Bible School Lesson Study!

Sunday, July 31st By L. Neitzel

"The Giving of the Manna"
 Exodus 15: 1-5, 14, 15, 35.

The first part of Exodus closes with Chap. 15, with the celebration of their deliverance, in a song of three stanzas (Verses 2-5, 6-10, 11-18). The whole is an exaltation of God and praise. A month's journey had exhausted their supply brought from Egypt. The Israelites were slow in learning to know God. They started to complain at the Red sea; now about the water, which was bitter; next is lack of bread and meat.

The lesson will teach us:

- (1) Our dependence on God for our daily bread;
- (2) A lesson in industry; gathering the manna;
- (3) A warning against greed, and
- (4) Sabbath observance.

A three days' march brought them to a place where there was no water fit to drink. The spring was named "Marah" or Bitterness. They complain to Moses, who in turn tells Jehovah. This gave God the opportunity to show and reveal His gracious power; and while they drank the sweetened water, God took occasion to tell them: "If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the Lord thy God . . . I will put none of these diseases upon thee which I have brought upon the Egyptians, for I am the Lord that healeth thee."

Marah has its beneficial ends to serve. We often wish we could get through life without tasting life's bitterness, and yet experience is daily teaching us that nothing is so perilous to a man's soul as continuous and unbroken prosperity. So the bitter waters of affliction can become refreshing springs when God touches them.

Their next camp is at Elim. This Oasis, where there were twelve springs and seventy palm trees—one for each of the seventy elders to put his tent under. So does God provide resting places with refreshments on our journey. There is the public religious service with its inspiring music and its feast of heavenly manna. God's precious word; there is the prayer meeting, with showers of blessings from the wells of salvation, and the communion service, where devout souls feed on the bread of life, and Christ is exalted by testimony and praise.

But they cannot stay at Elim; the journey goes on. Life cannot be all leisure and pleasure. Life means useful and needful labor. "Occupy till I come." It is not good to have Marahs all the time, neither Elims all the time—variety makes life interesting.

So Israel marches forward and on the route during the time Mr. E. W. Milbern was incapacitated from his injury.

Be sure and attend the Achievement Day program August 5th, at 2:30, which is to be held at the Murray Presbyterian church.

Wm. Evers of Plattsmouth was a business visitor in Murray Monday and was also a guest of his friend George E. Nickles while here.

Thomas Nelson was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth on last Tuesday, driving over to the county seat in his car.

Mrs. Sarah Campbell had the misfortune Sunday to have her hand hurt in the car door of Charles Atterbery. It was later dressed by Dr. Brendel.

Mr. James H. Brown came to Murray to see his mother who has been in very poor health in the last several weeks, but in the last week very serious.

Phillip Lambert, who has been making his home in Council Bluffs for the past two years, was a visitor with his many friends in Murray for Sunday and Monday.

Mr. W. C. Brown of Minneapolis, Minnesota arrived in Murray last Thursday evening to be at the bedside of his mother, Mrs. W. A. Brown who has been seriously ill the last week.

On Monday of this week there were many out sowing their turnip seed. They all said "twenty fifth of July sow your turnips, wet or dry," and so they were on the job all hoping there would be a good rain.

Jarvis E. Lancaster and his cousin Roy Lancaster of Nehawka were over to Shenandoa, Iowa on last Monday where Jarvis was looking after some matters of business at the broadcasting stations of Henry Fields and Earl May.

The four Human brothers of Lincoln were in this portion of the county for Sunday and sang at the Presbyterian Bible school on Sunday morning. They picnicked at the Missouri river and in the evening visited with their friend John L. Young.

Emma Riene Topf entertained her school friend, Ellen Christensen of Union, for several days last week. One afternoon they took lunch baskets and went for a very much enjoyed picnic. The little ladies were accompanied by Yvonne and Jimmie De Les Denier and Leroy Topfiff.

Mrs. John Campbell sr. had the large finger on one of her hands very severely lacerated when some one shut the car door on her hand as she was sitting down in the seat of the car. Mrs. Campbell had just stepped into the car and was in the act of sitting in the seat, holding one of the car doors to ease herself into the seat when the door caught her hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Boedecker Jr. were agreeably surprised on last Sunday when a school mate of Mr. Boedecker and his brothers, both of whom were accompanied by their wives and another young lady who came as an accompanist for the very fine program which the four put on at the Presbyterian Bible school.

Following the session of the Bible school Mr. and Mrs. Boedecker and the guests repaired to the Missouri river at Rock Bluffs where the merry party enjoyed a picnic during the day, returning to their home at Lincoln in the evening.

