Dismissed Negligence Charge Against Erps

Truck Driver Absolved in Death of Lincoln Woman a Week Ago—Hearing in County Court

Nebraska City, June 13.—Concluding a two day preliminary hearing late Saturday afternoon, County Judge Morton dismissed charges of operating a motor truck at a greater speed than is reasonable and proper, filed against Lloyd Erps, Omaha, driver for the Watson Brothers Trucking company.

Erps' truck, Falls City bound from Omaha, crashed headon four miles north of here last Saturday with a sedan driven by Chas. Grenzbech, of Lincoln, a manufacturing jeweler, killing his wife, Ricka, outright. Grenzbech is in a Lincoln hospital recovering from his injuries.

Herman Rittenhouse, Humboldt, whose car driven just ahead of the truck, figured in the crash when Erps swerved around it and crashed into the sedan, was found guilty several days ago of driving while intoxicated and is serving a thirty day jail term.

In dismissing charges against Erps, Judge Morton ruled there was insufficient evidence he was driving too fast or negligently.

Witnesses called said the truck was traveling from twenty to twenty-five miles an hour. Judge Morton and attorneys visited the scene of the accident before the ruling was made.

Erps did not testify, but his testimony at the coroner's inquest was read into the record.

State Supreme Court Gives Attorney General Sorensen Retrial in KFAB SUIT.

Lincoln, June 10.—Holding that the federal radio act confers no privilege to broadcasting stations to publish defamatory utterances, the state supreme court today reversed and sent back for retrial in Lancaster district court the 100-thousand-dollar libel suit of Attorney General C. A. Sorensen against Richard F. Wood and radio station KFAB.

The court held that the fundamental principles of law involved in publication by radio station and by newspaper seem to be alike and that there is no legal reason why one should be favored over another nor why the broadcasting station should be granted special favors.

The district court had held KFAB not liable and had awarded Sorensen $1 damage from Wood for alleged defamatory utterances during a political speech two years ago. As a result of Wood's speech, two other suits were filed, each for one hundred thousand dollars, one by Harry Lapidus, Omaha vice crusader, later murdered, the other by Irvin Stalmaster, deputy attorney general in Omaha, who is Lapidus' son-in-law. These two suits have not been tried.

The radio station defense was built around the contention it had no power of censorship over political speeches.

On that point, however, Chief Justice Goss, who wrote the opinion, said: "We do not think congress intended by this language in the radio act to authorize or sanction the publication of libel. The fundamental principles of the law involved in publication by a newspaper and by a radio station seem to be alike."—World-Herald.

TWO WOMEN IN THE FRAY

Chicago.—Broken clouds of opposition still darkened the vice presidential sky Monday night, but there was no precipitable movement to bring them together in a storm that might wash the name of Charles Curtis from second place on the republican ticket. Administration support to bolster Vice President Curtis' candidacy became more evident as cabinet officers and members of the Hoover inner circle made plans to resist any effort to upset the status.

The Illinois delegation discussed whether to pit forward Charles G. Dawes for the vice presidency, but in view of his unknown attitude there was a lack of momentum to the move to draft him. In Washington Dawes declined to discuss the matter.

The arrival of the two principals of one of Washington's bitterest feuds of recent years—Mrs. Dolly Curtis Gann and Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth—gave rise to instant speculation over whether there might not be another tug of war impending between them over the vice presidency. Mrs. Gann, the sister and official hostess for the vice president, said she was confident he would be renominated. "He deserves the renomination and everybody in the country knows it," she said.

Both she and Mrs. Longworth talked with Secretary Mills and various other of the leaders on the scene. Mrs. Longworth was understood to be urging her brother, Governor Roosevelt of the Philippines, for the post. From different state delegations there came other names of possible nominees.

CHILD CRIME LAW SIGNED

Washington, June 13.—President Hoover signed into law a measure long under consideration, designed to remove juvenile offenders against federal laws from the United States courts and into the juvenile courts of their home communities.

Proposed by the Wickersham commission and carrying the endorsement of social workers throughout the country, the act will remove juvenile treatment from the federal courts entirely, except where local courts refuse to accept the cases.

