

D. A. R. Appeals to Help for Approved Schools

Mrs. F. R. Gobelman, State Chairman, Asks Chapter of State to Aid; Regent Announces Pages.

Mrs. Edgar Hilt Wescott, state regent of the Nebraska Daughters of the American Revolution, returned to her home in Plattsmouth Thursday night, after a speaking tour begun January 30, during which time she has visited nine D. A. R. chapters.

Following her visit to Deborah Avery chapter in Lincoln on February 3, the state regent was the guest on the next day of Margaret Holmes chapter, at Seward, where she was entertained at a one o'clock luncheon at the Windsor hotel. She spoke on "Certain D. A. R. Activities" at the meeting which followed at the home of Miss Gay Palmer. That evening Mrs. Wescott returned to Lincoln, where she was the house guest over Sunday of Rev. P. H. Murdick and Mrs. Murdick.

On Monday morning Mrs. Wescott left Lincoln for Beatrice, where she was the guest of Elizabeth Montague chapter for a one o'clock luncheon and gave an inspiring address to the members of that chapter, of which the regent is Mrs. D. L. Spellman. That afternoon the state regent motored to Crete, where the Crete chapter gave a six o'clock dinner in her honor. After dinner, the guests adjourned to the home of Mrs. E. B. Hardeman, state secretary, where they were joined by many others, among them being Robert Hastings and A. L. Johnson, both of the S. A. R., Mrs. Hastings and Mrs. Johnson, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dredla. Mr. Dredla showed motion pictures of a number of interesting historical places in New England, taken during a tour of the east last summer. Mrs. Wescott spoke on "Some Little Known Phases of D. A. R. Work," and, on request, sang a group of songs.

Stephen Bennett chapter, of Fairmont and Exeter, entertained the state regent on Tuesday afternoon at the home of the regent, Mrs. L. D. Arnot, of Exeter. On Tuesday evening Mrs. Wescott was the honored guest of Niobrara chapter at Hastings. After her address, a conference was held with the regent, Mrs. T. O. Merchant, and other officers of the chapter in regard to the state conference, to be held in Hastings March 14-16. On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Wescott concluded her speaking tour at Sutton, where she addressed the members of Butler-Johnson chapter. Plans for the dedication, at Blair, of the ten-ton boulder placed by Nikumi chapter on the site of the first schoolhouse in Blair, were postponed because of the bitterly cold weather.

Mrs. Wescott has announced that the Nebraska pages to the Continental Congress, to be held in Washington April 17-22, will be as follows: Miss Katherine Allen, of the Omaha chapter; Miss Katherine Spellman, of the Elizabeth Montague chapter; of Beatrice; Mrs. Perry Murdick (formerly Miss Helen Wescott) of Fontenelle chapter, of Plattsmouth, now residing in Elizabeth, New Jersey.

Two gifts to the D. A. R. library at Washington will be presented at the coming Continental Congress. One is an "Early History of Exeter," given by Mrs. A. K. Smith of Exeter, a member of Stephen Bennett chapter. The other is an "Early History of Harlan county," given by Miss Mayme Thompson of Alma, who has contributed another copy of the same to the D. A. R. room at Arbor Lodge.

Mrs. F. R. Gobelman of Plattsmouth, state chairman of the D. A. R. committee on approved schools, has issued an appeal to the fifty D. A. R. chapters of Nebraska, asking for help for the eighteen approved schools which the D. A. R. has been helping for many years. These schools are as follows: The American Indian Institute, at Wichita, Kas.; American International College, at Springfield, Mass.; Berea College, Berea, Ky.; The Berry Schools, Mount Berry, Ga.; Blue Ridge Industrial School, Bris, Va.; Carr Creek Community Center, inc., Knott county, Ky.; Crossmore School, Crossmore, N. C.; Helen Dunlap School (for girls), Winslow, Ark.; Hillside (for boys) Marlborough, Mass.; Hindman Settlement School, Hindman, Ky.; Kate Duncan Smith D. A. R. School, Grant, Ala.; Lincoln Memorial University, Harrogate, Tenn.; Maryville College, Maryville, Tenn.; Montverde School, Montverde, Fla.; Northland College, Ashland, Wis.; Pine Mt. Settlement, Pine Mountain, Ky.; Schauffler Missionary Training, Cleveland, Ohio; and Tammassee D. A. R. Industrial School, Tammassee, S. C.

