CHANGE AT FILLING STATION

The Continental Oil Co., service station at Sixth and Vine streets, which has been under the management of Jennings Seybert for the past year, has been taken over by Henry Hitzmann, who has been engaged for several years in the sales force of the Plattsmouth Motor company. The new manager has taken charge of the station this week and is now looking after the interests of the patrons. Mr. Seybert is expecting to engage in other business enterprises and which led to his retirement from the station management.

NEHAWKA CHURCH

Evening gospel service at 8 o'clock. Topic: "Tight Places."

Prayer meeting at the church Wednesday night.

The Boys and Girls club meets on Tuesday night.

Our services on Sunday were well attended and all expressed their appreciation of being greatly blessed at our "Bell Service." Let us continue true to Jesus, who has done so much for us.

OTTERBEIN CHURCH

This is the Sunday for our mid-year rally. If you didn't get to attend the services at Nehawka Sunday night be sure and come to this service and be blessed. Special features have been added to this program. This is what we call our "Bell Service."

The Junior C. E. will meet at the church on Thursday, August 4th. The prayer meeting will be held at the town church.

The Senior Christian Endeavor will meet at the L. Shrader home this Friday night, July 29th and at the J. Murdock home on Friday, August 5th.

"Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him." I John 2:15. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. Come to Christ. Serve Him.

In Omaha on last Friday where he went to see the father, C. W. Fleischmann, who passed away on Sunday morning following. Mrs. C. W. Fleischmann remained with the husband while he was in the hospital caring for him until the life spark had flown.

While Forest Cunningham was taking a bath on the back porch at night he missed his footing and stepped from the porch floor, alighting on a cellar door. There was a bolt protruding from a hinge which penetrated his heel, making a very painful wound. He is at this time however getting along very well though he has a slight limp.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gorder and Mr. Gorder's mother, Mrs. August Gorder, departed early this week for a trip north which shall include Colone and Gregory, South Dakota. They will visit there some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Lamborg, the latter being a sister of Mrs. August Gorder. They will also look after some business matters as well while they are there.

O. Troop. Mrs. Callum was accompanied by her son Kenneth, who is a recent graduate from the State University, and graduated on the same day as his brother Robert, who matriculated at the Carrollton College at Minneapolis, Minn. The folks desired to see each of them graduate but could not go to both places at once and so went to Minneapolis.

Successful Fishing Trip

There is a fewer number of fish in the Minnesota lakes now than there were before George Copenhaven, W. H. Porter, and Frank W. Martin went there some two or three weeks since. The boys surely enjoyed the occasion very much. They are good fishermen and had good luck as well and when they start to tell how they succeeded it takes all three talking at the same time to fully describe the wonderful fishing that the state provides, and they surely enjoyed it.

Departed For Wisconsin

Herbert Kuntz and the family departed for New London, Wis. on Wednesday of this week for a two weeks stay and while they are away the blacksmith shop will be looked after by that blacksmith who has worked at the trade for more than fifty years in Nebraska, Theodore Klein, a man who sure knows his business. Mr. Kuntz has not seen his mother for seven years and some of the children have never seen here.

Isaiah Woods Dies

Isaiah Woods, fifty years of age, born in Illinois, came to Nebraska when he was a boy and made his home near Rock Bluffs for many years. He was united in marriage with Miss Margaret Bathelor where they continued to reside here for some time, and later they moved to the west where they had been for some time. Mr. Wood fell from the top of a flume, killing him on June 2nd. The funeral and burial was at North Yakima, Wash., although the accident occurred at North Forks, Idaho.

