UNION ITEMS.

A. W. Propst and family, of Nebraska City were Mother's day guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Leach of Union.

L. F. Kohrell was a visitor in Plattsmouth last Saturday afternoon, where he met and visited with numerous of his old friends.

Mrs. E. E. Leach was a visitor in Plattsmouth last Saturday afternoon, where she was looking after some business matters and visiting friends.

Miss Helen Warden, who is making her home in Lincoln was a visitor on last Sunday at the home of her parents, Hugh Warden and wife.

John Banning and wife, of Alvo, were visiting in Union on last Sunday and were guests at the home of Joe Banning and family, all enjoying the visit very much.

Rue H. Frans and the family, of Syracuse, were guests for the day at the homes of both their mothers, Mrs. Jennie Frans and Mrs. Rose Kendall, enjoying Mother's day.

W. B. Banning is home and busy with the work of spraying the orchard and with the assistance of Frank Anderson, is making good headway with the work.

Miss Margaret Niday, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Niday, was spending the week end with her parents and they all enjoyed a most pleasant Mother's Day visit together.

Miss Lida Reynolds, of Omaha, was a visitor in Union with her mother, Mrs. Ida Reynolds, for Mother's Day, both the mother and her daughter enjoying the day most pleasantly.

Mrs. Mary Havenridge, of Omaha, was a visitor in Union on last Sunday, coming to enjoy Mother's Day at the home of the parents, and where all enjoyed the occasion very pleasantly.

Jesse Pell, wife and two daughters, of Omaha, were visiting for over the week end and for Mother's day at the home of their son, Loy Pell, driving down for the occasion and enjoying the visit very much.

Charles L. Greene and family were guests on last Sunday, Mother's Day, at the home of the mother of Mrs. Greene, Mrs. M. E. Duff, of Cedar Creek, they driving over to that village in their auto.

James Fitzpatrick has been painting the home during the past few days and while making it look better, is also preserving the home, and with each coat of good paint is making the insurance the better.

Mrs. J. R. Pierson, of Auburn, was a visitor at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary B. Allison for Sunday—Mother's day—and remained for a number of days during the week. They enjoyed a very fine visit.

Miss Elizabeth Rankin, one of the teachers in the Union schools, whose home is in Tarkio, Mo., was joined here last Sunday by her parents and family, and they all went to Lincoln to spend Mother's Day with relatives and friends.

Mrs. P. K. Moore, mother of W. E. Moore, and Everett Towle, of Lushton, were here for an over Sunday visit at the home of W. E. Moore and family, where all enjoyed the day very pleasantly. The two visiting ladies are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stauffer and Mr. and Mrs. Vance Weidie and the children of Omaha, were guests for the day at the home of Mont Robb and daughter, Miss Augusta, last Sunday, driving down from their home in the metropolis.

J. W. Woodard, who suffered a stroke of paralysis some time since, still remains quite poorly and while everything possible is being done for his welfare, he is not showing the improvement which his many friends had hoped he would.

Hallas Banning was a visitor in Omaha on last Monday, looking after some business and as well making arrangements for his going to that city on the coming Monday to take up his work as bookkeeper with an insurance company.

Miss Mildred Withrow, 16 this week, and her sister, Miss Sylvia, 14 last week, took advantage of the Sunday between their birthdays and had a delightful dinner at which they had Grandfather and Grandmother H. A. Chilcott as their guests, and the remainder of the family.

Fulton Harris, the new bookkeeper at the Bank of Union, is getting used to the work and by the way did you see the platbook of Cass county which Fulton has just published. It not, get a glimpse of it, for it is sure a fine piece of work for all who desire to know Cass county; then know Nebraska and then the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. John Chandler, of Omaha, were rejoicing over the advent of the arrival at their home on last Sunday of a very fine son weighing eight pounds and who with the mother are doing very nicely at this time. Miss Eula Garrens has been at the Chandler home in Omaha assisting with the work during the reception of the young son of the Chandlers.

