Platters Take Game from Tecumseh, 6 to 0

Smashing Attack of the Locals in Opening Quarter of the Game Brings Touchdown.

From Saturday's Daily
The Platters of 1932 added another to their string of victories for the season when they took the Tecumseh team by the score of 6 to 0 in a hard fought battle and in which at one time the visitors were threatening by inches the goal of the locals.

The game was one of the very best that the locals have staged and in the flashy around end dashes of Hinz, the entire team offered great interference for their runner. The line also assisted in ripping the opponents line in the smashes made by Ronne and Arn.

Repeatedly on the smashes Ronne scored first downs for the team and with Arn accounted for a large part of the downs, although side penalties robbed the players of their hard earned gains.

The locals kicked off at the opening of the game and after three plays Tecumseh failed to gain and was forced to punt out against the strong northwest wind, securing only a short distance on the kick. The march was then started for the goal of Tecumseh. Sam Arn raced and plunged through the center of the visitors line for seven yards and then Ronne, fast and driving fullback smashed through for the first down. Hinz added five yards in a race around the right of the visitors line. Arn around end was able to make a first down for the locals. Hinz then added eight yards in one of his spectacular end runs, Ronne smashing the center for the two yards and a first down. Ronne and Arn hitting the visitors line carried the ball to the visitors two yard line. Ronne, powerhouse of the locals with the force of his team mates assisting, swept through for the touchdown, he hitting the visitors line standing up and having little difficulty in making the score. The kick of Armstrong for the extra point failed, leaving the score at 6 to 0 for the Platters.

In the opening of the fourth quarter the blue and white faced a serious threat of Tecumseh, which was rolled back with the ball inches from the Plattsmouth goal. Tecumseh, freshened by the rest and conference of the half, returned to the field and made good several end runs for much yardage. The Platters then drew a twenty-five yard penalty for "clipping," bringing the ball to the five yard line of the locals. With their backs to the wall and to defend their right to the victory the Platters repelled the attempt of the heavy opposing team to batter through and with the ball but inches from the line the last attempt of the visitors was smothered and the ball given to Plattsmouth. Bob Rummel punted to mid field and the danger of defeat checked.

Plattsmouth carried the ball into the Tecumseh danger zone in the last moments of the game, this coming through one of the most spectacular plays of the game. Hinz and Ronne by their runs and line smashes had carried the ball to the visitors forty yard line and there the visitors held. Rummel dropped back to punt, but a bad pass which was low made the kick impossible as the visitors were rushing the kicker, Rummel, taking the ball then skirted the visitors left end for twenty-five yards and a first down. However the game closed before any further play was made.

The starting lineup of the game was as follows:
Plattsmouth Tecumseh
Rummel RE Richards
Armstrong RT Jones
Luschinsky RG Farley
Porter C Douglas
Yelick LG McIlravy
Wetenkamp LT Dunlap
Garnett LE (C) Mooney

Turkey Day to be Featured November 19th

Special Day Will Be Sponsored by the Retail Section of Chamber of Commerce.

The next thing on the program is Turkey Day in Plattsmouth, sponsored by the retail section of the Chamber of Commerce. Following as it does the precedent established by the corn show and pancake day, this should be another notable occasion for all Plattsmouth and vicinity. Turkey Day will occur on Saturday, November 19th and will be a fitting prelude to Thanksgiving day which comes the following Thursday.

The plan is to give away on Turkey Day a score or more of turkeys and chickens in a new and novel way. These live fowls will be released from the top of the Anheuser building just opposite the court house, south. There will be two releases, one in the morning at 10:30 and the other in the afternoon at 3:30.

These birds will be released one at a time and as they fly to earth many eyes will follow them. The person who catches them can have them for their Thanksgiving dinner. No family will be allowed more than one bird. In case two people get their hands on the same bird at the same time, that bird will be released again, unless the two parties can agree between themselves who shall have it. You will agree with us that this is a novel and exciting method of giving away to our friends the makings of a good Thanksgiving dinner. We wish we could afford to give a bird free to every family in Cass county, but since this would be impossible, we take this interesting way of doing it.

If you come to Plattsmouth on Turkey Day you may be the one who gets a bird, but whether you do or not, you will enjoy the excitement of the chase. In addition to giving away these birds the retail section has planned some very wonderful values for Turkey Day in their respective stores which alone would be worth coming to Plattsmouth for Turkey Day. Remember the date, Saturday, November 19th, and be on hand.