Mr. Wood leaves to mourn his departure four brothers and five sisters they being J. E. Woods of Nehawka, C. B. Woods of North Yakima, Washington, Samuel Woods of Portland, Oregon, and Wm. Clarence W. Fleischmann
Clarence W. Fleischmann was born in Corydon, Ind., March 27, fifty six years ago last winter. When a small boy he came to Nebraska with his parents and has made his home here since. He was united in marriage with Leona Pitman in Nebraska City 35 years ago June 8, 1897, have made their home near Nehawka during their lives. The union was blessed with three children, Vernon Fleischmann of Ogallala, Clyde Fleischmann and Leora Fleischmann of Nehawka. Mr. Fleischmann was taken with an aggravated attack of appendicitis and underwent an operation about two weeks ago and has been very seriously ill up to his death. There was some hope of his recovery but on last Sunday morning his spirit took flight to the other world. The funeral was held from the Methodist church in Nehawka conducted by Rev. W. A. Taylor, a friend of the family, assisted by Rev. Morey. The interment was at the beautiful Mt. Pleasant cemetery where he sleeps until the bugle of the Angle of the Resurrection shall announce the Resurrection Morn. The family have the sympathy of the entire community in this, their great loss. Mr. Fleischman leaves besides the wife and children, four grandchildren, four sisters, Mesdames Allie Nutzman, E. J. Morley and Carsten and Albert Snell.

Reunion of Famous Company at Glenwood

Co. I of the 163th Infantry Will Meet This Week in Fourth Annual Reunion.

From Wednesday's Daily
The fourth annual reunion of Co. I, 163th Infantry of the 42nd division, will be held at Glenwood on Thursday. This reunion is of much interest in this city as several of the young men of this place served in the company and were in the original company that was sent to France in the famous Rainbow division. The regiment saw much of active service and were in many of the chief battles from July, 1918, until the armistice.

The Plattsmouth group comprised eight young men who after the United States entered the world war, visited Glenwood and on May 4th, 1917, enlisted in Co. I of the then Third Iowa Infantry and which was selected a short time later as one of the regiments of the great division that represented in its organization all of the states of the union.

The regiment sailed for England on November 14, 1917, and reached France on the way to months of future hardships on the battlefields on December 6, 1917. Co. I was sent into the first line trenches on February 21, 1918.

Co. I was under command of Captain L. C. Dunn when it was mustered into service and who led it in the fighting in France.

Two of the Plattsmouth members of the company met death on the battlefield in France, Edward C. Ripple and Hugh J. Kearns.

The members of the famous company enlisting from Plattsmouth were: William R. Hoffman, Ralph H. Allen, George F. Kearns, Hugh J. Kearns, Ralph C. Lair, Earl L. Murray, Edward Ripple, Alfred Wilson.

In the time since the return of the soldiers all of the contingent from this city who served in Co. I have removed to other locations and none remain here.

LOST YOUTH FOUND

Omaha.—Leonard Seidel, seventeen, Omaha, who disappeared Saturday night following an auto accident, has been located at Wisner, Neb., his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Seidel, said Monday night. Young Seidel was picked up Sunday near Valley by Marcus M. Houston of Omaha. Houston took him to Wisner where he saw a picture of Seidel in an Omaha paper. Houston informed the parents.

OKLAHOMA HOLDS PRIMARY

Okiahoma City.—Will Rogers, schoolmaster, not humorist, rode a rollicking tide of Oklahoma ballots toward the democratic nomination for congress at large Tuesday night. Altho his foe, Mrs. Mabel Bassett, gained somewhat as city returns were tabulated, Rogers was more than 80,000 votes in the lead as tabulators neared the halfway mark in reporting the day's runoff primary.

J. C. "Jack" Walton, deposed governor, forged barely ahead of A. S. J. Shaw, former state auditor, for the nomination of corporation commissioner as additional returns were tabulated. The vote in 2,063 out of 3,311 precincts gave Walton 162,080, and Shaw 162,059.

Senator Elmer Thomas apparently was on his way to democratic nomination over his lawyer opponent, Gomer Smith, while Representative Tom McKeown, also a democrat, led Bart Aldridge in the Fourth district.

In the only republican race attracting general attention, Wirt Franklin, Ardmore oil man, was leading James A. Harris, former party leader, for the senatorial nomination.

Returns from 1,909 out of 3,311 precincts gave for the democratic nomination for United States senator: Thomas 162,184, Smith 107,919. For republican senator, 940 precincts gave: Franklin 16,649; Harris, 11,629.
