Will Give Entertainment

The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church of Union is to give an entertainment on Friday, September 23rd when they will present "A Strike of the Ladies Aid." Better drop around and see how good the play is.

The Old Settlers' Reunion

For 43 years the former residents of Union and vicinity and of Cass and adjoining counties have gathered together year after year to renew their friendships and join with each other in visiting for a short time at the old home which they had left many years ago. During the past few years the expenses have been borne by a few and the burden has been heavy for those who had to meet the bills. The people of Union thought that this year they would not hold the customary gathering on account of the cost that it would incur. On the other hand, there is to be held in Plattsmouth a four day festival this year, and one of the days, Thursday, October 6th, has been set aside for the Old Settlers' reunion, so that it might go on with a record of not having missed a year after a perfect record of 43 years in the past. The setting aside of one day for the Old Settlers' reunion, as stated, has been only with the understanding that the annual celebration should return to Union the coming year. Plattsmouth folks do not desire in any way to interfere or to get the annual meeting from Union, but only to keep unbroken the line of years which have already been celebrated and which we all hope will continue to be celebrated hereafter in Union. The day set aside for the celebration is Thursday, October 6th, and Union has been asked to assist in the rendering of the program which shall characterize the event. There will be no expense to the people of Union and all that is desired is their good will and that all who can come and participate in the event and help make it the success it deserves to be.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Sunday was the seventy-fifth birthday of A. Shered Graves, pioneer citizen of Cass county, and in honoring the event a group of some fifty of the relatives and old friends joined.

The celebration was held at the Graves home in Rock Bluffs where the lifetime of Mr. Graves has been spent.

The dinner was served on tables spread in the shade of the great trees and where there was a bounteous feast of all of the good things that could be wished for. A watermelon feast was also a part of the program of the afternoon.

During the day there was a number of pleasing numbers given by the orchestra composed of Nebraska City, Omaha and Rock Bluffs musicians, as well as readings by Mrs. Joseph Shera.

The good time was continued until the evening shadows fell over the hills of Rock Bluffs and bade the visitors from the more distant points to wend their way homeward.

There were visitors from Omaha, Plattsmouth, Peru, Murray, Lincoln and Nebraska City to join in the occasion.

Riots Begin with Death Fast of Gandhi

Trouble Starts Over Proposal to Open the Hindu Temples to 'Untouchables.'

Ahmedabad, India, Sept. 20.—Riots broke out here Tuesday as Mahatma Gandhi began his death fast in Yeroda jail at Poona. The trouble began over a proposal to open some of the Hindu temples to the "untouchables," whose voting privileges are the reason for Gandhi's fast of protest.

Bombay, Sept. 20.—Mahatma Gandhi, thin and aged Nationalist leader and spiritual ruler of most of India's millions, began his "fast unto the death" Tuesday in protest against Great Britain's program for a separate electorate in India.

Even before he began to starve himself, Gandhi was ill. His physicians barred all visitors, although the government would have permitted them.

Gandhi late Monday night refused to accept the British government's offer of conditional release from imprisonment, replying that he will not leave his cell in Yeroda jail unless forcibly removed.

Gandhi, protesting against the government's communal election scheme for India's religiously divided population, says he will drink only water, perhaps with salt or soda, and eat nothing.

Nevertheless, he hopes to prolong his fast unto death for as long as possible, so that the world's attention may be drawn to India's plight by his self-imposed martyrdom.

Gandhi's cause may be temporarily lost, but his life saved, should leaders of the All-India National Congress party belatedly accept the British plan to abolish separate communal electorates despite the effect of the British proposals on the millions of "untouchables," lowest of India's castes.—Omaha Bee-News.
