Democratic

For State Representative—

I hereby announce myself as candidate on the democratic ticket for nomination for State Representative, subject to the will of the party at the primary election, April 12th. I thank all who may see their way clear to vote for me. Should I be selected for the position I will endeavor to look to the interests of the entire citizenry of our state and see that a most economical administration be had, and that the interests of the farmer, the merchant and the workman be strictly safeguarded.

GEORGE E. NICKLES, Murray.

For County Sheriff—

I have filed for the office of County Sheriff, subject to the wishes of the democratic voters at the primary on Tuesday, April 12. I have resided in Cass county the greater part of my lifetime and have made my home in and near Murray. If elected to the office, I will strive to see that there is a fair and impartial enforcement of the law.

J. E. LANCASTER.

For County Sheriff—

I hereby announce my candidacy for nomination for Sheriff on the democratic ticket, Primaries Tuesday, April 12th. I have lived in Cass county for forty years. I stand for the enforcement of all laws. Should I be elected, I will endeavor to enforce the law impartially with no special friends to favor or enemies to punish. I thank you for your support and co-operation.

W. H. PORTER, Union.

Republican

For State Senator—

As a candidate for State Senator on the republican ticket from the Second district, comprising Cass, Otoe and Sarpy counties, I desire to inform the voters that I believe in the equal distribution of taxes and an against needless expense of any kind. I have always been and am now a dirt farmer, actively engaged in tilling the soil on my own farm near Union. I will appreciate your support at the Primaries, Tuesday, April 12th.

CHARLES SWAN, Union, Neb.

For State Representative—

I have filed for the nomination for State Representative of the Sixth district, subject to the voters of the Republican party. I am a dirt farmer, have farmed all my life, was born in Cass county and have resided here all my life. Having spent my entire life on the farm, I am qualified to look after the interest of the farmer whose rights have been given little thought. I stand for a reduction of taxes and for an economical expenditure of funds for the county and state. I shall be pleased to receive the support and co-operation of all who believe as I do on economic questions. Primaries are April 12th. Thanks for your co-operation for a business like legislature and for economic laws.

WM. H. BORNEMEIER.

For County Sheriff—

I have filed for nomination for the position of County Sheriff on the republican ticket, subject to the will of the voters of my party at the primaries April 12th, and respectfully solicit the support and co-operation of all who desire the best administration of this office. I was born in Cass county, have resided here all my life, was formerly engaged in farming—also in business in Union and now associated in business with my brother at Weeping Water. Should I be nominated and elected I shall endeavor to make the best officer possible. Thanking you for what you may do in my behalf in this campaign, I am, very respectfully—

A. R. DOWLER.

STANDARD BEARER MEETING

Sunday March 16, the Standard Bearers met at the Methodist church. Owing to the absence of the leader, a general discussion took place.

Membership cards were given to the members, and stewardship cards to those who wanted them.

The Standard Bearers received an invitation from the Women's Foreign Missionary society to a luncheon Tuesday, March 22, right after school.

We had one visitor present at this meeting, Glenn Rhodes.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses, Harriet Simons and Mariella Hunsel.

The next meeting will be the first Sunday in April, instead of the third, and every girl is supposed to bring her mother.

REPORTER.

WEEPING WATER

A. R. Dowler and the wife were over to Omaha on Wednesday of this week, they driving over to the big town to look after some business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Michelsen were visiting in Omaha on Wednesday of this week where they were looking after some business matters and also making purchases for the store here.

John Stewart Rough and wife of Nehawka, were visiting in Weeping Water where they were called to look after some trading as well as visiting Miss Agnes Rough, sister of Mr. Rough.

Arley R. Dowler was looking after some business and also campaigning for the position of sheriff on the republican ticket, and has been making many new acquaintances, both at Alvo and Greenwood.

On Wednesday of this week Bert Jamison, was called over to Nehawka where he had to look after some business matters and where he made the trip in his car. Bert says that Nehawka is a real live town.

Mrs. Ben Olive entertained the members of the Daughters of the American Revolution at her home where they entertained the friends and also had a very appropriate program which was patriotic in character.

Peter H. Miller, the produce man, was taken suddenly ill the first of this week, and was kept to his bed for some four days and was only able to be out the latter portion of the week, but is feeling much improved and sure glad to get out again.

Monday of this week a party of Weeping Water ladies were visiting and looking after some shopping in Lincoln, they driving over to the big town in their car, they being Mesdames Ralph Keckler, George Olive, A. K. Dowler, S. Ray Smith and Miss Opal Homan.

Joseph Samson of Beach, North Dakota, arrived late last week and visited with his brother-in-law, Dennis H. Phillips, departing for Dunnington, Mo., on Monday of this week where he will visit with relatives for some time before returning to his home in the north.

