MURDOCK ITEMS Giant Reservoir

Business called John Eppings to both Lincoln and Nebraska City during the early portion of last week.

W. P. Meyers and family, of Sioux City, were visiting for over the week end at the home of the parents of Mrs. Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Tool of Murdock.

Dr. L. W. Lee and Harold Tool were called to Lincoln last Wednes- pacity nearly double that of Hoover day, where they were looking after dam and assuring a nine-foot chansome business matters. They drove nel from Yankton to the mouth is beover in their car.

O. E. McDonald and John Gakemeier were over to the county seat on last Thursday, where they were for a short time.

ant visit.

See the announcement elsewhere in this department of hatching eggs for sale from an accredited flock of Jersey White Giant chickens. They are blood tested. Remember it costs tana o nthe main stem of the Misno more to grow the best chickens and the returns are far more profitable.

John Eppings and wife, who have a flock of chickens about the size of quails, are well pleased with the fine ways. progress which the chicks have made. They are now a number of weeks old and out of a start of one hundred, they now have 82 healthy chickens only "prevent all future floods on the nearly at that stage where they can be called springers.

Entertained Charter Members

lodge in Murdock, which has been in existence for many years and served the community in many ways, cele- significant that the president in his loans. brated the organization of the order message to congress asking for perhere and also paid honor to the six mission to recruit a civilian army of members, who were enrolled at the this, aithough it was stated today on funds available in the Reconstruction beginning are Mesdames J. J. Gustin, behalf of Senator Norris that he did Finance corporation to meet relief R. Elliott. H. H. Lawton, Harry Davis, Ed W. not take up this project in his con-needs until May. Thimgan, George Mills and Henry A. ference with the president yesterday.

Hatching Eggs

celebrated Jersey White Giants. An Mr. Roosevelt's approval this week. accredited flock, blood-tested, Price Zaar, South Bend, Neb.

Saw Tournament Games

A number of the citizens of Murdock who are interested in basket- of $29,500,000 could be developed in ball and the other sports of the young people, journeyed to Lucoln on last Thursday to witness the opening basketball tournament. They saw a number of good games and were well B entrant, who won their opening engineers. game. Among those who went for the games were Henry Amgwert and wife (who also visited with friends and looked after business). Frank Melvin, Lacey and Bryan McDonald, and Mrs. Eddie Craig.

Things Looking Better

While we have been going through a period of depression (and we only speak of it as a bit of past history), everyone is now viewing things with a brighter aspect. John Ostbloom, who has conducted a market in Murof groceries and since that time with more goods to sell and also with a picking up of conditions generally, he says his business is increasing and cash receipts have doubled. We are pleased to see this and will be pleased to know that others are showing limited sections of the United States

With a steady rise in the prices of farm produce it won't be long until normal conditions return.

Entertained the Ladies Aid

low member, Mrs. W. O. Gillespie. malting. where they were royally entertained and where all enjoyed a most pleasant afternoon. The ladies visited and also quilted, having a quilt on the the way to completion.

There were some 36 of the members present to enjoy the occasion California old man. The suit charges come as a rebuff to those, many of and to assist with the work.

We are Equipped to Weld frozen cylinders and motor blocks. Prices right and guaranteed. - Jake's Garage is Offered as a River Project

Urge That $85,000,000 to Ee Spent on Upper Missouri-At Fort Peck.

Washington, March 23 .- Construction of an $4 million dollar upper Missouri river reservoir with a caing urged for inclusion in President Roosevelt's unemployment relief program, it was learned here today.

Conferences including former Govlooking after some business matters ernor Arthur Weaver of Nebraska; Rufus Lee of the Omaha Chamber of On last Wednesday, Mrs. Bryan Commerce; Secretary of War Dern, McDonald was a visitor in Platts-mouth, where she spent the day at chief of army engineers and others, the home of her parents, Mr. and have been held here the past three Mrs. E. W. Thimgan, and where she days with a view to securing incluand the parents enjoyed a very pleas- sion of the gigantic reservoir in the relief to be asked of this session of

In Montana.

The proposed reservoir would be located at Fort Peck, in eastern Monsouri a short distance above Milk river. It would impound 17 million acre feet of water, would have a height of 230 feet and would have concrete discharge tunnels and spill-

Proponents of the beginning of immediate construction of the huge reservoir state that this would not Missouri" and contribute greatly to a similar result on the Mississippi. but that the Missouri would be given the immensely profitable nine-foot The Royal Neighbors of America channel depth through virtually its entire length.