Last year the D. A. R. contributions to the approved schools amounted to $90,754.48. Contributions to schools not on the list were $32,355.39, making a total of $123,209.87. Mrs. Gobelman states that the most pressing need of these schools at this time is money for scholarships and equipment; but she says that the Blue Ridge school declares that it "can use anything from a pin to a sawmill." She urges Nebraska chapters, in case they cannot send money, to make gifts of other kinds—seeds, old clothing, bedding, towels, shoes, books, scissors, thread, needles, tape, and the like.

OBITUARY

Jacob A. Smith was born in Lucas county, Iowa, August 1st, 1870. Died at his home in Mynard, Nebr., Feb. 10, 1932. Age 62 years, 6 months, 9 days.

He was united in marriage to Miss Jessie McVay August 18, 1895, and made his home in Cass county since that time where he had a host of friends who regret to learn of the passing of this good man. He was kind and considerate to everyone, a kind husband and loving father.

Eleven years ago he was stricken with blindness and for the past thirteen months had been unable to leave the bed, having suffered a slight stroke and continued to grow worse, until death came to his relief.

Nine years ago he united with the United Brethren church at Mynard and had been a true and faithful follower since that time.

Through all his years of suffering he bore them without complaint, and was ready to answer when the Master called.

He leaves to mourn his death, besides the wife, one daughter, Mrs. Effie Fulton of Mynard, Nebr.; two sisters, Mrs. Mattie Combe, Hamburg, Iowa; Mrs. Kate Bunney, Fairfax, Missouri; two brothers, Allen and Richard Smith of Mapleton, Iowa; several nieces and nephews and two grandchildren. An infant son preceded the father in death.

GUILD ENJOYS MEETING

The Westminster Guild girls of the Presbyterian church met last evening at the home of Miss Gertrude Vallery and had a most delightful meeting. The discussion of the topic "Brazil," was led by Mrs. McClusky in an interesting and impressive manner. A short business meeting was held at the conclusion of the lesson.

Dainty and delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Vallery and Gertrude which brought to a close a very pleasant evening.

The Guild had as its guests Miss Anna Margaret McCarty, Miss Alice Jeffreys, and Miss Olive Sylvester, prospective members who, it is hoped, will unite with the Guild in the near future.

Mrs. Mary Nickel of Murray was here today for a few hours and while in the city was a pleasant caller at the Journal office to renew her subscription to the Journal.

Attorney Guy L. Clement of Elmwood was in the city today for a few hours to look after some matters at the district court.

Bible Class Has Fine Address on Bible History

Canon W. J. H. Petter of St. Luke's Church Speaks to the Methodist Y. M. B. C.

From Wednesday's Daily
 Last evening the members of the Y. M. B. C. of the Methodist church had an unusual and pleasant treat afforded them in an address by Canon W. J. H. Petter, rector of the St. Luke's Episcopal church, on Bible history.

The first part of the evening was given over to the regular song service and the members of the class had the pleasure of several vocal numbers by Raymond C. Cook.

The speaker of the evening was introduced by John E. Turner, class president, and at once launched into the recital of the interpretations on Bible history made by archaeological discoveries in the holy land and in the scenes of Bible history.

The speaker told of the findings made in the revealing of ancient cities, the wealth of discoveries of the scientists that bore out the fact made in the history of the Bible in both the old and new testaments. Canon Petter has made a very close study of this subject and from the modern findings as well as ancient documents brought forth some most interesting facts as to the peoples of the Bible days. The address was one that all followed with the greatest of interest and it was with regret that the class heard the close of the most entrancing story of Bible history.

At the close of the evening the committee composed of J. Howard Davis, Warren Farmer and Justus Lillie served refreshments of frozen cherry pie and coffee.

SCOUTS HOLD MEETING

From Tuesday's Daily
 Last evening the Plattsmouth Boy Scouts held their regular meeting at the high school gym and a full attendance of the thirty-two members were present to take part in the various phases of the meeting.

Scoutmaster Russell Reeder presided, and directed the boys in the games that featured the early part of the evening and a great deal of fun was enjoyed by the Scouts as they indulged their youthful spirits.

Following the recreation period the Scouts divided into their patrols and carried on their study work for their merits and advancement tests. The patrol leaders, Francis Libershal, Herbert Minor, James Robertson, Aulton Rolland and Ordell Hennings, have had splendid success with their troop this year and the Scouts have passed their tests in fine shape.

The troop will enjoy several outdoor stunts this week if the weather will permit.

SHOWS TEAM PICTURE

The Plattsmouth high school basketball team, which so far has an undefeated record, had their picture shown Sunday in the Lincoln Journal and Star. The picture of the ten members of the first team showed the players in their sweat suits and was a very excellent presentation of the group that has made such a fine record in the season now drawing to the close. The team has four games remaining on their schedule, two being played this week, Nebraska Deaf here Wednesday and Auburn at that city on Friday. Glenwood comes here next week and the team then goes to Wahoo on March 3 to close the regular season.

