W. F. Diers Dies Suddenly at Louisville

Stricken While at Bank of Commerce and Passes Away in a Few Moments.

From Tuesday's Daily
William F. Diers, 65, Louisville merchant and community leader, died suddenly this morning, being stricken while at the Bank of Commerce looking after some business affairs. Mr. Diers, as was his custom, had gone to the bank at 9 o'clock to secure his change for the store. He had entered the bank and talking to the cashier, Ralph Larson, complained that he was not feeling well and thought that a melon that he had eaten had disagreed with him.

Mr. Diers was prevailed upon to sit down for a while in the back room, but he continued to feel sick and Reese Hastain, the president of the bank, called Dr. E. H. Worthman. The doctor arrived and found Mr. Diers suffering from a heart attack or acute indigestion and while treatment was given him he died in a few moments.

The deceased came to Louisville as a young man, thirty years ago and at once established a general store which is one of the leading business houses of the county. He has been very successful in his conduct of the store and was rated as one of the leading business men of the county. He had been a leader in the community of Louisville and a mover in all of the enterprises that have helped improve the city that he had made his home. His death is a distinct loss for Louisville and the entire county and his place will be hard to fill in the life of the community.

Mr. Diers is survived by the widow and three children, William Diers, Jr., and Catherine, both living at home with the parents. Mr. Diers had many friends in Plattsburgh and who were shocked and sorrow stricken to learn of his death and who share with the family the sorrow that his taking away has brought.

Spangler Family Holds Reunion at Weeping Water

Group of Seventy of the Family Meet at the Home of Frank Spangler Sunday.

On Sunday at the home of the Frank Spangler family at Weeping Water, was gathered the children and descendants of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spangler, old time residents of Cass county. There were seventy of the members of the family circle present in the reunion which has been an annual event since 1894.

The usual fine dinner was served at the noon hour and which it is needless to say, was one that all appreciated to the utmost. The afternoon was spent in visiting among the older members of the party while the children spent the time in playing games and the enjoyment of a general good time.

Those who attended the reunion were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spangler, Edward J. Lutz and family, George Mumm and family, Miss Helen Amick of Plattsburgh; Mrs. Maggie Gobelman and son, Mynard; Ruel Sack and family, Royal Smith and family of near this city; Chris Spangler and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gobelman, Ezra Albin and family, of Union; Louis Stander, Archer, Dent Hites and family, Hastings, Iowa; Peter Spangler and family, Phillip Spangler and family, Frank Spangler, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Selby, Cyrus Livingston and family, Richard Hollenbeck, Harold Spangler and family, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gobelman, of Weeping Water; John Spangler and family of Louisville.

VISIT AT LINCOLN

School Board Selects Two New Teachers

Miss Lucille Nordholm Selected as Home Economics Teacher and Miriam Tritsch in Grades.

From Wednesday's Daily
The board of education yesterday afternoon at a special session took up the matter of filling two vacancies in the teaching force of the city school for the ensuing year.

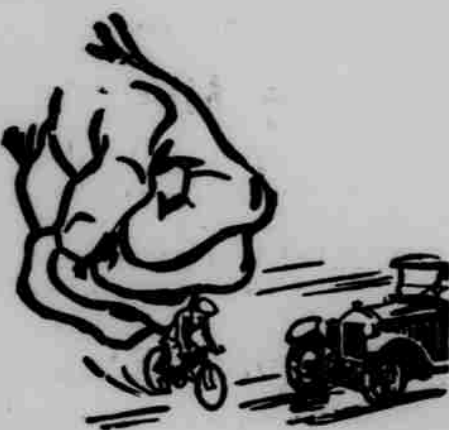

The position of teacher in the home economics department of the high school, made vacant by the resignation of Miss Dorothy Stander, was filled by the naming of Miss Lucille Nordholm, of Blanchard, Iowa. Miss Nordholm is a graduate of the University of Nebraska, taking her work there under Miss Margaret Pedde, well known teacher of home economics. She later was connected with the University of Michigan. She has had an extensive teaching experience and comes to this city with very high recommendations as to her work in this line of educational work.

