D. 1933, at 10 o'clock a. m. of said day at the south front door of the court house, in Plattsmouth, in said county, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash the following real estate, to-wit:

All that part of Lot nine (9) in the northeast quarter (NE 1/4) of the southeast quarter (SE 1/4) of Section twenty-three (23) lying south (S) and east (E) of the railroad right of way; also the south one half (S 1/2) of the northwest quarter (NW 1/4) and the north one half (N 1/2) of the southwest quarter (SW 1/4), except the east one-half (E 1/2) of the east one-half (E 1/2) of the southeast quarter (SE 1/4) of the northeast quarter (NE 1/4) of the southwest quarter (SW 1/4), and all Lot six (6) in the southwest quarter (SW 1/4) of the northwest quarter (NW 1/4) of the northeast quarter (NE 1/4), and the west three-fourths (W 3/4) of the north one-half (N 1/2) of the northwest quarter (NW 1/4) of the southeast quarter (SE 1/4) of Section twenty-four (24), all in Township twelve (12), North, Range thirteen (13), East of the 6th P. M., containing 215 acres more or less according to the Government survey; also Lots sixteen (16), thirty-one (31), thirty-two (32), thirty-three (33), thirty-four (34), thirty-five (35) and thirty-six (36) in the northwest quarter (NW 1/4) of the northeast quarter (NE 1/4) of Section twenty-four (24), Township twelve (12), North, Range thirteen (13), East of the 6th P. M., all in Cass county, Nebraska, subject to all mortgages and liens now on record.

The same being levied upon and taken as the property of B. F. Wiles, Defendant, to satisfy a judgment of said Court recovered by Plattsmouth State Bank, Plaintiff against said Defendant.

Plattsmouth, Nebraska, May 8th, A. D. 1933. H. SYLVESTER, Sheriff Cass County, Nebraska. mS-5w

The strictest dramatic censorship ever known was enforced in Vienna during the early part of the nineteenth century. One of its most ridiculous restrictions prevented stage lovers from appearing in a scene unless they were accompanied by a chaperon.

Nehawka

Stewart Rough and wife were in Plattsmouth last Sunday on business. They later drove to Nebraska City.

Miller Christensen and wife were over to Weeping Water last week, where they were attending the funeral of the late Irving Nelson.

R. D. Taylor and Frank Trotter delivered three truck loads of cattle for Louis Ross and one for Eugene Nutzman, on last Sunday night.

Herman Wohlfarth, of Murray, the road overseer, has been rebuilding a bridge near the home of Frank Marler and now has the road in very good condition.

Mrs. Fred Drucker and daughter, Dorothy, of Murray, were attending the Baccalaureate sermon at the Nehawka auditorium on last Sunday night, they driving down for the occasion.

Clinton Parks, who formerly resided here and was employed on various farms, but who has been away for a number of years, returned last Sunday and were visiting with their friends here for a short time.

William and Chester Waldo, who have been employed with the Ole Olsen stone quarry, have resigned their positions and left for Louisville where they have accepted positions at better pay and will work in the future. Their families will remain here for the present, however.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Troop, of Omaha, who had been visiting at the home of the parents of Mrs. Troop, Mr. and Mrs. George Bray, of Syria, stopped on their way to Omaha and visited for a time on last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Troop, parents of Robert Troop.

Victor Wehrlein, who is feeding a large number of cattle, had corn which he purchased some time ago when the price was down and stored it on the farm until needed, and this week had the same shelled and delivered to his feed yards. Frank Mrasek and his fleet of trucks had charge of making delivery of the grain.

Marvin Countryman, of Paxton, is visiting with friends here and enjoying a vacation from his years of study in the Paxton high school. Mr. Countryman was a member of the same class as the Japanese student, Ichio Matsutsumi, who has been very successful in the raising of fine pigs, calves and other farm animals and has received considerable publicity in the state press.

E. J. Kruger was a visitor at Syracuse at the home of his son, Edward, the second, and where he found the good wife quite ill with a severe attack of appendicitis. While there, he acted as caretaker for Edward the third, they being inseparable companions, over Saturday and Sunday, and when it came time for Mr. Kruger to leave, the young lad, who is only two years old, registered violent objections to the departure of the grandfather.

