Bible School Lesson Study!

Jacob and Esau Reconciled

Genesis 33:1-11.

In our last lesson we saw Jacob on the way to Haran, to his Uncle Laban. After twenty years of service, having through the blessings of God become a rich man—we glimpse at him again. Now Jacob had had some remarkable experiences with his uncle, who was the match of this shrewd trickster who had in earlier life had bartered for his brother's birthright and stolen the blessing intended for Esau.

Now we meet him again, on his way home. And, behold, what a remarkable change in his life. His own confession is recorded in Chap. 32:19, "I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies and of all the truth, which thou hast showed unto thy servant, for with this staff I passed over this Jordan; and now I am become two bands." (a large family and large herds and flocks).

These were years full of hardship and days full of hard service, as he tells his uncle, Chapt. 31:38-42. (The Bible student must read them).

Jacob paid an enormous price for the sin committed against his brother, Esau. But he found some compensation in his love for Rachel, whom he won, like Moses later won Zipporah. (Ex. 2:16-22). Jacob's family life was a very unhappy one, as all polygamous families are. Twelve children are born to him in Haran—eleven sons and one daughter. But there were bitter quarrels among these children of four mothers, as we see later in the story of Joseph. Thus again Jacob's sin bore fruit in misery. The relation between Jacob and his father-in-law became very acute, and as he perceives this, he makes preparations to slip away secretly. He succeeded. When Laban heard of it, he went in pursuit, overtaking Jacob after seven days' journey. God interferred and a clash is avoided; so they came to an agreement, set up "the heap of witness," Mizpah. "It is a curious fact that this tender sentiment which has become the benediction beautiful of a million Christian Endeavorers, is of lowly, even ungracious spirit. Born in the spirit of distrust and suspicion that existed between Laban and Jacob, this sentiment, like some human beings of lowly birth, has come into fullness of honor and nobility," says Edgar D. Jones.

Jacob's experience at Peniel—the fear of meeting his brother, caused him to take special measures to save the lives of his family. After this, he being left alone, had an audience with God. A man approached him and was also meeting with his many friends.

Theodore Nelson and son, Teddy, of Imperial, the former a son of the late F. G. O. Nelson, were here attending the funeral of the father and grandfather.

Dr. J. F. Brendel reports the arrival at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Artemus Barkhurst of a very fine son which came last Friday and with all concerned doing very nicely.

Aubrey Townsend, the barber and McGinness Churchill have arranged that Mr. Churchill is to assist at the barber shop when there is a rush of work like on Saturday and at other rush times which will minimize the waiting.

Miss Bertha Nickles and her friend, Mrs. William Sporer, were over to Plattsmouth last Monday, making the trip in Miss Bertha Nickles new Studebaker car which answers every requirement for a modern motor car.

John Griffin, father of Mrs. Lucien Carper, who makes his home in Lincoln, was in Murray for a number of days last week and was painting and hanging paper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carper and was taken to Lincoln last Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Carper.

John Eppings and the family of Murdock were in Murray on last Friday while on their way to Plattsmouth and were accompanied by their son, Richard, who but recently had returned from Lincoln where he was in the hospital and underwent an operation for appendicitis. He is feeling very good now.

Nelson and the kiddies were over to Lincoln where they went last Sunday to visit with their son, Willard, who is a student at Wesleyan University and there were also there for the occasion a number of others who visited at the home of Andrew Benson who was a former resident. There were there also Mrs. Peter Johnson and son, Albert of Nehawka, Conrad Johnson and Harry B. Nelson and family also attending.

Edward Howard Doing Nicely. Mrs. Roy Howard returned home last Friday from the hospital and reports that her son Edward is doing very nicely. Edward has been there for a number of weeks following an operation for appendicitis. He was very ill during and following the operation and his mother remained with him to assist in his care.

Returns from California. Mrs. Catherine Perry, one of the pioneer residents of Cass county, who is in her eighty-fifth year, returned home Monday from California, where she has been spending the winter. Mrs. Perry made the trip from the west coast alone, having a very pleasant trip and arrived home feeling in excellent condition and not suffering any bad effects of the long journey.

Mrs. Perry was met at Omaha by Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Spangler of Murray, the latter a daughter, and with whom Mrs. Perry is making her home, as well as Charlene Spangler, great granddaughter of Mrs. Perry. In the family group at Omaha to meet the mother was also a son, John E. Perry and wife of Long Beach, California, who are now visiting the relatives in Nebraska.

Mrs. Perry enjoyed the winter in the west very much, visiting among the relatives in several of the coast cities, but with the coming of the summer season she desired to return to the old home in Nebraska where for many years she has been a well known and loved figure. The many old friends are delighted to see her home again and in such excellent health and spirits.

MURRAY TAKES ANOTHER

The Murray Red Sox Sunday afternoon took the long end of the score of a seven-inning battle with the North Omaha Boosters. The score as the game was called at the close of the sixth inning was 11 to 7 for the Sox.

The North Side Boosters, largely former North high baseball stars, opened the game by securing a one score lead which retained until the third when the hard hitting Sox started in to trim down the Omaha bunch. In the opener Midge of the North Omaha team singled and scored on the double of Harvey.

Murray advanced to the lead in the third when Spidell opened with a two base smash and followed by Schlieske who singled and then the carnage started with a double by John Svoboda to score his teammates and he later scoring on the hit of Newman.

The sixth frame was the undoing of Omaha as the Sox garnered six runs and this inning was featured by the triple of Harry Newman as well as the two bagger of Les Gansamer, who was playing his first game of the season.

The visitors staged a comeback in the fifth and sixth but were unable to overcome the Murray lead, the Sox also picking up two runs in the last of the sixth.

The rain storm then made necessary the closing of the battle.

The tabulated score of the game was as follows:

PREPARE FOR DECORATION DAY

The work of cleaning up Oak Hill cemetery for decoration day is now under way and will soon present a very attractive appearance for the day when so many from all eastern Nebraska will visit this city of the silent. The work is being conducted under the direction of Warren Tullone, chairman of the cemetery committee of the city council. The individual lot owners are also busy in planting flowers and beautifying their lots in various ways.

The cemetery at this season of the year, when nature has brought forth its foliage, is very attractive and with the general cleanup will be in fine shape for the memorial day.

HOLD CLASS PICNIC

The sophomore class of the high school Tuesday afternoon enjoyed their annual picnic party. The members of the class and faculty, after the close of the regular school period, motored to the vicinity of the Lyman-Richey sand pits to stage the picnic. A pasture near the pits provided a most attractive spot and here several hours were delightfully spent. The boys of the party staged a baseball game as part of the diversion of the afternoon. The crowning feature was the picnic supper and which embraced everything that might add to the pleasures of the members of the party.
