stopped for a time at the home of his son, John Opp. Mrs. Chapman and daughters visited all day Sunday before returning to their home.

We dropped around to the Nehawka Mills on last Monday morning and found the institution open and no one about. We shouted but no reply, so we came away and had only gotten down town when we were informed that a stork had visited the home of the miller, and had left a very fine young man there. Now do not allow yourselves to run away and think this was a son of Uncle Charles, but a grand son, and the mother, Mrs. R. D. Taylor and the young son are doing nicely. No one could tell which was the most pleased, grandfather S. D. St. John or Robert D. Taylor, the father.

Visited Parents Here
Miss Glendora Young visited over the week end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Young. She was accompanied by Mr. M. R. Humands. Miss Young and Mr. Humands are both teachers in the Hartington schools.

Cow Shed Burns Sunday
The cow shed of Mark Furlong, who resides south of the historic old town of Rock Bluffs, had the misfortune to be struck by lightning during the rain storm of last Sunday and burned. The barn contained a goodly amount of hay and grain which was also lost. Insurance carried on the place was in the amount of six hundred dollars.

School Closing This Week
The Nehawka schools are to close with the coming week, and the students are to get away from the books and school room for three months before they have to return to take up their studies again. However, there are an even dozen who will not have to return, for they are members of the graduating class. They are Misses Gertrude Burton, Lella Fleischmann, Gertrude Behrens, Beatrice Gwilliams, Daleene Carper, Hazel Gregg, Leona Pollard, Florence Meisinger and Harriet Stone, Messrs. Vance Balfour, and Lincoln Hadley.

Will Hold Band Concerts
The Nehawka band will arrange to occasionally give band concerts at Nehawka. The first will be on Wednesday, May 25th. This band, while composed of young people, are very capable of rendering a very fine concert and all who are music lovers will do well to keep this in mind.

Receives Injuries in Fall
While Mrs. J. S. Rought was descending the cellar stairs at her home, and had gotten about half way down the flight she stumbled and fell the remaining distance. She was very badly bruised but it is fortunate that there were no bones broken. She is still very sore from the effects of the tumble.

Accepts Better Position
Taft Pollard, who had taken the management of the new Trunkentoltz service station at Nehawka, was entered a better paying position at Oakland with the Standard Oil Company. He resigned his work here and with the good wife, departed for the new field of labor on last Friday.

Fine Family Gathering
At the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Steffens were gathered the members of the family where they all enjoyed the occasion with a very fine dinner and an excellent supper. The day was spent in visiting and at the same time the men amused themselves with the now very popular game of horse shoe. They complained that the game was interfered with by the high winds and the shower of rain. There were there for the occasion, C. Steffens and wife of Lorton, Frank Horstman and family of Talmage, J. H. Steffens and family and Albert Anderson and family of Nehawka.
