The Effects of Alcoholic Drinks
Ps. 23:29-32; Isa. 28:1-4; Dan. 5:1-4.

Does any real good come from strong drink? This question will be answered, as men are for or against the use of it. But the sincere, earnest Christian has but one answer: "Touch not, taste not, handle not." (Col. 2:21). He plays safe; he does not believe men that boast, "I can drink or let it alone." As a rule, they will not let it alone.

It is the business of every Christian to fight this monster in whatever form it appears. Strong drink has been the ruin of men and nations. Solomon, who wrote the book of Proverbs, 10:2 B. C., warns against it. Isaiah, 755 B. C., has much to say against it; Daniel, 530 B. C., shows us a dramatic scene. Our scripture texts all show us the harm done by strong drink.

I—Bodily Harm. (Prov. 23:29-32). Since the coming of national prohibition and the strenuous and persistent fight against that policy made by those whose financial interests lie in the return of the saloon, the political aspects of the liquor question have overwhelmed all others.

It is well to get down to an old-fashioned temperance lesson, dealing with the fundamental evil of strong drink, the effects of alcohol on the body and on the mind and soul, and on society. This is the more necessary because the disappearance of the saloon for more than a decade has caused many persons to forget the harm it did in the had old days, and made easy converts to the spurious arguments of the west.

These verses from Proverbs constitute the classic picture of the physical injuries and ruin wrought by drunkenness. The writer of Proverbs answers the six questions in v. 29 himself. They need no explanation. Those that remember the days of the saloon know full well that the saloon was the place where politicians gathered their henchmen and picked the ticket to be voted on; then they would buy the liquor to get the entire crowd drunk; the outcome would often be quarrels, fights, "wounds without cause." The politicians try to assure the country that they will not have the saloon back. But to legalize booze, you must have a place to sell it in; what difference does it make by what name you call the place, the result will be the same.

Alcohol blunts the senses and can only bring final ruin. Look on the wrecks that are left from the old saloon days; today they have to be supported by charity; there are not many left. Let us emphasize in our teaching the bodily harm alcohol brings to the user.

at the state legislature on last Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hansen and family were visiting with friends in Omaha Sunday, they taking Mr. Hansen's mother there to spend a few days with friends.

Miss Gwendolyn Hansen was visiting her friend, Miss La Verna Rhoden who is in the Immanuel hospital at Omaha. She found her much improved and able to sit up.

Lee Nickles of Plattsmouth, was a visitor in Murray with his many friends for a time on last Wednesday and was as well looking after some business matters.

Ernest Richter recently purchased a new home, this time the selection was made of the W. H. Hendricks property east of the elevator and north of highway No. 1.

The Murray lumber yard has been a very busy place of late as they have been very busy in the manufacture of a number of A hog houses which are finding ready sale.

Charles D. Spangler, one of the very best of farmers, was shelling and delivering some two thousand bushels of corn to the Ray Friedrichs Seed company elevator on last Wednesday.

Miss Ruth Young has accepted a position at the telephone exchange, since the marriage of Miss Laurens Hatchett, who was wedded last Sunday at the Christian church of Murray.

Wm. Rapp had two cars of cattle in Chicago this week, which were delivered to Plattsmouth for shipping by Frank Mrasek, who also took one load to the South Omaha market on Wednesday as well.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lancaster and their two sons, Raymond and David, were guests for the day and a splendid dinner at the home of Deputy Sheriff Jarvis Lancaster and wife on last Sunday, where all enjoyed the day very nicely.

Mrs. Don C. Rhoden, sr., who has been rather poorly at her home in Murray for several days past, is not much improved and is able to get out and look after her cows which requires a good deal of work to feed, water and milk them.

Mrs. Aubrey Townsend received the sad news of the extreme illness of her mother, Mrs. C. J. Silas of Hildreth who was suddenly taken with heart trouble and which considering her age which is 80 years, is considered as being very serious.

Misses Laverna and Paulina Ingwersen from northwest of Nehawka, were visiting in Murray on last Wednesday afternoon and were guests at the home of their cousins, Lucrean Carper and wife, and at the home of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lutz with Mrs. E. J. Wasson and son, Edward, of Havelock, who were here to attend the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Lutz, departed for Havelock on last Sunday evening following the wedding, and have been visiting there for the greater portion of this week.

Miss Laverna Rhoden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Rhoden and granddaughter of Mrs. D. C. Rhoden, who was operated upon at the Immanuel hospital and since been making very fair progress towards recovery and it is expected that this young lady will soon be home again and enjoying good health.

Charles McReynolds who has been making his home just south of Murray has moved to the farm which he recently purchased from S. A. Wiles where Guy Wiles and family have been living for a number of years. Frank Mrasek with his big truck moved the farm machinery and household effects on Wednesday of this week.

Parr Young was a visitor in Plattsmouth on Wednesday of this week where he had some business matters to look after and incidentally stopped at the office of the county treasurer and procured license for his truck which he uses exclusively for farm purposes and for road work for his own farm work, the license costing $14.

Business Not So Bad.

The Murray Hardware company report the following sales recently, to Ernest Richter and wife a new stove and much furniture, while Charles Sporer purchased a new stove and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wiles a stove.

One of the Best Banks.

The Murray State bank which has always been one of the very strongest and most conservative of financial institutions, opened on last Wednesday with no restrictions, as is the case of many banks. Messrs. Boedecker and Boedecker have ever been careful and of making loans which are safe, and which has kept the bank in first class condition. During the exercising of the greatest care in their business they have ever had in view the caring for the interests of their clientele as well and have in all cases where it was safe, extended accommodations to the citizenry of Murray and community surrounding the town.

