COW AND HEN LEADING WAY

The cow and the hen may yet lead Nebraska farm products back to higher price levels. At least egg prices are relatively high now and the price of butterfat is steady while feed prices are low.

The dairy cow evidently is making some returns to her owner as evidenced by the margin between feed costs and the price paid for butterfat. E. C. Scheidenhelm, dairyman of the agricultural college extension service, says that the margin in November was greater than for October. There was an approximate margin of 3 cents between the two figures in November in comparison to 5 cents for October. The margin varies, how-

District Court Hears Suit for Large Damages

Case of Elmer Pike vs. Claude Lane and Nathan White vs. Claude Lane Consolidated.

From Friday's Daily
This morning the trial of the case of Elmer Pike vs. Claude Lane, with which is consolidated the case of Nathan White vs. Claude Lane, a suit and counter petition for damages and judgment, was taken up in the district court before the jury.

The case grows out of an auto accident which occurred in May of this year, on highway No. 75 just east of Union in which the car of Lane and that of Nathan White collided.

Mr. Pike, the plaintiff in the suit, a young man residing at Union, was riding in the car of Mr. Lane, who is the manager of the Trunkentoltz Oil Co., at Union. Their car was going east on No. 24 which intersects highway No. 75 east of Union while the car of Mr. White of Nebraska City, was coming north on No. 75. The wreck occurred near the intersection of the two highways and as the result the cars and occupants were more or less injured.

Mr. Pike, the plaintiff in the suit asked damages in the sum of $25,000 while counter petitions of Lane also asks damages of White.

There are a large number of witnesses on both sides of the case and it is expected the trial will take all of today and possibly into Saturday before it can be submitted to the jury for consideration.

A CHILDREN'S PARTY

The December meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Robert B. Hayes. The occasion was made a Christmas party for the children of the youngest group of the missionary societies—the Little Light Bearers.

The little folks presented the program of the afternoon, readings being given by Joan and Robert Tiaudt and Betty Mae Barkus, while piano numbers were offered by Thelma Kruger and Helen Barkus. Helen Jane Kruger and Marjorie Devoe were present but did not take part in the program.

The home was arranged with the handsome Christmas tree and the tall red tapers that added the real Christmas touch to the scene.

The usual Christmas offering to be used in the telling of the story of Jesus in foreign lands, was then taken.

The afternoon was completed by the serving of a dainty luncheon by Mrs. Hayes that added to the enjoyment of all of the party.

MERRY WORKERS MEET

The Merry Workers met at the home of Mrs. Forest Leonard on December 1st.

The roll call indicated fourteen members and three visitors present. After roll call several Christmas songs were sung. Our project leaders gave the lesson on home nursing, which was very interesting.

After the business session a delicious luncheon was served by the hostess. Our next meeting will be January 19th, at the home of Mrs. Ella Troop, with Mrs. Gary assistant hostess.

MANY ENJOY SUPPER

From Friday's Daily
The chicken pie supper which was held by the ladies aid society of the First Methodist church last evening, was attended by a very pleasing number of the residents of the city. The cold and stormy weather served to keep many from attending the event, but those who braved the cold had a most pleasant treat afforded them in the excellent menu that was served.

Christmas cards for printing can be found at the Journal office. Come and look over the line.
