HOLD PLEASANT MEETING

The W. C. T. U. held a most pleasing meeting on Monday afternoon at the home of Miss Elizabeth Spangler with a pleasing number of the ladies in attendance.

The devotions of the meeting were led by Mrs. Charles Troop and followed by the regular business session of the union.

Mrs. Luke L. Wiles and Mrs. J. E. Wiles gave a most clever dialogue, "Pro-Saloon or Prohibition," which was well presented and much enjoyed.

Mrs. Robert Troop gave two charming readings, "Just a Plain Nebraskan" and "The Test," which were given in the usual clever manner of this talented lady.

Little Miss Elizabeth Ann Wiles gave two pleasing readings and Miss Mary Kathryn Wiles two piano-accompanied solos that added greatly to the interest of the meeting.

Mrs. S. A. Wiles gave a paper, "Institutes," which took up the meetings held to advance the work of the temperance organizations.

Miss Spangler served dainty and delicious refreshments at the close of the meeting.

Plattsmouth stores offer every shopping advantage of the larger city, plus a personal contact between buyer and seller that means far more than the opportunity of choosing from an extra shade or two of pink.

ENJOY FAMILY DINNER

Mrs. Newlywed says

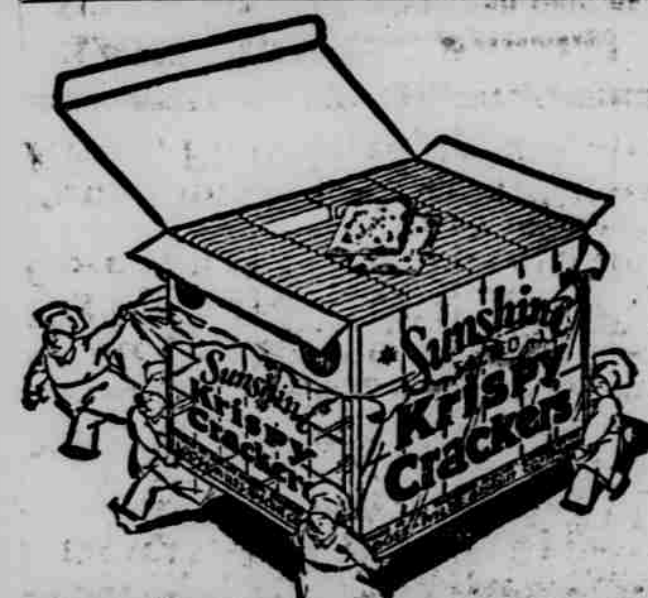

"HALF the worries of housekeeping are solved by buying your provisions at Black & White. It has been a lot of pleasure to me learning how to 'beat the budget,' and I can tell you it has been easy to do, with the low everyday prices at this store. I believe every housewife would find her problems simplified if she would start trading at Black & White and continue doing so day after day, the year 'round. In June, when friends were wishing us 'heaps of luck,' I looked forward with misgivings to becoming mistress of my own home and assuming the duties of buying and cooking—but thanks to the shopping service at Black & White, I have found my misgivings were ungrounded."