Pajamas for men's street wear in summer are having their annual discussion. Frankly, we never could see why men are so timid about appearing on the street in pajamas—just a short step, you might say, beyond seersucker suits.

How the Polarine Jury writes recommendations

First: The committee on engine design and specifications reports on cylinder clearances, compression ratio, iron or aluminum pistons, type of lubrication system, location of oil pump, length, diameter and exposure of oil lines, normal operating heat of the motor, normal and maximum speed.

Second: The laboratory chemist reports on the theoretical fitness of the oil for its work.

Third: The engineers in charge of test operation in the laboratories and on the road are heard—the power production with oils of different grades, the consumption of oil at various engine speeds, operation of the motor in test rooms—at polar temperatures and at midsummer temperatures.

Fourth: The control engineers bring in their figures on engine wear, oil consumption, carbon deposit and condition of each oil at the end of each test run.

This Polarine Jury with all the facts to guide them, then votes the Polarine specification.

That's why we say consult the chart for the correct grade of new Polarine to use. It is the surest, shortest road to safe lubrication—to expert lubrication—fuel saving, smoother and longer car.

Thoroughly designed new Polarine is free from the impurities that harm and exhaust the motor. It clings to metal and covers it the protection against wear any oil can give—25¢ A QUART FOR EVERY GRADE.

Hoover Kept Advised of the Doings at 'Chi.'

President in Telephone Conversation With His Lieutenants Assembled at Chicago.

Washington.—Thru the eyes of a squad of advisers in Chicago, President Hoover Sunday watched the continued attack upon problems facing the republican party by delegates assembling for the national convention. The chief executive remained within reach of a telephone throughout the day, except for attending Quaker services with Mrs. Hoover during the morning.

By means of both long distance conversations and the telegraph he listened to the views of his rapidly increasing corps of cabinet officers and personal secretaries assembled in Chicago, and sent back his own opinions. Meanwhile more of his close advisers left the capital for the convention, with only Secretaries Hurley and Adams and Attorney General Mitchell of his entire cabinet remaining behind.

At one time during the day the president talked in his study with two of those most prominently mentioned for the vice presidential candidacy should Vice President Curtis not be given the place. Both General Dawes and Secretary Hurley asserted upon leaving the white house, however, that politics had not been discussed. Dawes, with Mrs. Dawes and Assistant Secretary Douglas of the treasury and Mrs. Douglas, had lunch with President and Mrs. Hoover, with Secretary Hurley joining the three men later in the Lincoln study.

Publicly, President Hoover maintained absolute silence upon convention affairs, including the prohibition question. But it was firmly established that his views on this subject had been imparted to men now in Chicago. It was established with equal firmness that whatever his full views on the problem, he is outright in opposition to a repeal plank in the platform.—State Journal.

Three More Nations Agree to Pay Their Debts

Suspended Payments to Be Spread Over 10-Year Period—Rest Expected to Sign

Washington, June 12.—Three more European nations, including France, today signed an agreement to pay within 10 years $59,000,653 owed the United States as a result of the Hoover moratorium of one year on intergovernmental debts.

Meanwhile, Senator Lewis (dem., Ill.) told the senate he wanted to congratulate the administration for declining the invitation to join in the assemblage to meet at Lausanne, Switzerland, under the guise of trade adjustment where the real purpose is to point the necessity for the cancellation of the American debts.

Nations which signed the agreement were France, whose postponed payments amounted to 50 million dollars; Belgium, $7,950,000; Rumania, 800 thousand dollars, and Latvia, $250,653.

That leaves only $8,374,763 to be funded by Poland, Estonia and Austria. They are expected to sign an agreement early next week. The total funded is $244,192,040. England owed $159,520,000 of this amount.

The arrangement was made as the European nations prepared to meet at Lausanne next Thursday to decide whether further action is necessary on reparations. The United States will not be represented, holding that this is purely a European problem.

It has been proposed to hold an adjourned meeting at Lausanne to consider the world economic situation. The United States made known it would send a representative if the parley did not meet at the Swiss city.—World-Herald.

The sheriff found some twenty-five sporting in the water and along the beach of the pits and in the attire that nature had given them. The sheriff informed the party that there had been complaint lodged with him and accordingly they left the scene.
