ANNIVERSARY OF HOT WIND

From Saturday's Daily

While at the police court this morning, Judge Graves informed the reporter that today was the thirty-seventh anniversary of the hot winds which in 1894 laid waste the corn fields of Nebraska. Judge Graves at that time was a resident of Union and recalls well the start of the blast that before it ceased, left withered and burned out cornfields that had previously been bright and green with the prospects of a fine crop of corn. On this date Judge Graves states, one of the pioneer residents of Union was being laid to rest and the hot winds sweeping over the country fell like the blast from

Report of Meeting of the Cass Co. Red Cross

Mrs. H. A. Tool, Secretary of the County Organization Presents Report of Meeting.

The special meeting of the Cass county chapter of the American Red Cross was held at Weeping Water, on July 14th.

Meeting called to order at 2 p. m. by Chairman Miss Robb, Union. Roll call of branch chairmen and chapter representatives as follows: Cedar Creek, Eagle, Greenwood, Manly, Murray, Murdoch, Plattsmouth, Union, Weeping Water, present. Louisville and Nehawka absent, but requests that chapter chairman act as proxy. Branches absent, Alvo, Avoca, Elmwood, Mynard and South Bend.

Communications from headquarters were read by the chairman; Mr. Winfrey, acting director of the Midwestern branch, refers in full to reports required of the branches to the chapter, annual audits of finances, roll call, the need of budgeting income and expenses for carrying on the work of the Red Cross.

Mr. Winfrey's special letter and questionnaire in regard to free distribution of government cotton, either as material or garments for needy.

Chapter chairman read bulletin prepared by herself containing the information concerning the chapter activities, requests to the chapter from headquarters, statistics and facts taken from the Red Cross Courier that those present might better understand the close connection between chapter and national organization, stressing the need for every branch to subscribe for the Red Cross Courier, official organ of the national organization.

Matters of business required the roll call director be appointed at this time. The chapter secretary-treasurer has acted as roll call chairman since 1923, but owing to the increased work in the chapter, she asked to be relieved of this duty this year. Upon motion, Mr. A. O. Ault of Cedar Creek, was elected to fill the office of roll call director for 1932, Armistice Day to Thanksgiving.

Upon reading the amount of general office expense for the fiscal year and owing to the increased rate of postage it was moved and carried that $60 be allowed the secretary to cover general expense, postage, stationery, telephone, and miscellaneous items.

Reports on activities were given by Judge Duxbury, home service chairman, on cases of ex-service men, through Mr. Slaw, Lincoln, who handles these cases for the Red Cross, every case presented through him has obtained the desired results. Judge Duxbury urged that every branch or person knowing of ex-service men needing assistance in this way should be brought to his attention.

Mrs. Young, nutrition chairman, reported on follow up work in the nutrition program that closed March 15 of this year. Results and interest being shown in the clinics held during this service. Interested persons are making inquiry as to foods for health as outlined by the Red Cross nutritionist. Interest in gardens, canning and economical use of foods few of things developed. Believing that in the thrift and economy program that the times now demand that stress should be placed upon the kinds of food for health and methods of obtaining them that expenses could be lessened greatly.

She reported scarcity of jars for canning surplus foods from gardens. She with the committee of five distributed flour for Murray community.

Other towns reporting on flour distribution, Cedar Creek, Mrs. Ault; Eagle, Mrs. Peterson; Greenwood, Dr. Talcott; Weeping Water, Sterling Amick, Mr. Barclay from Plattsmouth, working with the Red Cross and welfare association gave suggestions in relief work that had proven to be worth trying. First of all there must be co-operation of all organizations for economy. Get to the bottom of things, take time to investigate every case. Centralize into a committee head, keeping complete record of all activities.

Application will be made for the second car of flour.

After discussion of these different reports it was suggested to confer with the county commissioners. Motion made and carried that the county commissioners be invited to attend the next meeting which will be held in Weeping Water during the county fair.

All branches who have not sent in the full report of the work up to June 30, 1932, the close of the fiscal year, please do so now. Complying with the instructions from headquarters that an audited report be made which says, branch audits be made on Form 204 and may be prepared by a public accountant or special auditing committee of two or more persons, none of whom have had any connection with the finance of the chapter during the period for which the audit is made.

The county chairman is held responsible to see that all branches have their accounts audited, properly signed, as the county chapter is required to report active funds of the chapter. Branch funds held by the chapter and special funds, government bonds and other inactive funds, also funds in closed banks, so please comply with this request and send in to Mrs. Henry Tool, secretary-treasurer, Cass County Chapter, American Red Cross.

Hoping to see all branches represented at the meeting in Weeping Water in September is the wish of the executive committee.

CASS CO. CHAPTER, A. R. C. AUGUSTA ROBB, Chairman. MRS. HENRY TOOL, Sec-Treas.

LONG DRAWN OUT CASE

The hearing of a complaint charging Charles and John Daniels with disturbing the peace, was on trial all day Friday in police court before Judge Charles L. Graves. This is an action in which the two defendants are charged in a complaint filed by Mrs. Clara Thompson with making a disturbance. The parties reside in the south part of the city and the case was the outgrowth of a neighborhood dispute. The hearing attracted a great deal of attention from the residents of that locality and Judge Graves adjourned his court to the city council chamber which was packed to its capacity by those eager to hear the testimony offered.

