UNION ITEMS.

Business called Rev. W. A. Taylor and Louis Burbee to Omaha on last Friday, they making the trip in the car of Rev. Taylor.

W. H. Mark was a visitor in Plattsmouth on last Saturday, where he was called to look after some business matters for a short time.

T. M. Patterson, of Plattsmouth, was a visitor in Union on last Monday, looking after some business matters in the insurance line.

George Stites, the grain man, was called to Omaha on last Monday to look after some business matters and made the trip in his auto.

Robert D. Taylor was delivering cattle for Chris Petersen, who resides south of Union, to the stock yards at South Omaha on last Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Nancy McNamee has been quite poorly for the past week, and although everything possible is being done for the patient, she is still very low.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lidgett and Mrs. Daniel Lynn were in Lincoln on last Friday, driving over to the capital city to look after some business matters for the day.

Henry H. Becker was a visitor in Lincoln on last Friday, taking a truck load of very fine apples to that place from the orchard of W. B. Banning, and which brought excellent prices.

Mrs. J. D. Cross and the Misses Ora Clarke and Daisy Meade were in Lincoln last Friday, where they were visiting with friends as well as looking after some business matters for a short time.

Raymond Brandt, son of Joseph Brandt, of west of town, departed last week for San Diego, where he will join the forces of Uncle Sam, as a member of the United States navy. He enlisted at the recruiting station in Omaha last week.

Attorney D. O. Dwyer, of Plattsmouth, was a business visitor in Union on Monday, driving down in his car. Attorney Dwyer has been at the Mayo Bros. hospital in Rochester for the past more than a month, returning home last week.

Charles Hansen was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth on last Saturday and again on Tuesday he was in town purchasing oats which were scorched by the fire when the elevator caught afire recently. He is feeding them to his hogs.

Charles Atteberry was over to Nehawka on last Tuesday, where he was making some repairs on one of the county tractors and getting it in fit condition for the gruelling work the heavy gang are compelled to give the tractors and other machinery used in this type of road construction.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCruch, of Sidney, Nebr., stopped in Union for a brief visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Rihn, while en route to Chicago to attend the Century of Progress exposition. They expect to spend some ten days in Chicago and on their way home will stop at Hal-lard, Ill., where they will pick up Miss Katherine Rihn, who is to be one of the teachers in the schools at Sidney this year.

Uncle John H. Kunkel, of Oregon, Mo., father of the Rev. B. N. Kunkel, of the Methodist church, of Union, is here visiting for a time with his son and family. The elder Kunkel and Uncle Simeon Upton were pals together when they were young and attended the same school, and they enjoyed many a happy day together nearly three quarters of a century ago. Mr. Kunkel will pass his 87th birthday this coming Saturday and still is enjoying good health and strength.

Many Attend Rodeo

There were many of the people of Union attending the rodeo which was held last week at Sidney, Iowa, and where they enjoyed the spectacle of bucking horses and other features of this great out-of-doors meet.

School Children Judge Mothers

Refuse to Eat Inferior Foods and Place Blame on Poor Baking

A Nebraska Mother has found that most children are expert judges of good cooking. All winter this mother baked bread which did not satisfy, and her children refused to eat it.

In her own words: "All last winter I baked bread, but it just wasn't good. I changed flour three times and got no better results. Finally I changed yeast, and still my bread showed no improvement. I got very blue, as I have five children who must carry their lunch to school every day, and we couldn't afford to buy the bread. But the children refused to eat what I baked."

"Then a friend told me to try VICTOR FLOUR. The dealer said if I wasn't satisfied with one trial to bring it back. I was more than satisfied. It was the most wonderful bread I have ever baked and so fine the children wouldn't believe I had baked it until they saw me take more from the oven. I'm certainly glad to have found VICTOR FLOUR."

Your children, too, may enjoy the best bread by baking with Victor Flour, milled by The Crete Mills, Crete, Nebraska. All Better Grocers in Plattsmouth carry VICTOR.

GIVEN SURPRISE SHOWER

Miss Helen Davis of Nebraska City, was hostess Monday afternoon to a group of friends in compliment to Miss Kathleen Troop of this city.

The event was in the nature of a surprise copper shower and in which the guest of honor received a large number of beautiful and attractive gifts.

The time was spent in bridge and in which Miss Marion von Gillern was the winner of high score while Miss Troop was presented a guest prize.

The appointments of the bridge were in green and yellow, carried out in the green and yellow candles and yellow tea roses.

The out of town guests were Mrs. Eugene Burdic, Omaha, Mrs. Arthur Troop, Misses Ruth and Jean Tidball, Miss Helene Perry and Miss Troop, of Plattsmouth.

HAVE WEINER ROAST

A very pleasant weiner roast was given by the Standard Bearers Tuesday evening, with their leader, Mrs. Frank Barkus, at her home.

The weather made the final decision, so the weiners and marshmallows were roasted in the kitchen where each girl served up her own supper and carried it to the dining room. There all finally gathered for the merry meal.

All enjoyed the company of Miss Lella Barkus of San Bernardino, California.

After supper, the meeting was held in the living room where at first a number of their favorite hymns were sung, Miss Louise Rishel accompanying at the piano. The girls then completed the chart of their plans for the year, having fully carried out the outline prescribed by the National Women's Foreign Mission Society.

Devotions were given by Miss Frances Lilly, and a short play was carried out by several of the members.

Adjournment was then made, for the enjoying of a brief social time.