It is regarded by these backers as remaining charter members. A most 250 thousand unemployed left the excellent time was had. Those still door open for just such a project as

Seek Early Approval. It was anticipated others of those

We have hatching eggs from the been mentioned, however, will ask is confident of making normal, regu-In addition to the flood contro! is only $3 per hundred .- Mrs. A. D. and navigation features of this prom27-4M | ject, it is estimated in a confidential brief handed to Secretary Dern this week that a 400 thousand kilowatt lic debt. power plant having "a power value" connection with the project. Irrigation projects on which the government has already spent 65 milbig reservoir, it is also held.

This reservoir at Fort Peck is unrepaid for their trip. The only Cass derstood to be part of the Missouri ditures within the range of its incounty team participating in the big river system survey which has been state-wide meet, was Avcca, a Class conducted for several years by army dollar stumbling block. A heavy

CAUTIONS BARLEY GROWERS

Washington-Farmers were warn-John Kruger, Floyd Hite and Mr. over the prospect of increased barley on to save about 100 million dollars. of the 1933 crop as it did out of the of the crop.

Farmers have bombarded the deing of barley. Dr. Harlan warned fect .- World-Herald. have an opportunity to grow malting barley successfully.

behalf of stockholders.

Have to Get Up at Night? Deal Promptly with Bladder Irregularities

Are you bothered with bladder irregularities; burning, scanty or too frequent passage and getting up at night? Heed promptly these symptoms. They may warn of some dis-ordered kidney or bladder condition. Users everywhere rely on Doan's Pills. Recommended for 50 years. Sold everywhere.

Ask for Direct

Feels Need Best Can Be Met by Means of Bond Issue-Reverses Policy.

Roosevelt is prepared to authorize direct federal grants to states and municipalities if necessary to prevent human starvation.

Determined also to balance th lopsided government budget, he is going to ask relief funds for the crisis as a direct grant rather than a loan, feeling it would be impossible for ver policy. The direct relief proposal will go forward to congress shortly It is understood there are sufficient

Faces a Barrier. As for balancing the budget, the busy Mr. Roosevelt is giving careful attention to that problem now, and lar expenditures of the government come within the total of receipts. He not only wants to pay for regular government costs but to have some

He does not regard emergency appropriations to meet starvation needs scope of normal, regular government expenditures. He believes it justified rounds of play in the Nebraska state lion dollars would benefit from the to spread these costs over into more additional for retirement of the pub-prosperous times. To bring the government expencome, the president faces a billion mendous deficit.

Ponds Cost Cuts. ture, said that even if the country ing of 280 million dollars and posused as much barley for malting out sibly as much as 400 million dollars. It is probable the new government 1917 crop, when beer was legal, the salary scale will go into effect on the economy bill.

partment with inquiries. Many of heard before the new rates for com- company had cribs built in which to them hoped to transfer energies now pensation are fixed and it may be a store the corn purchased here. devoted to surplus crops to the grow- month or two before these go into ef- A check-up of the corn purchased ley, who was slashed by a strange York, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Wash- lion dollars, a reduction of more than

POOL FOR THE PRESIDENT

Washington .- The white house is next hearest got but 35,000. Prohibition failed to stop barley to have a swimming pool scon, but production. The 1932 crops of 300 the money won't come fro mile treas- amounts, while it entailed a great ant slashed her across the throat and would be legal despite the state enmillion bushels was much greater ury. A movement started by a news- deal of work, enabled farmers to sell fled. Mrs. Bromley recovered from a forcement act still on the books, since of warehousing facilities of the than in 1917. Most of it is grown paper of New York and joined by a small part of their crop and secure faint a few minutes later and told that act prohibits sale of liquor held Farmers' National Grain corporation, On Thursday of last week, the La- for feed. In 1917 the crop totaled thirty-one other papers has already necessary cash, while they could hold officers she caught only a glimpse of to be intoxicating by federal laws. dies Aid society of the Murdock 211 million bushels, about 72 mil- raised more than enough to construct back the rest for higher prices. church met at the home of their fel- lion bushels of which was used for a cement tank approximately 20 by The entire amount purchased will A car which Taylor said he stole president senate a note to Attorney the Kansas City area to 9,500,000 DOEHNY FACES DAMAGE SUIT papers began the campaign without arations, etc. suit is E. L. Doheny, multimillionaire that he feels a declination would and handle the grain. Fall and Doheny "combined, confed- them school children, who have conwas former head, filed the suit in accepted from the fund already chimney at the home of Mr. and Mrs. who armed themselves with pitch-sought to block any sales.—State year by virthe of a higher surtax

Alvo News

Mrs. Anderson, of Scandia, Kansas,

Frank L. Edwards was assisting at ness incident to the delivery of much corn last week. John D. Foreman and George Fore-day of last week.

the greater portion of which was roofing. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor were of last week, where they were called to look after some business matters for a time. Simon Rehmeier, accompanied by John Elliott, were over to Lincoln last Thursday evening, where they went to root for their favorite town Relief Grants in the state basketball tournament, which was on at that time. While working about the farm short distance north of town, E. D Friend had the misfortune to sustain was badly injured. He has not been

Election Next Week

after the chores at the farm.

