V. F. W. Outline Their Stand

Col. Phil Hall, state commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, has furnished the Journal field man a copy of the Resolutions adopted by the Department of Nebraska at its department council meeting held in Lincoln on Sunday, January 29th, in which a definite stand is taken on a great many matters of interest to the American public today.

The resolution follows: "The Veterans of Foreign Wars is a non-partisan, non-sectarian organization and was founded to help both active and ex-service men. It is the only veterans organization maintaining a National Home for widows and orphans of ex-service men. It is composed of ordinary men with extraordinary service given for God and country. It is aggressive, militant independent and courageous.

"We reiterate, that this organization stands for 'One Flag—One Country—One Language!' Buy American goods, hire American labor and see America first. Patriotic leadership is imperative and indispensable and should be the foremost thought of all public officials, at all times.

"We believe in order to combat our present suffering, that rigid economy in all forms of government, school, city, county, state and nation should be enforced, eliminate useless public offices, bureaus and commissions. Rehabilitation of agriculture and small industries is the prime factor in bringing America back where she rightfully belongs. Create work for the needy to compensate the goodwill of charity; idle men are dangerous. Rid the nation of criminals and undesirable aliens by a universal registration system. Assist the men who served by sane legislation, ample compensation to those deserving. Maintain an adequate National and Common Defense, by a minimum of 165,000 enlisted men for the Regular Army, 250,000 for the National Guard and ample funds to support and carry on the United States Reserves. R. O. T. C., C. M. T. C. and an ample Navy and Marines as allotted under the Washington and London Naval treaties. Pledge to bear arms in defense of country for aliens seeking American citizenship.

"Universal draft of both man-power and industry in time of war; endorsement and recognition of the principles of organized labor; Deportation of aliens convicted as criminals; Elimination of married women employees holding public jobs; Pensions for World War widows and orphans; Increased compensation for arrested T. B. veterans; Increased pensions for disabled Spanish-American war veterans; Payment of the adjusted compensation certificates.

"Inasmuch as the country is shorn of actual money to do business with, to the extent of causing business to become paralyzed and on dead center, causing wholesale losses and insolvencies with no apparent relief in sight; we favor the immediate cash payment of the soldiers adjusted compensation certificates. First: Because it is a debt acknowledged by the government. Second: The payment of these certificates can be made without additional taxation and will place in every community in the channels of business, that much needed medium of exchange, equally distributed because the men of the World War were inducted into the service of the United States in proportion to population. Third: The men who hold these certificates offered their lives, their all; Some will be incapacitated the rest of their lives and the balance had the unpleasant experience of starting all over again when they returned with everything on a downward trend. These men gave, that those unable to serve might enjoy the blessings of liberty and the pursuit of happiness under a government created by the people, for the people and of the people.—Col. Phil L. Hall, Dept. Commander. Attest: Lester H. Anderson, Department Adjutant."

MOORE HAS RELIEF PLANS

Trenton, N. J.—Endorsing the conference of governors on national economic problems, called by President-elect Roosevelt, Governor Moore advocated expansion of army and navy enlistments as a measure of unemployment relief. Planning to advance his proposal, with others, at the Washington conference March 6, Governor Moore said economic conditions presented an excellent opportunity to attract the able young men to the services, giving them valuable training and relieving the competition for other occupation.

Another proposal to divert 200 millions of federal Reconstruction Finance corporation funds to a "back to the farm" movement will be presented to the conference by Governor Moore, altho he is not ready at present to endorse it. The governor outlined a plan, proposed by J. B. Van Urk, of New York, to establish eight farm districts in widely separated sections of the country, of approximately 40,000 acres each, to which about 250,000 persons would be assigned to provide livings for themselves.

The patient was a young woman of Toronto, the disease in the bone of the left leg above the knee.

"At present the patient is in good health, free from pain and is carrying on her usual household duties. Films were taken of the patient's lungs on Nov. 15, 1932, and these show the lungs entirely free from metastases," the report said. It also mentioned four other cases treated with the colloidal solution of metallic arsenic. One patient has been a student at the university for the past year.

RAIDER KILLER GETS 8 YEARS

Beatrice, Feb. 8.—Ted Wells of Beatrice was sentenced Wednesday to eight years in the state penitentiary for manslaughter for the slaying of Chester Mason of Omaha, federal prohibition agent.

District Judge F. W. Messmore overruled Wells' motion for a new trial and sentenced him to prison.

Wells, 26 years old, told the court he was engaged in the liquor business. Mason and Byron Kennedy met Wells on a highway near here last Nov. 12 after Kennedy, an informer, had arranged to buy some liquor. An argument followed and Mason was shot to death and Kennedy wounded. Wells later was arrested at the farm of his brother, and testified he had been struck over the head in the encounter and did not remember what happened. The officer's gun was never found. Kennedy recovered from gunshot wounds after several weeks in a hospital.

The state charged Mason was shot with his own weapon and Kennedy testified Wells snatched the pistol from the officer's pocket.

Wells was charged with first degree murder, but a district court jury convicted him of manslaughter.

CHIEF FOILS A BANDIT

Schuyler, Neb.—A would-be bandit here was foiled by a use of his "victim." Police Chief M. D. McKenzie, 55.

While returning from a council meeting about 10:30 p. m. the chief was accosted by a man with a drawn gun who stepped from the shadows of a lumber yard and ordered "Stick 'em up."

"Just a minute," said the officer, "until I get these mittens off and I'll give you all I've got."

The bandit waited obligingly as the chief slowly drew off his heavy gloves. McKenzie then gave the gunman all he had—right in the pit of the stomach with a left and a right. The bandit fled north. The chief fired at him several times and thinks he may have wounded him.

Authorities received a call from Columbus earlier in the evening reporting theft of a car there.
