Clyde Flaishmann was thrashing during the first part of the week and getting that work out of the way.

Misses Dorothy and Veare Harding of Omaha were visiting with their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fulton, for over the week end.

Fred and Edward Schumaker have just completed their thrashing and are ready for the other farm work. Mark Burton has been assisting in the harvest.

Mrs. Frank Schroder of Fairview, Oklahoma was a visitor for some time at the home of her brother, J. H. Streffens, where all enjoyed a very fine time. She was accompanied by her daughter, Miss Joan.

James M. Dunbar and the family of Auburn were guests for the day on last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Palmer, they driving up from their home for the day, and also enjoying a very fine dinner.

Miss Gladys Wolfe was called to Omaha on last Monday to get some supplies for her beauty shoppe and was accompanied as far as Plattsmouth by Mrs. Ella Schupp, who had some business to look after at the county seat.

John G. Wunderlich and wife and Mr. and Mrs. John Opp were over to Omaha on last Monday afternoon. They were looking after some business and as well attending the AK-Sar-Ben show, it being Cass and Otoe county night.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Gray and daughter Cordelia of Palmyra, Mo. arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Pollard, where they are visiting for some time. The ladies are sisters which makes the visit the most pleasant.

Miss Cathleen Rood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Rood, who has been visiting at grandfather and grandmother Nels Anderson and wife for the past two weeks, returned home with her parents who came for a visit on last Sunday.

Gust Nelson has been working at the Lundberg garage during the time since Mr. Lundberg has been so sick. Mr. Lundberg, however, is much improved and was able to be down town Monday morning and is showing good improvement.

Uncle Peter Opp, who has been at Omaha for the past three weeks, has been enjoying a very fine visit at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. T. Black. He has been feeling very well and went to Lincoln where he will visit for a short time before he comes home.

While at play at the home, Bobby, the three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henning Johnson, fell and received a fracture of one of his arms which necessitated the services of Dr. Hansen. The arm was set and the little fellow is getting along nicely at this time.

Both Thomas E. Fulton and the good wife, both of whom have not been in the best of health, are at this time doing nicely. Mr. Fulton being about town and Mrs. Fulton being able to be about the house with the aid of a cane which is very pleasing to Mrs. Fulton.

Paul, the four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Connor, who work for Parr Young and reside on one of the farms, while playing about the house had the misfortune to fall and break his collar bone. The injury was looked after by Dr. Hansen and the little fellow is getting along nicely since.

Albert Wolfe was enjoying the ball game which was staged at the Murray park between the Murray team and a team which was recruited from Plattsmouth and a spirited game was had in which the Murray team won over the team from the county seat by a score of 9 to 19 in favor of the Murray team.

Mesdames Albert Stoll and Harold Kemlon, who have been here for a number of weeks during the time of illness of Mrs. T. H. Fulton, their mother, following the injury when she had her hip broken, departed for their homes on last Friday driving to their home near Wayside, which is just over into South Dakota from the northwestern portion of Nebraska.

Wm. Fulton and daughter, who have been visiting here for some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Fulton, departed for their home at Harbor de Grace, Maryland, they making the trip via Saint Louis and arriving home on Saturday evening. While here the brother and other members of the two families enjoyed a most pleasant visit, the first in years.

While working in the cellar at their home, Mrs. Stewart Rough turned around to do some work and the cellar not being very light her foot struck against a tub which caused her to fall and in doing she fell over the tub, skinning and bruising her knees and making her very sore. She is however getting along very well. She was not so badly injured but she was going to keep the matter from her husband until he showed her an account of Mrs. Briggs falling into the cellar when the steps gave way. Then she told him of her accident. She is getting along nicely.

Will Visit With Mother

Herbert L. Kuntz and the family will in a short time go to New London, Wisconsin where he will visit with his mother whom he has not seen for the past seven years. Mr. Kuntz has fixed his car so as to carry along what bedding and things to cook with that they may camp by the way and expects to enjoy a very fine visit and good trip along the way as well.

Clarence Falischman Improving

C. W. Flaishman has been suffering from frequent attacks of appendicitis and was taken to the hospital at Omaha on last Friday where he underwent an operation and since which he was for a number of days very seriously ill and in a critical condition, for some time but during the past few days has been showing some improvement and it is hoped that he may be able to return home in the course of the week. Clyde was over to see the father on last Sunday and the wife has been staying with Mr. Falischman since his operation.

