

Often Overlooked

LEAKY gaskets are often overlooked as a cause of hard-starting motors. Yet a leaky cylinder-head or intake-manifold gasket can handicap a motor in starting—and in running—to a great extent. Better let us check over your gaskets—it's inexpensive to replace them.

Bible School Lesson Study!

Sunday, April 30

By L. Neitzel, Murdock, Neb.

"Jesus Sets New Standard of Living"
Mark 10:13-27.

We are approaching fast to the end of Christ's ministry, only five months more and the cross is in sight. Having finished his work in Galilee, he turns east, crossing over Jordan, south of the sea of Galilee, he enters Perea. This part had never been visited by Jesus.

Luke gives us our account of the events of this ministry up to the time of our lesson. They include the sending forth of seventy traveling evangelists; many rich discourses especially the parables of the good Samaritans, the great supper, the lost sheep, the lost piece of silver, the prodigal son (the crown of all parables) the unjust steward, the rich man and Lazarus, the Pharisee and the publican.

The opening verses of our lesson also formed part of Christ's teaching in Perea. The Pharisees came with a tempting question regarding divorce. Jesus saw the trap laid for him, and did not give a direct answer, but let Moses answer it whom they believed. God never intended for man and wife to ever be separated. Adam got the intent of God's mind when he said: "This is now bone of my bone, and flesh of my flesh: She shall be called woman, because she was taken out of man. Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife; and they shall be one flesh." Gen. 2: 27, 28. Moses allowed a divorce only by proven adultery of either man or wife, but no remarriage. The children are the chief sufferers from the breaking up of a home, caused by divorce. So that it is most suitable that our Lord's clearest and most blessed teaching concerns childhood should come next in the account. "And they were bringing unto him, little children, that he should touch them." They—mothers and friends—bring them. Some were infants. Not touching them because they were sick, but to bestow a blessing. It cannot be too strongly emphasized, the bringing of children to Jesus. We believe in early conversion of children.

They do not have to go in the wrong paths first; their tender hearts should become early the temple of the Holy Ghost. Children consecrated to God are under special care of Him. Children are the gift of God. "Children are an heritage of the Lord." Ps. 127:3. They are jewels entrusted to our care, for which parents are held responsible; God will demand them some day. Not all children are brought to Jesus. Many parents take them to places where Jesus can be found, he would not go there. Even some churches will not welcome chil-

Ed and Dorothy were over to Plattsmouth on last Sunday evening where they were enjoying a movie at the Ritz theater.

A. L. Croser of the Garage of Murray was a visitor in Omaha on last Tuesday where he was looking after some business matters.

Edward Mutz, who has been operating the Rock Creek oil station at the Murray Corners for some time past moved last week into the Murray Hotel.

Mrs. Wm. Sporer and Miss Bertha Nickles were over to Plattsmouth on last Monday where they were looking after some business matters for a short time.

Wm. Obernaulte of Nehawka, was a visitor in Murray on Monday of this week and was looking after some business matters for a short time at the Murray lumber yard.

Eugene Fitch was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth on Tuesday morning and on his return stopped at Murray, also to look after some business.

Thomas Nelson and W. E. Mackey were called to Weeping Water on last Monday evening to look after some business matters, they driving over in the car of Mr. Hanson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Mackey and son Edward and Dorothy Yost were over to Shenandoah last Sunday where they were enjoying the visit at the two broadcasting stations.

Joseph Staska is having the home painted and beautified, believing it the best to keep the home well painted as that is a good insurance. M. G. Churchill, the painter, is doing the work.

Albert A. Young was making some small buildings at the lumber yard on Tuesday of this week, finding it more convenient to work there than at the place where the building was to be used.

Ira B. Green who built the home for Mrs. Fred Hanni and which he has now well along, was a visitor for over the week end at his home at Randolph, Iowa, returning during this week to complete the work.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nicklas and wife were home for over the week end from Friday until Sunday night and were looking after some business. They were expecting to move back home last week but did not get to do so.