4,000 Demand Farm Aid of the State Legislature

Disgruntled Marchers Tell Joint Session of Their Needs, Start Home from Lincoln.

Lincoln, Feb. 16.—Farmers marched with flying banners Thursday to the Nebraska capitol, presented two sets of relief demands to the legislature and set out again for home. Harold Hulfish, a deputy state sheriff, estimated their number at 4,000 and another said 2,000 were in the legislative chamber alone.

Singing and shouting, the column of overalled men trudged from the fair grounds to the statehouse. A few women marched. They milled through the corridors of the capitol or camped outside, listening to speeches and band music, while the rest crowded into the house chamber and applauded the reading of the demands.

Deputy state sheriffs, with tear gas bombs, stood around the edges of the crowd but there was no disorder.

A. O. Rosenberg of Newman Grove, organizer, said his group would seek further organization so as to bring "as much pressure as possible" on the legislature.

Banners attacking the banking system, demanding cessation of farm foreclosures and evictions, and tax and wage relief were carried before the joint session of both houses.

H. C. Parmenter of Yutan, president of the Nebraska Farm Holiday association, presented a request for prompt enactment of the Iowa mortgage moratorium law which Governor Bryan prepared for introduction Thursday. Hisses came from members of the "farm relief" conference group who organized the march against Parmenter's wishes.

J. T. Gren of Tilden read demands of the relief conference including federal greenback to repay all failed bank losses and farm debt losses in recent years, immediate 25 to 50 per cent government salary reductions, cessation of all mortgage foreclosures and federal financing of all farm debts at 3 per cent on long loans.

"We are in revolt against the leadership of international bankers and other business men," read Green. "In their mad scramble for profits they have reduced the masses to poverty."
 Cheers followed a recommendation that the state militia be abolished. Green then demanded the Come four-year mortgage moratorium bill be killed and that a bill calling for a nine months foreclosure stay be extended to two years.

Lieut. Governor Walter Jurgensen, in closing the session, predicted "when this legislature has adjourned, this conference will not be disappointed."

On the front steps several hundred farmers heard several speakers introduced by E. F. Lee of Leigh.

W. C. T. U. MEETS

The local W. C. T. U. Monday afternoon conducted the annual memorial services for Frances E. Willard, leader in the work of temperance for a lifetime and president for many years of the national W. C. T. U.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Etta Gorder and very largely attended by the members and friends. Mrs. E. C. Giles gave a very beautiful poem, "Lead Chieftian Lead," a tribute to Miss Willard and her work in the temperance cause.

Mrs. Gorder gave an interesting paper, "Essential Qualities of the Woman Leader," touching on the life of Miss Willard and her work.

Mrs. Adelaide Boynton read "When Frances E. Willard's Statue was Unveiled."

Mrs. Charles Troop gave a very fine talk on Miss Willard, her subject being "The Clean, Pure and Honest."

Mrs. W. L. Propst was heard in a most interesting talk on "Patriotism."

Mrs. Robert B. Hayes gave a vocal offering to the memory of Miss Willard, "My Task," a most appropriate feature of the program. Mrs. E. C. Giles served as the accompanist for Mrs. Hayes.

Miss Charlotte Jasper was heard in a very charming vocal offering, "Safety First," and her accompaniment was played by Mrs. Gorder.

At the close of the afternoon dainty and delicious refreshments were served to add to the pleasures of the occasion.

Maybe Europe is right; maybe Uncle Sam should change his name to Uncle Shylock. Our recollection is that Shylock got smart-talked out of money the borrower was desperately glad to get when he borrowed it.

Alvo News

Mr. and Mrs. Louis F. Newman, residing east of Murdock, were in Alvo on Wednesday of last week and were looking after some business matters.

Mrs. C. W. Jewell was spending a number of days at Lincoln during the past week, where she was enjoying a visit with a number of friends and relatives.

Mr. Barber, of the Nebraska Power company, who resides in Louisville, was looking after business for the company in Alvo and vicinity on Wednesday of last week.

Attorney C. D. Garz was over to Plattsmouth last week, where he was called to look after some business matters and also went on to Omaha, where he had some matters to attend to as well.

Samuel F. Latta, of Murray, who has been engaged in the elevator business at that place for the past four years, was a visitor in Alvo on Wednesday of last week, visiting with the business men here and also making his first visit to our town, notwithstanding the fact that he was born in Cass county some 60 years ago and has lived within the county much of his life.