Celebrate Fortieth Anniversary

On the farm of her father two miles west of Lorton on July 14th 1892 was celebrated the wedding of Mr. C. Steffens and wife, then Miss Julia Keen. At that time the bride was the daughter of a very prosperous farmer while Mr. Steffens was a prosperous business man in Lorton and during the following twenty three years continued to conduct the business there and for the past seventeen years has been connected with the Bank of Lorton as its cashier which position he still holds with credit and keeping the bank in the very best of condition. This union was blessed with five daughters and on son, the latter Mr. John H. Steffens, the daughters being Mrs. Frank Schrader of Oklahoma, Mrs. P. C. Cunningham of Norfolk, Nebraska, Mrs. Frank Horstman of Syracuse, Miss Margaret Steffens of Chicago and Mrs. Albert Anderson of Nehawka. There were at this gathering when the fortieth wedding anniversary was celebrated at the Steffens home at Lorton all the children and their families, Mr. and Mrs. D. Steffens, a brother of Nehawka. There were also Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Keen and Charles Swanson of Syracuse, brother and sister of the bride with their wife and husband.

A most enjoyable day was had and all present on their departure expressed the wish that they might enjoy many more happy years of wedded life.

WEEPING WATER

Mrs. Owen McGrady is reported as being rather poorly and has been kept to her home and bed for a number of days.

John Cole was called to Omaha on Monday afternoon of this week where he was looking after some business matters for a short time. Herbert Cappen and Mrs. Klambach departed for O'Neill early this week where they are visiting with friends for the remainder of the week.

Mrs. E. T. Dudley, better known as grandmother Dudley, has been rather poorly for the few days but was reported as being some better during the middle of the week.

Newton R. Grubbs, the blacksmith, was called in Plattsmouth where he was looking after some business matters in the county court on last Saturday, he being accompanied by his attorney, C. E. Tefft.

Elmer Michelsen was called to Omaha one day this week where he was looking after the purchase of goods for the store and has been adding much to their already large stock of goods which they carry.

Mrs. George I. Morey and sister Mrs. Sanders who is visiting here from her home at York departed the first of the week for a visit of a few days at Thurston where they will visit with friends and relatives.

Gust Sorman and wife of Greenwood were over to Weeping Water on last Friday, coming over to look after some business matters and were also visiting at the home of their old friends, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Birdsall.

Misses Evelyn, Thelma, and Catherine Cole, and Miss Beulah Dean were spending a week in Lincoln where they were guests of friends. They enjoyed their stay most pleasantly and returned home on last Sunday, after having had an excellent vacation.

Homer Sylvester was a visitor in Murray on last Sunday, accompanied by the wife, where they were attending the ball game and meeting many people at the Murray bathing beach. There were also a large number of ball fans there to see the game between Murray and Plattsmouth.

Roy Stine, an old friend of grandmother Crozier, who knew the family when they made their home in Union and who makes his home in Plattsmouth, was a visitor in Weeping Water on Tuesday of this week and a caller at the home of grandmother Crozier as well as John T. Crozier.

Wm. Gusset while at his work injured one of his hands and in a short time the member had become infected and he was compelled to go to Omaha to have it treated at the Missouri Pacific hospital where he was sent on account of being an employee of the road. He had the hand dressed and returned home but has to go to the hospital for further treatment.

Mrs. Gladys Newkirk and two children of Moreilton, Ark. and Harry Smith and wife of White River, Ark., who had been visiting for a time at Burwell with the parents of the ladies, Bruce Burch, on their return stopped in Weeping Water and visiting for a time at the home of their uncle, Fred A. Bruh and on their departure were accompanied by Bernice Burch who will visit several weeks there.

Don McCleary, who has been making his home at Douglas, Wyo. during the entire year so far, returned home for a visit, arriving just last Sunday. He came to Omaha in charge of a car of sheep which were being marketed and ran down to Weeping Water where he is visiting with his relatives and friends. Donald says that the west is looking fine and crops very good thus far but that just now they are needing rain very much. Stirling Amick and wife were over to Omaha on last Sunday, taking dinner with them, and being accompanied by the mother of Mr. Amick. They enjoyed the River-view park where they picnicked, eating their dinner under the shade of the trees, and looking at the animals which are kept at the park. They returned via Plattsmouth, picking up Mr. Carl Englekemeier, who is the father of Mrs. Amick, and brought him to Weeping Water where he visited for a few days, also with George Schumacher as well.