C. F. Harris of Union was a visitor in Murray on last Tuesday morning looking after some business matters and while he drove over in his car was not feeling very well, as he is having trouble with his heart and has to take matters very slowly.

Ladies Give Shower.

Mrs. Ella Parker and Miss Marie Lutz gave a very pleasant miscellaneous shower on last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lutz in honor of Mrs. Leonard Lutz at which there were some fifty young people in attendance and a most pleasant afternoon was had by all present. The many good wishes which were extended to the bride were accompanied by each a lovely present and which will assist in the housekeeping when they shall move to themselves in the course of a few weeks.

Will Be Ready.

Phillip Keil will be in readiness on the coming Monday to begin the planting of his corn and whether he will do so or not depends much on the weather. He believes in being ready and also in having the corn in early and whenever the time comes that the ground is warm enough and the weather right the planting will begin.

Picnic at King Hill.

A party of young people went over to King Hill on last Sunday afternoon and taking some eats with them in the shape of wafers and buns, spent the afternoon and evening there where they all enjoyed a very fine time. Those there for the occasion Earl Mrasek, Miss Florence Schultz, Ruth and Vivian, Herb Allen, Dale A. Hanssen, Sheldon and Pauline Smith and Gwendolyn Hansen.

Will Decide on Building.

There has been arranged a meeting at the Presbyterian church on May 8th, when the matter of making a decision as to the manner of a building which district No. 56 will build to replace the one which was burned down several months ago. The matter will be discussed pro and con. If you are interested in the public schools and the town of Murray, better be at the meeting and have your say, or forever hold your peace.

Christian Aid Society.

The Aid society meets at the church May 3rd. Mrs. William Sporer, Mrs. Martin Sporer and Mrs. Charles Carroll are the hostesses. Mrs. George Parks is the leader. She is having a Mother's Day program. Everybody welcome.

Murray Study Club.

The Murray Study club met at the home of Mrs. J. F. Brendel on April 20th. The rain kept a number of the members from attending. There were 17 members present. After roll call election of officers was held: President, Mrs. John Ferris; vice-president, Mrs. Glen Boedeker; secretary, Mrs. R. W. Tyson.

The ladies voted to study Series 13 for next year. All the old members present and one new one joined for another year. The salute to the flag was given and songs were sung "Love's Old Sweet Song" and "My Nebraska." The president, Mrs. Spangler, then turned the meeting over to Mrs. Guy Wiles who had charge of the lesson subject, "Children's Income." Mrs. Leyda and her assistant, Mrs. Geo. Park, gave papers on the subject. The subject for the week was "Short Cuts on Housecleaning." Mrs. Park had charge of this subject. She gave a number of suggestions, then asked each member to give some of their ideas along this line. There were a number of different ways given to help along with housecleaning.

The guests of the club were Mrs. Fred Drucker, Mrs. Margaret Todd and Mrs. Will Seybold.

Replace old rubber now

THERE'S no doubt about it—old tires and hot weather just don't go together. The first real hot spell will prove this fact. The roadsides will be lined with cars that tried to squeeze the last nickel's worth of mileage out of thin, weak tires. You can buy Goodyear All-Weathers—better now in quality than ever before—the world's best-known and best-liked tires—at prices which have never been as low as they are today!

Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Brendel and her associate hostesses, Mrs. Betty Barrows and Mrs. Metta Mainul. Richard Brendel then favored the ladies with a solo number that was greatly enjoyed.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Harry Todd, May 18th.—Club Reporter.

Murray Christian Church.

C. Loyd Shubert, minister.
Sunday school attendance 71; a year ago 65; morning worship 55; evening worship 60; Senior C. E. 13; Intermediate C. E. 12; Junior C. E. 17.

Our largest Sunday school class was the Loyal Circle or young peoples' class, eighteen being present. The next largest class was the Bible class, 14 present.

The Intermediate C. E. acted out a little illustration, in accordance with the evening sermon, which was very impressive.

We will not have preaching services until three weeks from last Sunday instead of two weeks. Then we will have services two Sundays in succession. The reason of this change is because our minister can't be here the 7th of May.

