

DISCUSS LOUISVILLE BRIDGE

A hearing was had at Papillion Wednesday before the board of county commissioners relative to the passing of a resolution requesting the state to pay over a half of the purchase price of the Louisville bridge, the counties of Cass and Sarpy to collect the remaining of the purchase price by the means of tolls.

The plan proposed is that under which the Plattsmouth bridge was taken over and after the collection of the counties' share in tolls was made a free bridge and has been so operated for the past several years.

There was a great deal of argument both for and against the passage of the resolution by the Sarpy county board, W. R. Patrick, prominent Omaha attorney, appearing on behalf of a group of protestants who objected to the purchase price of the bridge. The hearing occupied the greater part of the day.

The Sarpy board of commissioners at the conclusion of the hearing, took the matter under advisement, and postponed definite action on the resolution.

The Cass county board passed the resolution last year to ask for the state to pay its share of the bridge purchase, but the matter has awaited the action of Sarpy county, which with Cass will pay the remaining half of the purchase price.

We made plans for Achievement day. We are each going to invite one guest.

We girls surprised our leader by giving her a recipe file. We had one visitor, Anna Lee Lancaster.

Four girls from our club went to Camp Bellevue and two from Mrs. John Skinner's club, one girl from Elmwood and Mrs. Frank Taylor. There have been several reports we went, so I will give you a little insight into our daily program that you may know the opportunity we had to learn while there as well as just enjoy ourselves:

6:00 a. m., Swim; 6:45, Breakfast; 7:45, Camp Inspection; 8:15, (Boys) Grafting and Budding, (Girls) Handicraft; 10:00 (Boys) Baseball, (Girls) Archery practice; 11:00, All work on stunts; 12:00 noon, Dinner.

1:45 p. m., (Boys) Insect identification, (Girls) When we Look Our Best; 2:30, Boys swim; 3:15, Girls swim; 4:00, Complete work on stunts; 5:45, Supper; 7:00, Vesper; 8:30, Campfire Stunts; 10:00, Bed, lights out.

Campfire was the last night event. They divided us in groups. Each of the groups was supposed to have a stunt. This was a lot of excitement and enjoyed by everyone.

Each room had to be cleaned up and in good order by 7:45 a. m.

Saturday morning at 8:30 an archery tournament was held. The girls picked out the three best ones and the boys did likewise. Bonnie Spangard, of Omaha was the winner.

Our instructors were J. W. Reed, A. H. DeLong, D. D. Waincott, Miss Hettie Bailey, Miss Clara Noyes and Miss Jessie Baldwin. There are many other details that could be told about, but lack of space prevents.

The two Bills will now start in on the exercise of their duties and learning the proper manner of exercising this office, second only to a command in the Swiss navy.

HOLDING WEEKLY AUCTIONS

The weekly auctions which are held here on Saturday afternoons by Col. Smith, the auctioneer, are offering the farmers the opportunity of disposing of articles that they may desire. The auctioneer desires to list all articles for sale, livestock, farm equipment and household goods.

The sales have attracted a large number so far and have furnished a mart where the farmers and residents of the community can offer their goods for sale and have the services of a trained auctioneer to dispose of them.

The auctions are held at the Heisel Mill on Washington avenue.

On Thursday afternoon, at the Methodist church parlors, the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society sponsored a very pleasant affair for the girls of the Standard Bearer group.

The girls and former members gave the program under the direction of Mrs. Frank Barkus. It comprised several beautiful musical numbers by Misses Mildred Hall, Jean Hayes and Marjorie Arn and a short missionary play, showing one busy, helpful day out of the life of these unselfish workers. Parts were taken by Misses Alice Funk, Amy Elliott, Jean Hayes and Mrs. Justus Lilly. The African schoolgirls were Misses Emma Mendenhall, Grace Henry, Marcella Ramsel and Frances Gambelin.

Mrs. R. H. Anderson assisted by sending two beautiful bouquets of summer flowers, which added to the pleasure of the event and were gratefully received.

Following the program, a very enjoyable lunch was served by Mrs. R. B. Hayes, Mrs. C. O. Troy and Mrs. Harry White.