Methodist Church Services The Methodist church of Union extends a cordial invitation to all who are not worshipping elsewhere to come and worship with us; also to join us in the study of the Bible school lesson, each Sunday morning at 10:00 o'clock. Preaching services each alternate Sunday at 11, and the other Sunday at Wyoming. The Epworth League meets at 7:30 Sunday evening, this service also being open to all who wish to come.

REV. M. B. KUNKEL, Pastor.

Memorial Day at Wyoming In line with a practice that has extended over a number of years, Memorial services will be held at the Methodist church at Wyoming on the Sunday before Memorial day, which will be May 28th. It is not known as yet who will deliver the Memorial sermon, as Rev. Kunkel will have to deliver the discourse at the Union church on that day.

Woman's Home Mission The Woman's Home Missionary society will hold its meeting at the home of Mrs. Mary B. Allison today (Thursday). Mrs. J. D. Cross, president of the organization, will also lead the meeting and a very fine program is anticipated.

Entertained Their Friends Charles Swan and wife entertained at their home on the highway last Saturday night, when a large number of the many friends of this popular couple were there and enjoyed the splendid evening which this couple had provided for them. Cards were played, with pinocle for the most popular. Music and other games were also provided and a very delightful lunch was served before the guests departed for their homes.

Enjoyed Picnic Sunday On last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Arn and family, of Plattsmouth, came to Union, where they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Anderson and with them the family of Con Watkins, all went to the home of Herman C. Ross, and under the shade of the trees enjoyed the day and held their picnic dinner, which proved to be a most pleasant affair.

Mother's Day at M. E. Church The observance of Mother's Day at the Methodist church was fully carried out at the Bible school hour, when Mrs. Louis Mougay sang a special solo dedicated to mothers and the sermon at the morning services was also devoted to the theme of "Mother." A large number were present at the services and enjoyed the able discourse by the pastor.

Finding of Appraisers In the matter of the controversy between the State of Nebraska and E. E. Leach regarding the sum due him as damages for the grading of the road past his place, it was found necessary to have appraisers appointed. The state, through one of its officers, had made an offer of $50 for the same, but this was not even considered by Mr. Leach, who made arrangements to secure a restraining order, thus precipitating a hearing in county court. A committee was appointed to view the property and determine the proper amount of damages due Mr. Leach. This committee set the amount of damages at $750, adding $50 more for the replacing of a fence which had been torn down, and $50 for the land which was used in grading up the road. Mr. Leach was reticent to discuss the situation following announcement of the award saying he was waiting for the decision of the state, and upon that alone would depend what the next move will be.

The work of grading has progressed rapidly and soon the paving crew will be on hand to lay the new paving, as work is progressing rapidly on the west end.

Review Year's Work The Nehawka Dramatic club met on last Friday, where they all enjoyed a very unique program, comprising a review of the work done during the past year and which was enjoyed by the entire crowd, which was unusually large. Mrs. Wilson, of California, a sister of Mrs. J. J. Pollard, at whose home she is spending the summer, was present, as were also two other visitors, they being Mesdames Marion Tucker and Nelson Berger.

Many Take Examinations In the state wide test which is offered to any member of the Senior class of a Nebraska high school, with one hundred scholarships being put out to those leading in percentage, there has been a large number of entries this year. Many of the Seniors of the Nehawka high school went to Lincoln last Friday and Saturday to take the examinations.

Spent Enjoyable Day Earl Troop and wife, of Seward, who have been visiting for several days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Troop, were visiting in Plattsmouth Monday, prior to returning to their home the following day. They came over the latter part of last week to remain over Mother's Day and on Sunday the family, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Troop, Lois and Tommy, Mr. and Mrs. George Troop, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wehrbein, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Troop and their daughter went to King Hill, where they enjoyed a picnic dinner on the highest point along the river between Omaha and Kansas City.

Enjoyed Mother's Day Albert Anderson and family and Verle Steffens were over to the home of Frank Horstmann, where they enjoyed the day Sunday and a very fine dinner that was served as well as the visit together. Mr. and Mrs. C. Steffens, of Lorton, parents of Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Horstmann, were present and they all enjoyed a very fine time. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Steffens were not present, as Mrs. Steffens was not able to go, on account of her delicate health and Mr. Steffens preferred to remain at home with his wife. Mrs. Steffens is making good progress, however, and will be able to get around again as of yore in a short time.

