

Weeping Water

Earl Murdock has been constructing some hog houses to better care for the broods which are coming to this farm almost daily.

Judge A. J. Patterson was hauling corn from the home of Miller Christensen to the Farmers elevator on Tuesday afternoon of this week.

Mrs. Sterling Amick is at Plattsmouth, where she is caring for her mother, Mrs. Charles Engelkemeier, who has been sick for some time.

Edward Lauritzen, manager of the Weeping Water elevator, was called to Omaha on last Tuesday afternoon to look after some business matters.

John W. Murdock, of near Nehawka, was a visitor in Weeping Water and was looking after some business matters here for a short time.

John Mockenhaupt, of west of Manley, was a visitor in Weeping Water and was looking after some business matters for a short time on last Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lubring recently moved to a house by themselves and are now keeping house. Mr. Lubring is employed in the Olsen stone quarry at Nehawka.

The Handy Filling station received a car of gas last Saturday that was unloaded at once and again on Tuesday of this week another one, showing that they are doing a good business.

Westley W. Davis has been building an addition to his home in Weeping Water. The lumber has been secured from the Binger Lumber company, with Mr. Davis doing the work himself.

A fire occurred at the home of Irl Markland on last Tuesday morning, originating in a brooder house. The fire department responded soon after the alarm was given and quickly put the fire out. The loss was slight.

Henry Jourgensen was a visitor in Plattsmouth on Monday of this week, where he had some business to look after, and was accompanied by P. H. Miller. They also drove into Omaha, where they looked after some additional business matters.

Messrs. Chris Rasmussen and Roy Haslam, the two assessors of Weeping Water, were over to Plattsmouth last Friday, where they turned in their books, being the first two to complete their work and being done the first and in the shortest time during the past twelve years.

Miss Agnes Rough was called to Omaha to look after some business matters on last Tuesday, looking after the purchase of some spring and summer goods for the millinery store. Miss Mable Dudley was looking after the store during the time Miss Rough was away.

The house formerly occupied by L. C. Stock, which was partially destroyed by fire recently, has been rebuilt and is now ready for occupancy. W. H. Thornton and family will reside in the home in the future. Mr. Stock having accepted a position in Louisville, where he will be employed for several weeks, after which he will go to Chanute, Kansas, to make his home.

The Cole Motor company disposed of a new V-8 Ford tudor sedan Monday, the car going to Henry Brokhoff, who lives on the O street road. It was delivered the same day and John Cole went to Omaha for another car to replace the one sold. This concern, along with others having goods to sell, are finding business conditions considerably improved in the last few weeks and anticipate further improvement as the price of farm produce climbs gradually upward. Well, it can't come any too soon to suit us.

Painting Many Signs
Bill Johnson, who is an artist when it comes to painting signs, has just now completed a number which also are a good advertisement for the city of Weeping Water. The signs that are particularly fine are those of C. Wally Johnson, the Meyers Tailoring and Cleaning establishment and the Kahm bakery. Take a glimpse at them as you pass up and down Main street.

More Than Busy

Theodore Klein, of Nebraska City, a veteran blacksmith who has worked at the trade for well nigh onto fifty years, has been employed by his friend, N. L. Grubbs, as assistant at the blacksmith shop here. Trade has been pretty good with Mr. Grubbs with the coming of spring and as he has not been feeling very well of late he is glad to be able to get some one to assist him with the work.

Celebrated 81st Birthday

Grandmother Mary Jane Metcalf passed her 81st birthday anniversary on Tuesday of this week. She was born in the state of Ohio and has resided in Weeping Water just one year less than a half century. For some time past Mrs. Metcalf has been in poor health and has been required to keep to her bed most of the time because of her weakness. She is helped to an invalid chair by the folks, and rests therein for a spell only to be compelled to return to her cot. She is staying at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Amos Cappen.

FOUR-MILE CLUB MEETS

The Four-Mile Community club met April 25th at the home of Mrs. L. G. Meisinger with seventeen members present and two absent.

The meeting opened by everyone singing "My Nebraska" and "Love's Old Sweet Song."

During the regular business meeting plans were discussed for the guest day to be held May 23 at the home of Mrs. Hugh Stander. Each member is to bring a guest.

Mrs. Wehrlein in behalf of the club, presented the leaders, Mrs. Henry Nolting and Miss Helen Hunter with a very beautiful gift, after which the meeting was turned over to the leaders.

After playing the various games and stunts prepared by the leaders a short time was spent in social conversation.

The members were very pleased to see Mrs. Hunter so well recovered from her serious operation and able to be present.

Mrs. Hunter thanked the club for the lovely potted plant sent her during her stay in the hospital.

At the close of the afternoon delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses Mrs. Nellson, Mrs. Russell Stander and Mrs. Meisinger.

Campus May Queen

Jean Hoch, junior at Northwestern University at Evanston, Ill., has good reason for this charming smile. Not only was she voted the university's most popular co-ed, but was also chosen "Queen of the May" during the campus celebrations. She is pictured after her coronation.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

On Saturday afternoon, May 6th, the 8th year birthday party of Raymond Evers was celebrated by having fifteen present to enjoy the occasion.

The time was spent in various games in which Betty Ann Thomas and Billy Robertson were the winners of prizes. An angel food cake decorated in pink and white rosebuds bearing the name, age and happy birthday, with its glowing candles, made the centerpiece for the table. The favors were motorcycles with sirens to give him a rousing good cheer. Their pictures were taken. He then unwrapped the gifts, receiving a number of lovely presents.

Those present were Billy Robertson, Sanford Short, James Short, Dickie Noble, Jimmy Noble, Lars Larson, Sale, Robert Grassman, Billy Hirz, Katherine Conis, Betty Ann Thomas, Joan Traudt, Richard Beckman of Council Bluffs, a cousin and Raymond Evers, the guest of honor. Also Miss Ault, his teacher. Miss Johns was out of town and unable to attend. After refreshments were served, all departed wishing Raymond many more happy birthdays.

Funeral of Mrs. A. W. Cloidt Held Today

St. John's Catholic Church Filled to Capacity by Friends to Pay Tribute to Departed.

From Wednesday's Daily
The funeral service of Mrs. August W. Cloidt was held this morning at 9:30 at the St. John's Catholic church, the church structure being filled to its capacity by the friends and neighbors to pay their last tributes of love and honor to the memory of this splendid lady.

The requiem high mass was celebrated by the pastor of the church, Father George Agius, giving the last blessings of the church to the departed. The pastor also paid tribute to the life of the departed lady and her earnest and faithful work in the church and in her devotion to her family.

Several special musical numbers were given, John J. Cloidt giving as a solo number, "Face to Face," Mrs. Robert Will a solo, "There Is No Heart Like Thine," and Messers John Cloidt and Frank Bestor a duet, "O Love Divine." The choir sang the beautiful hymn of Cardinal Newman, "Lead Kindly Light."

The body was laid to rest at the Catholic cemetery where the wealth of floral remembrances attested the deep feeling of sorrow that the passing of Mrs. Cloidt has occasioned in the large circle of friends. Father Agius conducted the interment services at the grave.

The pall bearers were selected from the old friends of the family, they being, Jess F. Warga, Fred L. Rea, William H. Woolcott, Frank M. Bestor, Herman Thomas, and Phillip Hirz.

From Tuesday's Daily
Louis Hollenbeck of near Elmwood and Wilson Gilmore, one of the well known residents of Mt. Pleasant precinct, were in the city for a short time today, looking after some matters at the court house.