Makes Trip to West

Some two weeks since Wm. Meyers and son, and Bill Johnson departed for the northwest for a vacation, stopping near Burwell on their way out where a brother of Mr. Meyers, the cleaner, resides. They stopped for a visit of a couple days and then went on into the Black Hills and enjoyed a wonderful time with their fishing and swimming. They dabbled so long in Swan Lake that Bill Johnson had his back sunburned until it was blistered and cracked like an alligator hide. However Bill is getting along fine and will soon be all right. They report the crops surely looking fine with the single exception of needing some rain now they say it cannot be beat. While fishing they were sometimes successful and some time were cheated out of the catch. Once especially when Bill drew a large fish above the water, only to have it slip off and get away. Bill says the fish weighed 14 pounds even if it did get away for he could see the weight on the scales of the fish.

Finger Broken Twice

The finger which Roy Cole had injured last winter and which has had so much difficulty in getting well has been broken twice since. He will have to have it amputated at the middle joint as he is unable to keep the finger out of the way and thus is liable to get it injured otherwise.

Investigate Other Schools

The matter for using gas for the heating of the Weeping Water schools has been receiving considerable attention. A committee of the board consisting of Dr. E. L. Speck, O. E. Powers, and Edward Dowler on last Monday evening visited the schools of Louisville, Ashland and Stirling where the investigated the plans and also ascertained as to about the cost of heating and the results in order to be fully advised as to what to do in the case of the Weeping Water schools.

Did Not Call For Papers

While all are loyal citizens and are willing to bear the burden of the expenses of the government in all phases, some who have been dispensing cigarettes after having ordered permission to sell, forgot to go and secure the necessary papers and had to be cited to appear before the judiciary and show cause. They just paid the fee and took the papers along and are now in good standing for another year.

Many Visit Omaha

A large number of the young people of Weeping Water were to Omaha on last Monday night where they went to attend the Cass and Otoe county night at the Den, and where all enjoyed the show to the limit.

Know How to Fish

While some people think there is no art to fishing, and sure I have never found it, and can hardly purchase fish when sent for them, still there is a know how and a method of execution that counts when the question is nicely drawn between good fishing and poor fishing, then is when the skill comes in. Ben Olice who made a good soldier as well as is Fred Klepser have also made good fishermen and this is attested by the excellent catches which they have recently made in the rippling water of the Weeping Water.

Will Expect to Visit Plattsmouth

The Weeping Water band which is one of the very best in the country and which has made calls for furnishing music at many towns. On August 2nd they will give a concert at the village of Murdock, as it is their custom each year. They will then twelve days thereafter give a concert at the Masonic Home in Plattsmouth, which will be on Aug. 14th and at which time will furnish a very fine concert for the members of the Masonic Home who are not able to get out as they would like to enjoy hearing concerts elsewhere. This is showing a very fine spirit in the Weeping Water band as they are taking much pains and at no little expense to provide the elderly members of the home this musical treat.

Visiting at Onawa, Iowa

Ralph Keckler and the good wife departed on last Monday for Onawa, Iowa where they went for a visit with the sister of Mrs. Keckler, Mrs. J. S. Dearing, whose husband conducts a hospital in the Iowa town they were visiting for a few days, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Dearing. The ladies being sisters made the trip the more pleasing. They were accompanied by Miss Genlveve Fitzpatrick who is also visiting there.

Will Install Stone Crushers.

Incident to the beginning again of the activities of the Western Limestone Company, as they had at this time orders for eighteen hundred cars of the product of the quarry they found it necessary to install one or two additional crushers for their work. It is expected they will be in readiness soon to begin turning out crushed rock, which will be used on the paving which is beginning from Lincoln east of O street on highway number 24. This will give a large number of men employment and will smite old depression some.

GAME WARDENS HERE

A party of game wardens seeking fishing nets that do not comply with the law or those whose owners have no license, have been active in this section of Nebraska. The party had with them several boats that came down the Missouri river, as well as a large truck and a car. They visited at all of the towns adjacent to the river as well as the fishing places along the stream to search for the nets. At this place they took possession of two old hoop nets which, however, were practically useless to the owner. The wardens continued down the river from here and gathered in several nets at points between this city and Nebraska City, where they spent Monday in checking up the fishermen there. While the state law forbidding seining in the Missouri river was repealed by the last legislature, the law provides that the nets must not have a mesh smaller than two inches and that all net owners must have a license.

HAVE ROCK GARDEN

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Egenberger on Vine street, a very attractive rock garden and fish pool has been arranged at the south of the yard. The rear portion of the lot raises several feet to the alleyway and here rock walls have been placed and which is featured by flowers of various kinds interspersed with the rocks. The fish pool is spanned by a miniature bridge and which is formed of rocks from many parts of the country, a part being from Mexico, while shells from the west coast and other sections adds in making it a very attractive spot. The pool is well stocked with the silver and gold fish and with the attractive surroundings makes it a most pleasant spot for the hot summer afternoon.

