Games were enjoyed and a program was had, while the ladies furnished refreshments consisting of sandwiches, fruit, jellies and milk. Among the numerous enjoyable features provided was an Easter egg hunt, that proved more difficult than might be surmised.

Barn Damaged by Fire The barn of Eugene Roddy was badly damaged by a fire which occurred last Saturday and which had gotten a good start before the alarm was given. The fire department was there in a short time, however, and after a few minutes had the fire out, but not until considerable damage had been done. It was thought the ignition might have been caused by bonfires, as there seemed no other cause for the blaze.

Enjoyed Easter Breakfast The members of the Baptist church enjoyed an Easter breakfast at the church basement, which is an excellent dining room, they breakfasting there at sunrise and with the very fine sociability and communion they all enjoyed a very fine time.

Easter Sociability Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Becker entertained at their home in Union for the day and at a very fine dinner on Easter Sunday, having as guests Mr. and Mrs. Ray Becker, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ehlers and while they were not expecting Mrs. Mary Havenridge because of her membership in the choruses of the Methodist church at Omaha, when the morning train came, Mary was there, for she said she could not think of foregoing the pleasure of meeting with the parents on Easter day. A very pleasant time was had by all.

A Double Wedding Anniversary The friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Fletcher and Mr. and Mrs. S. W. True succeeded very neatly in surprising them last Sunday, April 16, on the occasion of their double wedding anniversary, when they gathered at the Fletcher home in Union, bringing with them everything necessary for an occasion such as this. A total of 54 people were present.

At noon a very delicious feast was spread and happy hours of reunion among old friends were enjoyed until a late hour. Many young people made new acquaintances and renewed old ones.

Nearly every available seat was occupied and all were especially pleased with the very fine discourse which was conducted by the Rev. Pangborn.

Paving to Begin Soon The preliminary work incidental to the actual beginning of paving work on the O street highway, is being looked after now and includes such details as laying the water pipes to feed the mixers, stringing of the forms and reinforcing steel along the route and getting the roadbed well smoothed down and ready for the concrete.

It is said paving work will begin at the section line a mile east of the Nehawka corner and from there the work will proceed both ways. This being the case, it should take but a comparatively short time to get the several miles of concrete ribbon laid and ready to travel over.

Will Grow Chickens

Glen Rutledge has purchased a large flock of baby chicks of the celebrated strain of American and English White Leghorns, which have made W. F.
