

Weeping Water

Mrs. Andrew Olsen has been having a new roof placed on the home by an Omaha roofing firm.

Frank Doty was loading out two cars of wheat and one of corn at the Weeping Water elevator on last Tuesday.

Jack Williams, of Lincoln, accompanied by Mrs. Williams, were visiting with friends in Weeping Water on last Sunday.

C. J. Elgaard was called to Omaha on last Saturday to look after some business matters, driving over to the big town in his auto.

C. Wally Johnson and wife were in Greenwood last Sunday, where they were enjoying a visit with some friends and a very fine dinner.

Victor Wallick has been having some repair work and changing done on his home, thus making it the better, as well as more convenient.

Oris Schliefert, of west of Manley, was a business visitor in Weeping Water on last Tuesday and was also meeting with his many friends.

Chris Rasmussen, one of the assessors, was over to Plattsmouth on last Tuesday, where he was called to look after some business matters.

A. J. Patterson, judge, was looking after some business matters in Omaha on Monday of this week, driving over to the big city in his car.

Peter Spangler, having some business matters in Omaha to claim his attention, drove to the city, stopping at Murray and Plattsmouth en route.

Miss Mayme Hillman was a visitor in Omaha on last Saturday, where she was looking after some purchases for the cafe which she conducts here.

Henry Michelsen and family, of Omaha were here on last Sunday to visit at the home of Elmer Michelsen and family, the gentlemen being brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Michelsen were over to Omaha on Tuesday, at which place they were looking after some business and purchasing goods for the store here.

Attorney Clarence E. Tefft and wife were in Lincoln last Monday, where they were visiting with friends and Mr. Tefft was also looking after some legal matters.

Henry McWilliams and family, of Omaha, were guests of Weeping Water friends for the week-end, driving down last Sunday and enjoying a very fine visit here.

Charles H. Gibson has been having his coupe changed into a light truck for the purpose of making deliveries from his grocery store and thus affording much better service.

Miss Isabel Wiles, of Plattsmouth, was a business visitor in Weeping Water on Tuesday of this week, and also was a visitor at the home of her sister, Mrs. William Spangler.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry McGill and Miss Bonnie Chandler, of Elmwood, were visiting in Weeping Water on last Tuesday, being guests of friends as well as doing some shopping.

Knude Jensen has purchased a new Chevrolet car, getting it from Wahoo. The car was driven to Weeping Water by Mr. O. A. Anderson, and the old one taken to Wahoo.

Elmer Michelsen and Sam Baker, who have been constructing a garage at the Michelsen home, have completed the building and it is now doing duty housing the car of Elmer.

Fred H. Gorder was a visitor in Plattsmouth for the past three days of this week, when he and other members of the county board were looking after the business of the county.

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Kahn were visiting with friends and relatives at Elmwood last Sunday, while Mr. Kahn was enjoying a brief rest from his work at the bake shop. They drove over in their car.

Uncle Dennis Phillips has been improving his home by the papering of several rooms, thus taking an advance step to make Weeping Water better and also give employment to more people. Who will follow his example?

Mrs. Rachel Noyes, who has been making her home in Colorado with her daughter, Mrs. Elwin Hunter, arrived in Weeping Water last Monday and has been visiting with her friend, Mrs. Joan Carter. On Tuesday she was a guest of her old friend, Mrs. George Olive.

Duane Garrison was over to Plattsmouth on last Saturday, where Duane signed up with the officers in charge of recruiting men for the reforestation program which is now being undertaken to give employment to the young men with dependents. Duane expects to serve either as a truck driver or a mechanic.

Miss Helen Norton, the efficient and genial clerk in the office of the county agent, having had trouble with her tonsils for some time, has recently had them removed, being out of the office for some two weeks, but expects soon to be able to return to her work, as the improvement in her throat is now most satisfactory.

Pleased with Better Business
With the completion of the changing of the room and equipment at the Johnson Cafe, Mr. C. Wally Johnson has observed that the business has greatly increased and he is greatly pleased with the same. Mr. Johnson attributes the better business to his better equipment and the fine appointments provided at the new place, but says part of it is undoubtedly due to the fact that business conditions are improving. The month of April was better than he has enjoyed for more than a year, from the standpoint of receipts, and he is ready to join in the statement that "Times are getting better all around."