EX-G. A. E. HEAD, THOMAS SMITH, DIES

Lincoln, Neb., April 23.—Thomas J. Smith, 87, past department commander of the G. A. R. and pioneer Nebraska publisher, died at his home here today. He had lived in Lincoln for four years, coming here from McCook.

Smith came to Nebraska in 1887, and started the Knox County News. He also had newspapers in early days at Long Pine, Ainsworth, Keya Paha county, O'Neill and at Cripple Creek, Colo.

He is survived by his widow and three daughters. Funeral services will be held here Monday and the body will be taken to McCook for burial.

Seventeen Paving Projects in State This Year

Work Already Started on Several Projects With Aid of United States Money.

Lincoln, Neb.—Work will have started on nearly all of the 17 paving projects to be completed this year within the next week, State Engineer Roy Cochran said. Gangs already are at work on a number of these paving jobs.

In addition to the 17 paving projects, work is to be completed this year on 140 miles of grading, 70 miles of gravel surfacing and 43 miles of bituminous mat and oiled sand surfacing. Contracts for this construction were let in 1932 or early this year and the cost is being paid for largely out of federal money.

Projects Started.

Paving projects started last fall and summer, which are to be completed this year, follow:

On U. S. Highway No. 6, between Holdrege and Axtell, four miles to be constructed, two miles having been completed.

On No. 30, between Lexington and Cosad, 12 miles to be constructed, two and one-half miles completed.

On No. 6, between Milford and Dorchester, 11 miles to be constructed, four miles completed.

On No. 77, between Lincoln and Beatrice, 19 miles to be constructed, two miles completed.

New Paving Jobs.

The following paving projects are those on which no part of the paving was completed during 1932:

On U. S. Highway No. 73, two miles north of Falls City and one mile south of Falls City.

On No. 75, two miles north of Auburn.

On No. 30, 15½ miles between Alda and Wood River.

On No. 2, six miles of paving from Union west.

On No. 77, nine miles of paving between Fremont and Hooper.

On No. 73, one-half mile of paving on north edge of Blair.

On No. 2, one mile on west edge of Seward.

On No. 30, one and one-half miles between Columbus and Duncan.

On No. 8, two miles between Norfolk and Stanton.

On No. 30, one mile on east edge of Sidney.

On No. 20, four and one-half miles between Jackson and Waterbury.

On No. 83, one mile south of Alma.

On No. 30, one and one-half mile on west edge of Maxwell.

WILL DIRECT MUSIC

The forty-fourth annual state convention of the P. E. O. Sisterhood of Nebraska, is to be held at Lincoln on May 4-5-6, one of the largest conventions that the society has held being planned. The music of the convention and the song leading will be under the direction of Mrs. Jack Figley of this city, formerly Miss Edith Mays of Wahoo, one of the well known vocalists of the state.

A number of the local members of P. E. O. will be in attendance at the sessions and to meet the supreme president, Mrs. Zora Y. Knight.

SOCIAL WORKERS MEET

The Social Workers of the Methodist church met Tuesday afternoon at the parsonage with Mrs. C. O. Troy as hostess and Mrs. E. G. Sheltenbarger as the associate hostess.

At the close of the business meeting an interesting and pleasing program was given and which was enjoyed very much by all of the party. Miss Anna May Sandin was heard in a vocal number, "Mission of a Rose," the accompaniment by Miss Cora Williams. Miss Virginia Samek gave a very artistic piano number and John Kenneth Bestor gave two readings, "The Morning Call" and "Angelina Johnson," both well presented.

At the close of the afternoon dainty and delicious refreshments were served to add to the pleasures of the event.

MRS. JUDD IN THE ASYLUM

Phoenix, Ariz.—Winnie Ruth Judd came back to Phoenix, where she killed her two friends, Agnes Anne Lerol and Hedvig Samuelson. Mrs. Judd saw few things to remind her of that tragedy, however, before the doors of the Arizona state hospital for insane swallowed her. The hospital will be Mrs. Judd's prison for the rest of her life, unless she is found to be sane again, in which case she still could be hanged.