Heard Brother Had Died.

Oscar Hatchett, a brother and only brother of James E. Hatchett, who formerly made his home at Crocker, Mo., and whom Mr. James Hatchett had not seen for the past thirty years and who resided at Crocker, Mo., when last heard from. Mr. Hatchett on last Tuesday received a wire from Mrs. Oscar Hatchett from their home at Minatare saying that Mr. Oscar Hatchett had passed away at the age of 59. However much Mr. James Hatchett would have liked to have attended the funeral, he could not see his way clear to make the trip. Mr. James Hatchett has the sympathy of his host of friends here in this loss of his only brother.

Much Interest in Church.

The Murray Christian Bible school number in attendance on last Lord's day 79, while the evening services were attended by 91. The young people's societies also are very interesting. The Senior Endeavor, which was led by Miss Florence Lancaster had an attendance of 14 and the Intermediate Endeavor 12 and the Junior Endeavor 11 members in attendance last Lord's day. The Junior League is staging a contest which will continue until Easter.

Interested in Church Contest.

On last Wednesday C. M. Read was over to Plattsmouth two times and at each trip took a load of voters who were voting in favor of the Christian church in the contest which is sponsored by the Ladies Toggery and the Fetzer Shoe Co. Melvin Reed and Henry Rice also took a load each.

returning home, passing through Murray, when A. D. Bakke and a number of young men noticed that the truck was on fire and emitting volumes of smoke. Mr. Bakke and H. McKinney, Ethan Allan, John Poynter and Carl Keil, jr., jumped into a car and taking a fire extinguisher with them, pursued the truck which was making good time and were able to overtake it out in the country a few miles when they overhauled the truck, stopping it, and extinguishing the fire. The driver had not known that the truck was on fire until they caught up with him. He had noticed an over abundance of smoke in the rear but had thought that it was from too much oil in his crankcase. A very good deed and very ably done at that.

Young People are Wedded at Murray Sunday

Miss Lorene Hatchett and Mr. Leonard W. Lutz Joined in Bonds of Holy Wedlock.

The First Christian church at Murray was the scene of a very pretty wedding Sunday evening when Miss Lorene Hatchett and Mr. Leonard W. Lutz were joined in the bonds of wedlock.

The wedding occurred at the close of the evening service at the church, the bridal party entering following the service.

Mrs. Ella Barker played and sang the beautiful love song of Carrie Jacobs Bond, "I Love You Truly" as the bridal party entered the church and approached the altar.

The marriage lines and the double ring service was celebrated by the Rev. Lloyd Schubert, pastor of the church.

The bride and groom were attended by Miss Marie Lutz, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid and Mr. Ralph Murphy as best man.

Following the wedding the bridal couple departed for Lincoln and from where they will leave on a short honeymoon trip, returning later to make their home on a farm west of Murray.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hatchett and is one of the well known and popular young ladies of Murray where she has grown to womanhood and where her friends are legion. The bride has been engaged as the operator of the telephone exchange at Murray for the past several years.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lutz, one of the old and prominent families of this section of Cass county. He was born and reared in the vicinity of Murray and received his education there and at Plattsmouth, being a graduate of the local schools in the class of 1929. Since completing his school work he has been engaged in farming at the home of his parents west of Murray.

The many friends will join in their best wishes for the future happiness of this estimable young couple.

Reopening of Banks a Spur to Business in U. S.

Crowds of Shoppers Is Sign That Public Is Anxious to Re-new Buying.

From every part of the nation the end of the bank holiday brought tangible signs of an upturn in business.

While banks reopened in the larger cities, crowds of shoppers in business districts and increased advertising in newspapers indicated that the public was anxious to resume normal purchasing.

Reports from the 12 federal reserve central cities were that bank deposits had far exceeded withdrawals, bolstering the revitalized flow of credit through business channels. Some banks had to furnish extra facilities for handling new accounts.

ENJOY CHURCH NIGHT

From Wednesday's Daily

Last evening the members of the congregation of the Methodist church joined in the observance of "Church Night," a social feature that was held in the parlors of the church.

The program of the occasion was conducted by the Young Men's class of the Sunday school, furnishing a fine musical entertainment and consisting of vocal offerings by members. John E. Turner, president of the class, was in charge of the program. Donald Bushell and Don York, Jr., were heard in two very fine vocal duets that reflected the greatest credit on the young men.

Joseph A. Capwell gave a fine vocal solo that was pleasing and enjoyed to the utmost by all of the members of the party.

Don C. York also added to the pleasures of the evening with one of his final vocal offerings. L. S. Devoe was called upon and gave two humorous musical selections which was pleasing to all of the group and the superintendent heartily endorsed for his offering.

At the close of the evening ladies of the church served a dainty luncheon and which all enjoyed.

Miss Louise Rishel, young daughter of James Rishel, one of the charter members of the Y. M. B. C., was heard in a very fine reading, "The Face of Christ."

SOCIAL WORKERS MEET

The Social Workers of the Methodist church were entertained on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. H. Duxbury and with Mrs. Don Selver as the associate hostesses. The ladies spent the time largely in the business session and it was decided that Mrs. W. L. Heinrich should have charge of the receiving orders for the colored Easter eggs. Miss Dorothea Mae Duxbury gave several very much enjoyed piano numbers that all appreciated to the utmost. At the close of the afternoon dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses.