The Dowler Chevrolet Service company, operated by the Dowler Brothers sold during the past week a new Chevrolet truck which he will use in his business. He has had one and this makes the second one which he is getting, proving his liking for a good wagon with much power and a most economical one to own and use.

Three New Enterprises.

John E. Johnson who has been operating his blacksmith shop at his home on the south side has moved to the room where Newton L. Grubbs had formerly been located, and where he will conduct his business in the future. Mr. Newton Grubbs moved to the building just east of the W. D. Baker Produce station, where he will conduct a general blacksmith shop. There has also been a cleaning out of the store room owned by Troy L. Davis and a changing of partitions as well as painting for the new Cash Ready-to-Wear garments for the ladies which will be known as Russell's Cash Store.

Visited in Plattsmouth.

Homer Sylvester who is a candidate for the democratic ticket for the nomination for sheriff, was over to Plattsmouth on Monday of this week making fences during the snow storm and meeting many friends as well as making many more.

Another Day Added This Year.

Still it does not make the year longer, for the addition to the year of 1932, as on the Day is a small son of Mr. and Mrs. Seward P. Day, which arrived at the hospital at Lincoln where Mrs. Day was and where it is reported all getting along very nicely. So you know the year is not longer.

"Bill" Johnson Decorator.

The cafe of the Johnson Brothers and sister which has been blessed with a good business was recently decorated and given a nice bright coat of paint on the interior, which included the entire ceiling, where Bill who is indeed an artist, had planned and executed a golf course and which has not been dedicated on account of its inaccessibility.

Accepts Position at Kearney.

Mr. A. F. Stutt has accepted a position with a green house in Kearney where he went to work late last week and writes that he is liking the work and the place very well.

Sell Truck for Oil Work.

Jeff Salsberg who has been making his home in Omaha for some time has just recently been appointed as manager of the oil station at Louisville for the Standard Oil Co., and where he will be located hereafter and will deliver their goods from that point has just purchased a Chevrolet truck from the Dowler Brothers for use in the distribution.

ENTERTAIN STANDARD BEARERS

The young people of the Standard Bearers club were pleasantly entertained yesterday at the home of Rev. and Mrs. C. O. Troy.

The event was in honor of the 63rd anniversary of the founding of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and was given by the local auxiliary.

A short program included the telling about the very first meeting when six Christian women went thru stormy weather to a church in Boston to effect an organization which has a world-wide perspective of helpfulness and evangelization. This was reviewed by Mrs. Harry White.

All present then joined in singing several missionary hymns. This was followed by a short play given by Miss Jean Hayes and Mrs. Frank Barkus.

Mrs. Hayes next explained to the girls about their "Mystery Mothers." Each member of the auxiliary is sponsoring one or more girls in the Standard Bearers club, seeking to arouse and hold her interest in a high standard of Christian living.

The program was brought to a close by a brief prayer by the pastor's wife. The girls were then invited to the dining room for supper.

CHARGED WITH BREAKING JAIL

From Tuesday's Daily

A complaint was filed this morning in the county court against William Carrodo, charging the defendant with jail breaking. This complaint follows the escape and later capture of Carrodo, who saved his way out of the Cass county jail Sunday night. Carrodo also has the charge of breaking and entering pending in the district court and for which he will be tried at the April term of the district court. Carrodo has offered to plead guilty to the jail delivery charge if the other complaint as to breaking and entering was dismissed, but has been unsuccessful in the attempted compromise.

The charge of breaking and entering will be tried before Judge Fred A. Wright of Omaha, who is coming here to sit in the case. Judge Begley being disqualified as it was his home Carrodo is charged with burglarizing.

AGED LADY VERY LOW

From Wednesday's Daily

Mrs. Adeline Taylor, widow of A. B. Taylor, one of the pioneers of Cass county, is very ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. Z. W. Shrader at Nehawka, reports from that place state. Mrs. Taylor, who made her home in this city for a great many years, has been spending the winter at the home of the sister, as her health has been poorly. A short time ago Mrs. Taylor was taken ill with pneumonia and her condition has been very grave since that time. Mrs. Taylor is well advanced in years and her condition is such as to cause the greatest worry to the members of the family circle. The many old friends here will learn of her condition with the greatest regret, she being for many years a loved and respected resident here.

MANY ATTEND FUNERAL

A large number of the members of the St. Luke's Episcopal parish were at Omaha Sunday where they attend the funeral of the late Mrs. Ernest Vincent Shayler, wife of Bishop Shayler. The services were held at the Trinity cathedral.

A group of the members of the churches of the diocese served as the active and honorary pall bearers. Judge James T. Begley of this city was one of the honorary pall bearers.

One more week until Easter, call now at the Bates Book & Gift shop and inspect their line of special Easter candies as well as cards and novelties.