FINDS WEST HOT AND DRY

From Tuesday's Daily Frank Koubek returned this morning on the Burlington from the west part of the state where he has been looking after some land interests which he has near Lamar. Mr. Koubek reports that the conditions in the west part of the state look very pleasing, the corn being a little later than it is in this section. There as in the east section, the weather has been very hot and the country in need of a good soaking rain. That locality did not have the heavy rains of the east part during the fall and spring and has not the subsurface moisture of this part of the state. While there Mr. Koubek was able to see a number of the former Cass county people who are now residing in Chase and Perkins counties.

HAS ROOF RESURFACED

The roof of the Wescott building at fifth and Main streets is being resurfaced and placed in condition for the winter season. The work is being looked after by the three mucketeers, Henry Donat, Kenneth Armstrong and Keith Snyder. The young men have just recently resurfaced the roofs of the Redmen and C. A. Rawls building on lower Main street.

TO PLAY DOUBLE HEADER

The Murray Red Sox Sunday will have a real treat for the baseball fans, they staging a battle with The Gordon Oil Co., of Omaha, one of the snappy teams of that city, while the Cedar Creek and Pleasant Hill teams, who are also good fast organizations. This double header will give a full afternoon of enjoyment for the fans and the four teams will show some real baseball.

4-H Club Camp.

My how time flies! Just think, less than a week now till 4-H camp opens. Wednesday evening, July 27 many Cass county 4-H'ers will be wending their way to Camp Bellevue for a three day outing. Class work, recreation, swimming and camp surprises keep the campers busy.

County Judging Try-Outs.

4-H clubs interested in trying out for judging teams to represent Cass county at state fair should plan to attend the judging school at the College of Agriculture, Lincoln, Tuesday, August 2nd. Judging starts at 10:00 a. m.

Gene Spangler Will Terrace Large Field.

The way Gene Spangler's oat and corn field washed away this spring has made him wonder just how long there will be good soil enough to raise a crop.

He came to the same conclusion that many Cass county farmers will come to in the next 10-15 years. That conclusion is that there is a good reason for the old Missouri river being muddy and the way to have a farm left for the next generation is to use terraces, brush dams, and tubular dams on the steep slopes.

Tuesday, August 3rd, Ivan D. Wood, extension engineer from Lincoln and the county agent will help Mr. Spangler terrace a large field, three miles south and one-half east of Plattsmouth. Everyone is invited to the demonstration.

Home Accounts Prove Valuable

"Our income is down to almost nothing, but I need a home account book to help me make more careful choices for my family," said one homemaker at the mid-year account conference.

Ten home account summaries for 1931 were returned to the project account keepers the past week. These summaries included averages for the state, district and county as well as each record keeper's own figures.

Comparisons of averages show: 1. As income decreased, the proportion of income required for food is an increasing share of the whole expenditure.

2. As income increases the percent spent for clothing remains practically unchanged.

3. The per cent of outlay for shelter, fuel, light is the same whatever the income.

4. As the income increases the percentage of outlay becomes greater for sundries, for cultural wants, education, health and service.

Dairy Specialist to Inspect Calves

M. L. Flack, dairy extension specialist from Lincoln will inspect all the 4-H dairy calves in the county, Monday, August 8th.

The object of this inspection tour is to help all the 4-H dairy calf club boys get their animals in show condition for the fairs. Feeding, leading, clipping, blanketing, etc., are some of the points discussed with the members. Another object of the inspection is to see that only the calves that have been fitted for the show and are of show quality be encouraged to go to the state fair.

Wheat Grades 34% Smutty.

Approximately 34 per cent of the Cass county wheat marketed in Omaha between the dates of July 1, 1931 and June 1, 1932, graded smutty, according to word received this week from the College of Agriculture extension service at Lincoln. The percentage is based on 6,972 cars of which 1,112 graded smutty.

While the loss from the wheat smut is high, it does not compare with former years. Not only has the percentage of smutty wheat been reduced but the amount of smut in the wheat last year was much less than in past seasons. A few years ago much of the wheat over the state was extremely smutty, causing large discounts in prices.

Smut infection in wheat each year can be prevented by the use of seed treatment. Farmers who have used the method in Cass county have reported no trouble with their harvested crop. Copper carbonate is recommended for treating seed. It does not injure the germination or cause the seed to swell and the seed may be treated with it anytime and stored without injury.
