Mullen Backed
for the Attorney Generalship

Aid to Governor Roosevelt's Campaign Is Cited by Friends in Washington.

Inclusion of Arthur Mullen of Omaha as attorney general in the cabinet of President-elect Roosevelt was widely discussed in Washington Wednesday following the visit there this week of Mullen and Mrs. Mullen, according to a dispatch to The World-Herald from its Washington bureau.

Although the Omahan, who was western campaign manager for Governor Roosevelt during the drive for the presidency, declined to discuss the matter of his trip at Washington, it is known he would accept the post and that his friends are active on his behalf.

During his stay Mullen conferred with numerous leaders among the democrats who were here for a day or so, including Senator Hull, Tennessee, close friend of Governor Roosevelt, and Norman Baxter, director of the democratic headquarters.

Mullen's name has already been presented to Roosevelt for consideration as attorney general, according to his friends in Washington, and he is receiving favorable consideration. Mullen's activity, not only during the campaign, but in the pre-convention period, is said to have earned Roosevelt's gratitude.

The fact that the democrats carried every western state for which Mullen, as manager of that section, was responsible, is held to improve his chances.

Other cabinet posts have been suggested for him, but the consensus is that the attorney generalship is the one for which he is best fitted.—World-Herald.

The members of the Cass County Men Teacher's association met at the Louisville school on Tuesday evening as the guests of the men of that school faculty.

Superintendent L. S. Devoe of the Plattsmouth schools and Coach Blon Hoffman of Elmwood were called upon and gave most interesting contributions to the program of the evening.

Messrs Corum and Robson, the hosts of the evening had arranged a fine entertainment as well as the luncheon.

The next meeting of the association will be held at Union in late December. At this time the school men will act as the hosts of the boards of education of Cass county.

DEBATE SQUAD ENJOYS TEA

From Friday's Daily

Last night the debate squad held its regular meeting, and the first debate of the season was held, the question being, Resolved: That at Least One Half of the Revenues for State and Local Purposes Shall Be Derived from Sources Other Than Tangible Property. Ed Wehrlein was chairman.

The affirmative side was upheld by the following: Stuart Porter, Alice Jeffreys, and George Luschinsky.

The negative side was upheld by the following: William Wetenkamp, Pauline Hoschar, and George Adam. After the debate Mr. Devoe gave some excellent pointers to the debaters which will be of use to them in future debates.

Virginia Samek played a delightful piano number, "The Grande Valse Caprice."

Gertrude Valley, gave the reading "Daddy Doc," which was greatly enjoyed by the audience.

After the program the gathering repaired to the home economics room, where a delicious lunch had been prepared under the direction of Miss Nordholm. The following are the girls who prepared the lunch: Mary Lindeman, Lois Giles, Helen Messersmith, Dorothy Zitka, Grace Simmons, Geraldine Griffin, Madeline Wiles.

Imagine the sorrow and consternation of the debaters when it was discovered that the sandwiches and cookies had been stolen by petty thieves.

To save the evening Mr. Devoe sent to town for more cookies and an excellent luncheon was served, although the loss of the lunch was regretted very much.

The meeting was closed by the serving of a splendid lunch by Mrs. Campbell and her daughter, Josephine.

Plans were made for a Christmas entertainment and tree, and will finished at the next regular meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Georgia Creamer, Dec. 1.

We wish also to mention the delightful entertainment the men of the club gave at the Gayer home some two weeks ago. The evening was spent most delightfully by playing cards, dancing and by the men staging a regular club meeting, each man representing some lady present.

Yes, they gave us some idea of the way our meetings impress observers.

And as for cooks, well you may know that a good deal of hot oyster stew is very delightful before starting for home after such a successful evening of enjoyment. May we enjoy many more such interesting evenings.—The Reporter.

Kansas Bank is Robbed and Four Abducted

Clay Center Quartet Is Given Freedom After Shielding the Desperadoes.

Clay Center, Kas.—The First National bank of Clay Center was robbed of between $7,000 and $8,000 by five men who kidnaped a bank official and three customers, one a girl, and escaped in a motor car. The robbers released their prisoners a few miles from Clay Center after they outdistanced pursuit.

James McIntire, vice president of the bank, and Loren Elliott, a drug-store employe, were compelled to ride on the running board to protect the robbers after James Keeley opened fire from across the street as the bandit car was departing. Laverna Larson, girl employe of a hardware store, and Frank Kamphaus, a farmer, were forced to ride with the robbers.

Four men entered the bank at five minutes of four and ordered all persons to lie down on the floor near the rear of the building. Lave Meyers, assistant cashier, was forced to enter the vault and assist in collecting the loot.

The robbers, one of whom stood guard outside, all wore handkerchief masks. When the loot was collected the robbers ordered occupants of the bank to go outside and form a circle about the bandit machine. Keeley then began shooting and one of the robbers returned the fire but none of the shots took effect. With the four hostages, the robbers fled west, released their victims two miles from town, continued for four miles further west and then turned south.

State Sheriff Endres of Nebraska was told of the Clay Center robbery a few moments after the bandit car disappeared. He notified Nebraska border towns to be on the watch and sent three of his deputies with a deputy county sheriff to patrol highways.—State Journal.
