"Jesus Raises Lazarus from the Dead"

John 11:32-44.

Jesus was in the midst of His Persean ministry when word reached Him that His beloved friend Lazarus had departed this life. This was the breaking up of a home, where He had enjoyed genial hospitality, who knew not where to lay His head. Therein He had a trio of friends, Mary, Martha and Lazarus. The location was about two miles from Jerusalem. The last and greatest of the seven signs recorded in this gospel is related with such photographic minuteness of detail, that it is clear that the writer was present. Three points about it are especially noteworthy: 1. That it was a physical miracle, which no incantation can reduce to a case of faith healing; 2. That it was definitely worked to produce faith in Christ (v. 42); 3. That more than any other miracle it was performed under test conditions; the object of it was really dead (v. 39), and hostile witnesses were present (v. 42). Its spiritual meaning is given in verse 25: "I am the resurrection and the life." The distance to reach Jesus may have been twenty miles. The messenger does not state how serious the illness is. The sisters did not send for Jesus, until they saw that the brother was about to die. Jesus appears indifferent, as he continues His work for two days. Then comes the announcement of Jesus: "Let us go into Judea again." The disciples are surprised, they re-monstrate with Jesus, about His return to Judea where the Jews wanted to stone Him; only a few months before. An emergency often reveals the stuff that inheres in man's character.

Now it is that Thomas, who would doubt at times, decides that he will go and stand by his Teacher, even though it means his own death. "Lazarus is dead—nevertheless let us go to him." And so the sad procession wends its way to Bethany. Four days have elapsed since word came to Jesus. Lazarus is buried the same day he died, the mourners fill the house with the lamentations for seven days, as is the custom. But someone may ask: "Why did the Lord let Lazarus die, if He could prevent it?" Jesus said: "But for the glory of God, and that the Son of God might be glorified thereby" (v. 4). Most beautiful was Christ's way of speaking of the death of Lazarus: he had only fallen into a profound sleep from which the Savior would arouse him. To Christ, death is but an appearance, not a reality; an il-

James H. Brown and wife of Omaha were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of Mrs. Brown's mother, Mrs. Susie Berger.

Ora Davis who is the administrator for the Sam G. Latta estate was having a cess pool dug for the waste water from the house which he has rented.

The three trucks of Frank Mrasek were busy last Friday collecting the donations from the farmers east of Murray for shipment to the north for the drouth sufferers.

T. J. Jamison of Lincoln was a visitor for the day on last Sunday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. F. Brendel and where all enjoyed the occasion very much.

Dr. J. F. Brendel was called to Plattsmouth on last Sunday on account of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Marks being very ill with the flu. They are now, however, feeling much better.

Wm. Minford was butchering and getting the work in this line out of the way so that when the spring which is nearly here with its rush of work will in no way be interfered with.

State Secretary of the State Christian Missionary Society, that is the Christian church, Rev. John Albers of Lincoln, Nebraska, was a visitor in Murray on last Sunday and gave a very worthwhile address on missions.

Albert Queen and the kiddies of Omaha were visiting in Murray for the day last Sunday, being guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Font T. Wilson. Roy Belms and family of near Mynard were also guests at the Wilson home.

Lee Nickles of Plattsmouth was a visitor in Murray on last Monday and was visiting with his brother, George Nickles who is just now convalescing following the injury which he received when a ladder slipped on which he was working.

There was gladness at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Svirger, when the stork, that old reliable bird, brought a very fine young baby girl to the home and which was introduced by Dr. J. F. Brendel and all concerned doing very nicely.

Miss Reane DeLes Denier, who has been attending a business college at Omaha was sick for some time and in consequence lost out on her class and is now home until the first of March when she will begin with that class, a new class starting with the first of every month.

The Murray Christian Bible school was visited by Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lease of Omaha who had wished to visit the Bible school here and selected last Sunday as the day in which they were the guests of the school and both enjoyed the visit here very much, making many friends.

Master Masons O. A. Davis, W. G. Boedecker and Gus Brubacher were over to Plattsmouth on Monday evening of this week where they were assisting their home lodge celebrate the passing of the two hundredth birthday anniversary of the late brother, George Washington, the first president of the United States.

Car of Feed for Drouth.

There has been furnished from Murray a car load of feed for the stock of the drouth sufferers in the northern portion of the state. A. G. Long and O. A. Davis were very active in the matter. George Nickles was the leader but a ladder falling put him out of commission and the matter had to be passed on to other workers. It is expected that the car will go forward the latter portion of this week. Destination not as yet known.

Will Move To Union.

A. J. Wilson, brother of Font T. Wilson who has been making his home at Lowery City, Mo., will in the spring move to the Mrs. Ward Cheney place and where Ben Martin is now living. Mr. Martin will move to the Dean Austin place where he will farm for this year.

Sunnyside Club Has Good Start.

The Sunnyside Workers Garden club has a good start, with twenty-one members. Let us all help to make this a success, and also have gardens where heretofore have been weed patches and an eyesore. It will also give the kiddies something to keep them busy.

Murray Study Club.

The Murray Study Club met February 18th at the home of Mrs. Tutt. The program was led by Mrs. Milburn. She chose George Washington as her topic. The lesson was very interesting to all, as many phases of Washington's life were brought out. As the roads were so bad not all of the rural members were able to attend. After the lesson the hostess assisted by Mrs. O. A. Davis and Mrs. J. V. Pitman served delicious refreshments.

Our next meeting will be March 17th at the home of Mrs. Delbert Todd.