Do not forget that the town and school elections will occur on Tuesday of next week, April 4th. As all The president believes that, if fed- the candidates are excellent men no eral money is required to meet hu- one should find it difficult to select the states or cities to repay such town board are R. M. Coatman, C. F. Rosenow, Walter Vincent and

Those who are nominees of the recent caucus for members of the board of education are Daniel Reuter. Elmer West, John Woods and P.

In both cases the voters will be called upon to elect two.

Settled Their Differences

Relative to the article in the Alvo department last week touching on the differences which John D. Foreman, of Lincoln, and his brother, George Foreman, of Alvo, had over pasturage for a couple of horses, the report published was to the effect this cereal as the weeks go by. This scanned the six pages, then folded The present salary of a judge of that the sheriff and deputy had gone is surely needed, as the product, like over the last one and reached for the circuit court of appeals is $12,to Lincoln for John D. Foreman. all other farm produce, has been sell-Whereas, so Mr. Foreman writes, ing away below cost of production. they only telephoned him, and with has attorney they went to Platts- and the whole country will enjoy mouth, where also George Foreman prosperity. was called by phone, and there the matter was settled.

Roads Far from Good

the next morning.

Did an Excellent Business

Simon Rehmeier was a business amount absorbed would be less than first of April. Cuts up to 15 per visitor in Omaha on last Monday injustice might be done to either of dock for some time, has added a stock a quarter of the annual production cent are allowed under the recent and while there was settling for the campaign of buying ear corn for the Veterans' representatives will be Miller Cereal Mills of that place. The > Rehmeier bought the greatest amount tify Ed Taylor, 31, of Evansville, by some 5,000 bushels, as he took in Ind., as her attacker.

40 feet where President Roosevelt be used by the Omaha concern in the at Billings, Mont., overturned with General Cummings asking a report bushels by leasing the Chicago and can take his exercise. The news- manufacture of breakfast food prep- him near Bartley the same night, on the status of federal prisoners Alton million-bushel terminal grain

Los Angeles .- A $12,600,000 dam- he is inclined to accept the fund for quite rapidly it looks like they used day Friday in thickets and corn fields preted as an andication of a presi- by the Kanses Co-operative Wheat frames for Mrs. O. J. Hitchcock, of age suit filed in United States dis- several reasons. One is that he does good judgment in securing a surplus to elude persons who were hunting dential intention to pardon or parole Marketing association, a stockholder Havelock, which they have well on trict court echoed the Albert B. Fall not want to take any money from supply, even though it has cost them him for the theft of a Bartley car, these prisoners. bribery case. The defendant in the the depleted treasury. Another is a considerable sum to provide cribs which he abandoned in the mud, he Edward B. Dunford, attorney for poration, Cole said.

Nearly Missed Breakfast

Orest Cook concluded to burn out. forks and shotguns.

Although the appetites were whetted up keen, the morning meal had to be deferred as there was danger of the destruction of another home by

The alarm was given and neighis here for a visit of a few days at bors were there in record breaking the home of her brother, Ole Oisen time, as well as the Alvo Fire department, which is a most efficient fire fighting organization, However, the elevator during the rush of busi- after the soot had burned from the chimney all was peace and quiet and breakfast could be eaten after the short delay. It was different with nan were shelling and delivering those who had come without lacing corn to the Rehmeier elevator Thurs- their shoes, for they had to go back home for breakfast. Art Dinges legalizing both the amber brew and Roy Coatman was over to Lincoln claims he had been up for half an one day last week for a truck load of hour before the alarm was sounded tent became law with the signature goods for the Banning lumber yard, and had his shoes laced up and tied.

Wm. Stewart Much Better The many friends of William over to Weeping Water on Tuesday Stewart, who was stricken a few weeks ago as he arose in the morning, are pleased to know that this gentleman is making good progress, President Garner had affixed his sigand is able to hear what his friends nature to the legislation to send it say to him, although he cannot as yet talk. It is hoped he will soon be in his former good health.

