TO A FRIEND OF MAN

My friend, Will T. Adams, while in your harness doing your daily task, you answered the call of the reaper and went to that heavenly home where the cares of this world are no more. My Friend Will, you were an inspiration to me, and not alone to me but to all who knew you. With a smile and a hearty Christian greeting you met me a few days since when I last saw you when you were at your work and asked me about the Bible school lesson as we have often talked before and the brightness of your smile and greeting I shall never forget. To have known you as I have has been an inspiration for better work and a more faithful Christian life. Your life has been a benediction to all who have really known you for yours has been one of rich Christian experience. To have the sun set on a life like that which you have lived is a great solace and to have left such a memory to the family and to the friends is more than worth while. Goodbye, your going has caused us sorrow, but we are pleased that we have known you. We are hoping to see you again.

The forty-second convention of the Cass county W. C. T. U. opened at Louisville Wednesday, Sept. 21, with Mrs. McGrew, president, presiding, and with Mrs. Ivan Balfour secretary. Devotionals were conducted by the Rev. Mrs. Randall, of Louisville and the salute to the flag was led by Mrs. Baldwin, also the songs, "Oh God, Our Help in Ages Past" and "Oh Master, Let Me Work with Thee."

The address of welcome was given by Mrs. McNealy, of Louisville, and the response by Mrs. Fred Gorder, of Weeping Water. Reports of local unions were offered by the following delegates to the convention:

- Alvo—Mrs. Roelofs.
  - Louisville—Mrs. McNealy.

  - Union—Mrs. Ivan Balfour.
  - Weeping Water—Mrs. Baldwin.

- President—Mrs. McGrew
- Vice President—Mrs. Sundstrom.
- Secretary—Mrs. Ivan Balfour.
- Treasurer—Mrs. McFall.

The noon-tide prayer was by Mrs. Cross.

A delicious luncheon was served in the church parlors at the noon hour. Afternoon devotionals were led by Rev. Robert Murphree, of Louisville, who is well known over the state because of his extensive Boy Scout activities.

"More About Jesus" and "Something for Jesus" were sung. A musical number by three Louisville ladies, "I'm a Pilgrim," was very pleasing.

Memorial services were conducted by Mrs. Troop and Mrs. Propst, of Plattsmouth, with Mrs. Giles accompanying softly on the piano. Rev. C. O. Troy, of Plattsmouth, gave a very inspiring address. A humorous playlet by six Louisville ladies was next on the program and this was followed by a splendid address by R. Foster Patterson, principal of Plattsmouth High school, who praised the work of the W. C. T. U. in no uncertain terms.

Committees gave their reports, resolutions were adopted and the convention adjourned to meet in 1933 at Alvo.

Although it was a very rainy day, a good crowd was present.

Old directors were delegated to hold over another year. There were nine present from Alvo, five from Eagle, three from Union, eight from Weeping Water, twelve from Plattsmouth and twenty from Louisville, in addition to a number of visitors who are not members of the W. C. T. U. As adjournment was taken renewed declaration was made that the work of the W. C. T. U. cannot be defeated and a certainty that the flag of peace will continue to fly over our land.

Mrs. McGrew, the county president, also gave us a report of her work done as well as a splendid address on the strength of the 18th amendment. Mrs. Ivan Balfour, secretary for the past ten years, was elected a delegate to the state convention at Holdrege on October 4th, 5th and 6th.

A vote of thanks was extended to Rev. Troy and Foster Patterson for coming to Louisville and delivering their splendid addresses, which all enjoyed to the utmost.
