12 Steps—and All Highly Important

Did you know that 12 steps are necessary in properly tuning a motor car? It's true—and each must be checked carefully and repeatedly, in proper sequence, from cables to carburetor. When we do a tune-up job, we know it's RIGHT. Yet it costs no more than the ordinary kind. Have you tried our service? If not, begin today!

Joseph, the Worker
Genesis 41:46-57.

There is no counterpart in all the biographies of great men to the life story of Joseph. It is unique. It thrills the imagination. It equals only the life story of our Lord. The favored son of his father, sold into slavery; God was with him; in a strange land he maintains his purity of heart; no enticement can make him forget his God; "How then can I do this great wickedness and sin against God?" (Genesis 39:9). In prison for thirteen years; a hard school, but he did not complain, because "the Lord was with him." (Gen. 39:21). The prison is a palace when God is there. Dreams are much in evidence in Joseph's life. Pharaoh's chief butler and chief baker, who had offended the king, were cast into prison where Joseph was assistant warden; they had dreams, told them to Joseph, who let them know that "interpretation belongs to God." (Chap. 40:8). But the man that lives close to God will understand his doings and can interpret them. As the butler leaves prison, three days later, Joseph begged him to hold him in remembrance when he went back to his post, but the butler ungratefully forgot his promise, and dropped Joseph from his mind for two long years. But God had not forgotten Joseph. How wonderful God overrules all. The darkest cloud has a silver lining. Joseph graduates from his prison-school. What a glorious day when the prison doors open and he is ushered into the presence of the king. Not only does he receive a full and complete pardon, but is elevated to prime minister of Egypt. The ways of God are past finding out. This is often the way in the Christian's life. Many are the questions that arise in his mind when the dark days of depression weigh down the soul of man. When there is no ray of hope on the horizon, when the greatest of statesmen fail in finding a way out—it is then that God bares his arm and exercises his power and strength and wisdom. Another dream, when the same is repeated, it means that the dream will surely come true. It reminds us of Jesus' saying: "Verily, Verily!"

Not only does Joseph interpret Pharaoh's dreams, but he comes forth with a constructive plan, as a true statesman. He impresses the king and his court. He is immediately appointed and confirmed to carry out his program. To this end he is clothed with authority, the king's signet ring, the finest clothes, a golden chain visiting for the day last Sunday, and were guests with friends as well as attending the Memorial exercises.

Mrs. Louis Bornemier and parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hall and her brother, Mr. Sumner Hall and lady friend of Elmwood, were visiting for a short time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Townsend in Murray, while on their way to Plattsmouth where they were visiting with relatives.

James McCulloch, father of Harry McCulloch, who is employed with Gus Hollenberg, had the misfortune to catch one of his fingers in a corn sheller which he was using with the result that he lost one of the joints of his fore finger. The member was looked after by the family physician and while it is still very sore the finger is getting along very nicely.

A great many visited Murray from surrounding towns to attend the achievement program on Thursday. More than 300 attended. Delicious refreshments were served. The display of pictures was well worth the attendance, the couple of 50 years ago who was having their picture taken was worth while. Much credit is due Mrs. Everett Spangler who had the matter in charge.

Willard Allen was out in the country selling his Jenny Wren houses. They found ready sale. He made about 20 and has orders ahead. Most of the time but while he was attending school he did not have much time for outside work as he attended the Lewiston school and had quite a ways to go. He also had to make up work lost while he was in the hospital with a broken leg, but was able to pass, making the highest grade in one of the subjects of any in his class.

We had the years of plenty; a deflation had to come. This also holds good in the life of God's people.

The writer to the Hebrews (Chap. 4:16) points to the time of need: "Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need."

Where is the Joseph (statesman) of today, who will show the world out of our trouble? Only as God prepares and calls a man, will he appear at the right moment. Only as the world realizes its need and dependence on God will our help be granted. "I lift up mine eyes unto the hills from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord." (Psalm 121:1-2).

SOX DROP ONE

The Murray Red Sox, who have so far this season been having a succession of victories, met defeat Sunday at Nebraska City when the Otoeans took a hard fought contest 7 to 5. While the Sox were able to out hit their foes 12 to 9, several walks as well as the fact that Murray had eight left on the sacks, added to the cause of defeat. The Nebraska City team has a real group of ball players and behind the fast pitching of Bob Pickering scored a deserved win.

The Sox were held scoreless until the fifth when Spidell scored on a single and successive hits by Roddy and Hopkins. In the eighth inning the Sox started a real threat to victory and scored five runs. Stone and Pierce singled, Spidell hitting a double as did Schliske while Roddy also singled, all scoring except Roddy. Schliske also added to the excitement by stealing third base. The Otoeans came back in their half of the eighth and added three tallies and to clinch the game.

The tabulated score of the game was as follows:

ENJOY SPLENDID SERVICE

The members of the W. R. C. enjoyed a very fine memorial service on Sunday, the occasion being the Union service for the dead of the civil war. The service was held at the First Christian church, the church having provided a most beautiful service and in which the members of other church organizations participated.

The sermon of the day was given by Rev. O. B. Chastain of Omaha, the pastor of the church. The pastor paid tribute to those who had carried on the good fight and had been called to the last reward, urging that their sacrifices might not have been in vain. Rev. H. G. McClusky of the First Presbyterian church assisted in the service.

The choir of the Christian church had the musical program of the service and gave a very fine program of sacred and patriotic numbers to add to the impressiveness of the event.

A fine spirit of co-operation was manifest by the churches of the city in dismissing their own services and going to this service. The members of the Christian church appreciate the spirit shown.

HONOR LOCAL STUDENT

Clarence Forbes, graduate of the class of 1922 of the Plattsmouth high school and member of the Southeast champion high school basketball team, has been selected for a place on the state interscholastic honor roll.

This roll is composed of 128 athletes from seventy-five of the schools of the state, comprising representatives in football, basketball and track.

Omaha Tech, Omaha South, Lincoln and Crete were the schools having the largest representation on the honor roll.

Forbes was the only selection made from this city and the only basketball selection made from the south-east section. He was one of the outstanding stars at the state tourney, upon which the selection was made by sports writers. He was named on several of the all state teams for his outstanding work as a guard.

MAKES "BELIEVE IT OR NOT"

From Wednesday's Daily A. W. Clويد of this city has reached the "Believe It or Not" column of Ripley, appearing in the metropolitan papers today. The reason for Mr. Clويد's place in this account of things unusual, is that he made three holes in one on the same hole, No. 2, at the Elks Country club, a distance of 116 yards. This feat was so unusual that it was sent in to the well known writer and the result found a place among the curious and striking incidents of the world.
