Pretty Church Wedding Held at Elmwood

Miss Julia Zoz Is Joined in Wedlock to Mr. James Barta of Wilber; Father Harte Officiates.

A very pretty wedding was held at the St. Mary's church in Elmwood, when Miss Julia Zoz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zoz was married to James Barta, son of John Barta of Wilber.

The altar was beautifully decorated with snap dragons and carnations which made a beautiful setting for the marriage ceremony. The wedding took place at a 10 o'clock mass on Wednesday morning with Rev. P. Harte of Manley, officiating. After the ceremony Father Harte gave a beautiful and touching sermon. Mrs. Bryan Smith played the wedding march and during the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Mary Zoz sang.

The bride wore an attractive gown of white lace over satin, with long and tightly fitted sleeves and the skirt was of floor length. The bridal veil was a tightly fitted cap finished with a fringe of ruffling across the forehead and was held in place by clusters of orange blossoms at each side. She carried an arm bouquet of pink roses.

Miss Frances Zoz, sister of the bride was bridesmaid. She wore a pale blue crepe dress of ankle length and harmonizing accessories and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses. Mr. Barta was attended by his nephew, Frank Kuzelka, and they wore the usual dark suits.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents where a sumptuous dinner was served to about 35 guests. The room was beautifully decorated for the occasion in a color scheme of pink and white. The table was beautiful, with the wedding cake that adorned it and also bouquets of carnations.

The bride grew to womanhood in the Elmwood vicinity where she is loved by all that know her. She is a graduate of the Elmwood high school.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

February third marked the 14th birthday anniversary of Miss Helen Jane Kopp, and it was fittingly observed as a group of school friends planned a surprise and very cleverly done, as Miss Helen was quite overtaken when the girls walked in at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Kopp.

After all the excitement of the surprise was over the girls settled down to playing bingo. Prizes were won by Mary Kvapil, Mary Alice Shiffer, Helen Sullivan and the consolation to Helen Jane Kopp.

After this game delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Kopp, including the crowning feature of such occasions, the birthday cake, which was very attractively decorated. After refreshments the radio was tuned in on a dance orchestra which was in full swing, the girls could not resist the music, so dancing was the rest of the evening's entertainment. When the time approached for the girls to go home, they departed wishing Helen Jane many more happy birthdays.

Those present at the party were Anna Marie Rea, Caroline Heigel, Dorothy Zitka, Barbara Zitka, Mary Alice Shiffer, Betty Kalina, Helen Sullivan, Mary Kvapil, Florence Sedlak, Rita Libershal and the guest of honor, Helen Jane Kopp.

Dr. Timothy J. Todd, member of one of the pioneer families of Cass county, died suddenly last evening at his home at Kearney, passing away as the result of an attack of heart trouble.

Dr. Todd was born here fifty-four years ago at the homestead west of this city where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Todd, had been early settlers. After completing his schooling here he studied dentistry and had been in practice in Kearney for a great many years. He was married twenty-nine years ago to Miss Minta Mauzy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mauzy of this city, they locating shortly after that time in the west portion of the state.

YOUR Insurance policies should be carefully written, by a dependable agency, representing good, substantial companies.

False Economy

IT IS false economy to buy cheap insurance to protect valuable property. It may look like a bargain until a loss occurs, but may prove to be very costly after it is too late.

A Good Investment

ADEQUATE Insurance is a good investment. It gives real protection against loss and provides a feeling of security that is worth the small cost of the policy.

Large Number at C of C Session Yesterday

Hear of Expansion at Basket Factory and Approve Arrangements to Entertain the Farmers.

From Friday's Daily
Attendance at yesterday's bi-weekly Chamber of Commerce luncheon was the largest in a number of months, and included in addition to 32 of the directors, a number of visitors. President Wm. Baird called the meeting to order at 12:45, for a 45-minute session that was taken up with the transaction of various routine business.

The report of Chairman H. A. Schneider on the paving of Highway 75 across the Platte bottom indicated this project is not unlike Finnigan's famous handcar, its present status being seemingly "off again." It appears the federal government and the state Department of Public Works are both urging work on other projects ahead of this, one being in favor of paving at Blair and the other near Auburn.

It seems incredible that this short gap should thus be neglected, but a lot of the delay has been caused by inability to secure desired right-of-way, until the officials have grown "cold" on the proposition and it may be motorists will have to put up with the present gravel coated stretch of a mile and a half across the bottom that should have really been the first to be paved, for another year.