> Accepts Creamery Agency C. W. Jewell, the caterer, who conducts the cafe, has accepted the agency of the Borden Creamery a fall and as a result his right arm Creamery company, of Omaha, has partitioned off a portion of his room Washington, March 24.—President so he could work during the great- at the cafe and provided a room for er portion of last week. During the the testing of cream, and it seems time he was laid up, his brother, that the new agency, which makes James Friend went out and looked the third for this city, will afford all who sell cream an opportunity to be rather discriminating on the delivery of their cream.

Entertains Class Mates

Miss Dorothy Greer, daughter of Henry Creer, who is a student at the schools of Alvo, entertained last Friday night at the home of her father, northwest of town, where the mem-The nominees for members of the bers of the class enjoyed a most til the midnight hour has struck on pleasant evening.

Enjoyed the Afternoon

The ladies of the city of Alvo were guests at the home of Mrs. Soren Petersen on last Thursday, at which time they enjoyed a most pleasant social afternoon, as with nimble fingers they worked at their tasks and chat- measure was at the white house, ted. Lunch was served before the President Roosevelt walked across time came for departure.

over 17, which is a very good ad- who was seated at his regular place He said he probably would make vance for the term and it looks like at the head of the long narrow table. a statement Friday indicating his atthere might be further upturn in Get the farmer back on his feet

ARTICLE IN ERROR

In the Alvo items appearing Mon This was experienced by the writ- day in the Journal an article appearwhack at existing costs is to be the er, for he found some almost im- ed covering an alleged dispute befirst move in eliminating this tre- passable and some better but not any tween George Foreman of that place too good. Being warned by friends and his brother, John D. Foreman not to try to negotiate the road that of Lincoln. Mr. John Foreman was Reorganization of the departments leads east out of Alvo, last Thursday, not arrested by Sheriff Sylvester or ed against uncontrolled enthusiasm on a wholesale scale is counted up- we went via Eagle and found the Deputy Sheriff Lancaster and came going fair. Ted McCartnet had the here of his own accord to attend the consumption in the wake of Presi-Reduction of salaries is looked to for misfortune to get his car mired in hearing of a complaint that had been dent Roosevelt's approval of the beer another 120 million dollars. A trim- the soft mud and was stuck for a filed by the brother. In the hearing bill. Dr. H. V. Harlan, barley spec- ming down in veterans' allowances time, leaving his car for the night. on the matter the complaint was disis expected to yield a minimum sav- The county tractor got the car out missed. There was no question raised as to the ownership of the horses which Mr. Foreman had come to Alvo to secure and take to Lincoln.

We make this correction that no

CAN'T IDENTIFY ATTACKER

at different points shows that Mr. man Thursday night, failed to iden-ington and Wisconsin.

The buying of this corn in small Cristo roms, Mrs. Bromley's assail- judgment was that sale of the brew a "tall man with very white eyes." With the legislation a law, the its storage and handling facilities in

Journal.

First Sales of Brew Can Start as April 6 Ends

Fourish of Pen by President Roosevelt Dooms Ban on Light Liquor -Drys Plan Counter Attack

Washington .- With smiles, the Roosevelt administration formally authorized sale of beer. The bill wine of 3.2 percent alcoholic conof President Roosevelt at 2 p. m.

"And I nope you got the smile a the end," he remarked to photo graphers who recorded the signing it grin himself an hour earlier, Vice from congress to the white house.

Fifteen days hence-or after midnight on April 6-the beer may be sold in the fourteen states permitting it. The midnight hour applies to the eastern time belt. Sales may begin Expected to Accept and Will Be at 9 o'clock that night on the Pacific coast, for instance. But the prohibitionists were already at work on plans to halt the beer flow by court setion. Some were considering seek- Roosevelt Thursday offered to Aring an injunction. Others were pre- thur Mullen of Nebraska a place on paring to speed the case to the su- the federal circuit court bench for preme court for a ruling whether it the Eighth district. violated the constitutional mandate just as busy to make sure of the believed certain. enforcement. They ruled that the new beverage must be kept within letter to Mullen, whom he addressed the breweries or on the premises un- as "Dear Arthur:" April 6. Trucks may then go their way and early morning celebrations will be legal so far as the federal government is concerned.

Enactment Is Simple.

The act authorizing beer became a law in a scene as simple as it was brief. Informed that the enrolled the hall from his office to the cabinet room where moving picture newspapermen "I greatly appreciate photographers had set up their ma- the honor and distinction in receiv-Corn, which has sold as low as 11 chines. Stephen T. Early, a secre- ing this offer from President Roosecents here, is now quoted as being tary, handed the bill to the president, velt." With pen in hand, Mr. Roosevelt titude.

