Fine Selection in Head of Cham- ber of Commerce

William Baird, Long Prominent in Community Makes Fine Leadership in Body.

The selection of William Baird as president of the Chamber of Commerce is a very happy one for the community, assuring this body the continuance of the excellent leadership that it has had in the past years. Mr. Baird has made Plattsmouth his home since 1908 when he came here as superintendent of the Burlington shops of this city. In that position he served most efficiently for his company, producing a high standard of work that was recognized wherever the Burlington was known and the standard of the shop was the source of pride to Mr. Baird and his employees. His services with the Burlington terminated only with his honorary retirement at the close of a long service.

His selection will give the people of Plattsmouth and the Chamber of Commerce a leader who will have the time at his disposal to carry on what ideals that he may have in the way of community advancement. Mr. Baird is well suited to the new position and with the fine loyal support that the past presidents have received at large of the Chamber of Commerce should be able to make his term outstanding.

The wide acquaintance of Mr. Baird in the state is also a point of advantage to him that will come in excellently in making contacts for the civic organization in any part of the state.

The selection of Mr. Baird is most pleasing and assures that the motto of the Chamber of Commerce shall continue to be "Onward Platts-mouth."

HAVE PLEASANT PARTY

The St. Luke's rectory was the scene of a very pleasant social gathering Tuesday evening, when Canon and Mrs. W. J. H. Petter entertained a number of the young people of the church and those home from school for the holiday vacation.

The evening was spent in games which were much enjoyed and which included a treasure hunt at which a great deal of enjoyment was derived. In the contests of the evening prizes were awarded to James Begley, Jr., and Miss Lucille Hart.

At the close of the evening dainty and delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Petter to add to the enjoyment of the occasion.

Nichols Store at Louisville is Burglarized

Large Number of Articles of Wearing Apparel Taken in Raid on the Store.

The F. H. Nichols store, the oldest and one of the largest business houses of Louisville, was burglarized sometime Monday night and loot taken amounting to $200.

The articles taken were largely wearing apparel for men and women and embraced a wide range from men's outer clothing to ladies' undergarments.

The robbery was discovered this morning when the hour for opening the store arrived, it being found that a window in the rear of the building had been broken, which permitted entrance to the building and the removal of the goods from the store.

Mr. Nichols has suffered the robbery of his store some six times in the past few years, but a short time ago had decided to drop the burglar insurance as a curtailment of his expenses and the stock taken last night was uninsured.

The robbery was reported to the office of Sheriff Homer Sylvester this morning but as the robbers had several hours to make their escape there was little hope of capturing them until they made attempts to dispose of the goods.

VISITING FROM DENVER

Mrs. Fred Clugy is enjoying a visit from her old time friends, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Wellman, of Denver, who arrived Sunday for a short visit. Mr. and Mrs. Wellman were residents here some twenty-six years ago and finds but few of the friends of his earlier years here.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wendt and two children of Denver have also been visiting at the Clugy home, returning the last of the week to their home.