The board of education selected as teacher in the grades, Miss Miriam Tritsch, who will take the place in the teaching staff made vacant by the death of Miss Gertrude Mortensen. Miss Tritsch is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Tritsch of this city and is a graduate of Park college of Parkville, Missouri. She has been engaged in teaching in the schools of the county for the past several years.

The board and superintendent are planning on placing Miss Tritsch in the Wintersteen hill school while Miss Edith Cook will go to the Columbian school. The west second ward school will be closed this year and the pupils divided between the Morecville and Central buildings. The attendance at the west second ward school has been small and the board feels that in the interest of economy that the pupils can be as readily handled at the other schools.

OMAHA COUPLE MARRIED

The home of Rev. C. O. Troy was the scene Sunday evening of the marriage of Miss Jean F. Hensman and James T. Nunn, both of Omaha. The bridal party motored here from Omaha and after securing the necessary license were joined in the bonds of wedlock.

County Teachers Here for Pre-School Institute

County Superintendent Miss Alpha C. Peterson Has Rural Teachers Here for Meeting.

From Wednesday's Daily
The pre-school institute of the rural teachers of Cass county, was held today at the district court room, all of the teachers in the one and two room schools of the county being present.

A number of well known educators were on the program and were heard in discussions of the school problems of the present day and of the work of the schools in the coming term. Miss Daisy Simmons of the state superintendent's office, was one of the speakers and gave the teachers many helpful thoughts in the lines of study of the term.

Miss Cora Williams, of Elmwood, head of the music department of the city schools of Plattsburgh, was in charge of the music department of the institute and discussing this phase of the school work, while Miss Marie Kaufmann, supervisor of art and penmanship of the Plattsburgh schools was in charge of the penmanship division of the institute.

Miss Peterson, county superintendent, discussed with the teachers the work of the year and the courses of study as well as urging the maintaining of the Cass county schools at the high standard that they have had in recent years. The superintendent also gave out the supplies for the teachers in the various schools.

District Judge James T. Begley gave a most inspiring talk at the morning session of the institute on the value of the schools in the maintaining of a high type of citizenship and the necessity of the best of educational advantages in this day and time.

Mrs. Fred H. Gorder of Weeping Water was also present in the interest of the school work at the county fair which opens on September 13th.

Wiles Reunion at Weeping Water in 1933

Twenty-seventh Annual Gathering Held at Glenwood Lake—T. F. Wiles, Omaha, President.

The twenty-seventh annual reunion of the Wiles family was held at the attractive park at Glenwood, near which city a large number of the family reside. The park made an ideal spot for the reunion and despite the fact that the weather conditions were not the most favorable, there were some eighty registered at the park.

The bad weather served to keep back many of the Nebraska members of the family from attendance at the family reunion.

T. Frank Wiles, of Omaha, president of the reunion association, presided over the session of the reunion and James Hall of this city, served as secretary, he having held this office for a number of years.

The election of the officers of the association resulted in the following being named:

President—T. F. Wiles, Omaha.
Vice-President—Ray C. Wiles, Weeping Water.
Secretary—J. J. Hall, Plattsburgh.
Treasurer—Stephen G. Wiles, Plattsburgh.

It was voted to hold the annual reunion next year at Weeping Water, the date having been set several years ago for the last Thursday in August of each year.

A short and interesting program was given and which consisted of a piano accordion selection by Mary Kathryn Wiles of this city, Mrs. Grace Wiles Hall, was presented in two readings and a very pleasing number of popular songs were given by Dick and Joan Hall of this city, the young people playing their accompaniment on the guitar and banjo.

At the noon hour a chicken dinner was enjoyed and all of the family were seated at one long table to mark the family bond.

WATERS DISLIKES HURLEY

Muskogee, Okl.—Walter W. Waters, commander of the bonus expeditionary force which was ousted from Washington by federal troops, arrived by airplane to attend the Oklahoma American Legion convention, and said: "I wasn't invited at all. I just wanted to visit the home state of the most despicable member of the cabinet." Secretary of War Hurley, the only member of the cabinet who lives in Oklahoma, was scheduled to address the convention, but sent his regrets due to pressure of official business.