He used four pens in completing If Mullen accepts the appointment his signature. He directed that these he will take the place of Judge Arba be given to the American Federation S. Van Valkenburgh of Kansas City, of Labor and the American Legion, Mo., who recently retired, and will which organization had advocated be the first Nebraskan to serve on the legislation; to Representative the United States circuit bench. Cullen of New York, author of the The present judges are Kimbrough bill; and to Senator Harrison, who Stone of Kansas City, Mo., William S. as chairman of the finance commit- Kenyon of Fort Dodge, Ia., Wilbur tee guided the measure thru the sen- F. Booth of Minneapolis, Minn., and by a president in sending new legis- usually sits in St. Louis or Minnealation to cabinet officers before sign- polis. ing again was dispensed with by Mr. Roosevelt. He is counting on about braska, Iowa, Missouri, Arkansas, 125 millions annually in revenue South Dakota, North Dakota and from the tax on the brew and wine Minnesota .- Omaha Bee-News. and he didn't lose a minute in making it law. A tax of five dollars on each barrel of thirty-one gallons is levied; also federal license fees of $1,000 will be required annually from today, it was stated that even though each brewery; $50 from each whole- the house passed legislation reducing the following fourteen states as soon nor. as legalized: Arizona, California, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Missouri, of state government for the coming McCook, Neb .- Mrs. Mary Brom- Montana, Nevada, New Jersey, New blennium from 43 million to 25 mil-cut, if an opinion expressed by Ken- Bryan, something over 40,000, while the Without a word, after she discov- neth Wynne, executive secretary to ered him at the rear of the Monte Governor Cross, is followed. His and Taylor was terribly burned over convicted of beer sales which would elevator at Kansas City. The Chicago the chief executive's knowledge, but And with the price now going up the face and hands. Hiding out all now be legal. The move was inter- and Alton elevator was formerly held stole another car Saturday morning the Anti-Saloon league of America and left Bartley with a posse after announced immediately after the erated and conspired to defraud the tributed generously to the fund. Just as the ham and eggs and oth-United States to bring about leases Then, too, the president since he er delicious viands were steaming next seen in the rough canyon countries arise." knock home runs for the New York for the private gain of Fall and Do- took office has keenly missed the and the coffee pot was sending forth try near Oxford. Sheriff McClain Dr. Clarence True Wilson of the Yankees at a salary of $52,000. Inheny." William C. McDuffie, receiver form of exercise best suited to him. its delightful aroma that called the took up the chase, but while he was Methodist Episcopal board of temin equity for the Pan-American Pe- The pool now planned will cost about family to gather around the break- searching the canyon, Taylor was perance and public morals previously been over $2,000, a good share of troleum company, of which Doheny $10,000, which is all that will be fast table for the morning meal, the cornered in a haystack by farmers has asserted an injunction will be which will go for income tax next

Expect Millions Revenue.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT

Spring is Here!

-and so are our new Spring Sweaters. . . . Sweaters with sleeves, and no sleeves; turtle neck and "V" neck.

Boys' - - 69¢ Men's - - 89¢ and $1

'Quality by Munsing' assures you of the highest grade to be had anywhere.

Mullen Offered Circuit Judge Place on Bench

First Nebraskan on Circuit Court of U. S.

Mullen was floor manager for against sale of intoxicating bever-Roosevelt at the Chicago convention and is national committeeman for Federal officers charged with ad- Nebraska. He is here now and his ministration of the new law were acceptance of the President's offer is

Mr. Roosevelt sent the following

"I hope very much that you will permit me to name you as United States circuit judge for the Eighth district where, I understand, a vacancy exists. "Not only because of my long friendship for you but also because of my personal knowledge of your fine public spirit and your ability. I feel that you are eminently qualified to become a member of this distinguished court."

Mullen, at his hotel here, told 500 a year.

Archibald K. Gardner of Aberdeen, S. D. The headquarters of the judges The usual formalities employed are in their home cities, but the court

The eighth circuit includes Ne-

SENATE TO STAND BY BRYAN

In the legislative halls at Lincoln saler and $20 from every retailer. the Eryan budget, as contemplated, The beer and wine may be sold in the senate will stand by the gover-

The house bill would cut the cost 40 per cent and considerable in ex-It may be sold also in Connecti- cess of the cuts recommended by

CO-OPERATIVE ADDS SPACE

of the Farmers' National Grain cor-

signing that the constitutionality of is settled for another year. Babe rating.