Armistice Day Program Held at M. E. Church

Fine Address Given by Superintendent L. E. Devoe and Stories of Armistice Given.

From Saturday's Daily
A splendid program was given in honor of Armistice day last evening at the First Methodist church, arranged by the Woman's Home missionary society of the church. The program was outstanding and deserved a large audience for its patriotic inspiration.

The audience joined in the singing of "America" as the meeting was opened and followed by the invocation by the Rev. C. O. Troy, presiding officer.

Mrs. E. H. Wescott gave the musical setting of one of the world's greatest poems, "Home Again" by VanDyke, a most appropriate number for this day dedicated to the end of the world war.

In touching on the world war incidents three short talks were given by local ladies that added interest to the program.

Mrs. Ralph M. Wiles spoke of the impression of Armistice as a girl and the feeling of general thankfulness that had prevailed when the end of the war had come.

Mrs. Mollie Gobelman gave an interesting and colorful description of the celebration staged here on the early morning of November 11th. Mrs. Gobelman was one of those who assisted in getting the celebration started at 2 o'clock in the morning and which had continued all the day and into the next evening.

Mrs. Adeladie Boynton gave the expression of the relief of the motherhood of the country at the close of the war, a most impressive story of this phase of the relief from war.

The address of the evening was by Superintendent L. E. Devoe and was a fine historical review of the history of nations, the partition of nations and treaties that had laid the seed for many future wars. He touched on the present day world interdependence as a means of checking any future great conflicts such as the world war. He called attention to the fact that there had been twenty-five wars since the close of the world conflict.

Nehawka Man Held Up in His Store Last Nite

Lone Bandit Pulls Gun on D. D. Adams and Escapes with $8 and Valuable Papers.

From Saturday's Daily
Last evening at 8:45 while the business houses of Nehawka were all open for their trade and the streets filled with those who were attending the Armistice day program, D. D. Adams, veteran druggist, was held up and robbed.

The drug store was open as usual and Mr. Adams seated at the rear of the store when a stranger entered and walking swiftly to where Mr. Adams was seated, pulled a revolver and commanded that he hand over what money was on his person or in the store. Mr. Adams under the potent threat of the revolver secured eight dollars from the safe and handed it over, the robber also seizing a small tin box that contained insurance and other valuable papers. The stranger then walked to the rear door of the store and made his escape into the night.

Mr. Adams as soon as possible ran to the street to give the alarm to Marshal Wolf, who started a search for the burglar as well as sending the alarm to Sheriff Ed W. Thingam at Plattsmouth. The sheriff arrived in some twenty minutes on the scene and with the marshal started a search over the business section and also the Missouri Pacific tracks, remaining to see if the man tried to escape on any of the passing freight trains.

The first that Mr. Adams noticed of the man was when he was right on him and he was unable to tell if the escape was made by auto, whether there was an accomplice waiting with a car for the robber.

From the description given of the robber it is thought that it is the same party that held up W. S. Smith of Murray in his store the first part of the week.

Canon Petter Returns from Eastern Trip

Washington Scene of Excitement on Election Night as Flash Show Results.

Canon Petter was the guest for a week of the National Episcopal Cathedral in Washington, D. C. Twenty-two clergymen drawn from points as far apart as Vermont and New Mexico met for specialized instruction in preaching and devotional life, under the direction of Dr. F. Yerkes of Philadelphia, Bishop P. Hhine-lander of Washington and Dr. M. Taylor of New York. On election night elaborate preparations for publicity were made by the Washington newspapers and Canon Petter reports the sight of the goant searchlights playing green shafts of light for Hoover and red for Roosevelt. By arrangement with the department of the navy the aircraft beacons indicated the results of the voting as each state reported. In addition an airplane kept flying continuously throughout the evening in touch with the National Press Club by radio, sending out flares of green or red as reports were received. Large crowds gathered to watch a huge scoreboard erected by the Washington post. Most of the residents in the federal district who had qualification in nearby states left during the day to record their votes in Maryland, Virginia or Pennsylvania.

Last Sunday Canon Petter had the honor of preaching in Christ Church, Alexandria, Virginia, the home church of George Washington and of Robert E. Lee. He was a guest for dinner at the Virginia Theological Seminary in Alexandria.
