

Says Business Trend is Decidedly Upward

Employment, Wages, Production and Sales All Show Gains According to Survey.

New York, July 4.—American business has taken a decided upward trend, the New York Board of Trade reported today on the basis of a survey of conditions in one hundred representative cities.

Increases in employment, pay rolls, industrial production, wholesale and retail sales, postal receipts, bank clearances, gas consumption and telephones justify the conclusion, the board said.

"The conclusion is inescapable that the depression is over and that we are well on the road to recovery," said Percy C. Magnus, president of the board.

Sees Stabilized Prosperity. "Business is in the convalescence stage," he continued. "There may be some setbacks. If we have them, we believe they will not be serious. We are probably well on the way to one of the greatest periods of stabilized prosperity in the whole business history of the country."

Chambers of commerce, boards of trade and similar business organizations co-operated in completing the survey.

Reports of increased car loadings and material improvement for railroads and other forms of transportation were received. Several cities cited reopening of railroad shops and the return of large numbers of employees to their jobs of replacing railroad equipment.

"Colossal Changes." Magnus said economic changes during the months of March, April, May and June were "of colossal proportions."

"This is all the more remarkable," he said, "because it was not accompanied by the blare of drums nor the martial music that unifies a country during a war emergency. To have accomplished what was done in these four months is the greatest tribute to the clear thinking and forceful determination of the American people."

IOWA TOMLINSON TRIBE 12TH REUNION, SUNDAY, AUG. 19TH

The annual call for the Tomlinson Tribe has been issued by the president, Miss Margaret Tomlinson, 2708 West Grand Ave., Des Moines, Iowa, for the second Sunday in August, at the Tourist Camp, in Iowa City. Usual basket dinner under cover. All highways lead into Iowa City. Brief musical program. Speeches by prominent Tribal members and a speaker of prominence. Plenty of time for visiting.

All descendants of this Old Quaker stock are urged to be present and make new friends and renew old acquaintances, and meet the Tomlinsons of the world.

A tour of the State University has been arranged for those who come Saturday by Paul C. Tomlinson, host, of Iowa City. Notably distant relatives to get stop over at Iowa City when visiting World's Fair at this time.

Iowa Woman Chosen as W. C. T. U. Leader

Mrs. Ida B. Wise Smith, Des Moines, Long Associated With Fight Against Liquor.

Milwaukee.—Mrs. Ida B. Wise Smith of Des Moines, Ia., a preacher, educator and militant foe of liquor, was elected president of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union at the fifty-fifth annual convention here.

Mrs. Smith is known as one of the radicals in the W. C. T. U. In the days of the saloon in Iowa the national retail liquor dealers once met in an Iowa city. Mrs. Smith published a "welcome" to the convention in a local paper which resulted in the association determining never again to meet in that state.

"Iowa's most distinguished woman," as the governor of that state termed her in 1928, was born in Philadelphia. She moved to Iowa and graduated from the Hamburg high school. Her first husband, James A. Wise, died in 1902.

Our Funeral Home

IN planning our funeral home, we desired to provide a place where the funeral service, and the necessary preliminaries to it, may be conducted with the greatest efficiency and comfort in the quiet, dignified atmosphere of a home.

WE believe that we have achieved this. The use of our mortuary is available to all our patrons, though we, of course, are willing to conduct the services from the church or residence when so desired.

LIGHTNING HITS FARMER

Wymore, Neb.—Three mules out of four were instantly killed, a harvesting machine badly damaged and Lawrence Schmidt, operating the machine, was knocked unconscious by lightning which struck the rig in Schmidt's heat field Wednesday. He regained consciousness in about half an hour and was helped to his home. His face and most of his body is blackened, and he appears to have a paralyzed leg, but it is thought he will recover.

Missourians to Express Repeal Views by Fall

Attorney General McKittrick and Governor Park Trying to Meet Provisions of Law.

Jefferson City, June 30.—Missourians are assured of a chance to voice their sentiments some time this summer on prohibition; the "drys" admit the chances for rejection of the repeal amendment are slim; the "wets" say they will carry the state by a 3 to 1 majority.