Services at M. E. Church The Mother's Day services at the Methodist church on last Sunday being conducted by the pastor, the Rev. E. S. Pangborn, were greatly enjoyed by all who attended. The Boy Scouts were a feature in the services, as they assisted in singing as well as with other details of the service. It was expected that there would be twenty-four of the Scouts, but when they all got there there were twenty-eight—certainly a very good showing by these young lads who will be the men of tomorrow. Laverne Steffens played the cornet and was accompanied on the piano by his sister, Maxine.

Nehawka's New Officers The new village board was organized at a meeting held last week with the selection of J. H. Steffens as chairman and mayor; J. J. Pollard as clerk and C. D. Adams treasurer. No street commissioner was named. The board of health will be composed of J. H. Steffens, Dr. Henry W. Walters and Glen Rutledge. Stewart Rough is the other member of the village board.

Roy Gregg had the misfortune to lose a very fine cow by clover bloat during the past week.

George Coates, of Leavenworth, was a visitor in Nehawka for a short time on last Sunday, being a guest of a very close friend.

Miss Helen Greer, of Omaha, and formerly of Nehawka, was a visitor in town with her friend, Miss Gladys Wolfe, for over the week end.

C. R. Troop was looking after some business matters in Colorado during the past week and reports much rain there, in fact so much that it is hindering the farm work.

John Knabe and wife, of Lincoln, were guests at the home of their son, Harry Knabe and wife, and all went to King Hill in the afternoon Sunday, where they enjoyed a picnic at that historic place.

N. R. Opp, Missouri Pacific agent at Union, accompanied by the family, were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of his mother, Mrs. Nicholas Opp and son, Earl, where they all enjoyed Mother's day last Sunday.

Mesdames Anderson Lloyd and Will Wehrbein were visitors in Auburn, where they went to have an examination given Mrs. Lloyd's eyes, which have been troubling this lady for a considerable length of time, as well as to have her eyes fitted for glasses.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mucker, who make their home at Casper, Wyoming, are at this time staying at Weeping Water, where they are caring for a small fruit farm during the summer and staying with Mrs. Mucker's mother, Mrs. Ada Young.

Miss Mildred Burton, who had the misfortune to slip and fall, breaking her arm, while she was going along the street, had the arm set by Dr. Walters, and the young lady is now getting along nicely, although suffering somewhat from the injury.

John Edminston, father of Mrs. Gilbert Edmonds, is visiting for a few days at the home of the daughter. He came on last Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. Edmons returned from spending the day with their children who are attending school at Lincoln.

Mrs. John O. Yelzer, of Omaha, accompanied by her two sons, Jack and Andy, came down last Saturday, remaining until Tuesday afternoon at the home of Grandfather and Grandmother A. F. Sturm, thus enjoying Mother's day with the parents and grandparents.

Mrs. Marie Mason, formerly with the Yant Construction company as cook, has accepted a position with the Wolfe cafe in a similar capacity, and has been looking after that work, which has been very heavy during the intensive work of the quarries and paving job here.

The Nehawka tennis team went to Lincoln the latter part of last week, where they contested with the representatives of several of the larger towns, among them Lincoln and Omaha. They were coached by Mr. Stimbort and made an excellent showing in the contest. For a small town, Nehawka has a group of very fine tennis players.

Frank Rhoden, of Omaha, who for many years resided near Nehawka, but has been in the south for the past few years, where he is interested in the oil business, returning to Omaha a few months since, was a visitor in Nehawka last Monday and was looking after some business matters, as well as visiting with his many friends here.

John Opp, who has had quite a time keeping the boys and some of the older ones about town from rubbing the temporary signs off his windows, has devised a new scheme that works fine. First he paints the sign on the outside of the window as usual, and then goes inside and traces the signs on the inside, afterward rubbing off the outside signs himself and spoiling the fun (?) of a few who take delight in doing such stunts.

Review Year's Work The Nehawka Dramatic club met on last Friday, where they all enjoyed a very unique program, comprising a review of the work done during the past year and which was enjoyed by the entire crowd, which was unusually large.