Providing Much Employment
Ole Olsen, the stone man, and he is surely handling a lot of stone just now, both at Weeping Water and at the new quarry at Nehawka, is soon to have some fifteen men working in Weeping Water and loading three cars per day, while at Nehawka he is getting out six cars and will also crush three cars per day for the paving which extends westward from Highway 75 on the O street road to a point a few miles west of Nehawka.

The added employment thus provided is doing a lot to help drive depression out.

Attended State Contest
Miss Cora Williams, music director in the Plattsmouth schools, acted as sponsor for the three who won in the county contest, two at Plattsmouth, and Master Duane Harman, of Weeping Water. They were driven to Kearney by Miss Betty Wolcott in her big car.

Broke Down the Gate
In order to keep the public from trespassing on his property, where he conducts a cream station, and cutting across the back yard, Peter H. Miller had a substantial gate erected to keep the public out, but someone who had become contaminated with hooch, went inside and finding the gate in the way, took some large chunks of stovewood and broke down the gate, causing considerable loss to Mr. Miller. Mr. Miller says he is going to stop this kind of action, or he will send the entire gang to jail.

Making a Large Fish Pool
Arthur H. Jones, the popular barber, has been having a large fish and lily pool built, which is to be sixty by twenty feet, and which besides being stocked with excellent fish is also to have every kind of water flowers. Mr. Jones has been assisted in the framing of the plans for the gigantic pool, which is to grace the south side of Weeping Water, by Earl W. Towle and Bert Jamison. When the pool is completed, go and see how their designs have been worked into the beautifying of the home.

District Meeting, I. O. O. F.
The lodges of the seventh district of the state of Nebraska, which is composed of the lodges at Weeping Water, Nehawka, Avoca and Elmwood, were meeting in Weeping Water this week, with a large number of delegates and visitors present.

The afternoon meeting was called to order at 2:30, with W. L. Hobson presiding. The opening invocation was pronounced by the Rev. E. S. Pangborn, pastor of the Methodist church. The address of welcome was delivered by the Rev. Ralph Pinkham, pastor of the Congregational church, followed by a vocal number by the sextette of young ladies of the Weeping Water high school. After this came a trumpet solo.

A banquet was provided by the Daughters of Rebekah at the Methodist church, in the early evening. With the reconvening of the meeting, addresses were made by Martin Ross, of the Nehawka lodge; Elmer J. Halstrom of Avoca lodge; W. D. Skeen, of the Elmwood lodge, and Cyrus Livingston, of the Weeping Water lodge. This was followed by a degree team from Elmwood putting on the degree work in a most perfect manner. At the conclusion of the meeting, a lunch was served at the Methodist church.

Aged Woman Buried Here
Mrs. Susan Wright, 83 years of age, died at Lincoln last week and was buried here on last Saturday.

The funeral was held at Lincoln, and the remains brought here for interment. This woman was not known here, but was the mother of a Mr. Wright, of Omaha, who expects to make his home here and so had his mother laid to rest here.

Masonic Lodge No. 97 Elects
On last Monday evening at the meeting of Euclid lodge No. 97 of the Masonic order, following the transaction of other business, officers were elected for the ensuing year, as follows:

lows: Earnest Norris, Worshipful Master; R. P. Hobson, Senior Warden; Fred Carsten, Junior Warden; Frank J. Domingo, treasurer, and Victor Wallick, secretary. These men should make a most efficient set of officers. They will take office after the meeting of the grand lodge in June.

SCOUT COURT OF HONOR
From Tuesday's Daily
Last evening the Boy Scout court of honor was held at the high school gymnasium and with a large number of the Scouts in attendance as well as parents and friends of the young men and boys.

The traditional Scout campfire was in evidence and around which the members formed while the beautiful and impressive candle lighting ceremony was carried out by the boys and the officers.

On this occasion, one of the local troop, Francis M. Libershal, was advanced to the rank of Eagle Scout, the highest honor that can come to the troop members, it being given as the award of the long and faithful services in the work and activities of the Scouts. The presentation of the Eagle award was made by William A. Robertson.

The merit badges and awards were presented by various members of the committee and citizens who were present to assist Scoutmaster Russell Reeder in the conduct of the court.

The presentation of the first class merits was made by Searl S. Davis, those of the second class by W. F. Evers and the tenderfoot merits were presented by E. H. Westcott.

Three were admitted as tenderfoot Scouts, Warren Reed, James Webb and Donald Burcham.