Entertained Reading Club

On Wednesday of last week, Mrs. R. M. Coatman, at their pleasant home in Alvo, was hostess to the Alvo Reading club, which held their session at her home, and a very worthwhile program was had, as well as a social hour, and were entertained by Mrs. Coatman and daughter, Miss Dorothea, with a very delightful luncheon.

Attending Tournament at Avoca

Last Thursday the Alvo High basketball team went over to Avoca to participate in the Cass county basketball tournament that was scheduled to end Saturday night. Their opening game was with the Nehawka team, whom they defeated, 29 to 13, and on Friday they met Murdock. Avoca—slated as probable winners of the meet—eliminated Plattsmouth Reserves in second round of play Friday night, by a most decisive score, after the Reserves had outpointed Union in the opening game Thursday. The earliness of writing this precludes giving additional information on the tournament. Last year, Avoca, also picked as a sure winner, was upset by Louisville, credited with having only a mediocre team.

Entertained the Seniors

Superintendent Robert Quick and wife on last Tuesday evening entertained the Senior class of the Alvo high school at their home, where all enjoyed a very sociable time and as well were preparing for the graduation, which is but a few months away. This year the class is not as large as formerly, but all are just as intensely interested in the school work and the obtaining of an education commensurate with the needs of the times.

Many at Lincoln Wednesday

The people who have been studying the conditions of the times as they apply to taxes, to the prices of farm products, to the scarcity of any ready money and to general unemployment, in the vicinity of Alvo, as well as over other sections of the state, had a good representation at Lincoln on last Wednesday, for the much heralded march of farmers upon the legislature. The daily papers showed the several thousand Nebraska farmers gathered about the state capitol building, which is fitted in elegant style, and they also went in to pay a visit to the legislature and ask for certain concessions they figure will help bring back better farm commodity prices. The legislature listened to their appeal and promised consideration of their claims, adjourning for the day.

The farm market situation is indeed in a bad way and unless something is accomplished soon the average farmer cannot stand up under the load any longer and will be unable to plant crops without some assurance of a return that will at least cover cost of production, which is a lot more than he is getting now.

Have Fine Entertainment

The P. T. A. of the Alvo Consolidated school sponsored a very unusual entertainment by way of a musical program arranged and directed by Mr. Harry Zeigenbein of the Crancer Music company, of Lincoln.

The program consisted of orchestra numbers, instrumental and vocal solos and readings, presented by some of Lincoln's leading talent. Those taking part in the program were: John Shillinek, trumpet; Dr. Zeigenbein, trumpet; Mr. Woody, violin; Mr. Bonnor, violin.

Mr. Jackson, drums; Mark Pierce, bass horn; Will Greene, clarinet; Mrs. Harry Zeigenbein, piano, accordion, vocal; George Hughes, trombone; Miss Blair (Ashland), accordion; Roma Harrington, reader; Mr. Andrews, French horn.

This unusual group of artists presented their program in a most pleasing manner and the audience, which overflowed the school and auditorium, showed their appreciation by demanding numerous encores.

The P. T. A. sponsored this type of a program as an incentive and inspiration for the Alvo school band of 45 members, which was organized at the beginning of the second semester.

Members of the committee sponsoring the program were Mrs. Alfred Stroemer, Mrs. Herman Bornemeier and Elbert M. Miller.

SCHOOL HAS PROGRAM

From Wednesday's Daily
 This morning a convocation was held at the high school auditorium and which was directed by Miss Gertrude Vallery as the master of ceremonies.

One of the new musical organizations, the girls' glee club of the eighth grade was presented in two numbers that showed a fine musical appreciation on the part of the young people.

Miss Anna May Sandin and George Adam, first place winners at the Peru tournament, gave their numbers that had won for them the honors in the district meet.

The first place winners, the girls' sextette composed of Mary Anne Rosencrans, Velma Wells, Helen Gilmore, Gertrude Brink, Lois Bestor and Virginia Trively, were heard in two numbers that received the warm approval of the auditors.

A comedy act was presented by Marvin Tritsch and Greth Garnett, who gave their impressions of Olson and Johnson, only the version was toned down from the stage presentation of the well known comedians.

BOY SHOT BY HUNTERS

Omaha.—Three Omaha men, hunting rabbits north of Auburn Thursday morning, paid $12.80 fines in justice court there for hunting without licenses after a shotgun pellet had wounded a 9 year old boy. The boy, Murrel Estes, suffered a slight wound under the eye. The Omaha men were Sam Butrea, Thomas Campagna and Jake Guliza.