Mrs. Steffens Improving Mrs. J. H. Steffens, who returned from the hospital at Rochester, Minn., some weeks since, is showing very good improvement during the past several days. She has been enjoying sun baths of long periods each day, which are very materially assisting her in the return to health.

Using Nehawka Stone The paving on O street was held up for a short time on account of an inferior quality of stone offered by the firm which had the contract for furnishing the stone and a number of car loads had to be rejected, thus tying up the work for a while. Ole Olsen, who operates a quarry here, was called upon to furnish stone for this work and has been supplying what crushed stone he could, along with his work of supplying stone for rip-rap work to the government, and this has kept the local quarry operating at capacity production. The stone here is considered very good for all kinds of work and is much in demand.

Little Patient Much Better Little Miss Caroline Rood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Rood and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nels Anderson, who has been at the University hospital for several weeks, is showing good improvement and although she is making good progress, she gets very lonely at the institution. Grandmother Mrs. Nels Anderson was over on last Monday to visit the little granddaughter.

Will Teach Again Miss Marie Lutz, who has just completed a very successful school year at the Pleasant Hill school, which she closed with a very fine program and an enjoyable picnic for the scholars and patrons, has been re-elected for another year.

Delivers Baccalaureate Sermon Rev. E. S. Pangborn, pastor of the Methodist churches here and at Weeping Water, delivered the Baccalaureate sermon last Sunday night at the Nehawka auditorium to a large and greatly interested congregation, including the members of the graduating class, who had places reserved for them near the front. Everyone was greatly pleased at the excellent address which was rendered by Rev. Pangborn.

Nehawka Schools Close. This week witnessed the closing of the school year in the Nehawka schools and it has been a very successful year for this institution of learning. The Nehawka schools have ever maintained a high standard of learning and are ranked as among the best in the state, much higher than many in larger towns.

Taken Suddenly Sick Miss Margaret Ruth Pollard, age 12, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hall Pollard and student in the Nehawka schools, was taken suddenly ill last Thursday and was hurried home from school. As she did not show improvement a few hours later, the family physician advised taking her to the hospital, as she was found to be suffering from an acute attack of appendicitis. She was accordingly taken to the hospital, where an operation was performed and the patient is now resting much easier and on the road to recovery.

Enjoyed Picnic Sunday Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Adams and their son were responsible for a picnic which was held at Morton state park at Nebraska City on last Sunday. The occasion was made the more enjoyable by the presence of the family of Albert Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chapman. The picnickers took their supper and remained for the evening, enjoying the supper in the park.

Rev. Pangborn Takes Vacation The Rev. E. S. Pangborn of the Methodist church of Weeping Water and Nehawka, who delivered the Baccalaureate sermon last Sunday evening, notified the congregation here that he has arranged for another minister to conduct the services, as he and Mrs. Pangborn are spending some two weeks at their old home in Kansas, where he will deliver a sermon this coming Sunday. They have not resided in that part of the country for the past twenty years and will surely enjoy their visit there.

Wins First Prize Mrs. Louis E. August, of near Nehawka, was the winner of the first prize at the Lincoln exhibition of quilts which was held by Sears, Roebuck & Co., at their Lincoln store, and she is one of the three who are having their quilts on exhibition at the Kansas City exhibit of that firm. In the quilt which Mrs. August made there were some 13,000 blocks, and it was of the very finest quilting.

Are Holding Revival The Rev. Sylvester Sanford, a revivalist and evangelist of the United Brethren church, with the co-operation of the Rev. Otto Englebretson, on last Monday began a series of meetings which have for their purpose the bringing in of prospective new members for the church, not alone of the United Brethren faith, but that of any denomination with which the people may desire to affiliate.

Surprise Their Teacher The Sophomore class of the Nehawka school on last Friday, surprised their teachers, Mr. and Mrs. Daehr, who are leaving for their home in Iowa, and will not return the coming year. A very pleasant time was had and the occasion enjoyed by the scholars as well as their teachers who are carrying pleasant memories as they depart from Nehawka.