There were a large number advanced to the rank of second class Scouts, Phillip Rosencrans, Billy Rosencrans, Keith Miller, George Mark, Bill Jensen, Donald Cotner, Burton Rishel, Bob Taylor, Edwin Kalina, William Highfield, William Evers.

Those who were advanced to the rank of first class Scouts included Ordeil Hennings, Stephen Davis and John Rishel.

The merit badges given out were: James Robertson, four; Floyd McCarty, two; Donald Cotner, one; Stephen Davis, three; Herbert Minor, five; Ordeil Hennings, two; Henry Guy McMaken, one; William Carey, one.

The Scouts have a drum corps that was founded through the activity of James Farnham and Anton Bajack and which is fast developing into one of the live organizations of the city and a most valuable community asset.

CEDAR CREEK PROJECT CLUB
The Cedar Creek project club met Tuesday, April 25th, at the home of Mrs. William Knutson, with Mrs. Ralph Meisinger and Mrs. Hans Franke, assistant hostesses. There was an election of officers for the coming year, resulting as follows: Mrs. William Knutson, president; Mrs. Arthur Meisinger, vice president; Mrs. Oliver Schneider, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Urvin Meisinger, social leader; Mrs. August Kaffenberger and Mrs. Victor Stoehr, project leaders.

We also had one new member join that day, Mrs. George Schroeder.

The club also held a handkerchief shower on Mrs. Raymond Lohnes, who is leaving Cedar Creek for her new home at Johnson, Nebr. We regret having to lose Mrs. Lohnes as a member of our club. After the business meeting, the study period was turned over to the leaders, the lesson being on "Recreation in the Home and Community." After the games were played, a fine lunch was served by the hostesses.

Knights of Columbus Elect J. Fitzpatrick

100 Delegates and 150 Guests Attend Last Session—Support of Government Is Urged.

John E. Fitzpatrick, Omaha, was elected state deputy of the Nebraska state council, Knights of Columbus, at the close of the twenty-ninth annual meeting, Monday night at the Cornhusker hotel at Lincoln. A dancing party was the final feature.

About 100 delegates and 150 guests attended the sessions of the day. Other new officers are: Dr. L. A. Donahoe, Sidney, secretary; Dr. John G. Krim, Beatrice, treasurer; Paul P. Chaney, Lincoln, advocate; R. J. Frey, Hastings, warden. The chaplain is to be appointed later. Delegates to the national convention are: Rev. Father Latsch, Crofton; Paul B. Collins, David City; John E. Sullivan, Greeley. A convention city for the next meeting was not selected. It will be chosen later by the officers.

Routine business and the adoption of resolutions occupied the greater portion of the group's time Monday afternoon. Included among the resolutions was one in which the group declared that they as Catholics and intelligent men should place their reliance upon God rather than upon "politicians."

The second resolution condemned any groups or actions taken, however worthy, in which force or coercion were used in preference to lawful processes, and requested members to abstain from any such groups or activities. The members of the group were also asked to abstain from radical statements or acts, and to support the president of the United States and the government.

Promotion of the "retreat" program of the organization, in which members retire from ordinary activities for a time for spiritual communion with God, was urged. The organization also condemned the tendency toward trashy literature prevalent upon some newsstands and asked the membership to support only those publications standing for moral and decent living.

RIVER-VIEW HOLDS MEETING
Another successful meeting was held by River-View club, at the home of Mrs. Henry Kuhns, on April 25.

The meeting was opened by the members singing "My Nebraska," and some of the songs given in lesson. The leaders discussed the lesson, "Recreation in the Home and Community."

A business meeting followed the discussion, after which the election of officers for the coming year was held. Those elected were as follows:

President—Mrs. Robert Patterson. Vice President—Mrs. Nottelman. Secretary-Treasurer—Mrs. Kuhns. Leaders—Mrs. Georgia Creamer and Mrs. H. L. Gayer. Social Leader—Mrs. George Brinklow. Reporter—Mrs. Greeley Bell. Organist—Mrs. George Brinklow.

Plans were made for several social affairs. The first of which is a pinochle party at Mrs. Brinklow's. Plans were made also for social meetings during the summer months. After the business meeting the members staged some games, drills and stunts on the front lawn, the musical accompaniment being played by little Miss Jordan Kuhns on the victrola.

A delicious lunch was then served by the hostess assisted by her mother, Mrs. Slagle and sister, Mrs. Ganaway.

The next meeting will be held on May 25th at the Nottelman home.