Enjoyed Picnic Sunday

The Presbyterian Bible School enjoyed a very pleasant time at the Murray bathing beach on last Sunday following their class hour. They took their dinner with them which they ate in the open under the shade and enjoyed a most pleasant gathering. During the Bible school period they were favored by the four Human brothers, two of whom were accompanied by their wives. They also had an accompanist with them, thus adding much interest to the session of the Bible school.

Christain Church Notice

There will be services at the Christain church the coming Lord's Day, when Bible school and church services will be held in the morning and a picnic dinner had at the shady grove of the Murray bathing beach following. The picnic will be held during the afternoon and in the evening the young people will hold their meeting. A new organization is in effect which will be followed by the evenings devotion.

Have Severe Auto Collision

While Milton Balcazar was traveling west on the road a mile north of the J. A. Davis home, and John Wiles were going south at the same place. As neither was able to see the other they collided with great force as they were going at a pretty good clip. The effect of the impact created havoc with both autos and shook up the occupants of both cars severely. Mr. Balcazar was thrown some thirty feet through his windshield. He suffered a fracture of the great toe of his right foot and was feeling pretty stiff and sore when he tried to get around for the next few days. He was, however, able to get to Weeping Water to trade what was left of his car off for another.

Meets With Peculiar Accident

While Earnest Milbern was returning from Omaha on last Sunday evening his car struck some soft gravel which caused the wheels to skid, diverting the course of the car which struck a telephone pole, snapping it off. As it did so the pole fell across the head of Mr. Milbern, fracturing his nose and bruising his head badly and rendering him unconscious for a long time. Art Pearsley happened along and picked Mr. Milbern up and had him cared for. The unfortunate man was taken to the Saint Joseph hospital. Mrs. Milbern went to Omaha early Monday morning and found the husband lucid and could talk nicely and was quite a bit better apparently. The attending physicians thought it

Nebraska's New State Flower

THE WILD ROSE
 (A Psalm)
 Thou growest along the highways and byways.

Thou beautifiest the country lanes and hillsides;

Thou art a pleasure unto the eye of the pedestrian.

Yea verily, thou castest sorrow from the weary with thy sweetness;

Thou causth a little child to clap its hands in glee.

Thou art no respecter of persons for thou sheddest thy fragrance on the just and unjust and the humming bird doth rest in thy branches.

Thou scatterest thy petals to the four winds;

Thou wert created by God and thou trustest him.

Yea thou art watered by dew, and, kissed by sunshine.

Thou art clothed with simplicity.

Thou carriest a message of faith and hope, and will be loved for ever and ever, for thou art the emblem of Nebraska.

FANS HAVE REAL TREAT

The baseball fans that attended the game between the Gordon Oil Co. team of Omaha and the Murray Red Sox on Sunday afternoon at Murray, had the opportunity of seeing some real baseball on the part of the Sox.

The score of the game was 12 to 4 for the Red Sox, but was a much better contest than the score would indicate.

The opening inning was especially spectacular in the fielding of the Sox, Schliske at third and Rodrigue at second, making two fine stops that they made good at first base. Harry Newman, who was back at the short position knocked down a terrific drive from the bat of Sidwell which looked sure for a double, but the runner was held on the first base.

Homer Sylvester started the hurling for the Sox and in the four innings that he pitched held the visitors to two runs and five hits. Hopkins took the mound in the fifth and finished the game, allowing two hits while two more runs came over the plate.

Alex Schliske was the batting star of the Sox with four hits out of five times at bat, while Joe Krejci kept up his reputation as an extra base hitter with two triples. Rodrigue and Newman also were in the triple base hitting class. Rodrigue also adding a double and single to his hitting record for a total of three hits out of five times at the plate.

The tabulated score of the game was as follows:

CAR HITS POLE

From Tuesday's Daily
 E. H. Melburn, rural route mail carrier at Murray, was severely injured early this morning when enroute home from Omaha. Mr. Melburn's car skidded in gravel at the intersection of Edwards street with highway No. 75 in Omaha. The car crashed into a telephone pole and the glass in the car was shattered and the driver showered with the fragments. His nose and forehead was badly lacerated by the flying glass and he was taken on to the St. Joseph hospital to have the injuries dressed. The car suffered considerable damage as the result of the impact with the pole.

LARGE CROWD AT MURRAY

From Monday's Daily
 The Murray swimming pool, with its pure fresh water and life guard service, was the mecca yesterday of hundreds of bathers who prefer paying the small charge exacted there rather than go in unguarded waters that offer great hazard to any but the most expert swimmers.

The Murray pool is a finely maintained swimming resort and with the new equipment added this year is able to take care of the bathing needs of Cass county people better than ever.