Be that as it may, Governor Park and Roy McKittrick, attorney general, as well as others interested in the machinery by which Missouri will act, differ as regards the proper manner in which to conform to the provisions of the Weeks bill.

In the opinion of the attorney general it would be safer, from a legal standpoint, to hold the state-wide repeal election within the six months limit, than to defer it to a later date as proposed by Governor Park.

"While the act might be construed by the courts to require only that the governor's proclamation be issued within six months after submission, and that the election itself does not have to be held within that period, nevertheless, because of the uncertainty, and to avoid legal complications and delay, I think it would be better to hold the election within the six months' period. Then there can be no question about it," McKittrick said today.

Governor Park, in deciding to call the election for some time late in September, adopted the view the six months' limitation applied only to issuance of the proclamation, and not to the date of the election. He expressed the view it would not be possible to carry out all the preliminary steps, including a series of precinct, county and district mass meetings to nominate delegates to the convention within six months after submission.

"I am not apprehensive of any legal complications over the course adopted," Governor Park said today. We agreed in our conference, and I am convinced now the intention of the act is that the limitation applies only to issuance of the proclamation. I think the course adopted is a safe one."

ANNOUNCES ENGAGEMENT

On Thursday evening of June 29, Mrs. J. L. Young of Murray entertained sixteen at bridge in honor of her daughter Marian Glendora, whose approaching marriage to H. C. Humann of Barneston was announced at the party. The decorations were carried out in colors of peach and white with bouquets of Ophelia teas and baby breath prominent. The announcement was found on a tiny scroll hidden in the individual roses of the guests.

The guests were Mesdames A. D. Bakke, Chas. Boedeker II, Ernest Kennedy and Misses Jane Boedeker, Loa and Marie Davis and Mildred and Marian Young of Murray; also Mesdames J. A. Humann, E. D. Humann and Misses Neva Lewis, Audrey Carl of Lincoln, and Mrs. Neal Munkers of Casper, Wyoming. Mrs. J. A. Humann and Audrey Carl won first and second prize respectively.

Miss Young is to be married at the Murray Presbyterian church on July 25.

State School Funds Show a Big Decrease

Total for the Year is $822,619, or $229,251 Less Than in 1930.

State Treasurer Hall has certified, to State Superintendent Taylor that on July 1 there was in the state treasury $424,910.71 in the state temporary school fund for semi-annual apportionment to support of public schools.

Superintendent Taylor who makes the apportionment of this money to counties on a basis of one-fourth of the total equally divided between districts and three-fourths on a basis of district school population said he had not yet decided whether to comply with the claims appropriation bill passed by the last legislature which provides that $9,906.60 of the apportionment money shall be deducted and paid to school districts in Lancaster, Dawes, Sarpy and Douglas counties to pay tuition of children of soldiers or sailors in the regular army.

Under an act of the legislature the state superintendent is also authorized to pass upon these claims for tuition and to approve them. Taylor said he had not decided what to do about the claims and may not until Douglas county claims are acted upon within the county.

Attorney General Good has given an opinion holding the payment of the tuition claims of soldier parents to be valid. State Auditor Price has announced that he will not issue warrants for their payment upon the temporary school fund as the present law, now changed, provides how this money shall be apportioned to schools.

Treasurer Hall's certificate shows the temporary school fund now on hand was derived from the following sources:

Table with financial sources: Interest on bonds $207,103.46, Warehouse licenses 17.00, Insurance licenses 39,356.50, Employment agency licenses 450.00, Liquor licenses 990.00, School land interest 32,938.60, School land lease 144,055.15. Total $424,910.71.

This semiannual appointment, with the one of $397,709.23 in January, makes a total of $822,619.94 for the year. This is a decrease of $229,251.32 compared with the amount apportioned in the year 1930, $90,667.65 compared with 1931 and $84,341.57 less than the total in 1932.

The interest received by the state in July, 1933, on school land leases was $144,055, compared with $150,589 in July, 1932 and $203,391 in July, 1931. In July, 1930, interest on school land leases was $205.
