anniversary of George Washington with a program and banquet. All report having had an excellent time.