When the project is finally reached, it will include a viaduct over the Burlington tracks near the Oreapolis town and eliminate all grade crossings between Nebraska City and Omaha. The Omaha Auto club has on several occasions urged the closing of this gap by adequate paving, but apparently success is not yet in sight.

The Agricultural and Entertainment committees, working together, are arranging a get-together meeting of the farmers over a wide territory tributary to Plattsmouth, to be held at the Legion community building on the evening of Wednesday, March 15. Luncheon and entertainment will be provided and a contact arranged between prospective growers and officials of the Norfolk Packing company to discuss acreage requirements for the coming year. The Norfolk company expects to extend its operations this year, and in addition to discussing acreage contracts will put on a demonstration of their canned products packed here and at the Norfolk plant, totaling some twenty different varieties.

The committees will go ahead on the plan as outlined at the meeting and a large gathering is expected at the meeting.

The Legislative committee reported having had the Plattsmouth-endorsed bills presented before the legislature and is now engaged in lining up support of similarly situated towns to send representatives to the committee hearing on the bills in the near future.

L. D. Hiatt, member of the Industries committee, reported on the activities of his own business, the Nebraska Basket Factory, stating that they were going ahead with work on orders on hand and contemplated, and not recognizing depression. He said salaries paid out by the concern during the past year exceeded $6,000—as well as a considerable sum for trees purchased of the farmers and land owners, and that now, with a demand for sawed lumber, the mill was operating to full capacity, furnishing lumber for their own needs and those of Omaha buyers.

The concern is planning further expansion during the coming spring that will require the hiring of considerable additional help over that employed during peak production season last year.

The report of Mr. Hiatt was greeted with applause.

A number of other routine matters and minor committee reports took up the time until adjournment at 1:30.

SEND DEAD MAN HOME

From Thursday's Daily
Last evening an uncle of P. R. O'Hare, young man who was killed at Murdock, arrived here in company with an undertaker of VanWert, Iowa, home of the unfortunate young man. They drove to Omaha where the body was arranged for burial and returned with the body to the old home in Iowa. The tragic death of the young man came as a great shock to the members of the family who were unaware of the manner in which he was living or had entered into a life of crime.

DEPRESSION PARTY

From Saturday's Daily
Last evening a large group of young people gathered in the parlors of the M. E. church, at an old-fashioned "hard-times" party.

The purpose of the gathering was to earn the annual dues of the high school girls who are members of "The Standard Bearer Society." So the penny admission and other penny charges were made throughout the evening, netting the young ladies a neat sum, for which they are very grateful. They also wish to express their thanks to the many older folk who so willingly helped in each way they were asked.

The white elephant booth, arranged by Pearl Tompkins and Glendora Smalley seemed at first, the greatest attraction, and here many pennies were spent for the interesting articles.

Frances Lilly and Louise Rishel presided over the art gallery, which proved to be very entertaining. It contained old-time pictures of the friends and acquaintances of the girls. These had to be labeled, of course, to be recognizable.

Shelia, Covert as fortune teller drew a long waiting line to her corner, where her prophecies seemed to prove quite satisfactory—alho some of the "red" palms were not so full of interest.

The Lotto game, engineered by Kathryn Armstrong was a busy corner, until all the prizes disappeared, when many gathered again for the circle of games.

From these, several were arrested by the Bailiff, Supt. Devoe, and before Judges Don York and E. H. Wescott, were required to declare their guilt or prove their innocence to the satisfaction of the large crowd in court.

Following the adjournment of this session, lunch was served, after which Mrs. Barkus, counselor and the Standard Bearer girls, some twenty-six in number thanked their guests for their help and bade them "good-night."

HAVE PLEASANT MEETING

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society met at the home of Mrs. C. C. Wescott Wednesday afternoon with Miss Margaret Mapes presiding. Devotions were in charge of Miss Ella Kennedy, after which the regular business was taken up. The lesson was in charge of Mrs. John Ellison; from the 5th chapter of the study book. Mrs. L. S. Devoe favored the group with a very beautiful piano solo. A very interesting playlet entitled "The Voice," was presented, Mrs. Zella Trout taking leading part with Mrs. Frank Barkus and Mrs. Edgar Glaze and Miss Louise Rishel assisting. Mrs. R. B. Hayes had the Mystery Box questions. Then two of the Standard Bearer girls, Miss Covert and Miss Armstrong sang very beautifully "Star of the East." Mrs. L. S. Devoe accompanied. Meeting closed with the Lord's prayer.