The case was concluded late Friday afternoon and Judge Graves found the defendants guilty as charged and assessed the fine at $1 and costs which was settled and the case closed.

SUFFERS FROM PNEUMONIA

Dr. Charles M. Gradoville, formerly engaged in the dental practice here, is critically ill with pneumonia at the hospital at Knoxville, Iowa.

Dr. Gradoville has not been well for several days and was taken to the hospital for examination and treatment as he was running a high temperature and he developed the pneumonia conditions a short time after reaching there. He is under constant medical care and all visitors are kept from his room. Dr. Gradoville is a member of the staff of the U. S. Veterans hospital, having been appointed to that position last winter.

While in service in the navy in the world war, Dr. Gradoville contracted pneumonia, from the effects of which he has suffered a permanent disability and this fact causes the present attack to give the family and attending physicians a great deal of apprehension.

HARVESTING SEASON

The harvesting season is now in full progress in this section and many of the idle workmen are finding places on the farms for the time of this extra rush. The small grain is not as extensive or heavy as last year and from several sections comes the report of it being very light and not testing as well as in past years. With the harvest on, the residents in the farming districts are to be seen in the city early in the morning securing meat and other supplies that are necessary to feed a crew of hungry threshers.

GOING TO SANITARIUM

W. O. Reeves, one of the service men of the community, is going to the Battle Mountain sanitarium in South Dakota, a hospital maintained for the U. S. war veterans. Mr. Reeves is suffering from a very rare disease that has affected his spine and it is hoped that in the treatment at the sanitarium that he may derive some measure of relief. Mr. Reeves has been poorly for some time and his case has been looked after by Judge Duxbury, local service officer of the American Legion, who was able to secure action of the Veterans Bureau to have the local man hospitalized.

HAS TONSILS REMOVED

Paul Vandervoort, who has been in poor health for some time, was operated on Thursday morning at the office of a local physician for the removal of his tonsils. The operation was very successful and Mr. Vandervoort is recuperating at home and in a few days expects to be over the effects of the ordeal. It is hoped that the removal of the tonsils will allow his restoration to his former excellent health.

TO UNDERGO TONSILLECTOMY

From Thursday's Daily

This morning Mrs. J. B. Farnham departed for Lincoln, former home of the family, where she will have her little son, Rob Roy, operated on for the removal of his tonsils which have been causing him a great deal of trouble. On her return Mrs. Farnham will be accompanied by her daughter who has been spending some weeks with relatives at Lincoln.

MRS. MEISINGER POORLY

Mrs. P. H. Meisinger, who was taken to Omaha Wednesday to take treatment at the Immanuel hospital, was reported today as not feeling as well as she has, suffering from the heat that has aggravated her case. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Tritsch and Mr. and Mrs. William Tritsch, were at Omaha today to visit the mother of the ladies.

NEW ARRIVALS IN CITY

From Saturday's Daily

The population of the city was increased by two today when a couple of fine youngsters came to Plattsmouth homes to reside.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goodman were made very happy when they came to their home a fine nine and a quarter pound son. The little one and mother is doing very nicely and the event has brought the greatest of pleasure to the proud father as well as Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Taylor, maternal grandparents.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Mendenhall also was visited by the stork at an early hour today and who left in their care a fine little girl, who tipped the scales at seven and a half pounds on her arrival. This being the first child in the family she is the object of universal admiration from all of the family circle.

FAMILY GATHERING

On Sunday the L. A. Tyson home was the scene of a family reunion when the following were home: Floyd Tyson and wife and children, Jean and Buddy, of Eaton, Colorado; Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Robb and children, John and Jane of Lincoln; Dr. R. W. Tyson of Falls City; Mrs. W. S. Waters, a sister of Mrs. Tyson of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Tyson and son James of Omaha. There were 16 to partake of a dinner of fried chicken, roasting ears and other things that go to make a real dinner. It was a happy gathering and all were desirous that there might be many more such gatherings in the future. Mr. and Mrs. Noel Tyson and four children and Mr. and Mrs. James Brown and two children were not present.—Elmwood Leader-Echo.

REPAIRING PIPELINES

The maintenance force of the Continental Construction Co., is here looking over the line of the company which is laid south of this city to the Missouri river under water crossing. This force makes all necessary repairs that may be necessary along the line from Beatrice to this city, the lines being patrolled by the employees of the company located at points along the line and who report washes or trouble along the course to the offices at Beatrice and who have their force of workmen sent out to make the necessary repairs.

VISIT IN THE OLD HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Selver and Mrs. Daisy Douglass, mother of Mrs. Selver, were in the city Thursday afternoon to visit with the many old time friends. They are now making their home in Lincoln where Mr. Selver is engaged with the state department of public works, he having been in this line of work for a number of years. They report that Dean Douglass, former Plattsmouth boy, is now located with the public works department at Falls City where he is assisting in the highway work.

IS BACK ON DUTY

Constable Thomas Svoboda, who for several weeks has been in poor health, is now back on duty after several courses of treatment at the University hospital at Omaha. The officer has had some eleven teeth removed in the effort to check his illness and expects to return to the hospital later to have several other of the teeth removed. It is hoped with the correction of the teeth that the patient may be able to regain his health which has been poorly for several years.
